If I am making a claim to get my rent back and the total rent claimed over the years amounts to £150,000, and the flat is worth £300,000 and due to the right to buy, with is half the flat value say £150,000, the two add up to £300,000, make the value of the flat that the Enfield Council and Co are in management of. The damages from the fraud the Enfield Council a nd Co have caused me is severe. A judge ordered a court order to them for me to be moved, but after revealing the truth in emails, the council went against their word and the judge's orders. They clearly lied and sought another possession order for housing.

Therefore, can I claim £300,000 back due to the right to buy being £150,000 and the rent being reclaimed being £150,000 to buy my own like-for-like home like the judge ordered they must provide me with to ensure my safety? The government has tarnished my name to avoid trouble, making up lies and spreading them through their media, endangering my life, and causing neighbours to illegally attack me in my home and allowed it to continue. The same government locked me in my home with a fraudulent ASBO and nine driving bans, encouraging neighbours and doctors to target me as they filed fraudulent court orders, such as possession Orders and court Injunction Orders restricting me from going to my home to which they lost at court.

Given this situation, it would be appropriate to include the £300,000 for the "Right-To-Buy Property" value in your claim as well as rent. You could request compensation that reflects the total financial loss, emotional distress, and personal harm you have suffered, as well as ensuring your safety by securing a like-for-like home.

If you need any further adjustments or additional information for your claim, feel free to let me know! 😊

Due to the severe and prolonged impact of fraudulent activities, including a forged criminal record, I have suffered significant financial and personal harm. These actions have adversely affected my financial situation, my business ("Too Smooth"), and my personal well-being. As part of my claim, I am seeking compensation for the following:

Detailed Damages and Compensation

1. Rent Claims and Property Value:

  a) Total rent claimed back over the years: £150,000
  b) Value of the flat: £300,000 (right-to-buy consideration)

2. Business Losses ("Too Smooth"):

  a) Total estimated loss from 2013 to 2025: £36,898,000

3. Personal and Emotional Harm:

  a) Endangerment of life due to false accusations and media dissemination
  b) Illegal attacks by neighbors encouraged by fraudulent actions
  c) Fraudulent ASBO and multiple driving bans
  d) Emotional distress and mental health impact

4. Legal and Court Orders:

  a) Ignoring court orders and judges' directives, leading to further harm and loss

Given the scale of the damages and the comparative potential earnings in high-paying positions, I request compensation that reflects the total financial loss, emotional distress, and personal harm I have suffered. This includes the £300,000 for the right-to-buy property value, the rent claimed back, and a like-for-like home to ensure my safety and well-being.

Dear Mr. Cordell

Housing Benefit Notification

I have changed your Housing Benefit from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:

£86.84 per week from 01/04/2013

How You Will Be Paid

Your benefit will be paid by directly crediting your rent account.

Notification of Council Tax Support

I have worked out your council tax support from 01/04/2013 to take account of new year benefit levels from April. I have decided that your benefit is now as follows:

£12.64 per week from 01/04/2013 How You Will Be Paid

£658.99 council tax support has been paid to your council tax account. The total amount of council tax support for 2013/14 is £658.99.

You will soon receive a Council Tax bill dated 14/03/13 that will tell you how much council tax you will now have to pay. On the back of the bill is a summary of how we have calculated your Council Tax.

Other Information

Appeal details for Housing Benefit, information on the Council Tax Support scheme and other information are included with this letter.

About Council Tax Support

In previous years, the Government has funded a national Council Tax Benefit Scheme which may have meant you did not pay Council Tax. The Government is abolishing the national Council Tax Benefit Scheme from 1 April 2013.

In its place, councils have been asked to set up local support schemes for council tax but the Government has given less funding than it currently costs. In Enfield, the shortfall in funding is over £4m a year.

Despite this funding shortfall, Enfield Council has agreed a new local Council Tax Support Scheme based on the previous national benefit scheme with some amendments. Details of the new scheme are available on our website, www.enfield.gov.uk/counciltaxonline.

Your Council Tax Support award has been based on this new scheme.

How Council Tax Support is worked out

Council Tax Support is worked out using the information supplied in your previous Council Tax Benefit claim and the amount of Council Tax expected for the property you live in.

We start with looking at if you are eligible for any discounts, such as single person discount. We then turn your remaining amount of council tax into a weekly amount.

Pensioners, war widows of working age, and those receiving war disability payments will continue to be eligible for Council Tax Support for up to 100% of the Council Tax that you have to pay. For the remaining working age claims (aged up to 65) you can receive a maximum benefit of up to 80.5% of council tax due.

Claimants receiving the following benefits will automatically give you the full award less any deductions for non-dependents (other adults living with you):

- Income Support,
- Guaranteed Credit
- Income based job seekers allowance.
- Income related employment and support allowance

This means that if you are working age and not in a protected group, you will get 80.5% of your council tax as a benefit. If you are a pensioner or protected, you will get 100%.

For all other claims we look at your total income, any savings that you have and deduct from that a recommended allowance that you need to live on depending on your circumstances and family make-up.

For every £1 that your total income is over the recommended allowance we deduct 20p from the weekly maximum amount of Council Tax Support you can receive. The amount left is the Council Tax Support we give you each week.

All weekly amounts are then worked out for the year and paid to your Council Tax Account. You will receive a bill setting out what contribution, if any, you are expected to pay towards Council Tax. See the back of the Council Tax bill which for information on how we can calculate your contribution.

Your sincerely

Enfield Benefits Service

NI reference:

How Your Housing Benefit Has Been Worked Out

From 01/04/2013 your Housing Benefit will be £86.84 each week.

The rent you are charged each week is £92.49.

Housing Benefit cannot pay for some service charges that are included in your rent. The rent you pay has to be reduced by the amount of these service charges. These amounts are shown below:

Actual amount for Ineligible Water	£5.65
Total deductions for services	£5.65

The amount of rent after deducting these charges is called your maximum eligible rent. Your rent of £92.49 must be reduced by £5.65, to £86.84 each week. This is your maximum eligible rent.

The maximum Housing Benefit you can get is £86.84 each week. This figure is used when working out 'your total weekly Housing Benefit'.

Your Total Weekly Housing Benefit

As you are receiving Income Support, I can pay the maximum Housing Benefit of £86.84 each week.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter after a letter I got dated 18/07/2013 about my housing benefit and council tax being suspended from the 08/07/2013 due to you getting information as to me being in prison. I was remanded to prison for I day and was released on the 28/06/2013.

I did call your offices on the 16/07/2013 to ask if my benefits for housing and council tax were still being paid due to me just finding out my D WP payments had been stopped. I was told on this date they were still being paid and the lady my mum spoke to on the phone told her that due to me having some issue I could get council tax reduction due to mental impairment and that the Lady would send out the paperwork. I have put an appeal into the DWP about my claim being stopped and I am waiting to hear from them. Since I got released from prison after one day on the 28/06/2013 I have had nothing to live on I have not got any food or gas or electric at my address for the last few days as it has now run out and I have no way to live until the DWP looks at my appeal.
I called the DWP today 24/07/2013 to see if there is any update on my claim and have been told as of to date there is no update. But they should have something in the next few days, I told them I have no way to live but they cannot speed anything up. They got my letter on the 19/07/2013 but it has yet to be scanned into their system. I am therefore asking if my housing benefit and council tax can be put back into place so there are no missing payments within my claim.
