Could you please sort a day when we can sort this as Simon is getting more and more upset, he does understand you're busy at police stations, but work also needs doing on his case as his appeal is so close now and nothing has been done. He does not want a next week to go by and nothing is done again. And we really need to get this legal aid sorted. and ask for information that is needed." 4 • I spoke to Shannon on the phone SMS text.

Mother says she has been asking for help all over but got nowhere. She describes her son as not eating, not sleeping, he is paranoid saying people are talking about him or laughing at him. He believes the government is advertising things about him. That the TV is talking about him and talking directly to him. She reluctantly admits that he smokes cannabis adding "not a lot" She is adamant that her son should not know of this referral as she is frightened to sever the fragile relationship, she has with him.   Reported that they had also told her that her son should be seen urgently.
  Agreed to speak to the AMHP office.
  Discussion with AMHP manager
  Debbie Morgan.
  Informed reported that Lorraine had spoken to
  and Lorraine had been advised about the carers centre in Enfield and also advised to go along with whatever plan there is with the assessment service. From description from mother does not appear to be crisis, is eating and drinking and no active plans to and, gradual deterioration in mental health over the past year. Plan to offer assessment with EAS medic and Social Worker. Patient already known to Community Safety Officer and this may be a route into the assessment given the concerns raised by other residents. Community Safety Officer already informed. EIS also informed as may be and psychotic illness.

She told me Simon is refusing to seek help or attend his GP's surgery. He did not take the medication that was prescribed when he saw Dr Javis last March 2014. It appears that Simon is not consenting to seek help with regards to his mental health. I have however advised Mrs Cordell that she encourages to visit his GP or she could request another assessment under the MHA 1983 if she has concerned that Simon is at significant risk to himself and others. I have also advised that she could ring the police / LAS and Simon could be taken to A&E in an emergency.

There were no concerns identified concerning his personal care. He said that he hasn't gone out for months and his mother does all the shopping. He spoke about a conspiracy to destroy his good name and send subliminal messages to him via the television. Mr Cordell said that the woman in the flat upstairs had been "stalking him" he elaborated and said that she stamps on the floor when she hears him moving around his flat or taking off his clothes. He spoke about his plans to start a global business for children. He said that he had about having thoughts of killing himself when he eventually clears his name. He did not accept that he had a mental disorder during the assessment.

He informed me that he has been gathering necessary information / documentation to help him clear his name. He said he was waiting for the court date. I asked if there was anyway EIP could help him i.e. practical things etc. to assist him in his case. Simon thanked me for the offer and said that he was fine and did not need it. 2 • The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5!
