81. On 21st January 2017 at 6:21pm, the Defendant aggressively banged on my front door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at us and accused us of making noise.

82. On 31st January 2017 at 6:10pm, the Defendant aggressively banged on my front door, shouted abuse and threats at us and accused us of banging on the floor. Later in the evening of the same day I discovered that all four tyres of my car which was parked outside the block have been slashed with a sharp object.

83. On 5th May 2017, I was walking out of the block when I saw the Defendant talking to two council officials and as I walked past them, the Defendant said to me that he will ruin my life and that he was going to present evidence to the police about my illegal activities. I did not respond or say anything to him.,

84. On 12th May 2017 at about 12pm, my wife, was at home with my daughter and my cousin when the Defendant came up to my front door and started to bang and push aggressively on the door, shouting for my wife to open the door saying that he wanted to talk to her. The Defendant knew that I had gone to work and that my wife may be alone with our young daughter, but he Insisted on my wife opening the door for him while shouting abuse at her.

85. On 1st June 2017, I was at work when my wife telephoned me to complain that the Defendant and two other males came and banged on my front door for about two minutes. My wife was alone with our young daughter at the time and she was very frightened because of the loud banging on our front door.

86. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. As my cousin brought out his mobile phone to record the incident, the Defendant snatched the phone from him. A struggle ensued as my cousin tried to get his phone back from the Defendant. The Defendant then physically attacked my cousin; he grabbed my cousin round his arm and neck and injured his arm thereby causing It to bleed. My cousin managed to get his phone back and called the police. The police attended within 10 minutes and my cousin explained to them what happened, and they went to speak to the Defendant, but he refused to let them in.

87. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick our daughter from school and accused her of making noise. The Defendant also said to my wife that he has our bank account and personal details and that she should tell me to pay him money.

88. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the communal entrance door as she was going to pick our daughter from school and said to her that he knows what time she goes out and when she returns and to tell her husband that he wants to speak to him.

was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

90. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

92. On 2nd July 2017 at 5:18pm, my family and I was going out to visit some friends and as we were about to exit the block, the Defendant popped his head out of his front door and asked me when I was going to hand over the money to him. I told him that I was not going to give him any money and that he should go and work so that he could earn some money. As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse and swearing at me and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. The Defendant also said to me that he has all our personal details including phone numbers, date of birth and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

93. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

28. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burhcroft Avenue.

29. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

30. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

31. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

32. On 6th August 2016, the Defendant threatened and shouted abuse at Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan tenants of 117 Burncroft Avenue. He aggressively, demanded money from him and threatened to beat him up. The Defendant also repeatedly swore at Mr Mathiyalagan's wife, called her a 'witch1 and tried to stop the Mr Mathiyalagan from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him and blocking his advance by placing his hands on the staircase railings. Mr Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

33. On 8th August 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. Mr Mathiyalagan reported to us that he believes that the Defendant used a screwdriver to damage the lock on his meter cupboard and removed the fuse box thereby cutting off their electricity supply. Mr Mathiyalagan reported this incident to the police and was given reference number CAD 7934/August 2016. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

34. On 27th September 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him as he returned to his flat with his wife and young daughter and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. A file note of the report is on pages 28-30 of the bundle.

The Defendant also aggressively demanded money from Mr Mathiyalagan. A file of the report is at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

36. On 11th November 2016, my former colleague, Sarah Fletcher interviewed an elderly resident who wished to remain anonymous. He said that the Defendant approached him as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse, swear at him and threatened to bum down the elderly neighbour's flat. The report

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

37. I had meetings with Mr George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

38. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm gonna do her over, I'm gonna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

39. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby

40. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

41. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

42. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

46. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

47. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

48. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. 50. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report

51. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

52. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

Mr Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

16. 47. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

48. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

49. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. Dear Mrs Vicky Jacobs
Thank you for taking the time to call me on the 23/06/2017, as spoke about please see the bank statement showing the DWP is still paying into my son's Simon Cordell Bank account, I have called the DWP to ask them to update that he is still getting benefits I do not understand why this has not been done. I am sorry it took a little longer to send the statement over to you but I went to the bank 3 times and the machine was not working to print out statements. I have highlighted the payments from the DWP going into his account. Please let me know if you need any more information and if housing benefit has been restarted.
Best Regards

DIRECTIONS ORDER

18. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant’s application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

19. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

20. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

21. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

112. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

115. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. He stated that he was at work and was scared for his wife and daughter. I advised him to call the police.

22. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant’s application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

23. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I

The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

25. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

54. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burhcroft Avenue.

55. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

56. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

57. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

Mr Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

63. I had meetings with Mr George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

64. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm gonna do her over, I'm gonna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

65. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply. Mr Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

66. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

67. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

68. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

72. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

73. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

74. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

76. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

77. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

78. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

Mr Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

w. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

17. I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. 30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

50. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

51. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

52. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

06/02/2017 :08/02/2017:

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:
Telephone call from Mr Cordell regarding the letter sent to him to attend the Civic Centre on 22/02/2017 to discuss the ongoing reports of harassment, verbal abuse and threatening behaviour made against him by his neighbours. File note of the telephone conversation attached.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. He stated that he was at work and was scared for his wife and daughter. I advised him to call the police.

08/05/2017:

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned to report an incident that happened this morning as he was leaving the block to go to work. He stated that as he walked down the stairs, he saw Me Cordell talking to 2 council officials and as he walked past, Mr Cordell threatened him by shouting that he was going to ruin his life and that he was going to the police with evidence about him. He stated that he did not respond.

To Whom It May Concern:

I Miss Lorraine Cordell am writing this letter to say that I do object to pay the sum of £785.70 for preparing the Acknowledgment of Service to be paid by the claimant to the defendant. I confirm that I was also the person who filed the application for the claimant in order to get justice within this case. The judge who stated that there was no merit within the case I believe is wrong. I do understand that when the judge made his decision there was little evidence supplied by us. I am not a lawyer and upon receiving the Metropolitan police response to the application I realised my mistake when filing the application. I did make calls to the High Court to explain the error in the hope that they would be able to help me as they had done before, I stated that I would need more time to submit the evidence to the court that I would have to try and get legal help. The lady I spoke to stated that I could take my time in submitting the evidence, so I did not know I was on a time limit until we'd received the letter from the court.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

At this time the skeleton argument I was writing comprises of over 90 pages with regard to the errors that have occurred within this whole case since it started in 2014. This would be many more pages once completed.

The claimant and his family only ever wanted justice and the truth, the UK justice system is supposed to be one of the best within the world but in this case it has failed to see the truth, the police hold information on their systems which proves my son's innocence and when asked to provide this evidence they withheld it though we asked many times since 2014, not one judge has ordered the police to hand over this information, then the appeal judge removing my sons legal representation and stating he can do the case himself, How was a person with mental health problems, learning difficulties, health problems meant to have coped with dealing with the appeal himself, nothing was put in place by the judge to address this, a few days prior to the appeal hearing I managed to find a solicitor willing to take the case on for the appeal, on 17 January 2017 the judge refused to allow the new solicitors a short adjournment which would have enabled the new solicitors to go over all the bundles, speak to the client which they had not done, the judge just dismissed it told them they had to be ready by the next morning if they could not be ready then my son would have to deal with the case himself, how is this justice, there is many other factors in this case that was incorrect and breached human rights.

The claimant as the courts was aware has mental health issues, he also has learning difficulties, and other health issues. The claimant receives benefits every two weeks of the sum of £201.30, which is £100.65 per week; this money has to cover all of his bills, water rates, 19.5% council tax shortfall, electric, gas, £5 a week for him to have a phone for emergencies, his food, hygiene items, and any other items to support living. I do not understand how he is meant to pay £785.70, just because a mistake was made in my endeavour to get justice for my son.

Below I will list dates that is within the application, and outline information I have recovered, which will show the police have information which proves my son is innocence. How could this miscarriage of justice been allowed to have happened.

12/01/2013 Canary Wharf:

On this date the claimant is accused of the organisation / or supply of equipment for an illegal rave.
The claimant has always disputed the account that the police stated in their application, he did not organise or was involved in any part of setting this party up or supply, hire or loan any equipment for this party.
The claimant did attend the party on this evening with his ex-girlfriend, they were there for a few hours before a person attacked the claimant at the party, the claimant was rushed to hospital, and the claimant does not know anything from this point in regards to this date as he was at the hospital.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

When the hospital released him he returned with his girlfriend and the person that had driven him to the hospital to pick his car up, which had been left at the location, at this time the party had already ended it was around 07:00 hours.
Again this case is outside the six months' time limit when the application was submitted to the court, so how has this case been proven by the Judge; any date outside the six months' time limit should only be used as reference to show prior history.
On the 12th January 2013 the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour to any person.
07/04/2013 No Insurance and Section 5 of the Public Order Act:
Within Steve Elsmore statement dated 11/08/2014 public order matter. Although this date is outside of the six months' time limit from when the application was submitted to the court, Steve Elsmore still included this within his statement.
The claimant was arrested on this date due to an issue with his insurance not showing up on the MID database, the police stated in the intelligence report the claimant became abusive, hence why he was arrested for a public order matter and no insurance.
The claimant was charged and given a court date to attend court and, on this date, he attended court to prove his innocence.
The claimant had witnesses that would prove he did not become abusive; there was no need for him to become abusive he had done nothing wrong; the case for the public order offence was withdrawn by the CPS at court and the claimant was found not guilty.
The insurance matter was addressed and proven the claimant did in fact have insurance so his vehicle in fact should never have been seized at a cost to take it out of the police compound of about £190.00 by the claimant that has never been recovered so was a loss to the claimant for no good reason.
There was information on the police's systems due to the claimant being stopped a number of times due to the error on the MID database showing he did not have insurance, which the claimant had tried to get addressed and so did I as to the reason why it was not showing on the MID database when in fact he did have insurance no one could understand why he was showing as not insured.
Why then in fact did Steve Elsmore include this within the ASBO application and make it look as if the claimant had been found guilty of it by the court? I though false information on an application was illegal. Why has this case and the intelligence report been allowed to be used within this case?

So how has this been allowed to stay within this case for the judges to read and the statements are read out in court when the fact it should never have been entered into this case.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
All Steve Elsmore statements only act to show bad character towards the claimant within them and multiple errors and facts that are untrue and can be proven to be untrue. But it would be too long within this letter to list them all.
Please see below information regarding these two issues that is on the police's system.
The claimant did not cause any Anti-Social Behaviour on the 07th April 2013.

24/05/2013 Old Police Station Ponders End:

On this date it is alleged by the police the claimant was looking for venues in which illegal raves could be held.

This is far from the truth on this date, I was contacted via phone by a person called Joshua, Joshua was homeless and at that time was staying at 204 High Street, Ponders End EN3 4EZ, this building is also known as the old police station, Joshua had contacted me due to being hungry and in need of food, he told him he would come and meet him in order to take him out and get some food as he had no money.

As the claimant approached 204 high Road the police stopped him, the claimant consented to being searched and having his car searched due to the police stating there was a strong smell of cannabis, the police did their search and found nothing. The police asked where he was going which he told them, he was going to meet a friend to get some food.

The claimant disputes stating to police that he could attract people to illegal raves and three day events, the claimant does not know what Joshua said to the police so cannot comment on this as he was not with Joshua when the police were questioning Joshua.

This date is also outside of the six months' time limit from when the application was submitted to the court, again the judge has proved this case when this case is only meant to be used as reference, and the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 24th May 2013. Why are these cases being proven/

Within Steve Elsmore statement dated 11/08/2014, it is made to seem that the claimant attended on this date without the knowledge of the organisers of this event and was not hired to be there by the event organiser's norm-co.uk. In fact he was hired by norm-co.uk to attend the event that they had organised the claimant believes this event is legal and happens every year. The claimant was hired on a dry hire basis; the claimant was doing the job on a no profit basis. When norm-co.uk contacted the claimant he was told that the person that they had hired had let them down at the last minute.

The claimant arrived at the location in Hyde Park he was approached by the police, the claimant explained why he was there that he had been hired by the organisers, the police stated to him he had not been hired by the organisers of the event, and that he was not supposed to be there, when the claimant was hired by the organisers norm- co.uk they told him that this was a licensed event. The claimant did not use his equipment he did try to contact the organisers of the event but was unable to, the claimant left the location as the police had asked him to do and returned home.

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

Within the claimant's bundle there are emails to prove the above account of what the claimant has stated these emails are from norm-co.uk. The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 20th April 2014.

- 25/05/2014 Unit 5 St Georges Ind Est White hart Lane, N17:

In respect to this date the claimant did attend premises where homeless people was treating it as their home, the claimant had attended bringing food for the homeless people living in the premises, when the claimant got to the premises the homeless people was already in the premises living there, there was no music being played while he was present.

The claimant does admit he attended the premises in his van, when the police attended the premises he allowed the police to search his vehicle, in his vehicle there were two speaker boxes with no drivers within them so they were unable to play music, he explained to the police that he used his van as storage, he did ask the police to note this, he did not have any other sound equipment in the vehicle.
Once the police had searched his vehicle which he allowed them to do, he was allowed to leave, and he made his way home.
The police did not seize anything within the claimant's van, which if the police believed there was going to be an illegal rave in the premises they would have had the right to do this, but the police saw the speaker that were in the van could not play music. And he never had any other sound equipment in the van, this is why the police allowed him to leave.
At no time while the claimant was at the premises did anyone attend there dressed up stating there was going to be a party at the premises.
If the police had CCTV of people breaking into the premises why was this not submitted as evidence within this case?
Why was there a need to update the information report on the 19/06/2014?
The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on the 25th May 2014.
06/06/2014 to 08/06/2014 Progress way Enfield:
The claimant disputes the facts that are within the application, on the 06th June 2014 he was at his home address with a friend, and also attended my home address Lorraine Cordell. His sister Deon was there, and a friend of the family Jamie Duffy who lived at the family's addresses.
On the 07/06/2014 he attended a leaving party for his cousin Dwayne Edwards who was leaving to go around the world for 12 months, the claimant was there at the leaving party till the early hours on the 08/06/2017, it has already been stated in the magistrates court there was a mistake in the paperwork and the claimant did not attend until the 08/06/2014 at around 02:00 hours. I also cannot understand why the claimant's brother name has been added to this case as an organiser. As stated in the magistrates court the claimant's brother had a serious life changing accident in April 2014, his brother had a number substantial injuries, after this was stated before the magistrates trial the claimant's brother was never mentioned again, the reason for this the police knew of the RTA accident as they was called and the claimant's brother had to be airlifted to the Royal London Hospital. The police know my sons very well by face they do not even have to do a name check on them. So how this serious mistake could have been made is beyond me.
While the claimant was at the leaving party he had got a call from someone he knew they had stayed at his home address a few weeks earlier and left their locker keys there, due to them being in the area they called the claimant and asked if he could drop the keys off to them, the claimant told them he was at a family party and that once he left he would drop the keys off to them. He asked where they was and they gave the location as progress way, he told them that once he left the family party he would pick the keys up from his home address and drop them off to them, this is how the police saw the claimant coming towards them while they were standing at the gate at progress way on the 08/06/2017 at around 02:00 hours, the claimant had never been in side progress way, but due to the police knowing the claimant they went straight up to him and started to talk to him, the police was with people that worked for Enfield Council, they wanted to serve paperwork on the claimant, the claimant would not accept any paperwork and walked back towards the A10.

The claimant was not involved in organising or supplying any equipment at progress way.
The claimant did not act in any anti-social behaviour manner on the 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014.
Within ASBO application most of the data relates to Progress Way which relates to the dates of the 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014.
The police stated that the information contained within their bundle does not relate to another location and deny that an event was ongoing just down the road from progress way on the same dates as progress way, this was even stated under oath at court. The police denied that there was another event ongoing in Crown Road at the same time that Progress Way was ongoing.
They even confirmed to the judge when the Judge asked if anything related to another location, it was stated to the Judge everything that related to 06/06/2014, 07/06/2014 and the 08/06/2014 within their bundle related to progress way that nothing within the bundle for Progress Way related to another event.
A huge amount of data has been redacted by the police, I could understand if the redacted data only redacted the person's details name and address phone numbers etc that had made the calls to the police. But the redaction goes a lot further than this where there is whole pages redacted within one CAD which really makes the CAD useless being in the bundle, also the grid references why would so many be redacted I can understand the call location being redacted but why would there be a need to redact the Att Location and Inc Loc. We asked every time we were in court for the CADs
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
to be un-redacted because we knew a fair amount related to Crown Road, which the police were denying, we also asked for all of the missing CADs, nothing ever came of our requests, none of the judges ordered this to be done.
Crown Road has a lot of history for events they were ongoing in this location from April 2014 till around June 2014, in fact maybe later than June 2014.
I do not really need to bring the intelligence reports and CADs up as the information I will supply later in this letter regarding Progress Way will become very relevant as to what the police are hiding. The reason I'm going to go to some detail here is because I do not feel it is correct that the police are allowed to get away with what they have done within this case towards my son due to how much they dislike him and my family. And I believe it will show how much the police are willing to do in order to put everything onto my son.
Let me give you some CADs Numbers I will not go over everyone as there is a great deal of them and some have got so much redaction we can only wonder why.
CAD 2410:08/06/2014 all grid references are redacted, most of the second and third pages are redacted, but what gives this away as being Crown Road is what has been written by the call handler on page 4.
"illegal rave going on opposite A&J Cars approx. 200 people1 drugs being openly sold and taken caller noticed them whilst on his way home, they're all over the Street."
"Linked to cads 1646 & 1768 08June"
Any police officer would know that A&J Cars is right by Crown Road, right opposite the Old Mann Building where the events was ongoing for months, and nowhere near Progress Way.
The CAD numbers 1646 and 1768 08 June are missing we were never allowed to have these.
CAD 3319:08/06/2014, Grid Reference below,

Call Location: 93, BROADLANDS AVENUE, ENFIELD
GPA: YF [Division: YE: SX]
As we can see all the Grid Reference have been left in this one by mistake, I believe, once again any police officer would know 93, BROADLANDS AVENUE, ENFIELD is behind Crown Road, so in fact this CAD cannot belong to Progress Way.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
But this CAD tells us even more as there is a safety risk with it regarding a fragile roof, and subsequently gives details in regard to door numbers along Southbury Road and Crown Road. This also links to CAD number 3319. There is no mistaking this CAD links to the event that was ongoing at Crown Road. The police deny this they state no event was ongoing, yet it is a known fact the building was along Crown road/Southbury Road have fragile roofs, the old man building has partly a glass roof.
These are just a few CADs that prove there was an ongoing event at Crown Road, it is also proven in the FOI request I put into Enfield Council, there is also a substantial amount of information within the intelligence reports that do not correspond in the way in which they should do, there is also errors within the timeline of some of the CADs, I do not see why the police have mislead the courts, the only reason is most of the information the police had related to Progress Way.
Also the witness statements that was taken by police are meant to be written in the words of the witness signed and dated by the witness, all but one witness statement has been written and signed by police officers, not one witness statement identifies the claimant or a description, under the law I witness statement should be completed and signed and dated by the witness.
Now as said before I have done a lot of research, and I now put it to the police they knew full well my son had not done what they said he had done in this case. And that the police were hiding information.
Progress Way Event was relocated to Progress Way; the Metropolitan police know this already, but yet blame my son.
The location that this was meant to have happened In Essex a very senior police officer was being updated in regard to this event, due to the Essex police monitoring the event page on social media for some time, due to the brief location on the event page on social media, the very senior police officer was concerned due to it being very close with the border to the Metropolitan police area.
The very senior police officer due to being concerned contacted the Metropolitan police, information was given to the Metropolitan police in regards to the concerns with this event and area, there was information given so that the Metropolitan police could monitor the event page on social media, the senior officer asked for information of a senior officer within the Metropolitan police that would be on duty the full weekend the event was due to take place so that contact could be made regarding this.
On the 06th June 2014 the Very senior police officer sent police to look for the location within the border of Essex, the police found the location this event was going to be taking place. Once the very senior police officer got the location, he went in a police helicopter and went to the location and landed in the field.

He had his file with all the information in it which included pictures of the known organiser, he went up to the known organiser who was white north European, after speaking to him the very senior police officer asked him to leave the land and served him a notice under S63 CJOPOA and a notice not to set up within 24 hours. The very senior police officer gave the known organiser 3 hours to pack up everything and leave the land and gave him an explanation of the offence he was liable to commit if he failed to comply with the direction.

The organiser then relocated to progress way. Police are well aware organisers relocate if the police close an event down.
The claimant was nowhere near Essex on this day; he was not involved in the organisation or supply of equipment which the police are well aware of.
Yet the police want to blame him and they was not going to stop until they got the ASBO on him and did not care what they covered up in the process of the information they had, I believe this is also why there is nothing really for the 06th June within the bundle for the ASBO application.
And why when asked over and over why we were never allowed to see the police officers packet notebooks, for any of the dates in their application.
20/06/2014 1 Falcon Park Neasden Lane NW10:
The claimant's is alleged to have been involved in the organisation and or supplied equipment for an illegal rave, the claimant disputes what the police have said, on this date the claimant had been contacted and asked if he would hire a sound system for a gentleman's birthday party. The claimant agreed to do so; the sound system and van were collected from the claimant's home. The claimant's terms and conditions were agreed, and invoice signed, and a deposit was given to him.
At around 01:00 hours the claimant received a phone call from the person he had hired the sound system to; the person stated that the sound system and van was being seized by the police.
The claimant was very upset and could not at this stage understand why the police was seizing his equipment and van.
The claimant asked the location and took down the address, he had to get up and get dressed and leave his home it took him around an hour to reach the location, upon approaching the address he had been given he saw there was a lot of police around, he parked his car up got out and went up to the police to speak to them to find out what was going on, he showed the police the terms and conditions of hirer, and the invoice.
The police at this point allowed the claimant into the building where he continued to speak to the police, the sound system had not been put away and the police allowed the claimant to start packing it away into his van, but the police stated they were confiscating it until they had looked into the matter.
The claimant gave the police all his contact information, and also took down the police officer information. About a week later the police contacted the claimant and told him he was allowed to come and pick his van and equipment up from the police station.
The claimant did not knowingly supply equipment for an illegal rave; he believed the hire was for a birthday party and it was all above board.
The claimant did not cause any antisocial behaviour on the 20th June 2014.
19/07/2014 Carpet right A10 Enfield:
As stated previously by the claimant he was not involved in the organisation or supplied equipment on this date. And the claimant totally disagrees in regard to what the police have said in their application. The claimant on this day was driving down A10 he was heading towards McDonald's, as he was passing carpet right he saw the police outside and he believed he saw a friend who he knew had been homeless, he was on the wrong side of the road so went down towards Southbury Road where he knew he could turn his car around. He parked his vehicle and walked

Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
to the location, upon arriving there he saw there was a lot of police, as soon as he got there he was standing on the pavement and the police arrested him to stop a believed breach of the peace, the claimant never entered the building, he was arrested outside.
Within the CADs it clearly states there was around 20 people males and females all white approximate age 20. The claimant is mixed raced, The CADs start from 20:51 hours, the claimant was not arrested until 22:50 hours, some two hours after the police arrived at the premises.
There is a statement from Mr Moses Howe who states he was hired by Mr Anthony Harvey, he states Mr Anthony Harvey was arrested by the police inside the premises but later de-arrested, the police have never disputed this.
As stated, before I have done a lot of research, I will deal with this research into this date below.
Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore states in his statement dated 11/08/2014 about a rave that happened in Croydon where a poor boy lost his life, and in fact has made it seem as if the claimant was part of this rave.
Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore did an updated statement dated 26/06/15 in this statement he stated about operation blue iris which relates to the Croydon rave, the Croydon rave I believe was called rum and base.
Officer in Charge Steve Elsmore states in this updated statement that he spoke with A/DS Tanner who works for the public order investigation unit at Scotland Yard, A/DS Tanner confirmed she had spoken to Miss Lorraine Cordell to Steven Elsmore. Blue iris was the operational name that related to the investigation into the Croydon rave.
My investigation has led to the information regarding Anthony Harvey being listed by Scotland Yard and all TV media as wanted regarding the Croydon rave his picture was published in the media along with a lot of others that was also wanted regarding the Croydon rave, on the 30th June 2014 Anthony Harvey handed himself into Ilford police station, Scotland Yard attended Ilford police station and took Anthony Harvey back to Scotland Yard for questioning, Anthony Harvey was questioned by 4 police officers at Scotland Yard, he was charged with violent disorder and some other things, he was released on bail with bail conditions. He spent around six hours in a cell.
The claimant had nothing to do with the Croydon rave, he was not present, and I believe this is confirmed in the updated statement of Officer in charge Steve Elsmore. The claimant did not organise or supply equipment in Croydon rave. Once again why has this been put in the application and worded as if my son had organised this, when clearly the police have information that he had nothing to do with this. The only reason I can see is that this was a high-profile case where someone unfortunately lost their life. And tainting my son with this event will make any Judge believe my son is such a bad person, I believe this amount to slander and or defamation of character.
The claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour at Croydon rave as he was not there and had nothing to do with it.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf

It seems Anthony Harvey was very unhappy in regard to how Scotland Yard was treating him they would not leave him alone, but he was still advertising the events he was putting on. One was for the 19th July 2014 called The Raving Family That Rave In The Woods, Anthony Harvey even had special T-shirts made up with the wording The Raving Family on them, Anthony Harvey even put a request for anyone that had strong bolties he could use.
It would seem that Anthony Harvey first location for the 19th July 2014 was in Barking, Anthony Harvey then relocated to Enfield carpet right, he states that he begged the police to allow this to carry on but they would not, and states fuck to Scotland Yard, a person that knows Anthony Harvey states they was all waiting at Southbury Road.
As stated, before Anthony Harvey was on bail, I believe one of those bail conditions was not to attend an illegal rave, as he states he is allowed to attend legal events only.
I believe that when Steve Elsmore spoke to A/DS Tanner, A/DS Tanner explained a lot more about Anthony Harvey then Steve Elsmore states in his updated statement. Even about the event at Barking which was due to me relocated.
"A/DS Tanner states that she had inputted a Crimit regarding a rave that was due to take place on 19th July 2014 in Barking. This rave was due to be at one location but was due to be moved to another location which had not disclosed."
Why did Steve Elsmore state in the lower court he had deleted emails to and from A/DS Tanner, why did Steve Elsmore not ask A/DS Tanner to do a statement, why did he feel it necessary to write what he says A/DS Tanner said to him. I know the public order investigation unit was told by Sir Bernard Hogan Howe to monitor all raves keep intelligence on them and try to put stop to them A/DS Tanner told me this on the phone when I spoke to her. And when I spoke to DS Chapman from the public order investigation unit he confirmed they was looking into all raves, he also did a check on the claimant's name and stated within all the information they had they only had the claimant's name on their systems once, and that was to prevent a breach of the peace on the 19th July 2014.
The claimant did not organise or supply equipment; the claimant did not cause any anti-social behaviour on this date.
24/07/2014 Admitted to police he setups raves:
On this date the claimant was driving down the Road after just leaving my home, he was on his way home via Alma Road, as he passed King Edwards Road he saw the police in an unmarked police car the claimant knew it was the police as the police had stopped him before while on active duty, they were at this time indicating to do a right-hand turn out of King Edward Road onto Alma Road. But when they saw the claimant passed King Edward Road they changed direction and turned left onto Alma Road to follow him after a short time the police put their blue lights on, and pulled him over to the side of the road opposite the BMW repair centre along Alma Road, the male officer who was in the passenger side of the police car got out and started to approach the claimant's car, the claimant opened his window a little and asked why
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
he had been pulled over. The police officer said he was not sure why, but his colleague had instructed him to do this, his colleague was the police officer that the claimant knew. The police officer walked back to the unmarked police car then re-approached the claimant's car with his colleague the driver of the unmarked police car. I asked again what had been pulled over for, and the driver of the unmarked police car pulled out his truncheon and said the claimant had to get out of his car, and that if I declined his windows would be smashed. The claimant got out of his car as he had done nothing wrong and had nothing to hide, the claimant had not committed any offence whatsoever, the police stated to the claimant he had been pulled over because he was driving too close to the car in front of him, the driver who was in the car in front of the claimant never stopped, and was not stopped by police. The claimant was then accused of having drugs, the claimant allowed police to search him and his vehicle nothing was found. The police then asked the claimant what he was up to, the claimant said that he was setting up his catalogue that he had been building with a friend, and that the website that was being built was nearly completed. The claimant said that he was trying to achieve positive effects within today's society with his business that he had been building. Once the police had completed all their checks they needed, they shook hands and went on our way.

At no time did the claimant act in an anti-social manner towards the police.
It seems the police stated other things in their report that are very untrue, please see below
"On Thursday 24th July 2014 at around 1625 hours, plain clothes officers from YE Gangs Unit had cause to stop the following male on ALMA ROAD EN3. Simon CORDELL. He was driving a silver Ford Focus vrm MA57LDY on which he is insured but is not the registered keeper. He was stopped as he was driving about 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him and his driving was erratic. He claimed to know the other driver; this male however approached officers saying he had been driving like that behind him since YR. CORDELL was obstructive as usual, refusing to get out of his vehicle etc. He stated that his solicitor has a big case going where all his criminal records will be wiped as Police have unlawfully picked on him for years etc. Of interest he stated that he has 4 brand new speaker systems at home which he is happy to loan people for raves etc and that he is inundated with requests to run raves. He stated that he has 20,000 followers on one social media network and 70,000 in another. He says that he could organize a rave and get 20,000 people at it without any problems whatsoever, and that he gets lots of requests from anarchist type groups etc to run raves for them. Of note he claims Occupy London, Black Block and other anarchist groups have been asking him to organize one for Notting Hill Carnival so that they can "Cause carnage and mayhem".
The claimant is continuously being pulled up by the police for no reason this has been ongoing for the past at least 23 years, I believe the above comments within the police report shows this when it states CORDELL was obstructive as usual refusing to get out of his vehicle etc.
The claimant did not get out of his vehicle right away he did not know why he was being pulled again, so waited in his car to ask the police why he had been stopped. it is not a crime to sit in your car until the police approach.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
The police state in their report he was driving about 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him and the claimant driving was erratic.
If the claimant had been driving 1" from the bumper of the car in front of him, which I believe is impossible, and his driving was erratic, then surely the police would have arrested him for dangerous driving, the police always try and find a way to arrest the claimant for any reason they can, and I am hundred percent sure if the claimant was driving like this he would have been in the police station under arrest for it. The driver in the car that was in front of the claimant did not stop and speak to the police if he had done this why have the police not given the drivers details.
The claimant did not speak to the police in regard to loaning out his equipment for raves. The numbers that the police have stated that the claimant said he had in 2 accounts on social media is impossible and is unbelievable that the police have stated such information. The police have also stated that the claimant spoke of links to Occupy London, Black Block and other anarchist groups, the claimant has never been involved in any activist groups, and is highly insulted that the police could say the name Black Block came out of his mouth, Black Block is a known NF group, so please why would the claimant have said such things when he is mixed race.

There is also concern with the date of this report, it was filed on the police's system, it would seem police were together when the reports was made for 2 dates in the application, when they must have already knew the police wanted to bring this application against the claimant. If you look at the below and look at the two URN numbers, you will see this.

27/07/2014 Millmarsh Lane Enfield:
On this date the claimant is alleged to have organised a rave and/or supplied equipment, the claimant disputes this, there was some homeless people living in premises at Millmarsh Lane, I had been invited to attend a 20th birthday party the claimant did not know about any rave only that a homeless person was having their 20th birthday party, there was only a few people there and they was the homeless people living there. The claimant did not have any equipment there, did not load any equipment or hiring the equipment.
The claimant did not act in any anti-social manner on this date.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
Within the police report it states the police had been given intelligence that a rave was due to take place, why is this intelligence not within the application.
The police report also states there was a large stack of speakers being powered by the claimant's van, I do not understand how this is possible the voltage for a sound system would be 240 V the voltage on a van is only 12 V this would make it impossible for a van to power a sound system.
It would also be of concern that when police were writing these reports, they were together (please see URN above). At this point the police would have known the antisocial behaviour order application was going to be submitted and anything that was being added would go well with their case (True or untrue).
09/08/2014 to 10/08/2014 Millmarsh Lane Enfield:
On this date the claimant is being accused of organising and or supplying equipment at Millmarsh Lane Enfield, the claimant disputes this, the claimant was not involved in the organisation of any rave and did not supply equipment, police state this event was run by Every Decibel Matters, the claimant can confirm that he is not an employee of this organisation or a shareholder or a director and he has no controlling interest in the company. Information was supplied within the application by the director of Every Decibel Matters that confirms this.
On this date I had gone to see the people that was homeless that was living in Millmarsh Lane Enfield, the police were well aware that homeless people were living in this location in premises from weeks earlier.
As stated before I have done a lot of research, it seems every decibel matters had police turn up at their addresses stating they would be arrested if they carried on with this event, the event location was meant to have been in Harrow, every decibel matters state on the date of the event they were in Harrow and police sent helicopters all day looking for them, they had no option but to relocate I believe this is when they relocated to Millmarsh Lane, the claimant had no knowledge of this and was never in Harrow, and knew nothing regarding this being relocated to Millmarsh Lane.

The officer in charge of the application Steve Elsmore has stated in one of his updated statements that the claimant knew Mr Moses Howe, and that he has been stopped by police with Mr Moses Howe once in the claimant's vehicle 2011.
The claimant does not dispute he does have knowledge of Mr Moses Howe, Mr Moses Howe is a sound engineer, in 2011 the claimant had been offered the management position at Club Juice in Green Street Enfield, the claimant would as part of his job role be organising events for Club Juice this would have included the claimant's sound system being within the venue. Due to the claimant in 2011 not having much knowledge of all the complicated knowledge needed setting up the sound system he asked people he knew if they knew a sound engineer, Mr Moses Howe name was given, the claimant and Mr Moses Howe agreed to meet and go to the venue check what would be needed in regards to equipment, and it was agreed that if it took off Mr Moses Howe would be the sound engineer for club juice. When the police pulled the claimant and Mr Moses Howe was in the vehicle, they were on their way to Club Juice, they were due to set the sound system up in order to allow testing and make sure everything was in order. Within the weeks that followed they had set up one event that was due to take place at club juice, but due to how the police was with the claimant they kept pulling him up outside of Club Juice strip searching him and would not leave him alone, the claimant got so distressed and embarrassed that he told the owner of Club Juice he could no longer carry on, and left the position. Since this time the claimant has had no knowledge of what Mr Moses Howe has been doing, Mr Moses Howe is the director with Sean O'Connor of every decibel matters, as shown within the documents within the claimant's bundle.
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
If the claimant had a great deal of contact with Mr Moses Howe I am sure the police would have a lot more than one date on the police's system that the claimant had been with Mr Moses Howe, the claimant as said above is pulled a great deal by the police and I believe that this would have been shown on the police's system. And not just one date in 2011.
CAD 9717 seems to have intelligence that was received by police on 09th August 2014, this CAD was never included in the applications bundle, I believe this intelligence would have been very helpful to the claimant and this is why it was never added to the application bundle. As we believe it would prove the police had no information on my son.
It seems throughout this case there has been a lot of CADs and intelligence reports that have not been included in the applications bundle; I believe the reason for this is that it would show that what has been stated within the application is very misleading. I believe also that is why we was never allowed to see them. I believe also that the police officers' notebook's which we were also never allowed to see would also show how misleading the application was towards the claimant.
There is a lot more information I have gained due to research I have done, there is also a lot more points within the application that are misleading and incorrect, there is a list of breaches under the data protection of information that is totally incorrect which can be proven. At this time there is a case ongoing with the ICO in regards to breaches that the police have stated in their application and also incorrect information on the claimant's PNC record, all of this information and a lot more was being bought up each time we attended court at the Magistrate's Court and the Crown Court. There have been so many breaches of human rights throughout this case I cannot understand how it has been allowed to have happened, there is a total miscarriage of justice and many other issues regarding his legal representation within this case.

At this time the claimant does not leave his home he has not done since 2014 due to knowing the police are going to say he has done something that breaches the conditions and arrest him and put him in prison,
Steve Elsmore has already done in updated statements, which in fact implies my son had breached his conditions in Nov 2014 by being on an industrial estate, which was totally incorrect.
The conditions the claimant is under breaches his human rights, it seems as though the barrister that was representing the police in this matter feels that it is acceptable to breach someone human rights knowingly.
You can see this on page 28 of the appeal transcript which the administrative court sent, they also only seen to be concerned in regard to the claimant going to a shop or
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
petrol station. But the implications of the conditions go a lot wider and no one has taken this into consideration. Please see below a list of information which is only a small list which the claimant cannot do.
Schedule of prohibitions You must not:

1. Be concerned in the organisation of a rave as defined by s.63(1) or s63(1A) of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994.
2. Knowingly use or supply property, personal or otherwise, for use in a rave as defined by s.63 (1) of the Criminal justice and Public Order Act 1994.
3. Enter or remain in any disused or abandoned building unless invited to do so in writing by a registered charitable organisation or local authority or owner of the premises.
4. Enter any non-residential private property (by which words buildings and an open enclosed and are intended to be individual) or an industrial estate between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00 without written permissions from the owner and a leaseholder of such property. If you can demonstrate that the purpose of your entry of such property is to purchase goods or services from any shop or garage or fuel supplier which is open to the public at such times. Then in such event, you may enter but you must not remain on such property for longer than 30 minutes and you may do so on only one occasion during each separate nine-hour period between 22:00 and 07:00 daily.
5. 5 Provide any service in respect of any licensable activity in an unlicensed premise.
   For the sake of clarity, nothing in this order prevents the defendant from assisting, preparing for, engaging in licensed licensable activities,
   This order expires on the 3 August 2020

This order and its requirements amend a previous order imposed by Highbury Corner Magistrates Court.
Condition 4 states
Enter any non-residential private property (by which words buildings and an open enclosed and are intended to be individual) or an industrial estate between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00 without written permissions from the owner and a leaseholder of such property. If you can demonstrate that the purpose of your entry of such property is to purchase goods or services from any shop or garage or fuel supplier which is open to the public at such times. Then in such event, you may enter but you must not remain on such property for longer than 30 minutes and you may do so on only one occasion during each separate nine-hour period between 22:00 and 07:00 daily.

With this condition in place any non-residential property The Appellant would not be able to attend only for 30 minutes on one occasion during a separate nine-hour period:
This would include hospitals, police stations, 24-hour supermarkets, petrol stations, cinemas, restaurants, bars, night clubs and any other public place open to the public between these times that is non-residential The Appellant would only have a 30 minute window to be able to enter any non-residential building, however is not feasible that within 30 minutes The Appellant could be seen in a hospital within 30 minutes, how would it be feasible if The Appellant went to dinner at a restaurant they would be completed within 30 minutes, how would it be feasible if The Appellant wanted to go to a nightclub or late-night bar as it would only have 30 minutes, places that are open to the public should not be restricted to The Appellant how is The Appellant meant to have a normal family life. The Appellant cannot go to without written permission which would be degrading for The Appellant to have to ask each time he wanted to go somewhere and explain why he needed it to be confirmed in writing by the owner and/or leaseholder of the property, how
Letter to high court C0 2171 2017.pdf
this condition could be applied by any Judge and state it is not a beach of someone human rights is beyond me.
Conditions 2 states knowingly using or supplying property personal or otherwise for the use of a rave as defined under section 63.1 of the criminal justice and public order act,
The Appellants has spent the last 10 years building his business saving every penny and help from family it is within the entertainment industry, he will hires equipment out and his services, The Appellants business would seriously be affected, because if he hired his equipment and it ended up in an illegal rave The Appellant would be in breach of the conditions. When hiring out equipment you do ask what it is going to be used for, and you do have a contract that is in place, but what the person tells you their reason for hiring the equipment out is not always the correct reason and is not used for the purpose the person told you The Appellant would be in breach of these conditions. Also if The Appellant loaned someone any personal belongings and that person ended up at an illegal rave then The Appellant would again be in breach of his conditions, even if the item was something that did not even constitute as being for an illegal rave.
Conditions 5 states provide any service in respect of any licensable activity in an unlicensed premise.
How is The Appellant meant to run his business, The Appellant would not be able to obtain a licence that has already been clarified by the police and councils due to the Antisocial Behaviour Order that is in place, The Appellant would not be able to offer his services also due to the restriction that he has only 30 minutes within a non-residential building, most events go to the late hours in the morning so even if there was a licensed premises and someone wanted to hire the services of The Appellant The Appellant would not be able to do this. The Appellant was also offered contracts within two nightclubs to be the manager if The Appellant was again offered contracts within nightclubs or late-night bars The Appellant would not be able to accept these contracts. I cannot even say why condition 5 has been imposed because condition 4 conflicts with condition 5 in certain parts. And who would want to hire or take on The Appellant if he had to ask for written permission which would be degrading for The Appellant to have to ask each time he wanted to go somewhere or had a contact and had to explain why he needed it to be confirmed in writing by the owner and/or leaseholder of the property,

These are just a few concerns with the conditions that The Appellant is under, there is other concerns with other conditions set at by the Courts that are of concern.
How this case could have been proven is beyond me, I have only done a brief account of information within this letter. there is a lot of information I have not included due to trying to keep this letter as short as I could.
I only wanted Justice for my son, but due to a mistake I done it seems there will be no Justice and the true facts will never be been known. And my son will suffer for something he did not do. I did call the High Court then I realised I had made a mistake and told them I was going to be late submitting documents due to trying to get help from a legal person. And as for the beaches of my son's human rights do, they do not matter.
There is so much wrong with this case, and the way the courts addressed it was not correct since 2014.

Victimizing me by Banging above the Barth to which I get into, once they understand that I have stopped running the water for my bath to be ready, this is after they wait for any other tail, tail signs that I have gotten undressed and soaked within the water, creating a brutal attack against my person in their wrongful self-gains!
And follow me to the toilet when I am being sick and start banging above my head
I cannot study when they are attacking me!
The occupiers of 117 the Mathiyalagan family and also Stain Curtis off 111 Burncroft Avenue continue Slamming the water tap on and off, and now with George Quinton also involved I continue to document their Hate Crime towards me and report it to the relevant persons without any fair prosses of support and this is causing damage too my health and the buildings fixtures at an unacceptable rate!

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the mathilgen Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!
There is a clear lack of due diligence getting made towards my life by the Enfield Councils reasonable persons, as they still have not fixed ant of my disrepair problems that I do raise with them to get fixed!

Time Spent Building.
In the back ground of everything going I continued working on creating a new and up to date Management System and I continued to Study and finish at the Time Start: 00:00 and Time End: 00:00!

WITNESS STATEMENT

I, Mr. John Irving, of 117 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ (Leaseholder) make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court. Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to tie best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

I am the landlord of Flat 117 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The flat is located just above the Defendant's. The Property is currently let to Mr Mathiyalagan and it is being occupied by him, wife and his children.

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

Background

3. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

4. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr Gray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

5. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr Neville Gray with the intention of inspecting his flat. However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr Gray called for the police to attend.

6. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later. This information has previously been reported to the Claimant.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

C:
at 11.00 am after complaints where made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms Mother, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

5. On

at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr and Miss Mathiyalagan) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property: I then called Ms Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

6. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since

This caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

7. Mr Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

8. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

9. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19f30pm. At that point I called one of my managers and advised that I required assistance. The Defendant's behaviour continued to worsen against me and so I called the Police as he would not allow me to approach my car. A police reference number was provided to me on the day 775912072017 CAD.

10. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

80. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burhcroft Avenue.

81. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

82. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

83. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates

Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

He aggressively, demanded money from him and threatened to beat him up. The Defendant also repeatedly swore at Mr Mathiyalagan's wife, called her a 'witch1 and tried to stop the Mr Mathiyalagan from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him and blocking his advance by placing his hands on the staircase railings. Mr Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

85. On 8th August 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. Mr Mathiyalagan reported this incident to the police and was given reference number CAD 7934/August 2016. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

86. On 27th September 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him as he returned to his flat with his wife and young daughter and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. A file note of the report is on pages 28-30 of the bundle.

The Defendant also aggressively demanded money from Mr Mathiyalagan. A file of the report is at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

88. On 11th November 2016, my former colleague, Sarah Fletcher interviewed an elderly resident who wished to remain anonymous. He said that the Defendant approached him as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse, swear at him and threatened to bum down the elderly neighbour's flat. The report

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

89. I had meetings with Mr George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

90. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm gonna do her over, I'm gonna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

91. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply. Mr Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

92. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

93. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

94. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

95. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

98. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

99. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

100. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

101. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers Sarah Fletcher and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant’s property following reports of low water pressure in the

It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

102. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

103. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

104. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

105. On 12th July 2017, Mr Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Mr Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

CC. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement;

DD. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

EE. Condition 21 - "You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter.to the Police".

II. Condition 53 - "You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy"

18. I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. Letters were sent to him on 29th November 2016 inviting him for a meeting on 6th December 2016, 31st

January 2017 inviting him for a meeting on 9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017. These letters are exhibited at pages 63-70 of the exhibit bundle.

53. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

54. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

55. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

This went on for about fifteen minutes. 02/01/2018 34. On 9th January 2018 at about 12.18pm, the Defendant telephoned Lemmy Nwabuisi (ASB Behaviour officer) and accused him of forging documents to get an anti-social behaviour order against him. The Defendant further told him that he had made him a prisoner within his home. The Defendant stated that he knows where he lives in Enfield and that he and his family were not safe from him. The Defendant told Lemmy Nwabuisi that he would watch him leave the office and he would have followed him home and he needed to watch his back. The Defendant called the ASB officer again 30 minutes later and told him that he knows he has a flat in Edmonton and also know that one of his colleagues lives in Edmonton. 11. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out routine and maintenance inspections.

Background

12. The Defendant is a secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

13. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints where made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

14. On 12 July 2017 at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr and Mrs Mathiyalakdn) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property. I then called Ms Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours, but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

15. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since December 2016, This caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

16. Mr Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not. been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

17. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

18. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on 12 July 2017 but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car, but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19.30pm. At that point I called one of my managers and advised that I required assistance. The Defendant's behaviour continued to worsen against me and so I called the Police as he would not allow me to approach my car. A police reference number was provided to me on the day 775912072017 CAD.

19. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

06/02/2017 :08/02/2017:
I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:
Telephone call from Mr Cordell regarding the letter sent to him to attend the Civic Centre on 22/02/2017 to discuss the ongoing reports of harassment, verbal abuse and threatening behaviour made against him by his neighbours. File note of the telephone conversation attached.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street.

As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. DIRECTIONS ORDER

20. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out routine and maintenance inspections.

Background

21. The Defendant is a secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

22. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints where made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

23. On 12 July 2017 at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr and Mrs Mathiyalakdn) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property. I then called Ms Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property

also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours, but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

24. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since December 2016, This caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

25. Mr Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not. been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

26. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

27. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on 12 July 2017 but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car, but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19.30pm. At that point I called one of my managers and advised that I required assistance. The Defendant's behaviour continued to worsen against me and so I called the Police as he would not allow me to approach my car. A police reference number was provided to me on the day 775912072017 CAD.

28. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

Dear Jeanette
I am sorry I have not been in contact with Simon Statement but as said in an earlier email we heard from the coroner office and they are doing an inquest review on the 30/04/2015 which was very short notice to get everything ready for this hearing, as said I been dealing with getting all my late mothers files in order to be able to deal with this which has taken me some time, I am still chancing her bloods and other things and as this means a lot to the whole family due to the way my late mother passed away my time has been spent dealing with this. We have had to wait since 2013 for this complaint to even be looked at and my son has had to suffer the wait until he proved what the police had done. There is a number of issues with this complaint we want addressed which you know, I do not feel it was correct of you to pre write Simon statement and think he would just sign it when he had not even talked to you about the complaint. If you had wished you could have taken a statement from him in the meeting which would have taken some hours but you choose not to do this, I am sure a person is meant to be there when a statement is taken by the police as it has to be what they have said. I am also still waiting for an email from the crown court with the transcript which you said the crown court would send to my email, can you tell me if you have been sent this yet also. If you have not got this is there any update to this. The statement is ready I spent the last few days writing it up when I should have been dealing with issues related to my late mother, I should have that over to you today or tomorrow in the morning. I am just waiting for Simon to say everything is correct in it and then he will sign it. Could you please let me know you have this email and that you will in fact wait till you get the statement before handing this over?

I am very busy as I still have not got everything done for the inquest review and only have a few days in order to get anything done for this also.
Regards
Lorraine

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 4.

Before the Court will grant-an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.

Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply.

If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate.

One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme.

5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5

Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end.

This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph.

After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought.

	(8) On 22nd November 2016 during a telephone conversation between you, Mrs Cordell your mother and Ms Sarah Fletcher, neighbourhood officer, Ms. Fletcher reported that she overheard you threaten her by saying 'I'm gonna do her over' and then 'I'm gonna take her job just for fun'.	1. Particulars of Breaches (8) Reply:
2. Particulars of Breaches (8) Reply: Sarah Fletcher neighbourhood officer from the council claims that on 22nd November 2016

during a telephone conversation between her, myself and mother that she overheard me threaten her by saying 'I'm going to do her over' and then 'I'm going to take her job just for fun'.
This is not true
The reason that it is not true is because what has now been stated to have occurred is more than just misinterpreted information of the so called Mid – day event.
The Council's memo of a telephone call on that day:
Is forged and therefore incorrect and is not supported by self and mother to be true facts that have been documented with a fair prosses by the statement maker. The context contained within side the statement had been fabricated so to support the claimants claim.
While also set out to avoid displinary action for the statement makers and hardworking colleague's incompetence leading to negligence and gross misconduct, set out against myself and then on afterwards having a negative effect also within my loved one's life's.
All what has been achieved by the Enfield Council since the start of my official complaint to themselves has gotten managed with criminal intention to put I in harm's way
From the of start of themselves handling my case load of an official work load.
Sarah Fletcher as mentioned whom once was a neighbourhood officer who did work in collaboration with the Enfield Council, states that she received a call from Mr. Simon Paul Cordell Whom is an Enfield secure resident within his housing tenancy that is attached to the address of 109 Burncroft Avenue at around the time of Mid – Day: 01:20Pm?
The time that Sarah Fletcher states she received the phone call is incorrect but not by far even low it is still 100% incorrect. I and my Mother am sure of this as we cared very much so when deciding to make the phone call to my housing officer that we both documented down all relevant information accurately.
When doing so we noted down the precise time of 01:04Pm
I did get transferred by customer services when making the phone call to my housing officer about the way I was getting victimised, this did not take too long.
Once on the phone to Sarah Fletcher I started to explain to her a shorted down list of emergency issues that I was having wile renting my home.
1. That my mother had been contacting her and her team, while also contacting other official persons with relevance since the date of 00/00/2015
And this had continued up a till date and without any fair follow up's as company protocol states is mandatory.
And due to this lack of concern I had continued to suffer for a much further time frame than ever would have been if her and other persons jobs were followed correctly.

. 1.20pm.
The call was transferred by the customer services team informing me that Mr. Cordell wished to discuss his housing option show to move.
I took the call- he sounded agitated and said that he had a few things that he wished to discuss with me.
He said he was calling in response to a letter that I had sent him requesting the removal of a CCTV camera that he had installed on the inner communal/fire door on the ground floor of the block.
He informed me that he would not be removing the camera as he believed he was legally allowed to have the camera as the communal area was his.
I explained that he was in breach of his tenancy conditions as permission had not been sought or granted for the installation and he could not install anything in the communal area as these belonged to the Council.
He maintained that his neighbour in another block had a camera and had taken the Council to court about it and won the case, I responded that I could not comment on other cases, but my position remains as per the letter I sent: That the camera was in breach of tenancy conditions, was invasive of the privacy of other residents in the block as it points at the outer communal door and should be removed by Friday 25th November or the Council will remove it and charge him for the cost of doing so.
He then said that the camera was fake, so it didn't need to be removed.
I responded that it did still need to be removed.
His voice was raised throughout the exchange and I had to ask him to calm down and lower his voice more than once.
He then said that he wanted to move on to finding out about moving to another address.
He proceeded to give me a full history of his experiences with the police and previous housing management and alleged that 'Jackie', who had previously lived above him and 'Stan', his immediate neighbour on the ground floor, had victimised him over a long period of time and that he had done nothing wrong. This history was very full and it was difficult to get a word in because he was so worked up so, I let him relay the information to me as it seemed like he wanted to get it off of his chest.
He was very derogatory about the police and previous housing staff who had signed a request for an Asbo application against him.
I told him that I could not comment about the previous action taken.
He then came on to more recent events and stated that there had been an incident between him and another resident where she had shouted at him out of her window because of him starting up a scrambler bike in his garden.
He maintained that he was courteous during the exchange, but the police came and arrested him because she told them that he had threatened to kill her and that he had been put in the mental hospital, had won his case in court and was able to go home as of today.
He said that he wanted me to give him 'points' so that he could move.

I explained that his best means of moving would be through a mutual exchange, but he was adamant that he did not want to do this and wanted to be moved in the same way that he moved into this property 1 l yrs. ago by being given points. I explained that a transfer was unlikely based on what he had told me so far but that I could look into the position for him. He said a lot about his perceived victimisation by his neighbours and expressed that he felt that I should I have a duty to protect him. I explained that I had a responsibility to all residents living at Burncroft Avenue and took the opportunity to mention that I had received some reports about antisocial behaviour by him that I would need to discuss with him but suggested that we leave that for today. He then put his mother on the line (she had been trying to interject throughout the conversation) who said she wanted to know why I had not responded to her messages to call her. I apologised for this and explained that I have been very busy, but that I needed to know whether we had written permission from Mr. Cordell for us to speak to her - she said that there was a written note recorded on our files in 2015 Mr. Cordell asked her what I was asking her and when she replied that I was querying permission I clearly heard Mr. Cordell say angrily and aggressively "I am gonna do her over" and then "I am gonna take her job just for fun". I informed Mrs Cordell that I had overheard these remarks and that I was ending the call. She said that her son had now left the room and she was talking to me. I repeated that I would be ending the call and that she should put what she wanted to say in writing to me. Sarah Fletcher Neighbourhood Officer.

Before the Court will grant-an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.

Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply.

If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate.

One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme.

5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.

NOTES TO PARAGRAPH 5

Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end.

This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph.

After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought.

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-

I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.
Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. He stated that he was at work and was scared for his wife and daughter. I advised him to call the police.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned to report an incident that happened this morning as he was leaving the block to go to work. He stated that as he walked down the stairs, he saw Me Cordell talking to 2 council officials and as he walked past, Mr Cordell threatened him by shouting that he was going to ruin his life and that he was going to the police with evidence about him. He stated that he did not respond.

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi
I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office. If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.
Regards
Lorraine

Dear Ms Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr Cordell himself that requested for the meeting and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are. Alternatively, Mr Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi,
I am sorry for the short notice but we will not be able to attend the council meeting tomorrow 26/07/2017
at 14:00 hours the reason is we are indexing all the dates in your possession order, this is taking time due to there being mostly no times and some there is no dates just a month listed and there is so much to go over there is hours and hours of information we need to go over. There is also a great deal of emails that have to be printed off and other information. I wonder if it will be possible for you to get some information as to the days that are missing and times. I believe a person putting in complaints would at least know what sort of time of day this happened and what day. I would like to have everything in order and indexed and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. This will save a great deal of time for us and you. I would like to have everything in order and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. Please see the list of dates below and the information needed.

Dates of Breaches:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

July 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

I believe if this really did happen and the person was left with no electric to their flat, they would have had to call an electrical contractor to fix this so should have the information regarding this. I do not think they would leave themselves with no electricity to their flat so would have tried to sort this right away. So should have the date and time frame for this and electrical contractor details. I do not believe it is right to blame someone when there is no proof that person has done anything wrong which he has not. The code for the main door has been the same for over 15 years and due to the time the code being used by the tenants at the block to go in the numbers have faded so anyone can see the numbers to get the code for the main door, this has been done many times there have been people smoking in the block and taking drugs who does not live there in the main section of the communal area of the block. There have even been items taken from the block even 111 had their charismas tree taken.

At this point of time I wish to say Mr Cordell had nothing to do with this and has never damaged any lock to a cupboard or removed a fuse box.

6th August 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

27th September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this there seems to be 2 times on this date so if possible, time frames for both please, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

28th September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

4th October 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this it seems there is more than one-time frame, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

22nd November 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

I believe that Enfield council records telephone calls, I have asked repeatedly for all data the council hold including phone calls which I have still not been given, could I therefore have the recorded telephone call.

8th December 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

11th December 2016:

Dear Ms Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr Cordell himself that requested for the meeting and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are. Alternatively, Mr Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi
I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office.
If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.
Regards
Lorraine

Lemmy

Good morning ASB team speaking Lemmy speaking Hello Lemmy, how are you doing good morning it's Mr Simon Cordell
Hello Mr Cordell, good morning
Yeah, I was just wondering did you get the last two messages that was put onto your answer machine
I have only just come in Ok I left a message on your answer machine on Friday for you
I was not here
Ok I understand that and I also left a message over the weekend so I think you would have two messages on your answering machine in regard to your application
I have literally just got in Question to ask you
Ok go ahead
Is it ok to ask you a question then?
Yeah go ahead
I just wanted to know how's your career because obviously you're working for Enfield Council what is a company are you trained as a solicitor
Silence
Why what has that got to do with anything
Because you gave me an application the reason I'm asking you this question it's because you've handed me an official letter that have caught you personally posting through my letterbox I spoke to you outside with the police officers outside the front door when I call you now my concern right now is after reading that myself I'm quite well knowledge in the law and I'm concerned that you don't have no first-time material witnesses and you personally me on tape recordings that there's no truth found in these allegations and I'm saying to you
I said that they are just allegations
Yeah let me just allegations yeah
Yeah, no reason why and that is why I just wanted but you can't friend to take my [00:01:44]
And then if the police find any truth in them then you can follow through the police have already arrested me for these allegations and found them not true
This has got nothing to do with the police this is a civil matter
No, they are all criminal matters
As I keep trying to explain to you
Lemmy all of what you are saying to me are criminal offences
This is a breach of tenancy matter
Lemmy all of what you are saying to me Lemmy what you are saying to me are all criminal offences yeah Lemmy I am happy to meet with you anyway Lemmy and I'm happy to come to you lot because I built a book like I've explained to you a 600 page book of everyday of what they done to me in this house up to date with all of the recordings that I've got transcribed inside of it and you are now in my book Lemmy so anybody can hear your precise words that have come out of your mouth Lemmy know and like I said I'm going to show this to the public and I believe put my hand on my heart let me I never wanted when I said to you in the first conversation that are transcribed the messages and I'll send them to you after speaking to you I felt you humanities for you I felt do you know what this is a person is coming to this situation and he is just following the lead of the other people so let him have a bit of time to analyse the situation and really know what I'm saying has heart and meaning to it and that these people were trying to kill me Lemmy police let me these people trying to kill me Lemmy year

Yeah you can't find to take my home off me over allegations unless any truth found in them in this country let me, I feel that you're trying to trick me
It has to go before a judge anyway
No
And these are the reasons that I wanted to speak to you
Yeah but you can't pretend to take my home off me over allegations unless there's any truth found in them first
No, no, no let me can I say something you can't Go on
Ok so I can say something to you and you normally I would have a fair trial I'll never hearing while claiming hearing loss low 4 or something like that in regards to these issues or I'll be able to sit down and you'll be able to give them to the police 214 time
[00:03:29]
And I have been showing
Mr Cordell Mr Cordell Mr Cordell
In 2014 Lemmy may I say one thing to you listen to me listen to this it's important
P2014 when it's all first started to me they started to victimize me yeah I started to get all my friends to stay here and we started to take witness statements of them and they were all victims as well so now I have got at least 30 friends throughout the last few years that I stayed in that have all done then nothing and to stop them going upstairs and taking things personally as well I've made them right witness statements on Stead and little willing to come to court with me let me hear and to top it off the allegations I'm saying against these not these. I've attempted to kill me let me yeah
What they doing to me is very badly me yeah now what I have done when the doctors tried to come into my house to cover up what the police had done they come in my house and I had tape recording systems waiting for them let me know because I knew what they was trying to do trying to get me off road to cover the mess that use lots well your other colleagues have made and to cover up the mess that the police themselves have made yeah so I knew that I was coming and so did my loved ones and we are waiting in this house with tape recording systems for them doctors have been at my f why this has been going on and they have not found me crazy or anything wrong with me or her anybody I'm always very well minded and a very intelligent person let me
Unwanted applications they broke into my house with a fake warrant and I have got them all on tape recordings from the meeting that they forced with a fake Warrant to get into my house Lemmy they also came with a council officer yeah now that cancel officer was in my house when all this was omitted on the tape recordings Lemmy now they all lose their jobs for ever Lemmy because I have handed it to a complaints department advocate for the NHS and she said to me Simon I'm scared to press enter on the keyboard I'm can understand they you know the law and you can see what you have wrote if you want me to press return I will press return yeah Lemmy that's how much trouble these people are in Lemmy
These things that you are telling me
No, they have no me because I explained
No, it hasn't missed a call down listen please
Lemmy let Me Explain let me let me finish what I am saying and I will listen to you let me just finish let me finish because it's one thing let me
Don’t Tell me about court issues

I am saying let me finish let me please don't be rude to me let me let me I'll give you half an hour on the phone after let me please let me just finish let me because it does have relevance but you have to let me explain to you why it has relevance let me you have to let me explain myself to let me I listen to you you've got half an hour after I have finished we don't have to get off the phone let me so just let me finish please let me finish let me I do not want to talk to you this morning
[00:06:05]
No Lemmy you cannot tell me that you do not want to talk to me this morning you are trying to take my flat what do you mean that you don't want to talk to me Lemmy you're trying to take my flat off me and I am recording you
Yeah by all means recorded me
Yeah Lemmy yeah Lemmy see what I'm telling you I'm willing to come down to the Civic Centre right now I'm going to come down now my solicitor willing to come with me if you isn't busy I've got a private solicitor let me I've been on the phone to your legal department the Civic Centre already to call him and to all the legal departments that letter that you sent me should have gone through their hands you shouldn't send legal letters if you're not trying to lose it yourself or have them checked and I phoned up the legal department of the Civic Centre already and are you with me Lemmy
And I swear to God let me I know my rights so now what I'm trying to finish off with is that day when that house officer came into this house
In two thousand and fourteen and I recorded them I showed them exactly what name neighbours the Matthew the guns and Deborah were doing to me I walked up to the taps and show them you can listen to it on the tape recordings and see it was all the police were in here and I ask the council offices to protect me from what these people were making me fixing to let me and now you're telling me you're upset that I have knocked on the door yes I may have knocked on the door 6 times in the last 15 years of living in my house but that's to defend myself let me and to ask them to stop making me fixing because you lot won't take action and protect me know me neither will the police because you both signed a load of fools paperwork that has got me seven years of my life let me taken away if you make me homeless Lemmy I'm not legally allowed to be homeless I can't sleep in a park I can't sleep in a police station near me that only place I'm legally allowed to sleep is in a refuge where I won't sleep because I've already told you I've got gangs after m all I'm allowed to sleep in an industrial estate in commercial buildings so if you take away my flat away from me I'm legally allowed to go back to 2 what and all the copies that falls this paperwork and broke my human rights and use this flat as a prison cell you're going to show them for their true colours [00:07:53]
Because it is all going to come out because I am going to need somewhere to stay and I'm telling you it's going to be one of them where heart is where I should legally be allowed to stay Lemmy you are going to show them how bad these police officers and councillors really breached my human rights and how they use in my flat as a prison cell then me and you that I getting paid rent for this prison cell that I'm living in you took my personal home away from me let me I'm not allowed to hire equipment out to anybody personal or otherwise personal means if I give you an amp personally or a speaker or otherwise is business than me to me unless I have Enfield council's signature that is to any private birthday party that is to anything then me I am not allowed to do nothing I have a lot of Sound equipment sitting in a lock up and I can't use it I have to come to use them and I've wrote to every other borough has told me that use that are wrong in writing what you have stated because every department has its own licensing department let me and because it says illegal the organisation of illegal raves it is an illegal offence I have never been arrested for something that is illegal than me use not holding me in here and I have the true Facebook profiles of the people that you're setting me up to be but I don't see why I should have to hand them to use that to prove my innocence and grasshopper London up [00:09:11]

And use lot are trying to take my home off me when you are not protecting me let me yeah I'm telling you I have done nothing wrong here yeah and these allegations I have that woman from 117 saying we're doing this to get a new council flat we want new council flat I have her all and recordings Matthew the Gunsway 117 every time I have been to the front door to protect myself I bring this dictator phone that I'm using against you and record the conversations so anything you want to hear about what really happened I'll play the audio to you let me you still there Lemmy
Whenever you are finished, I will start to talk I'm letting you talk first like you asked me to OK Lemmy I am happy to listen to you now
[00:09:54]
I have listened to you without interrupting you so I'm going to say my beer please if you interrupt me, I will put the phone down
Ok and thank you for doing that for me let me let me
Alright and I have explained to you and it is in your rights to seek legal advice the action Enfield Council is taken against you is not criminal it's for civil matter it's a breach of your tenancy agreement so it's within your rights
It is harassment I have already been arrested and found not guilty for these offences
See what I'm saying I'll listen to you
Ok I'm sorry
I did not interrupt you I will put the phone down now all I'm giving you some advice you have to write to take the advice or you can do whatever you like now
No now that voice I need to give you if that this is a civil matter when Enfield Council house do you signed a tenancy agreement
15 years ago
And this is a breach of that tenancy agreement
No I have not done what you are saying that I have done and I'm saying that I'm willing to come to the office today now and willing to have a meeting can you please set a date so I can come with you and show you my evidence and defend myself fairly
We have offices
Can you give me a date just to come and defend myself and show you what I'm legally telling you about being writing and let me show my side of the story and give me a date today now please and I'll bring my solicitor and you can bring your legal department and we can put my side down on to paper
I do not need a legal department present
Ok then can we arrange a meeting then you don't need a legal department so can I come to you then please let me I hope you know that this is getting recorded let me
It does not bother me whether you are recording it or not Let me the general public will not agree let me you just come to work to pay for your mortgage the same as anybody else and your pet and gain your pension don't take things personally because you're upset than me because that's what you are doing
I am not upset
So can you set a date then please for me to come to the office like you was telling me to do that's all that we need to do is a date then I'm going to come to you and then I show you my deference and you can make your decision after I've shown you it
[00:12:27]

Things will begin to make sense this conversation I am free on Wednesday so you choose your time when you want to come and you give me your mother the right to speak on your behalf so if you can also invite her to the meeting
Yes, that is correct
Let me and if I show you true of what they're doing to me in 2014
Mr Cordell I'm going to put this phone down
No that's not correct I am just asking one question
I'm going to put the phone down
Don't do that please, please don't do that no me because this is my home and I don't want you to do that You asked me to arrange a meeting I am trying to do that Yes, you said Wednesday and I said 12 o'clock I am happy to do that with you and that would be perfect 12 1 clock on Wednesday is just fine so, so Ok what the Civic Centre what floor what room where do I meet you
If you come to the Civic Centre and go to reception ask to speak to Lemmy
And let me if I bring you the video evidence can I ask you on that day at that meeting understand that you're going to be showing me points and I'm going to be showing you the true evidence that proves are never done these things that you're accusing me of yeah and I'm going to defend myself but if I show you the evidence of what they've been doing to me while I'm a tenant yeah while I was still a tenant in 2014 if you did find any truth I coz let me I want them to go to prison let me and I don't care about 10 years that woman and that man and so stand and so is Karen I've lost my right finger Lemmy
I have been putting a naughty hospital because of them because they made false allegations and started let me when you see the truth of what has really happened you're going to realise that they should go to prison I can't even believe what you're telling me that I'm in trouble for isn't even a prosecutable offence and what you're using their signatures for right now against me or at least 10 years sentences and with the evidence that I have they won't just get 10 years they get 30 and have to pray that they end up consecutive and there be lucky to get Lemmy I am a very intelligent person and know what you are doing with these people signatures after I've been found not guilty it is out of order Lemmy let me I want you to treat them the same way as what you are trying to treat me for what they done to me in 2014 and up to date once I show you all the videos and bring all of my witness statements with me let me I want to be treated like a person as well but a person with credibility
Mr call down we have been very, very, very patient 4 weeks what has been going on we have been patient with No Lemmy you have allowed it to go on you have not been patient I have been calling you and you have not been protecting me I have you all on recording in my flat and loads of other times asking you not to protect me I have also got the videos of Me showing the police and everything and telling them what my neighbours are doing and the police officers run out of my house and I have them on video
I have them on video going please Simon don't get us involved don't show us that stuff I said to them you are supposed to protect me see when Jackie Gabby was in this house that is another time go and see her and say did you go into Simon's house with two police officers because I recorded her and she is telling me that she moved Debbie out of the house a week before to a hotel and what's Dan and what the Matthew the guns are doing is definitely not Debbie because she has put her into a hotel use not paid for Debbie who lived in 113 to be put in a hotel

Alright just give me one minute can I trust continua say something
They are very serious charges that I am saying to you lots and you all not doing anything about it and your key workers are my Witnesses because I have them on voice recordings Lemmy because of what you've done you're going to rap a lot of people up
Mr call Dale can I just say something
Of course, you can say of course you can go on
There are certain conditions that would have to be made if you do not want us to seek possession of your property number one you have to stop harassing your neighbours
Never did harass my neighbours if I ever did anything it was just defend myself
[00:16:02]
Hold on hold on
I defend myself because use lot don't defend me let me
Hold on hold on let me finish for number one you have to stop harassing your neighbours
I never have
Number two you have to give Enfield Council unlimited amount of access into your home when they want to come to see you
Lemmy I have allowed the council into my flat recently over six times in the last couple of weeks six or seven times they have been into my house
No, no
Lemmy do you know why 117 can I say something to you
This is Monday morning Mr Cordell and I'm not going to get into an argument with you
Yes, and I agree with that too
Thank you very much this phone call has lasted 16 minutes
Yes and I am glad that you have actually spoke to me and that you have spent 15 minutes of your page salary 15 minutes of your paid salary to look after a one of your clients tenants let me 15 minutes of your paid salary let me to look after one of your pay tenants when you're trying to take his flat let me
I am going to have to end this phone call you are coming on Wednesday with your mother so when you come on Wednesday, we will discuss everything
And are you going to arrest these people when I show you everything true crimes that they have committed that they have done to me with real witness statements
I am not going to
I am not going to I am not going
Are you going to take the real Lions of Investigation and treat them the way that they deserve to be treated then me?
I am not going to I am not go I am not the police
[00:17:13]
The police it is only the police that can deal with
But you are not the police but you are dealing with harassment right now intimidation they're all criminal offences let me they're all criminal and they've all been found not guilty by the police about me the police have said that have not been found guilty before Lemmy
Err
Let me have been found not guilty I have been arrested and found not guilty already let me I went to an interview we spoke in the interview room for threats to kill
[00:17:39]
I have got the CD for it near me from when I went there a few months before you all started writing this the police found me not guilty c stand next door's Stan wrote a statement in June 2016 and what supposedly happened is I Stan pepper salt in me all the 2014 and I kept calling the council offices to come here and I know you would protect me by 2016 I was supposed to have said test done if I see you in the park I will get you if you keep doing what you're doing to me you're destroying my life and had his life and Shannon's life you're ruining my life and you've got no right all I've ever done is look after you stand and treat you with respect yeah that's all I've ever done for you and care for you like a father figure stands for you to be doing this for spoke to me is inhumane treatment and it accounts to torture yeah it's not fair so 2016 I'll supposedly said to Stan if you keep doing this to me I'll get up doing something to you because you don't even know Shannon's phone number or Heidi's phone number to make sure that they're ok I want something like this done I'll phone I phoned them right now I need to speak to both of them you've got no right in victimising me and then a your constitution should protect me it says that there should be no political Persuasion or oh I see Status nobody should be treated any different

The phone cuts out by lemon putting the phone down end of call

got involved in assaulting me with his friends!

Dear Ms Cordell,
The meeting is at 2pm and not 12:00. It was Mr Cordell himself that requested for the meeting and he offered to come to the Civic Centre. The meeting will be held in council offices, however if there are any health reasons why Mr Cordell is unable to attend council offices then you will need to provide us with a doctor's letter stating what the health issues are.
Alternatively, Mr Cordell can respond to the allegations made against him in writing if he does not wish to meet with us in council offices to discuss them.

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi
I am writing this email as I have just spoken to my son Simon Cordell and I believe a meeting has been set for the 26/07/2017 at 12:00 at your office. We would still like to have the meeting, but could the location be changed to my home 23 Byron Terrace N9 7DG. I think it would be too much for my son to come to the office.
If you could get back to me, I would be grateful.
256,
Regards
Lorraine

25/07/2017
Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi,
I am sorry for the short notice but we will not be able to attend the council meeting tomorrow 26/07/2017 at 14:00 hours the reason is we are indexing all the dates in your possession order, this is taking time due to there being mostly no times and some there is no dates just a month listed and there is so much to go over there is hours and hours of information we need to go over. There is also a great deal of emails that have to be printed off and other information.

I wonder if it will be possible for you to get some information as to the days that are missing and times. I believe a person putting in complaints would at least know what sort of time of day this happened and what day.
I would like to have everything in order and indexed and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great. This will save a great deal of time for us and you.
I would like to have everything in order and easy to go over so, as much detail as possible would be great.
Please see the list of dates below and the information needed.

Dates of Breaches:

6th July 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

July 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a date and time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?
I believe if this really did happen and the person was left with no electric to their flat, they would have had to call an electrical contractor to fix this so should have the information regarding this. I do not think they would leave themselves with no electricity to their flat so would have tried to sort this right away. So should have the date and time frame for this and electrical contractor details.
I do not believe it is right to blame someone when there is no proof that person has done anything wrong which he has not. The code for the main door has been the same for over 15 years and due to the time the code being used by the tenants at the block to go in the numbers have faded so anyone can see the numbers to get the code for the main door, this has been done many times there have been people smoking in the block and taking drugs who does not live there in the main section of the communal area of the block. There have even been items taken from the block even 111 had their charismas tree taken.

At this point of time I wish to say Mr Cordell had nothing to do with this and has never damaged any lock to a cupboard or removed a fuse box.

6th August 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this there seems to be 2 times on this date so if possible time frames for both please, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

28th September 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

4th October 2016:

Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this it seems there is more than one-time frame, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?

22nd November 2016:
Would it please be possible to get a time frame for this, also on what date and time it was reported to the Enfield council and log of it being entered into the database?
I believe that Enfield council records telephone calls, I have asked repeatedly for all data the council hold including phone calls which I have still not been given, could I therefore have the recorded telephone call.

Lemmy Took the keys of George on this Date I Believe
This is the date when Lemmy took a Statement of George Quinton and backdated everything that is in the Councils History to do with George other than the alleged incident that took place on the 04 – 05/10/2016.
Lemmy done this so that he could then use the information to his dishonourable own self gain.
Lemmy had come to my block of flat with myself and himself knowing that he had forge official documentation for the company that he works for the Enfield Council.
We had been talking outside the front of my flats because he had put paperwork into my front doors letter box

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. WITNESS STATEMENT

I, Mr. John Irving, of 117 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ (Leaseholder) make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court. Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to tie best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

I am the landlord of Flat 117 Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The flat is located just above the Defendant's. The Property is currently let to Mr Mathiyalagan and it is being occupied by him, wife and his children.

I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

Background

3. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

4. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr Gray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

5. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr Neville Gray with the intention of inspecting his flat. However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr Gray called for the police to attend.

6. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply'. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later. This information has previously been reported to the Claimant.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.
Signed.

IN THE EDMONTON COUNTY COURT

CLAM NO:

WITNESS STATEMENT OF MR GEORGE QUINTON

I, Mr George Quinton, of 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.
Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge,

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. lam the tenant of Fiat 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. My fiat is located the next floor above the Defendant's. I have lived at this property since the 2nd May 2016.

121,

BACKGROUND

3. The problems that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.

4. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days but he would come 'after me' once this is over'.

5. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.

6. On another occasion on the 9th October 2016 the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation between the Defendant and I, where he admitted to have caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

7. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of being out to get him. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.

8. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.

9. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

Signed .....

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son. I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed?
What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation?
I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well.

Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation,
I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Subject: Our meeting today.
Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

and alarm to me, my tenants and other residents on Bumcroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ
The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

7. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

8. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr dray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016.
Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

9. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr Neville Gray with the intention of Inspecting his flat However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant. was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr Gray called for the police to attend.

10. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply1. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property,

I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying 'I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later'. This information has previously been reported to the Clamant

DIRECTIONS ORDER

10. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

11. The problems that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.

12. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days, but he would come 'after me' once this is over'.

13. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.

14. On another occasion on the 9th October 2016 the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation - between the Defendant and I where he admitted having caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

15. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of 'being out to get him'. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this, so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.

16. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.

17. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well.
Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation,
I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight.
Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

Subject: RE: urgent D02ED073
Attachments: D02ED073CountryCourtLetterDated24082017.pdf
To Whom It May Concern:
After a call made to the court today regarding the attached letter from the court dated 24/08/2018
Claim number D02ED073 before Deputy District Judge Perry I have been asked to write this email. On the 21/08/2017
when we were last in court Deputy District Judge Perry asked for the case not to be reheard until 28 days thereafter and that maybe this can be worked out between the parties. As I explained to the Judge, we were in the process of getting a date to see a solicitor in this matter we have not been able to get to see one until today
Shepherd and Harris & Co. at 15:00 hours, who are now putting an application in for legal aid, as my son is not well enough to deal with this case on his own and does need a solicitor to act on his behalf as there are many issues within Enfield Council case. There is going to be a large amount of paper work which will prove this. I have also emailed Enfield Council with the view of trying to set up a meeting, as throughout this Enfield Council has not had one meeting with my son to address the issues he was having going way back before any complaints was put in about my son. I am asking if the new date of

could be extended so we can have the meetings with the solicitors and get all the paperwork and video and audio information we have and statements as to what the issues are within this case together. We did believe that we would have had just over 28 days to be able to do this, as this is what the judge ordered, but it seems the date is before the 28 days we were thinking we had to get everything in order, and due to the time it has taken to have a 1st meeting with the solicitors the date of the
gives us very little time to see if legal aid is granted and get this put in place. And have time to address the issues of concern in this case with the solicitors. I hope these issues can be dealt with and the date can be extended, if a reply can be made via this email, I would be most grateful
Regards
Miss Lorraine Cordell

Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

1. I am employed by the London Borough of Enfield as an in-house legal disrepair surveyor and have been so employed since

My role consists of carrying out property inspections, diagnosis and the management of repairs to the councils entire housing stock along with dealing with and overseeing all disrepair claims.

INDEX

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to' carry out routine and l maintenance inspections.

Background

3. The Defendant is a. secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

4. I first visited this property in the morning of C:
12 July 2017
at 11.00 am after complaints where made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms Mother, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.
5. On
12 July 2017
at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr and Miss Mathiyalagan) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property: I then called Ms Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property

December 2016

also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.
6. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since

E.
This caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.
7. Mr Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.
8. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.
9. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on F.
12 July 2017
but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19f30pm. At that point I called one of my managers and advised that I required assistance. The Defendant's behaviour continued to worsen against me and so I called the Police as he would not allow me to approach my car. A police reference number was provided to me on the day 775912072017 CAD.

10. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.
Statement of Truth
I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

2. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to. stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

3. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

4. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

5. The Defendant has slashed my car tires, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive Behaviour as my wife and 1 go out or return to our home has caused us sever stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving Our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat, for fear of being accused of making noise even though we Dive too floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalizing my property and although I cannot prove If, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my oar tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat. Also, I no longer park my oar outside my block In Burncroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home Instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not as to why we should have to live this way.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

Backgrounds facts

18. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

19. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

20. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

21. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

22. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

23. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

24. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

25. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

26. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

27. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

MR SIMON CORDELL

28. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

29. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

30. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

26. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing Intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

27. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. I refused to write the letter and told the Defendant that I do not want to get involved as I did not have any problems with the lady. Since then the Defendant has made living in this block difficult for me and my family. He has been very aggressive to my family and I and has continuously intimidated, threatened and harassed my wife, cousin and me.

28. The Defendant have repeatedly accused us of making noise inside our flat even though our flat is situated two floors above his and the person living directly below us have never complained to us about noise. He has shouted abuse at us, damaged our properties and aggressively demanded money from me. My family and I are constantly living in fear and my wife are frightened to stay at home and has had to accompany me to work on several occasions and stayed in the car with our young daughter until I finish work.

29. The Defendant has slashed my car tyres, damaged my fuse box and has physically threatened to hit me with a piece of wood. He has a big dog that he brings out with him without a lead when he approaches us, and he has used the dog to intimidate us. He also allows the dog to bark and run freely inside the communal hallway and staircase without a lead. I have reported

152. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

156. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

157. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife as she was leaving the block to go and pick up our daughter from school and accused her of slamming the door. My wife denied slamming the door and the Defendant called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

I told him that I was not going to give him any money and that he should go and work so that he could earn some money. As we left the block, the Defendant came running after us and was shouting abuse and swearing at me and said to me that I should pay him some money if I want him to leave me and my family alone. The Defendant also said to me that he has all our personal details including phone numbers, date of birth and bank details and that I must pay him to have them back. I told him that I will not pay him and to do whatever he likes with the details.

159. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

Please see attached notes of interview - The complainant is really frightened for his family - Mr Cordell is very aggressive and has previously kicked him in the nose/face and threatened to hit him with a piece of wood; his wife is so scared that she accompanies him to work and waits in the car with their daughter for his shifts.

I visited Mr Mathiyalagan at 117 Burncroft Avenue to day to look at the flooring following email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise as a result of wood flooring in the flat. I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.
I informed him that laminate flooring can generate some noise and to be mindful of his neighbours while walking around inside his flat-
I then went and knocked at flat 113 but there was no response.
17/02/2017:

I visited 109 Burncroft Avenue on 17/03/2017 to hand deliver to post a letter through Mr Cordell's door and as I got into my car to drive off after posting the letter, Mr Cordell ran after me shouting and screaming abuse. I did not stop to speak to him, and he ran after me until I turned left into Green Street. As he was running after my car, he was shouting at people passing by to stop the car.
By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. I telephoned him back and he wanted to know whether I was the person that posted a letter through his letterbox and I said yes. He asked why I did not stop when he ran after me and I told him that I had another visit and did not have the time to stop and talk to him. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me to report that Mr Cordell went to his fiat while he was at work and his wife was at home with his cousin and daughter and started to bang on his door and shout abuse and threats. 08/05/2017:

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned to report an incident that happened this morning as he was leaving the block to go to work. He stated that as he walked down the stairs, he saw Me Cordell talking to 2 council officials and as he walked past, Mr Cordell threatened him by shouting that he was going to ruin his life and that he was going to the police with evidence about him. He stated that he did not respond.

Morning Lorraine,
Firstly, apologies for my delayed reply! I had intended to reply much sooner. I think I'm correct in saying that the necessity for your son's arrest was associated with PC G's uncertainty as to the address provided. This is something I'll discuss in the report. Can I ask, from where did you get the impression that your son's name was not in PC G's pocketbook?
To reiterate, I'd be more than happy share documents with you at the end of the investigation. As per the Police Reform Act, subject to the harm test. Was there any particular reason you'd want them sooner?
I expect the investigation to conclude in October incidentally. I was intending on giving PC G three weeks, what are your thoughts on that?
Re PC G's current occupation, I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever.
Kind regards

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son. I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed?
What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation?
I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well.
Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation,
I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear 3377,
explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

Subject: RE: Our meeting today.
Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply. Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person was wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said
and did not brother to check what my son was saying. Something always come to mind here and that is what was written in the subject access request I got back from my son's insurance company, this was after the time we spent trying to stop the insurance company cancelling my son's insurance and going to courts. When I saw this, it hurt as we knew the police had not told the truth and in the subject access request there was nothing to say my son was not in the wrong. There was no sorry there was nothing and this is just wrong. My son was the one that had the bad mark against his name for a long time until it was proven in the appeal court, not the police officer and this is still the case to this day the police officer has done nothing wrong in everyone's eyes when he did do wrong. He has been allowed to move on in his life, my son was the one spending all the time to clear his name not the police officer when my son had done nothing wrong. "[...] Which is obviously ... we're in an awkward situation as well because [Data Subject] and [Data Subject] mum is constantly ringing us up. They don't understand that obviously we are going to take a police officer's views over obviously one of our policyholders because obviously a police officer's job is obviously to tell the truth and not to lie." This is the action of most people's view but in this case the police officer was not telling the truth my son was. And my son was the one being made to suffer when he had not done anything wrong. But yet people believe the police in everything they say. I know you have said PC G's current occupation; I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever. Maybe I see it another way his occupation is Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice, can't you see the irony in this he is trying to find justice for people, but what he did in this case was never justice at his own hands, the DPS never served justice for my son, yet they knew PC G had lied in this whole case, and that PC G took it to the courts and again never told the truth and perjury himself two times in a court of law. PC G seems to think this is acceptable he still applied for his job roll where he is working to make sure justice is fair for all. I am sure if he had admitted to breaking the law in what he did he would not be in the position he is in now I do find this very relevant that is how I feel and my son does.

Best Regards

Lorraine Cordell

MR SIMON CORDELL

CLAIM NUMBER: No
1. Mr George Quinton, of 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ make this statement believing it to be true and understand that it may be placed before court.
Insofar as the content of this witness statement is within my own personal knowledge it is true and insofar as it is not within my personal knowledge it is true to the best of my knowledge.
I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS
1. I am the tenant of Flat 113 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. My flat is located the next floor above the Defendant's. I have lived at this property since the 02nd May 2016
121,

BACKGROUND
3. The problems that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.
4. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for. 12 days but he would come 'after me' once this is over'.

5. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.
6. On another occasion on the 09th October 2016
the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment? The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide, this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation between the Defendant and I, where he admitted to have caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

7. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of 'being out to get him': I asked him to leave but he refused to do this so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.
8. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.
9. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

Statement of Truth
I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

120. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

121. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

122. On 28th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was leaving the block at 11:45am, swore at her, shouted abuse and accused her of making noise inside her flat. He said to her that he knows all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, date of birth, phone numbers and bank details. The Defendant demanded that they pay him some money and asked her to tell Mr Mathiyalagan to come and see him.

123. On 2nd July 2017, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him with his dog barking and without a lead as he was going out with his family at

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

124. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

125. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

126. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

127. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers Sarah Fletcher and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant’s property following reports of low water pressure in the flats above his. While inside his flat they noticed that the Defendant have installed a metal security gate inside his front door. It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

128. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant's officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant's block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant's officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

129. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

130. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

131. On 12th July 2017, Mr Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Mr Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

JJ. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement;

KK. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

LL. Condition 21 - "You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter.to the Police".

MM. Condition 31 - "You must take care not to cause damage to your property or the property of your neighbours".

NN. Condition 33 - "You must keep the inside of your property clean and in reasonable decorative order".

PP. Condition 53 - "You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy"

19. I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. Letters were sent to him on 29th November 2016 inviting him for a meeting on 6th December 2016, 31st

January 2017 inviting him for a meeting on 9th February 2017, 16th February 2017 for a meeting on 22 February 2016 and 16th March 2017 for a meeting on 22nd March 2017. These letters are exhibited at pages 63-70 of the exhibit bundle.

30.1 have enquired with the Mental Health Team whether the Defendant is currently known to the team and was informed that he is no longer under their care.

56. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

57. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

58. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's fiat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he's got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.
Mr Quinton stated that on
M
04/10/2016, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.
N
11/12/2016, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat. Mr Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied You know what, I'm a grown man I’m not goanna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.

About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street.

His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his fiat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.

He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.

08/02/2017:

I did an announced visit to Mr Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response, I then telephoned Mr Quinton and left a voice message for him.

Notes about this person
Home visit to Ms Deborah Andrews flat. Attendees Dawn Allen TMO and CPN Bola Quadri Horne visit to Ms Andrews advised that her neighbour at number 109 has for the past few months harassed, intimidated, stalked her and made a life a complete misery. He continuously plays loud music, bangs on her ceiling and door alleging that she is monitoring his movements in his flat. She feels petrified by his presence and as a result refused to leave her flat for fear bumping into him on her way out. also recalled an incident when the perp spat in her face. It's been one issue after the other she advised
The recent event which took place a week ago. She was on her way out to attend her appointment with her CRN when he apprehended her and threatened to kill her. She was pretty shaken from the incident that instead of attending her appointment, returned home immediately. She advised that she contacted the police but, wasn't taken seriously as they assumed, she was drunk at the time of the call. She advised that she wasn't in the list drunk but, just the way she spoke due to her condition. She still wasn't taken seriously and had to abandon the call.
She found this very frustrating and advised that it was not the first time this would happen to her. Her GPN also confirmed her statement and expressed her dissatisfaction at the way she was treated.
I felt completely let down by the police and became frightful for her safety especially, as she knows the perpetrators has shells in his flat.
I observed in her flat that her floors were very creaky, I was made aware by Dawn that most of the flats in the block are like that. Unfortunately, the creakiness exacerbates the noise level in the fiats and cause more problems than usual.
I advised that I will contact the police to make further enquiries. I will also contact MHT to enquire if Mr Cordell is known to them. At some point the perpetrator will need to be interviewed and a warning letter issued on him. I will contact the repairs team and try to arrange a surveyor to visit her flat and see what assistance nan be offered
I further advised that her case will be investigated, and an officer will get back to her to discuss further with her. Her CPN and TMO will be kept informed of updates

Hi Dolly,
Nick and I attended while ago and spoke to the A while ago when she originally called Police. At the time she didn't want us to speak to her neighbour as things had got better. The lady handed us a letter about what had happened but none of it made any sense.
We believe she was suffering from mental health issues. On another occasion we popped round to see her and she wouldn't come and speak to us so instead she spoke through her letterbox to us.
The male at 109 - Simon Cordell who is causing the problems is very well known to Police and is also very anti Police. I know some Officers went around and spoke to him and things seemed to get better After that we have had no further calls from the lady
We will try and get around to see her when were back on duty on Monday.
Kind Regards

Good afternoon Mark,
Could you kindly assist with this query please. Following reports of ASB by the above tenant, my colleague and I visited her this morning and were alarmed by the nature of her complaints. She has in the past few months being constantly harassed, intimidated, bullied, stalked and threatened to kill by her neighbour at 109.

As a result of his behaviour, she has become too scared to leave her flat for fear of what may happen to her. She is a vulnerable tenant who requires support from services. However, the unsettling behaviour exhibited by number 109, has hindered her from attending her appointments and exacerbated her condition. At the moment, she feels very disorientated / agitated and will like the harassment to stop.
She advised that she had reported this to the police a few times but, wasn't taken seriously.
I will appreciate if you could stop over at to reassure her that the matter is being dealt with and also to stop by 109 and advise him that you are aware of what is going on and the repercussions should it continue.
Thank you for your support and assistance

Mr. Neville Gary, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended. the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Dear Emmanuel,
There's a mistake from the Court as the order should not be discharged and will without a doubt be reinstated in due course. If your client is found to be in breach of the terms of the injunction, we reserve the right to take further actions against your client. Your client should continue to respect the terms of the order as we have advised the court that the order has been discharged due to an internal admin. Error. I hope he will be advised of our position.
Kind regards Milla

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

34. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

36. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

37. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

38. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

39. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

40. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

41. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

42. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

44. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

45. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

5. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for committal as the Defendant is in breach of the Injunction Order with Power of Arrest made against him In the County Court at Edmonton on 9th August 2017.

6. The Defendant's abusive behaviour towards my family and I stopped for some time after the Claimant obtained the injunction against him although he continued to make general comments towards us whenever he sees me or my wife entering or leaving the block.

7. On 11th November 2017 between 11:30am and 12pm, my wife was at home when the Defendant came up to our front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside our flat. He started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on the door as soon as he saw my wife. He then ran downstairs when my wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. My wife telephoned the police and reported the incident, CAD No. 3230 of 11/11/17. The police attended about two hours later, went and spoke to the Defendant and came informed my wife that he denied coming to our front door,

8. On 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, my wife was inside our flat trying to assemble a cupboard that we bought from Ikea. Our three-year-old daughter and my cousin who was asleep at the time were also in the flat. Suddenly my wife heard someone banging on our front door and she went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from our flat. My wife told him that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside our front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at my wife.

9. The Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted our letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record my family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about ten to fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2/1/18.

10. On 3rd January at 9:30am, I was inside our flat with my wife and daughter when the Defendant came and started banging on our front door. I went and asked him what the problem was, and he stated that my wife was banging on the floor yesterday for about an hour. I told him that my wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called me a liar and continued to shout and swear at us. He threatened to kill us and burn down our property and stated that we will not be safe no matter where we are. The Defendant then forced his way into our fiat, but my wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. I called the police and they came and advised us to report the matter to the council, CAD No. 2098 of 3/1/18. The officers refused to listen to the audio recording of the incident and advised that we should ask the council to rehouse us.

11. The recent abuse and threats to kill from the Defendant have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. My wife is afraid to stay in our flat alone with our daughter or leave the flat alone without me or my cousin accompanying her. The Defendant's behaviour is also causing a Jot of distress and anxiety not only to me and my wife but also to our three-year- old daughter.

6. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

7. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

8. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

9. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

12. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January 2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

13. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

14. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

15. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He stated that the recent threats from the Defendant has made it difficult for them to live in their own home and that they are constantly having to double lock their front door for fear that the Defendant may break into their flat again.

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

16. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

17. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

18. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

19. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

20. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

21. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

22. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Permission to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81.

19. In the event that the Court agrees to reinstate the injunction and to make a declaration that the Defendants has acted against the terms of the injunction dated 09th August 2017, it is the Claimant's intention to bring an application for committal against the Defendant. Therefore, we would like permission from the Court to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81 for breaches of the terms of the injunction for the incidents dated 11th November 2017, 02nd and 3rd January 2018.

Who tried to kill Simon?

A Novel from a Diary off a Book off Truths, Created and Authored by

Simon: -

Staring:

Chapter 1

This is my, Introduction.

My Name is Mr. Simon Cordell, and this is part of my life story.

This book got written by me for the purposes of supplying true and accurate information to the public.

It is my intentions (To start this book) with a pretence of a story of a fiction, so I will begin, One day I found a colourful box and it had a wind up handle that was coming out of the side of it, so me, being me, I went up to the box and took hold on the handle, in doing so, I started to spin the handle.

At first, I could hear this cranking noise; it was ever so quiet but hearing this noise encouraged me, more and more, to keep on spinning the handle.

One second went by and then another second, till I started to feel and enjoy the fun in the rhythm, then, as I went to take my hand of the handle and stop, what I was doing. Pop then outcome this jack in a box.

Now as some people would, or might say, let's get back to reality, this now is an Introduction; which in fact starts, with a short summary, of my own personal middle adder lessons of age and in brief, this is a short walking, to some of my earlier child hood memories:-

Regardless of any deceitful accusation; The truth is that throughout my whole life I have got raised with high living standards; off a good statue and that I have a very close mother to son relationship, my mother and I have always been very close to each other and this is alongside with the rest of our family member's.

Together, we have always been there for each other, this got done by us all, as a family should do for each other and in a sequence of events, I can remember; historically, when very much so, in the younger days of my life, when my dad as he still does now, worked hard, so that he could provide for his loved ones and this was in an addition to getting managed, for us to get provided, with having nice things; "living essentials," such as: A Good Education, Food, Drink, Water, Housing, Holidays and Good; Clothing.

Who tried to kill Simon?
A Novel from a Diary off a Book off Truths, Created and Authored by Simon: -
Staring:
Chapter 1

This is my, Introduction.
My Name is Mr. Simon Cordell, and this is part of my life story.

This book got written by me for the purposes of supplying true and accurate information to the public.
It is my intentions (To start this book) with a pretence of a story of a fiction, so I will begin, One day I found a colourful box and it had a wind up handle that was coming out of the side of it, so me, being me, I went up to the box and took hold on the handle, in doing so, I started to spin the handle.
At first, I could hear this cranking noise; it was ever so quiet but hearing this noise encouraged me, more and more, to keep on spinning the handle.
One second went by and then another second, till I started to feel and enjoy the fun in the rhythm, then, as I went to take my hand of the handle and stop, what I was doing. Pop then outcome this jack in a box.
Now as some people would, or might say, let's get back to reality, this now is an Introduction; which in fact starts, with a short summary, of my own personal middle adder lessons of age and in brief, this is a short walking, to some of my earlier child hood memories:-
Regardless of any deceitful accusation; The truth is that throughout my whole life I have got raised with high living standards; off a good statue and that I have a very close mother to son relationship, my mother and I have always been very close to each other and this is alongside with the rest of our family member's.
Together, we have always been there for each other, this got done by us all, as a family should do for each other and in a sequence of events, I can remember; historically, when very much so, in the younger days of my life, when my dad as he still does now, worked hard, so that he could provide for his loved ones and this was in an addition to getting managed, for us to get provided, with having nice things; "living essentials," such as: A Good Education, Food, Drink, Water, Housing, Holidays and Good; Clothing.

There is just running water pipes there is nothing wrong with my flat there is a valve there that should not be that has been there since I moved into this flat year I am not accusing you

year
I have had about twenty survivors in here
Simon calm down now
5:02
Dad all of this needs to be on the recordings so that people can see what they are doing to me.
are these water pressure tall right on your sink?
Simon can you check the cold water my water pressure went down a little while ago
Lorraine
and it keep being a problem but they come out and put new stop cocks outside
year
and it sort of started to fix the problems and is it alright now year my water is back to normal as well but I was suffering Lorraine
yep year I have got nothing wrong here mine is fresh year, year but you have got to appreciate we have got to find out why this is all happening year but that is their own problem, she has been attacking me 21:53 pm
05:31
she killed my baby she's got adult son that lays upstairs yeah, the same age as me and they bang something about my medical notes
Lorraine come her for a minute
I got all of my medical notes to the clinic proving that I never had any disease or nothing year
I protected the family and looked after them year and then they sit there banning and banging and banging until they killed my kid
I got another woman in here and got her pregnant and they banged again till they killed her as well year her baby and I got all the evidence of it all Simon:
you talk to him
I have not done nothing wrong in here this is my home I treat it like a family home
I had at thirteen-year relationship in here
I have never had a party
I have never had any arguments
I paint it and look after it
I walk into other people's council houses and they are ruined year you should see the hard work that I am doing I built a model Constitution to protect the people I have built a charity

Simon:

and they have banged and destroyed my charity

Simon:

He lied and set me up

Simon:

He is writing an Asbo

the first Asbo is already forged

Simon:

and now you are forging the second Asbo as well I got diary of 2500 days and I record evidence on most of them days blank

you have lied and said that I chased you to your car and I have got the video evidence of it

Right

I am taking you lot to court and when we go to court, I am going to play it all and prove that I never chased you to your car year I showed you my medical notes I showed you Tell him to calm down

Simon:

on that day I showed you my medical notes and you run away when I showed you my medical notes

Simon:

and that is what I done I showed you my medical notes and you run you run

you run like a scarred cat

Simon:

you run because you know what you are doing to me

Simon, just calm down and let them sit down

let them just check

just keep it down

I got it all on type

he has been, the council can I just show you something please

He is setting me up he is lying and saying that I chased him to his car the other day dad this guy the council are saying that my son never complaints in and I have only printed of a few that are here and these are just a few year take the pipe from here to there and break it off and put a house pipe on to there and see what the pressure is like if the pressure is good from there to there then they got a blockage then the lady needs to get her stop cock checked

Right
Can you see that like this one here can you see that point coming out of the floor that is your mains coming from outside tea is of for us this is his flat then he goes up.
Same thing next floor
His done the job his got the job.
My son the council seem to be saying that they have nothing on their computers in regards to complaints that is 2017 from my understanding that is a different case going on from then
No but my son has been complaining about what the neighbours have been doing to him, right they are saying that they have got no complaints on the system Right who did you chat to everyone
Everyone she contacted everyone the MPs
I actually put the complaint up very high
Right look at all of these this is 2015 year
No one has addressed anything and this is just a few weeks
I have only been in the job for a few weeks
The council are doing nothing why are you alright year?
I am recording it and then transcribing it to paper and then it goes into my book what happens everyday 8:12
the council are actual saying well the council said that the council are actually saying that they have got no records of anything it seems like a load of stuff has been deleted
Look at this sir look at what they are doing to me
Simon leave that no
Yes, but look at what they are doing to m, look at what they are doing to me in my yard
How do I say it we do not have the authenticity to delete things of the record?
look at what they are doing to me fam look what they are doing watch this watch this Simon:
watch what all of these neighbours are doing to me
mum:
Simon turn it of

Simon:
this is all dated before what they done to me year they killed my baby
Simon stops
Enfield council won't protect me, they killed my baby year you let them kill my baby I got the evidence year look what they are doing to me when I am working in my own house year
I got my medical note I got everything I never had anything wrong with me the government set me up year there is no witness there is no time stamps on the other injunction and now you are trying to get another injunction on me fam what is going on fam?
I look after my house I look after the people I got as model Constitution I done everything did you put this kitchen in?
no, it was like this they come here and they offered to put a new kitchen in but they said Simon this is better than your other kitchen keeps this kitchen so, when the council come here, they said that they are keeping this kitchen year and I said OK they said if I want them to put a new kitchen in, they will put a new kitchen in
year
you can look at my diary other here Simon just leave it and that is it year thank you I am glad that you take them pictures year of that because I have been asking you lot since 2014 and the MP's to protect me they come and fitted a new kitchen in this house look this was fitted before I come here and the council know I have had about 50 survivors here taking pictures of it all they offered me a brand-new kitchen and I said no that I do not want the kitchen I said that I am going to keep this kitchen time 07:42
because this is what needs to be in court he shook my hand and agreed that I can keep this kitchen
I know but by you accepting to keep this kitchen it takes you of the decent homes do you know that No, it does not they said to me that they want me to keep this kitchen they turned around and said that this kitchen is far better than the one that they were going to install the way it works that may be the case but what it basically means is that when you became a tenant if this kitchen was here and it was none standard hmm

in my experience and I have got a lot of experience because of its my job
I never installed this year carry on so, if I came into the property if I get into a property say that if if you can be a decent person if you won't and I hope that you can because I am a good person here and I do not want to get you into trouble year carry on if I go into a property say you are a new tenant
yes
and I was showing you around the property and it was a none standard kitchen you would have two options 19:52 time
You would have the option to have it replaced which would be erm, it would have to comply with the voice family we are working on hospital
year
we are pursuing the voice family which is what turn this of Simon because I cannot hear what he is saying any time that I have been up to their house I have got all of the recordings, every time and everything alright just stop now when we come into your property after it has been tenanted and look and there is a none standard kitchen in there in a decent home you have to understand that they work on a job when they came in and they were doing the boiler the kitchen and the bathroom em this was em home year I am getting to that what you have is decent homes they turned around and said they turned around and said to my son
Simon:
Fam, look at this year
Mum:
No Simon please I am trying to talk decent homes will work on externals

I am not having this the externals will be doors windows
20:15 time

[00:11:29]
I am fuming I am sorry dad but you have not had to sit in here for all of these days while they have been banging at me
I can't work I cannot do anything and this man had forged a warrant to get into my home and he is also trying to put another Asbo on me and I am supposed to have respect for him
I listen to what he wants and do what they have requested but as a person I do not think that he is a good person
yes correct his bad he is poison he is a liar well I am talking about the ones that come and done the kitchen the bathroom just one property on his own and he has got a dog
Simon will you behave
Dad listen I am not even legally allowed to be homeless that is what it says in the first injunction / Asbo I am not allowed to go to any squatted buildings or anything I am not even allowed to be homeless and now they are taking my home of me and I have not done anything wrong all of it needs to be on audio this will show how serious what is going on he is refusing to take any acknowledgement towards the videos that I am showing them of them lot attacking me Let them talk they actually turned around and said to him that this is a much better kitchen than what we were going to be putting in
I do not care I am going to ruin their life's
I am going to destroy them
Simon:
I am going to go online and show my diary and any one that has done anything bad or touched me you are going to ruin who's life's anybody that has touched me from Enfield council and I am just going to remind you that I am an officer of Enfield Council year and I have not done nothing wrong I have got a diary

I have got a diary a legal diary
Simon stops
that I am going to show the truth about
Simon:
Simon calm down
So, going back to the kitchen for a moment, they will then take you of the program the kitchen the life spam of the kitchen will then be twenty-five years
Right OK
So, every twenty-five years we program that in well no one has said that to my son Every twenty-five years we program a new kitchen in year
so,
say for an example which need to be re programmed in the year of 2000 it will be programmed in again in the year of 2025
Right with you
So, if this kitchen if they came out in the year of 200 hypercritically and you decided to keep the kitchen
I believe it was in about the year of 2013 till 2014 when they come out so, right 2013
2028 maybe oh, year, year, year so, 2028 next right with you
so, you will be of the program well they did not say that to my son in between that time when of when you are not having the kitchen done, as your landlord we are responsible
I will buy a new house soon anyway
I have got intentions of working hard
Simon:
we will carry out the repairs the problem with and in accordance to our repairs policy hmm
we won't carry out repairs for kitchens that we have not installed well can I explain
Fam look at this diary year

just so you can see with a glimpse of your own eyes year because many people have not seen this yet and this is their problem

Simon:
This is who tried to kill Simon, year, it's a diary here. Every one of these chapters is a day of my life and what they done to me and this is built from hard core evidence all of my emails time stamped. I have used all of my phone messages extracted and this is now why I want them all arrested and is all about what the council officers have done to me, year and every one of these is about what they have done to me. Can you see how many days are missing only a couple of days in this whole thing and these are the people who have attacked me. My neighbours, year.
Simon:
this is every day I have got 100% in writing in traditional words I got all my grammar going well so that I could build a new model Constitution and charity year
Simon:
can I show you something?
Banks:
alright
Mother:
well can I explain when they were coming out and I will show you something else that I won't you to take a note of in a second
Mother:
when they come out, they turned around and said to my son that this was a far better kitchen than what the council would be putting in so, he would be better of keeping it so my son agreed to that Mother:
if you could come in for a second, I will show you
Man:
I do not need to
Mother:
no, no, I was just carrying on from what you had said about the improvements, yes which the council have seen as they have sent survivor after survivor
14:25
Mother:
My son did
Mother: em

Mother:
I do not know I think he actually did
Mother:
I know that the council has said each time that they have come in here that there is no problem with this so, if you find that there is a problem which has only just been raised over the last past couple of months
Man:
right it is my job as legal disrepair to challenge it
Mother:
right if you think that there is a problem with it, I will get this wall replaced
Mother: year no problem what so ever
Banks:
so, what happened with it
Simon:
it was like this
Mother:
there was not a wall here
Man:
there should have been a wall here and a frame here and a fire door there
Simon:
but I have lived here for fifteen years the council have come in here and allowed for it to happen they put all the pipes here, they had about twenty survivors here
Man:
Mr. Cordell I can only comment on what I can see Man:
so that is nothing I have done nothing wrong you have come into my home to try and rape me just so that you can cover up everything
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
you are setting me up you have lied to get a warrant to come into my house and said that I have chased you to your car. I never chased you to your car
Man: is that got asbestos in it
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
are you saying that I chased you to your car?

Man:
have you had an asbestos survey done?
Simon:
the guy is fake
Man:
Simon have you ever had an asbestos survey done
Simon:
I believe they done it, anything that they have wanted to do they have had access
Mother:
year I believe he had them done because he had loads of assessments done
Man:
Right
Simon:
All of my medical notes are in here all the police do you know that the police are on the phone spitting at me going fuck you black bartered going "per", I got all of the recordings, listen to Lemmy
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
no let them here them self's
Mother:
Basically, as I stated in my emails to the council the flat was suffering from damp in the property since he has moved in, I will show you some of the conditions, that wall, there is still a problem here, this is just some of the pictures
Simon:
let me show them dad what time it really is because they wrong in what they are doing @Not protecting me"
Simon:
If they had listened to the emails that me and mother had sent then my baby would not be dead, they never protected me
Dad:
Simon this is not the right time
Simon:
when I showed them evidence that I?
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
Enfield Council have got the blame for my baby being dead year as far as I am concerned year
Simon:
I have been writing to them all the MP's and everything and you lot have not done anything and now you lot are following up complaints from the 16th 2016

Simon:
I have got videos of what they done to me
Mother:
Alright hold on
Mother:
Simon, Simon, Simon stop a second
Simon:
Videos after videos I have got phone calls after phone calls asking the council to protect me
Simon:
phoning the council and police asking them to please protect me and they are saying you lying you are brown down the phone to me
Simon:
You are an immigrant yourself,
Man:
Sorry
Simon:
you are an immigrant yourself you should understand how I am made to feel Mother:
Simon stops
[00:16:40]
Man:
You want to stop acting Prejudice
Simon:
Prejudice I can't I have got my father here
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
you come into this country or family did and got citizenship
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
if people come and started to discriminate against your kids because of the colour of their skin you should also get upset
Dad:
Simon, what you are doing is wrong
Simon:
No dad leaves me dad, let me live my own life
Dad:
Simon
Simon:
its ant wrong year it's the same about I am a brown boy on the block and that is all scribbled other my paperwork and that I am a black cunt

Simon:
I am a black boy occupier
Simon:
I do not have a black group if I was [part of a black boy on the block occupation I would be a part of the kkk too I am a mixed race
Dad:
Simon
[00:17:13]
Simon:
scribbled all in my paperwork year scribbled every were
Dad:
what are you doing?
Simon:
putting it all on audio so that when I put it in my book it is all in my book dad, that I told these blokes and no one could hear what I am saying.
Dad:
will you stop because you are all other it telling me to stop and this is got to go into my book as it is the truth of what really happened
Dad:
year but do not point it out
Simon:
Is there a problem with my flat?
Plumber:
as far as I can tell you are alright, I just want to test the pressure coming into the building
Simon:
the flat is in good condition year
Plumber:
year
Simon:
They are taking the piss.
Simon:
I swear to god I was working do you know what happened year I was working I was throwing parties year doing my little thing, year. I started to build a festival and a new Constitution for the people and all that year, I had a business partner. I got nicked for a gazebo that they found gone missing out of one of the buildings they said it come out of a building So, they put me on bail conditions for a year, I am not allowed to leave, I am not allowed to do this, I am not allowed to do that and it ruined my life, a bit year. After I won, I gave a receipt out of a till machine and bust the case. year, and it showed that I brought this and I won the case, they expected me to go to prison for four years, year. I walked out of my house and I had lost my girl from thirteen years because of it, year. I went out of my house, year, met another girl, started looking after her I was well happy in life with her, started to have a family with her and everything, year. She goes to get some check or something, she came back moaning about a spot on the top of her ass, year, its nothing me and her were looking after each other "Background noise sound Enfield Council Employee" Shame

Simon:
I spoke to my next-door neighbour Stain because he was like a father to me and he starts telling this other drunken woman that he is getting dunk with. The next thing I know is that Ozzie starts phoning the police and they start sending the doctors out that does not actually work, they disconnected it when they done this work
Mother:
Simon:
they throw a massive Asbo outside of my front door year and now this Asbo accuses me of being ten other people year ten people who through parties one after the other. So, they tried to turn me into a super grass, year. I basically said go away bugger of you lot you dirty cops
[00:18:59]
Simon:
I proved that there was a section 144 I
Simon:
you have kept up with what is going on haven't you Plumber:
Yes
Simon:
so, if there is a section on the door and the cops are writing that in there statements they have got no right to come into the house into the house basically unless they can prove a commercial company is running and they refused to do that year they could not prove it. So, the next thing that I know because I noticed all of the time stamps are wrong and that they never had any signatures at the bottom of the statements.
Simon:
do you want a hand?
[00:19:27] till

[00:20:02]

Simon:

Plumber:
I am just a plumber,
Simon:
so, just hold of for a second, you do not have to go all out with it, this guy is a lemon for what they represent for themselves, year. Just do the job you need to do I have got respect for you there is nothing wrong with that part there, year
Simon:
this family upstairs has got a baby. These people they have got a new baby up there about three years old and they have been bagging at me for three years, year. They are not even secure tenants. I am a secure tenant a British Citizen and I know my Human Rights, Yes, they are violating my life, year and this council will not protect me and they will not protect the rest of the Estate or the people on it
[00:20:41]
Time 16:15
Simon:
I have got a new Constitution look at this what I have built for all the people like you have a little look.

Mother:

Plumbers Assistant:

[00:21:11]
Simon:
they are taking the piss
[00:21:19]

Simon:
now you have seen the Emails
Nevil Gray:

Simon:
now you have seen the Emails from before and are you feeling different about it
Nevil Gray:
Excuse me
Simon:
That you lot have not protected me, are you feeling different why are you in my house
Mother:

[00:22:22]
Simon:
the public is going to love your fam
Mother:
yes, I can hear him
Mother:
he is always like this he keeps it on, you are just going to have to keep the television on
Plumber:
Is the tap still opened?
Nevil Gray:
No that is fine I am just saying for future
Plumber Assistant:
All right leave that on for his baby
Nevil Gray:
OK err not going to switch it of his not going to last long 10 minutes
Nevil Gray:
I just wanted to check year because offersley I will just have to raise some orders, sorry, I will have to raise some orders to get it looked at Nevil Gray:
Hmm
Simon:
I built a model Constitution I built charity's and they destroyed it I put a million pound into that company. They banged and banged and banged, I wrote to the councils and the MP's. I have got thirty friends who have stayed in this house that say that they got assaulted Mother:

Simon stops
Man:
Can we go into the bedroom?
Mother:
Yes, you can
Simon:
thirty friends and they have all done witness statements and the police will not do anything about it and you lot as well
Mother:
Simon stops
Simon:
no, his got an Enfield Council badge around him and I want to know why Enfield Council members let this happen when we are writing to the MP's
Plumber:
are you all right in there?
Simon:
And they are in my house right now why are you in my house now over this but Lemmy will not come here over them killing my baby, why won't Lemmy Nwabuisi come to this house when I am asking year
Mother:
all of this was completed and all done
Man:
and there were problems in here as well
Mother:
this is where main problem was, he was not allowed in his room for over a year
Simon:
the flat is OK there is nothing wrong with the flat [00:23:27]
Plumber Assistant:
your cool year
Man:
Mutter
Plumber Assistant:
Yeah, there dead
Simon: year, I have looked after the flat I have kept it clean I have kept it managed Simon:
this is all the festival paperwork I built over there:
Mother:
Simon stops
Simon:

Model Constitution
Builder:
It's in the bag
Simon:
They cannot put me down for this
Plumber Assistant:
Have you got one on your van?
Plumber:
I will run out now
Plumber: There dead
Simon:
these lot broke into my house to build a case against me have you not seen the emails and how many times I asked for help
Mother:
Simon stops
Simon:
why are you helping them I am being realistic, be realistic with what is going on I have shown loads of emails
Mother:
May I ask what is going on
Nevil Gray:
He tried asking me why I have not taken a picture of that
Simon:
Because you are going to get it repaired
Simon:
year but why are you in my house in the beginning like you won't be here, so, you or none of you lot will come here over me phoning you lot 100 times and Lemmy won't come here. He has just put a forged injunction order against me, year. why won't none of you lot come here and watch the video evidence and protect me, why won't you lot protect me, why are you here to degrade me and not protect me.
Mother:
They do they keep banging at him from upstairs
Simon:
Sorry fam man
Banks:
Calm down
Banks:
Yes seriously
Simon:
Yes, but he lied the other day
Banks:
but after this has all been sorted out
Simon:

Yes, but he lied the other day
Banks:
after we have done the inspection, we will take a look into the issues that you are on about Simon: year, thank you
Banks:
year, but you have got to keep calm
Simon:
Do you know what do you know the only reason that this is year it is because he lied?
Mother:
I know that in my house I have asbestos
Banks:
remember that there is an Injunction against you
Simon:
Yes, that is because they want to set me up for another five years but I am innocent, remember my book fam
Banks:
you do not wont the police to come
Simon:
Fam the police will not touch me because do you know what they have just done, year. The police set me up they scribbled in my thing that I am a black boy on the block, year.
[00:24:52]
Simon:
They forced me to court for some Asbo, year. What is for the organisation of illegal raves, they forgot to arrest me for something that is illegal, year. What they tried to do is set me up for ten of my friends, for throwing parties when and around while I was on curfew for that gazebo in the back garden. Right and I looked at the paper-work and I noticed that there is a section in their statements and on the door once it is on the door it a place of residence, so, they have to prove that it is a commercial business being run inside there and they haven't so I should win the case like that and you forgot to arrest me for something that is illegal, they knew that they was in trouble because they had forged the paper-work. I can prove they forged it because look I have got the court transcripts the next time that I looked at it I noticed that all the time stamps are wrong.
Now I looked at the members of the public and this is all over sixteen people who got keep up overnight for one night year and now I am doing years for it year the maximum sentence is six months do three months in prison and somehow I am doing eight years for it year including the case for the year for the burglary. I cannot even go to warehouse night club or anywhere I cannot do anything, I noticed, I looked at the paper -work year and I noticed see the signatures at the bottom or if I take a statement of you and you put your signature at the bottom of it if you refuse to go to court then there is no case for me to answer, these people refused to sign the signatures and plus on top of refusing to sign they refused to attend to court and these lot, fifteen police officers went to court a forced it against me year

I know that I have won the case 100% so clearly [00:25:47]

Note: OVERLAPPING CONVERSATION
Mother:
Right OK then
Plumber:
this flat is alright
Mother:
Right OK then
Plumber:
But I have just got to check from there to there and that valve should not be in there so, I might have to take that out and put a little bit of pipe in
Nevil Gray: year, so if you want to do that now
Mother:
No problem, so that might be what is causing the problem all along, that valve
Plumber: year, what is happening
Mother:
so why did none of all the other surveyors not say this before
Nevil Gray:
because I needed to access the premises to see it
Mother:
year but he has had so many surveyors out in regards to this water pressure, they have taken photos they have done everything, they have turned the stop cock of they
Nevil Gray:
the issue is now let's just move on Mother:
it is ridiculous
Nevil Gray:

I am not saying that there is a wrong or a right but obesely if you're not happy with what has been discussed and what I put in the statement and everything else you will have your day in court let's just leave it to that.
Mother:
when basically I have had surveyors out year you can hear all of these pipes are really banging so badly. The surveyors have actually seen it and I have got so many emails saying that nothing has been done in regards to this pipe work, the surveyors actually see what it was banging like.
Nevil Gray: [00:25:47]
Sorry I just need to look in to the back garden
Simon:
Look how many days are in here year
Mother:
the dog is out in the back garden
Simon:
look how many days are here year these are all days that I have been attacked by them
Mother:
I will say this, see all of this it is from next door
[00:26:25]
Nevil Gray:
What is from next door
Mother:
see all of the garden all of this in this coming over, with regards to that you will have to speak to the neighbour because we are not allowed to cut it down, unless we get permission, because it is there property
[00:26:29]
Plumber:
he is smart
Simon:
there is over 2500 chapters year of everyday of everyday is accountable for Plumber assistant:
year
[00:26:34]
Plumber:
he won it
Simon:
from 2011 and on wards and here is a bit from my earlier Adolescent and from 20122 straight on wards
[00:26:39]
Simon:
all of it is just built straight from evidence

Nevil Gray:
what it is
Mother:
because he wants to cut it all back but I have said to him that he cannot unless they give him permission
Nevil Gray:
You can cut it back on his side of the boundary
Mother:
right, OK then
Nevil Gray:
and he must not keep what he has cut
Mother:
so, what if he just chucks it back over the garden, he will just complain
Nevil Gray:
Right my suggestion is that you write to him obey might be able to help you out with this.
Nevil Gray:
write to the neighbourhood write to obey
Mother:
yes, it is
Nevil Gray:
is it a council tenant next door?
Mother:
yes, I believe so
Banks:
right OK, then obey will need to deal with them
Mother:
year
Banks:
Oh, the front garden is it
Mother:
because we been told that we are not allowed to cut this down because it is his property
[00:27:23]
Simon:
I am like a prisoner in my own home I cannot walk down the streets because of all of these time stamps and because I have caught these coppers and they gave me a ten-o clock curfew. I am not allowed to give no amps or nothing to no one personal or otherwise unless I have got Enfield Councils signature year, and then Enfield Council let these lot bang at me and do all of this to me when I am building a Constitution and now they want me to give them all of my hard work and trust in them we are better of independent on our own doing our own thing if these lot are these sort of crocks. I never done nothing wrong year. I swear I am the politest person they change me for the worse, year. I swear to god year

Nevil Gray:
Generally, what it is you would cut of their side of the boundary
Banks: or you can contact just write to us at south port office Green Towers
Mother:
Hmm, can you write the address down or even just an email so that I can just send it over to you I prefer doing it by email if possible
Banks:
Give me your email and I can give you the details
Mother:
You have already got my email
Banks:
err year, OK
Mother:
Lorraine 32
Banks: year, alright
Banks:
I will do that tomorrow or when I get back to the office
Mother:
year
Banks:
I will make some enquires and I will get back to you Mother: wonderful
Banks:
alright, that is in respect to the garden year,
Simon:
the police are coming here tomorrow
Mother:
look how much it has over grown it has started to take over the garden
Simon:
the police are coming here tomorrow and they are going to take statements and watch video evidence and hopefully arrest every one of these neighbours
Dad:
Simon
[00:28:26]
Mother:
I believe that is a copy of the council tenancy
Banks:
Mutter

Mother:
Hold on this is, I do not know what number page it is on.
Nevil Gray:
Obey, when we leave will you just put that on there
Banks:
Yes
Nevil Gray:
It will be easier
Banks:
what I will do if you write down this address
Mother:
what have I got to do?
Simon:
he is the only one that never banged at me but he is the one that phoned up the police and said all of this about Shannon and then the police used all of this Shannon and desies stuff about me
Mother:
alright shhh
Simon:
he is the one that made the phone call and he is the one that brought this method on, he never banged at me thought]
Mother:
Lady good boy good girl
Simon:
all he done was make the phone call to the police which informed them
[00:28:59]
Plumber:
they set him up, he won it all
Simon:
and that is how they twisted my whole life up
Plumber:
see what his pressure is like
Simon:
I got the recordings of the clinic and on top of that I have also got the recordings of the Banks:
If you contact that address and leave a message of what we talked about I will look in to it
Mother:
wonderful because we were told that we were not allowed to touch that and look at how much it has over grown
Banks:
well you can cut the over grown bits
Mother:

but are they going to say that we are going to get into trouble?
Simon:
you should here the audio
Plumber assistant:
Mutter you want me to move that for you, two secs
Plumber:
well that sounds good
Simon:
Lemmy is in trouble
[00:29:27]
Simon:
Lemmy is your friend and he is in trouble
Plumber:
it is on
Mother:
and then what we can just put it over there and not get into trouble
Nevil Gray:
well get all of that noted
Simon:
the recordings that I have got of Lemmy is a lot do not do it without notice let Obey write to you first because he will need to check with his manager and make sure that it is done the right way first
Mother:
OK that is fine
Simon:
people what to look after me the right way or I am not going to look after them Mother: wonderful
Banks: have you previously spoke to them about that getting cut back?
plumber:
Mutter
Mother:
I believe he has, yes
Mother:
because it is also when it is cut back a bit it is damaging my sons' fence
Nevil Gray:
Mutter
Mother:
because it is damaging my sons' fence
Simon:
it is not that bad problem low

[00:30:03]
Plumber:
are you ready year?
Simon:
Ozzie ant, Ozzie is just a prick for making the phone call and being a basted other than that he never banged at me that is the one good thing that I can say about him he never banged at me
[00:30:14]
Not finished
Mother:
there is still a problem here

Dear Neville Gray
Thank you for the email with the attached documents as said on the phone today when you spoke to me, you did say the date would be Thursday 17/08/2017 at 14:00 hours that why I confirmed it so fast. But this was then changed to Wednesday 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours due to you saying you would not be there on the Thursday 17/08/2017 at 14:00 hours. When you changed the date to the Wednesday 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours I did say that I was due to attend the hospital and could this therefore be done on Friday which would have been the

18/08/2017 which you replied no to. You will be attending 109 Burncroft Ave on the 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours; I just wanted you to confirm the time as you have not done so in your letter or email. As said on the phone the dog will be in the garden. I will have to cancelled my hospital date I was due to attend on the 16/08/2017 so I can be there with my son, and before I do so I just wanted to confirm the time you stated on the phone with me today as 14:00 hours on the 16/08/2017. If this can be done as soon as possible as I will need to call the hospital in the morning. As you should be well aware my son has had many Surveyors to his flat, this has been over many years and I believe there have been around 4 in 2017 alone which were full inspections. Which none said there was a problem with my son's flat and repairs that needed doing. In fact, since 2007 when my son needed major works on his flat due to dump, work was never completed after many phones call's over years and years and inspections by many Surveyors when the Surveyors stated the work would be carried out work was still not carried out until I put a complaint in to Enfield council in 2015. So, after all these Surveyors and inspections that have been carried out on my son's flat can you be a little more specific in why you would need to do a next full inspection of the flat what are you looking for to take pictures off? If repairs needed to be done, we would be contacting Enfield council Repair team. There seems to have only been a problem since you came to my son's flat on the 12/07/2017, you stated that all the Surveyors that had come out to my son's flat since Dec 2016 had not written any reports so you did not know what has and has not been done regarding the water pressure issue in the flats, you had also told the landlord this. Since Dec 2017 to date my son has allowed around 5 Enfield Council Surveyors into his flat regarding the water pressure, he has let in Thames Water more than once, and he allowed 2 private plumbers into his flat who said the landlord from 117 had asked them to check his flat which I wrote in an email dated 02/02/2017, all have said the issue is not coming from his flat?
in Feb 2017 due to a letter my son got late in the day he called the repair team out himself to his flat because he could not take any more being blamed for everything that was going wrong in the block, when the out of hours team went my son told them what the issue was, they checked everything in my son's flat and once again confirmed the problem was not due to his flat. In 2015 I have emails stating all the repairs that needed to be done which had been reported to Enfield council by us that the surveyors who attended the inspections had reported back that all works had been carried out. There was also the issue with my son's heating when the major works was carried out in 2007 due to dump the heating had to be taken off the wall due to pipes leaking under the flooring, when the work was meant to have been completed they never put back the heating, in turn leaving my son with no heating in the flat from 2007 till 2015, many calls were made regarding this surveyor after surveyor come out and said the heating would be done it never was, so in my complaint in 2015 this was included. I was horrified when I got a call from Enfield council in 2015 saying my son had removed all his pipe work from his flat and therefore, he would have to pay for the heating to be replaced, I was so upset at what had been said I said to the lady on the
please get a surveyor and manager round my son flat ASAP and the flooring can be lifted and you will see all the pipe work still in place, the lady then said no that fine we will replace the heating. Then the person came out to do the job he said to my son I don't know what Enfield council is going on about all the pipes work is here. He said that no one wanted to do the job due to what the council had said. He said this was a joke and not funny what Enfield Council had said. In 2016 I myself had a problem with my boiler surveyor came to my home, I do also know his name but do not want to get him in trouble, my son was staying at my home at the time, the surveyor looked at what needed to be done to my boiler, while he was there, he saw my son and knew him well due to how many times he had been out to my son's flat due to the heating. he asked my son if his heating had been done and the reply was yes, and we told him what had been put on Enfield Council system my son removing all his pipe work, The surveyor laughed and said he had saw it on the system, we said why would anyone put that on the councils system when it could be checked to not be correct. He said he had no idea why it was put on there. The only reason I can see for this being added to Enfield council system is due to Enfield Council leaving my son with no heating from 2007 till 2015. It is not due to my son not reporting repairs to Enfield Council as I believe when something is wrong, he does report issues like in 2016 when there was a fully blown leak from the flats above my son, again it seemed that it could not be worked out by Enfield Council were the leak had come from. As Enfield Council was saying it was coming from 117 and 117 said it was coming from 113. All I know that water was pouring into my son's flat and due to it and how wet the ceiling was they had to cut the power to the lights in the bathroom until it had all dried out. Does this seem like a person who does not allow the Council into his flat, he was unwell on the 12/07/2017 which you were well aware off, and this was used against my son. Please can you confirm the time as 14:00 hours on the 16/08/2017.

Dear Ms Cordell
Thank you for your previous email of which I was only able to confirm the time of the inspection visit at that time due to the time that I had received your email, this being 7.08 pm. I do not recall stating to you that the visit was on Thursday of this week and apologise if you had misunderstood what I had advised you. As I am sure you will appreciate, resources are limited to coordinate a joint visit and as such the only available day are Wednesday of this week. Furthermore, please accept me apologise that I had not confirmed the time of the visit as was discussed with you on the telephone, this being 2.00 pm. This visit to your son's property has been delayed and therefore it would be beneficial to carry out this inspection as soon as possible hence why you had agreed during our telephone conversation to accommodate a visit on Wednesday. If you are unable to be present perhaps you can arrange for an alternative friend or family member to be present in your absence?
Thank you for confirming that your sons' dog will not be in the premises during the inspection visit. I am unable to comment at this time in respect of previous visits that have been carried out by other Surveyors. As you are aware, your son had refused access for me when I requested to look at the internal plumbing of his property. While I appreciate that this was an unannounced visit, we had attempted to facilitate this through you when you had attended at our request and again, he had refused. We later suggested an alternative date but due to a reported emergency we again attempted to gain access and this was again refused. The purpose of the inspection will be to carry out a full survey and all items of repairs can then be documented and in accordance with Enfield Council repair policy all identified repairs can then be raised as necessary. As advised in my letter to your son, photographs are generally taken at all inspections to assist in raising works and to evidence the general stock condition of our properties so that we are able to use such information in planning future refurbishment works in accordance with our planned works. The records that I do have do make reference to access difficulties when attempting to diagnose a pressure problem with the water supply affecting multiple properties and for this reason, I would like to inspect your son's property as I had explained on my initial visit whereby access was denied. I hope this addresses the questions you have asked clarification in respect of with reference to the proposed inspection visits for tomorrow.

Kind regards
Neville Gray

Dear Neville Gray
Thank you for the email with the attached documents as said on the phone today when you spoke to me, you did say the date would be Thursday 17/08/2017 at 14:00 hours that why I confirmed it so fast. But this was then changed to Wednesday 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours due to you saying you would not be there on the Thursday 17/08/2017 at 14:00 hours. When you changed the date to the Wednesday 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours I did say that I was due to attend the hospital and could this therefore be done on Friday which would have been the 18/08/2017 which you replied no to. You will be attending 109 Burncroft Ave on the 16/08/2017 at 14:00 hours; I just wanted you to confirm the time as you have not done so in your letter or email. As said on the phone the dog will be in the garden. I will have to cancelled my hospital date I was due to attend on the 16/08/2017 so I can be there with my son, and before I do so I just wanted to confirm the time you stated on the phone with me today as 14:00 hours on the 16/08/2017. If this can be done as soon as possible as I will need to call the hospital in the morning. As you should be well aware my son has had many Surveyors to his flat, this has been over many years and I believe there have been around 4 in 2017 alone which were full inspections. Which none said there was a problem with my son's flat and repairs that needed doing. In fact, since 2007 when my son needed major works on his flat due to dump, work was never completed after many phones calls over years and years and inspections by many Surveyors when the Surveyors stated the work would be carried out work was still not carried out until I put a complaint in to Enfield council in 2015. So, after all these Surveyors and inspections that have been carried out on my son's flat can you be a little more specific in why you would need to do a next full inspection of the flat what are you looking for to take pictures off? If repairs needed to be done, we would be contacting Enfield council Repair team.

Dear Neville Gray

Thank you for the reply to my email I apologise for the lateness of the email last night I only saw it did not have the time confirmed later and just wanted that confirmed. Also, I will say sorry for the lateness of this email as I only saw that I had got it from you late this evening. I believe Enfield Council system regarding my son has errors on there and I have pointed this out before, you state that my son has refused before the 12/07/2017 in regards to the water pressure issue I believe if you look deeper in the system you will find that was 117 that refused access regarding the water pressure and not me son as it is showing on Enfield Council system. The reason I know this is because I was making calls to the council's repairs team about the issue of the water pressure and I was informed by a lady on the phone my son had refused to let the council in, I said sorry you are mistaken I know my son had let the council in regarding this. It took the lady a while and then she saw the error on the system it looked like my son had refused when in fact it was 117 that had refused to let the council in. I did ask at the time if this report could be corrected so it did not look like my son had refused and the lady said she would do this, but it seems this was not corrected and it is still showing like my son refused it did take the lady on the phone a while to work it out that it was 117 who refused access regarding this issue. I did write this in an email to the Council with the ladies' name and also the ticket number that was created due to my call, so I do have all the information to prove my son never refused the council to come into his flat about the water pressure. My son has always allowed the council to come in, on the 12/07/2017 you turned up at my son's address without no call to me this is not the 1st time the council has done this, and my son was really not well I believe you would have to agree with this, he had not any sleep for weeks and weeks due to what the neighbours was doing to him and also he had bad news the day before. My son health has suffered badly for over 2 years due to the neighbours which I have email after emails reporting this and there is videos and other information not once did the council do anything and my emails was going in way before any complaints was put in about my son which the council seems to have misplaced and do not seem to have any, there were also many calls being made which again the council does not seem to know anything about. When I got the call in the morning from Enfield council saying you was at my son's flat, I could not again understand why I had not had a call. The council is well aware of why they should call me 1st and it should be all over the Councils systems, so I do not understand how you did not see this. I was told you was there and you had access to all the flats but my son's but this was not the truth as it seems you did not even know that 113 had been evicted and the Council had the keys for 113, and even when I got to the flat 113 was not there, I even said to you he had moved out, you said no that not the case, and said you had his number and tried to call him and got no reply. It did seem however you had called the landlord of 117 regarding your visit just no one else which was proven later that day. You stated to me that you had just taken over dealing with the blocks and that all the Surveyors that had been out before had left, and had not done any reports of what had been done and what had not been done so you had to start from the beginning which I said is a disgrace that not one of the Surveyors had written any report so you knew what had been done regarding the water pressure issue. I was not the only person you said this to as you have also said this to the landlord of 117 on the calls you had made to him regarding the issue and to arrange your visit, the landlord told me this later that day on the 12/07/2017.

So, I do not understand how this can all be blamed on my son as if reports had been completed by Enfield council you would have known what had been done and what had not been done and also know the issue was not coming from my son's flat as it had been checked over and over again, or are you saying that the around 5 Enfield Council Surveyors and Thames Water and the out of hours team and the 2 private plumbers who said the landlord from 117 had sent them, are you saying all of them do not know what they are doing when they said the issue was not coming from my son's flat and did not know what they were doing or saying? (I know there were issues with this on the 12/072017 with the landlord saying he never sent any private plumbers to my son's flat, and in fact I do believe him and what he said that day, but maybe his tenants sent someone and told them to say the landlord had asked them to check my son's flat. But I do have an email that was written to Enfield council in Feb 2017 stating this) If you had called me even the day before I would have said my son was very unwell and not up to this, and a date would have had to be set. It seemed you had been calling the landlord from 117 from days before hand to arrange a visit and talk about the issue. So why did you not in fact know 113 had been evicted and the council had the keys, and also the notes on Enfield council systems to call me 1st before visiting my son?

So how can you say you attempted to facilitate this through me because this is not correct, if you had done this you would not have just turned up at my son's address and I knew nothing about it until after the fact, and then have to rush down there knowing my son was really ill and you just turning up at his flat would have made things worse. Which I believe is one of the 1st things I said to you in front of my brother who had attended me son's address with me. Yet you call this a refusal, an unannounced visit when you had been addressing this for days with the landlord and no one else it seemed you had not even looked on the system regarding 113 or my son's flat yet you said you needed access to all 3 flats together and if this is the case why did you only inform the landlord?

You give me your private number in case there were any issues, a date was set for you to come to my son's flat there was some confusion in regard to the date I believe this is why you called me later that afternoon and the date and time were fixed for 17/07/2017 at 14:00 hours. and the visit would not have been delayed if you had come on the 17/07/2017 at 14:00 as agreed but due to things that happened later on the 12/07/2017 you refused to keep that date. Even through later that day there was not proof there was no water to 117 as no one saw this. There was a lot more said then this but I just keep to some points for now. You called me at 17:21 on the 12/07/2017 stating you had a report that there was no water this was in fact to 117 which I found out when I got to the flats. You and the landlord of 117 was at the flats waiting for me outside, when I spoke to you, I asked if 117 water had been checked and both you and the landlord replied yes, I asked did they have water and you and the landlord replied yes, I asked if anyone had called Thames water to see if there was an issue there end, you said yes and that they had said there was no issue. The landlord I believe it was stated that his tenant had said they never had any water for around 20mins which I believe you confirmed. But you nor the landlord had seen that flat 117 did not have any water this was confirmed when I asked, you both said when you got there to the flat 117 had water. At this I was in shock and due to what had been said to me, I had to rush to my son flat you knew my son was very unwell and yet 117 had water, and no one saw they did not have any water. Why in fact did 117 not call back to the council when the water came back on? I know your call came into me at 17:21 saying about the report of no water. I was cooking and said it would take me around an hour due to traffic. I went and turned my food off, and I went into the bathroom and when I came out, I had a missed call from a private number which I through was from you this was at around 17:46, you stated that you had not called me back, you were still in the office and had not left yet and for me not to rush that you would be leaving in around 10mins, I said I had turned my food off and was leaving now due to the traffic. Now if my timings are correct 117 would have already had water back if it is true there was no water and I say this due to the issues that have been ongoing for a long time and what they are doing to my son. (Which the council has done nothing about) I just really do not understand why 117 never called anyone back to say they had water now. They had their landlords' number and also the councils. Again, you blamed my son for the water pressure issue with what you said. yet time and time again my son allowed the Enfield Council, Thames water, and private plumbers, and the out of hours team from Enfield Council into his flat each time all of them said the issue was not coming from my son's flat. You still wanted access to my son flat, even though there was water no one could confirm there was not any water to 117 except 117 tenants, and you already knew how unwell my son was from earlier in the day and you had been told by me what the neighbours had been doing to my son for over 2 years. But you wanted to force the issue because you believe my son was the one causing this as this is what the tenants kept saying at 117. It seems you believe the tenant more then you believe your own around 5 Enfield Councils Surveyors and Thames Water and the out of hour's team and the 2 private plumbers who said the landlord from 117 had sent them. I know you have stated there is no reports from the around 5 Enfield Council Surveyors who seem to have all left Enfield Council and this is a disgrace, but there must be reports from Thames Water and I know there is a report from the out of hours team as I have the ticket number for it and this was emailed to Enfield Council, and I wonder where the report is from the 2 private plumbers who said the landlord from 117 had sent them, which the landlord on the 12/07/2017 said he would not send anyone to my son's flat without him being there, but this was included in an email I sent the council in Feb 2017.

Dear Ms Cordell
As advised, the purpose of today's visit will be to carry out a full survey of the property. I do not recall having any discussions with you about colleagues leaving and no reports being carried out previously. I think that the best way forward in relation to my inspection will be to allow access as agreed and I can then report back my findings and approve any necessary repairs in accordance with our repairing obligations.

Many apologies again for my delayed reply, it's been a busy week or so. I've had no response from PC G, the letter was sent recorded delivery. So far, there's nothing to say he no longer resides at the address etc. I'll keep you updated on that front. As it stands, should PC G choose to not assist then presently there is little we could do to compel him to provide an account in the furtherance of the investigation. I note all of your comments in your email, I can assure you they will be taken into account when I come to write my report. Re PC G's current occupation, I note your views. All I can say is that my review of the evidence will be objective and governed by the information available to me. If you've any questions for me at this stage, as ever, please do put them to me.
Kind regards

Subject: RE: Our meeting today.
Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply. Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person was wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said and did not brother to check what my son was saying. Something always come to mind here and that is what was written in the subject access request I got back from my son's insurance company, this was after the time we spent trying to stop the insurance company cancelling my son's insurance and going to courts. When I saw this, it hurt as we knew the police had not told the truth and in the subject access request there was nothing to say my son was not in the wrong. There was no sorry there was nothing and this is just wrong. My son was the one that had the bad mark against his name for a long time until it was proven in the appeal court, not the police officer and this is still the case to this day the police officer has done nothing wrong in everyone's eyes when he did do wrong. He has been allowed to move on in his life, my son was the one spending all the time to clear his name not the police officer when my son had done nothing wrong. "[...] Which is obviously ... we're in an awkward situation as well because [Data Subject] and [Data Subject] mum is constantly ringing us up. They don't understand that obviously we are going to take a police officer's views over obviously one of our policyholders because obviously, a police officer's job is obviously to tell the truth and not to lie." This is the action of most people’s view but in this case the police officer was not telling the truth my son was. And my son was the one being made to suffer when he had not done anything wrong. But yet people believe the police in everything they say. I know you have said PC G's current occupation; I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever. Maybe I see it another way his occupation is Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice, can’t you see the irony in this he is trying to find justice for people, but what he did in this case was never justice at his own hands, the DPS never served justice for my son, yet they knew PC G had lied in this whole case, and that PC G took it to the courts and again never told the truth and perjury himself two times in a court of law. PC G seems to think this is acceptable he still applied for his job roll where he is working to make sure justice is fair for all. I am sure if he had admitted to breaking the law in what he did he would not be in the position he is in now I do find this very relevant that is how I feel and my son does.

Morning Lorraine,
Firstly, apologies for my delayed reply! I had intended to reply much sooner. I think I'm correct in saying that the necessity for your son's arrest was associated with PC G's uncertainty as to the address provided. This is something I'll discuss in the report. Can I ask, from where did you get the impression that your son's name was not in PC G's pocketbook? To reiterate, I'd be more than happy share documents with you at the end of the investigation. As per the Police Reform Act, subject to the harm test. Was there any particular reason you'd want them sooner? I expect the investigation to conclude in October incidentally. I was intending on giving PC G three weeks, what are your thoughts on that? Re PC G's current occupation, I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son.
I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed? What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation? I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well.
Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation, I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Subject: Our meeting today.
Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what 3424, consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi
After visiting my son's home today to spoke to him in regard of the up and coming court date 21/08/2017, and him showing me the paper work that had been sent to him I am very shocked to see all the paperwork that has been given to my son and I have not been given this paperwork. Only the order I was thinking that was the only paperwork there was due to Enfield Council knowing any paperwork given to him also has to be given to me. But it seems I have only been given a small part of it. Enfield Council knows my son has health issue also he had learning problems and Enfield Council is well aware of this from years ago. Can you give me a reason I have not been given all this paperwork and me believing due to Enfield council Knowing I need copies of everything that is given to my son why this has not been done and I am only seeing paperwork for the 1st time today as I believed I had all the paperwork? We only have until Monday when we will be in court and I cannot understand why I have not been given all the paperwork that was given to my son.
This could have been posted to me as there is a great deal of paperwork, I seem to be missing why is this? I believe you should have also had an update from yesterday's visit by Neville Gray and Mr Ebanks that the water pressure issue is not down to my son, so the around 5 Enfield Council Surveyors, Thames Water, and Enfield out of hours team, and the 2 private plumbers sent from 117 who said the landlord had sent them, which the landlord said he did not, were all correct is saying the problem was not coming from my son flat. I have got to write an Email to Mr Ebanks regarding some issues which I will do later today.

Dear Obie Ebanks,
After meeting you on the 16/08/2017 you asked me to write this email to you in regards to the issues. It was very nice to meet you and you seemed to want to hear the issues that my son has been having which have not been addressed by Enfield Council. You seem to understand when we spoke, there were issues that have not been addressed. My son feels he cannot trust anyone in Enfield Council and I feel you hit the nail on the head when you said there seems to be a lot of outstanding issue that have not been addressed and I can see why he does not trust anyone in Enfield council. When Mr Neville Gray called me on the 14/08/2017 to arrange the meeting for the Thursday which was the 17/08/2017 I said that's fine. I was on a phone call to my brother at the time also, and my brother heard what was said as both phones I was using were on load speaker. Then Mr Neville Gray changed this to the 16/08/2017, I knew I would not be able to make the 16/08/2017 as I had a hospital appointment on the 16/08/2017 which I said to Mr Neville Gray, I have very many health problems myself which I told Mr Neville Gray on the 12/07/2017 and I am under many doctors so have a lot of hospital appointments I have to attend. I asked him if the date could be done on the 17/08/2017 or the 18/08/2017 due to this he said no I am not working them days, and the meeting will have to be on the 16/08/2017 we have got an order by the court saying we need to give 48 hours which I intend to enforce, that can I get someone else to attend my son's flat on this date, which I said I could not I stated I will cancel my hospital appointment so I can attend, I know there is a court order which the council needs to give 48 hours' notice, which I believe was given wrongly as my son has allowed over many years many council people into his home. I just hope while this order is in place Enfield council has some respect that people cannot just drop things when they call as they are well aware my son is unwell and needs me there with him. I feel my son has been treated very unfairly and will try to outline it in this email and keep it as short as possible. So, this will not include everything as I would be here a long time and this email would be like a book. Firstly, my son's back garden it is well kept except for the greenery down the right-hand side which is coming from next door and as said we need advice is regards to cutting this back.

Issues pointed out to Neville Gray:

1. Hole in ceiling in bedroom where the tenant in 113 pushed something though my son's ceiling. Mr Neville Gray explained his concern if there was an asbestos Problem. You saw my son was decorating so if we can get a response to this as soon as possible I would be grateful.

2. Kitchen units: as you know when decent homes came into my son's property, they said to him the units he had were better than the ones Enfield Council would be fitting so they did not change them. You said this was a problem these would not be covered by the 25 years warranty so why do decent homes give you the option to keep the ones that are fitted.

3. Back step to back door and adjacent window handle. These where reported back in 2015 and have never been fixed correctly.

4. The wall in front room / kitchen that part was removed many years ago, which Enfield Council has seen many times and never had a problem with, until Neville

Gray came around on the 12/07/2017 this was then added to a report sent to me on the 19/07/2017 by Lemmy Nwabuisi, in there was a report by Sarah Fletcher dated 24/02/2017 about the wall. What I cannot understand if Sarah Fletcher had a problem with this dated back to 24/02/2017 why were we never informed. As said on the visit if this is a problem I will get my builder to replace the part of the wall that was removed it is not a big wall that was removed only half a section of part of a wall and not the full wall, and if I had been told at any time there was a problem with this I would have got it replaced via my builder. I cannot understand why no one informed us of this if anyone from Enfield Council through it was an issue. It does not look unsightly and was completed professionally. I was very pleased when I asked the plumbers and they informed me the problem regarding the water pressure (which has continually been blamed on my son including by Mr Neville Gray who had never seen the plumbing) was in fact no fault of my son's and was in fact a problem with the pipe work outside the jurisdiction of my son property. There seems to be lies stemming from Enfield Council and the flats above which state my son has said he was restricting the water. Why would my son state this if he was having water pressure issues also?

and wanted it fixed? I would like this looked into to find out where these rumours and lies have come from, considering Enfield Council, Thames Water and private plumbers which were sent from 117 had been to my son's flat on numerous occasions and have categorically stated the water pressure problem was not my son's fault this should have been on Enfield Councils system and I would like reasons as to why they were not. Please tell me who is not doing their job?
On the 12/07/2017 in the AM, I would also like to know why Mr Neville Gray said that my son had something in his flat that was controlling the water to the other flats more than once while being rude and superior. Also, I would like an explanation from Mr Neville Gray about his conduct on the same day in the PM as to why when he received a call from the tenants of 117 to say they had no water, that he tried to bully himself into my son's flat because he believed my son was messing with the water, If the systems were up to date he would have known there was no way my son could be tampering with the water. He had also been told my son was very unwell and made an appointment with me for my son for the Monday 17/07/2017 at 14:00 hours. I do not understand what he would have grained from getting into my son's flat as he is not a plumber and he did not have one with him at any point on the 12/07/2017. He was very unprofessional and we believe that because he did not get his own way on this date this is why it has been taken to court and my son now has an injunction. To me this is sheer victimization. I believe the whole situation could have been avoided if Mr Neville Gray would have done his job with even a modicum of professionalism. What I still cannot understand is why Mr Neville Gray arranged that meeting on the 12/07/2017 with the landlord and tenants of 117 they had been speaking for days before hand on the phone, It would have been courteous and professional to have looked at this system and rang me for an appointment to gain access to my son flat as it clearly states on the system to call me 1st before going to my son's home, also his lack of foresight by not checking the system about 113 at this point he would have released that tenant from 113 had been evicted and Enfield Council had the keys. It seems a private flat owner deserves courtesy, whereas council tenants have to jump when the council says jump. Tell me this is fair?
I was very upset and I think you saw this when you was about to leave and we were standing in the communal area of the block and Neville Gray saw the CCTV camera in the communal area and right away said see your son has got a CCTV camera in a way like he was happy he had found something on my son had done wrong, I stated that is not my son's and you need to stop blaming my son for everything, I was happy I think you noticed this too, and checked the wire and where it was going to and said this is not going into my son's flat it was going into the cupboard next to my son's front door which no tenant has access to. At that Mr Neville

Gray then saw that the wire he was talking about was in fact not even going to that dummy CCTV camera which I believe Enfield Councils owns, it was going in fact up and around the stairs. And in fact, it is the BT phone wire for the block, Neville Gray did not even say sorry for blaming my son for something that was nothing to do with my son but yet as soon as he saw it was fast enough to blame my son for this. I would like to state this is a disgusting attitude and in point of fact Enfield Council acts this way all the time towards my son. In regard to the main front door you noticed on the main door to the block there is an entry code system and not an intercom system. Unless you know the code to this door you cannot get access to any of the flats and the tenants do not even know you are there. This includes deliveries for food, medical, emergencies, and any person coming to see anyone that lives in the block, (that also includes yourselves Enfield Council) Please could this be addressed by fitting an intercom system or bell for the each flat or giving my son permission to fit his own wireless doorbell which he has asked Enfield Council on many occasions and he has been refused to do this. I believe that you can also confirm that my son dog did not bark once or act aggressively to any of you while you were in my son's flat; she was just sitting in the garden outside the back door looking in at everyone. I have great concerns with what has been said about my son's dog and she has never hurt anyone and my son would never use his dog in that way at all like people have said. I would now like to approach the problems with my son's neighbours many emails, complaints and calls received by Enfield Council begging them to help my son with this problem, every single time they ignored our pleas for help, but it seems a year later when complaints went in about my son from neighbours Enfield Council were very willing to help them out, don't you think this is a case of double standards and also discrimination and what I mean by discrimination is racism. We have asked for help and you have ignored us please explain why?

You have briefly seen some emails but was not able to read them but there are so many more. On the 21/03/2017 I got a call back from Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi in this call we were talking about the emails I had sent Enfield Council, and believe me there are numerous, he then proceeded to tell me there was only 2 complaints and nothing else and implied I was a lair, unfortunately for him my phone was on load speaker and my brother and his friend heard what Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi said, my brother realised this upset me and said how dare you call my sister a lair, my brothers friend said that is disgraceful, is implying someone a lair anyway to act for any professional. Also, in this call I told Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi that my son does not leave his home due to his health which had been stated in emails before this, Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi stated he did not know anything about my son having any health problems. I said to him I cannot understand how you do not know anything about my son's health your team asked the mental health team if they knew my son and had a reply back from them saying they do, and it is in the subject access request I got from the council so how do you not know anything about this. At this I said so you don't even know my son was sectioned in late 2016 which he replied no. He asked me if I could send an email with information regarding this and showing my son does not leave his home, to him which I did. Can you please explain to me why everything regarding my son (Complaints, emails, health and repairs) seems to disappeared from the system or is constantly ignored just so you can make my son seem unreasonable and at fault, this is blatant victimization, to add insult to injury at the end of the email dated the 21/03/2017 I stated I would wait for a reply from him with what we can do to address this. I also asked him if he can check into why all the information that had been submitted seemed was missing could be addressed and for him to get back to me, why did he not do this? By now I believe Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi knew my son would need a home visit to address issues why was this never done why was things just left what reason would there be to have left this Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi was demanding my son to come for a meeting before this, yet when he seems to understand my son does not leave his home why was a date not set to see him with me there for a meeting to take place at my son's home? It seems house calls was made to every other tenant accept my son and reports taken. It was not until after Mr Neville Gray came on the 12/07/2017 did I ever hear anything back from Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi until the 27/07/2017, and when I did get this correspondence it was to inform me that Enfield Council were Seeking a procession order and had more complaints listed which had been made about my son, yet not once did Mr Lemmy Nwabuisi have the common courteous to inform me there were new complaints being made since March 2017. Do you think it is right what has happened, to me it seems this is the way Enfield? Council wants to handle things Mr

Lemmy Nwabuisi has all my information and my son's why just leave things if I had been contacted, I could have then dealt with this instead I have to? go over hours and hours of information and to me it seems unfair, unjust and unwarranted. It would take someone that was willing to sit down, not blame and help my son with everything, as I believe everyone wants this matter resolved. All it would take is for someone to sit down look at the emails, video and audios that we have, and then maybe you will understand where we are coming from and how wrong this whole situation has become. Meeting you it really seemed you wanted to listen and to help I really hope this is the case as honestly, I believe this is what is really needed. The idea of court petrifies my son, my son does not even want to leave his home let alone go to a court. Not only has my son's health deteriorated due to the issues which have never been addressed by Enfield Council, I have very bad health also and I am always at the hospitals due to being under many doctors.

Dear Obie Ebanks,
After meeting you on the 16/08/2017 you asked me to write this email to you in regard to the issues. It was very nice to meet you and you seemed to want to hear the issues that my son has been having which have not been addressed by Enfield Council. You seem to understand when we spoke there were issues that have not been addressed. My son feels he cannot trust anyone in Enfield Council and I feel you hit the nail on the head when you said there seems to be a lot of outstanding issue that have not been addressed and I can see why he does not trust anyone in Enfield council.
When Mr Neville Gray called me on the 14/08/2017 to arrange the meeting for the Thursday which was the 17/08/2017 I said that's fine. I was on a phone call to my brother at the time also, and my brother heard what was said as both phones I was using were on load speaker. Then Mr Neville Gray changed this to the 16/08/2017, I knew I would not be able to make the 16/08/2017 as I had a hospital appointment on the 16/08/2017 which I said to Mr Neville Gray, I have very many health problems myself which I told Mr Neville Gray on the 12/07/2017 and I am under many doctors so have a lot of hospital appointments I have to attend. Backgrounds facts

48. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

50. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

51. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

52. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

53. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

54. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

55. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

56. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

MR SIMON CORDELL

58. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

59. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

60. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Dear Mrs Cordell,

Re: Your letter dated 20/08/17

Thank you for your email and attached letter.

I would like to make clear that at no time during my visit did I say "I can see why he does not trust anyone in Enfield council" as you have made reference to in the first paragraph of your letter.

What I did day was that there seems to be a history of issues that we would try and work through following the joint visit of myself and Mr Gray. Some of these issues were addressed at the visit in respect of the kitchen, step to the back door, window handle and removal of wall and fire door in the kitchen.

As agreed I will look into the overgrown garden to the right of your son's flat and the possibility of the door entry system updated to a more modern system, which doesn't require a code.

I am not able to answer queries or comment on issues made by Mr Gray you will need to discuss these with him or wait for him to come back to you with the queries raised. Similarly, the same with issues to do with Mr Nwabuisi, I have forwarded him a copy of your letter for his information and comments.

In respect of the water pressure issue thankfully this has now been resolved and advised by the contractors on site there was no proof that it was caused by the actions of your son. As far as I am aware this issue was originally raised due to there being a problem in the block as a whole and then was investigated and eventually resolved.

In view of the fact that this matter has now been resolved, I am satisfied there is no need for any further investigation into this matter.

I will contact you again in 7 days from the date of this correspondence to update you on the issues I have agreed to look into, should you wish to discuss any of the above please do not hesitate to contact me on above number.

Yours sincerely

Before the Court will grant-an order on any of the Grounds 1 to 8 or 12 to 16, it must be satisfied that it is reasonable to require you to leave. This means that, if one of these Grounds is set out in paragraph 3 to this Notice, you will be able to argue at the hearing in Court that it is not reasonable that you should have to leave, even if you accept that the Ground applies.
Before the court grants an order on any of the Grounds 9 to 16, it must be satisfied that there will be suitable alternative accommodation for you when you have to leave. This means that the Court will have to decide that, in its opinion, there will be other accommodation which is reasonably suitable for the needs of you and your family, taking into particular account various factors such as the nearness of your place of work, and the sort of housing that other people with similar needs are offered. Your new home will have to be let to you on another secure tenancy or a private tenancy under the Rent Act of a kind that will give you similar security.

There is no requirement for suitable alternative accommodation where Grounds 1 to 8 apply.
If your landlord is not a local authority, and the local authority gives a certificate that it will provide you with suitable accommodation, the Court has to accept the certificate.
One of the requirements of Ground 10A is that the landlord must have approval for the redevelopment scheme from the Secretary of State (or, in the case of a housing association landlord, the Housing Corporation). The landlord must have consulted all secure tenants affected by the proposed redevelopment scheme.
5. Court proceedings for possession of the dwelling-house can be begun immediately. The date by which the tenant is to give up possession of the dwelling-house is Monday the 24th of August 2017.

Court proceedings cannot be begun until after this date, which cannot he earlier than the date when your tenancy or license could have been brought to an end.
This means that if you have a weekly or Fortnightly tenancy, there should at least 4 weeks between the date this Notice is given and the date in this paragraph.
After this date, court proceedings may be begun at once or at any time during the following twelve months. Once the twelve months are up this Notice will lapse and a new Notice must be served before possession can be sought.

To Whom It May Concern:
After a call made to the court today regarding the attached letter from the court dated 24/08/2018 Claim number D02ED073 before Deputy District Judge Perry I have been asked to write this email.
On the 21/08/2017 when we were last in court Deputy District Judge Perry asked for the case not to be reheard until 28 days thereafter and that maybe this can be worked out between the parties.
As I explained to the Judge we were in the process of getting a date to see a solicitor in this matter we have not been able to get to see one until today 31/08/2017 Shepherd and Harris & Co. at 15:00 hours, who are now putting an application in for legal aid, as my son is not well enough to deal with this case on his own and does need a solicitors to act on his behalf as there are many issues within Enfield Council case. There is going to be a large amount of paperwork which will prove this.
I have also emailed Enfield Council with the view of trying to set up a meeting, as throughout this Enfield Council has not had one meeting with my son to address the issues he was having going way back before any complaints was put in about my son.

I am asking if the new date of 14/09/2017 could be extended so we can have the meetings with the solicitors and get all the paperwork and video and audio information we have and statements as to what the issues are within this case together.
We did believe that we would have had just over 28 days to be able to do this, as this is what the judge ordered, but it seems the date is before the 28 days we were thinking we had to get everything in order, and due to the time it has taken to have a 1st meeting with the solicitors the date of the 14/09/2017 gives us very little time to see if legal aid is granted and get this put in place. And have time to address the issues of concern in this case with the solicitors.
I hope this issue can be dealt with and the date can be extended, if a reply can be made via this email, I would be most grateful
Regards
Miss Lorraine Cordell Mr Simon Cordell

The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out checks on the Defendant's water pipes which are possibly affecting my tenant's water pressure and supply.

11. In the evening of 12 July 2017, I met with one of the Council's in-house legal surveyors, Mr Neville Gray with regards to an ongoing low water pressure issue. Mr Gray attended my property (Flat 117) at 11am on the day and agreed that the water pressure was not adequate. An attempt was made to gain access to the two flats immediately below, including the Defendant's but this was unsuccessful.

12. At approximately 17.00 hrs the same day I was contacted by the managing agent informing me that there was now no water at the flat. I contacted Mr dray and we both decided to attend the Property out of hours. I arrived at the flat to discover that water had been totally cut off for approx. 30 minutes, but surprisingly shortly after our arrival a supply was resumed and with good pressure. This despite the fact that low pressure had been a continual problem since 27 December 2016. Thames Water and plumbers have attended my property on at least 5 occasions but could not find a reason for the low pressure.

13. The Defendant lives in Flat 109 and in conjunction with his mother/mediator, was contacted by Mr Neville Gray with the intention of Inspecting his flat However, this was declined by the Defendant. Although I was inside the block, (on the landing), I watched the discussion from the open window. It was obvious the Defendant. was becoming increasing agitated by the raised voices and approaches towards Mr Gray. I could see that he was not comfortable with the situation, and he backed off. He seemed to be very vocal with an aggressive manner, which was intimidating; at this point Mr Gray called for the police to attend.

14. I wish to add that on a previous visit to the property on 26 January 2017, to resolve the low water pressure, the Defendant had informed me that he was restricting the supply and stated: ‘you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply1. This was mentioned to me in front of an independent witness, a plumber who was attending with me. As I was leaving my Property, I saw the Defendant in the communal hallway and asked whether he could reinstate the water pressure to my tenant's property, however he responded by saying ‘I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later’. 38. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to me, other Council Officers and residents near his property on Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3 7JQ. The application also seeks access to the Defendant's Property to enable the Claimant to carry out routine and maintenance inspections.

Background

39. The Defendant is a secure tenant of Flat 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7QJ.

40. I first visited this property in the morning of 12 July 2017 at 11.00 am after complaints where made from the tenants at Flat 117 regarding the low pressure of their water supply. I knocked on the Defendant's flat at 109 but there was initially no answer, I had noticed that the front entrance door to the property was unlocked and slightly open; I could also hear a dog barking which appeared very aggressive. I shouted through the open door and explained that I needed to come to his property and check the water tap but he refused to come to the door. The Defendant was shouting and swearing at me to go away. At that time, I had immediately backed off and called the Claimant's call centre who then called his mother Ms Lorraine Cordell, on my behalf who then attended the Defendant's Property with her brother. The Defendant's still refused access and was extremely vocal and so that visit did not proceed but was re-scheduled for Thursday 13 July and then changed to Monday 17 July as his mother was not available.

41. On 12 July 2017 at 5.39pm, I received calls from both the Leaseholder and the Managing Agents of Flat 117 advising that their tenants' (Mr and Mrs Mathiyalakdn) water supply had stopped completely. I also called the tenant of 113 (Mr Quinton) and he had agreed to meet me at his property. I then called Ms Cordell and expressed urgency of accessing his property also, this evening to check his stop cock. It was agreed for her to meet me at the property along with the tenant of 113 and the Leaseholder of 117. I contacted one of the Claimant's housing managers, Mr Clive Green who expressed his concern of me attending out of hours, but it was then agreed that I could attend but call him as soon as I arrived and at ten-minute intervals.

42. On route to the property the Leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving called and said that their pressure was on and normal and was off for approximately 30 minutes. The pressure was poor that morning and became non- existent the same evening for 30 minutes without explanation and then returned to normal better than it had been since December 2016, This caused me concern as there was a strong suggestion that the Defendant was restricting pressure to the tenants of Flats 113 and 117 who have both confirmed the problems they have had and that the Defendant had said to them that he was controlling the water pressure previously.

43. Mr Quinton of Flat 113 said that he has not. been at his property for 6 months as he is scared of the Defendant's violent conduct who had also banged and kicked on his front door previously.

44. The leaseholder of Flat 117 Mr John Irving also reported to me that the Defendant has been demanding money off of his tenant at 117 to the value of £500.

45. The Defendant refused access again in the evening on 12 July 2017 but when I was about to return to my car he came out and although he was initially reasonable, he then started shouting and swearing at me outside the main communal front entrance. I backed away and made my way to my car, but he started following me continually showing aggression and using vile language, this must have been around 19.30pm. At that point I called one of my managers and advised that I required assistance. The Defendant's behaviour continued to worsen against me and so I called the Police as he would not allow me to approach my car. A police reference number was provided to me on the day 775912072017 CAD.

46. I awaited the Police and they spoke to the Defendant's mother Lorraine Cordell. The Defendant refused to come out or allow access. He wanted me to return on Monday of which I have now refused to do because of his threats and violence.

BACKGROUND

31. The problem with the Defendant started a few months after we moved into the property, after the Defendant approached me asking me to write a letter of support in relation to a problem, he was having with the lady that used to live at Flat 113 Bumcroft Avenue. 174. On 9th June 2017, my cousin returned from work late at night and as he opened the main communal door, the Defendant came out of his flat and started to shout abuse at him. As my cousin brought out his mobile phone to record the incident, the Defendant snatched the phone from him. A struggle ensued as my cousin tried to get his phone back from the Defendant. The Defendant then physically attacked my cousin; he grabbed my cousin round his arm and neck and injured his arm thereby causing It to bleed. My cousin managed to get his phone back and called the police. The police attended within 10 minutes and my cousin explained to them what happened, and they went to speak to the Defendant, but he refused to let them in.

175. On 16m June 2017 at 11:55am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick our daughter from school and accused her of making noise. The Defendant also said to my wife that he has our bank account and personal details and that she should tell me to pay him money.

176. On 16th June 2017 at 11:55am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the communal entrance door as she was going to pick our daughter from school and said to her that he knows what time she goes out and when she returns and to tell her husband that he wants to speak to him.

177. On 23rt June 2017, my cousin returned from work at 11:35pm and as he entered the block, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog barking and without a lead and started to swear and shout abuse at my cousin. The Defendant then attacked my cousin by punching him twice on the chest and tried to push my cousin out of the block. The Defendant snatched my cousin's mobile phone as he tried to record the incident, but he managed to get the phone back. My wife heard the commotion and woke me up and as we came out of my flat shouting at my cousin and wanting to know what was happening, the Defendant went back into his flat. We then called the police, they attended, and we explained what happened. The police then went and knocked on the Defendant's door, but he refused to let them in.

178. On 28th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife outside the main entrance door as she was going to pick up our daughter from school and demanded to talk to her. My wife told him that she cannot stop to speak with him as she was on her way to collect her daughter from school, but the Defendant ran after my wife, stood in front of her and started to shout at her. The Defendant told my wife that he knows all our personal details including our full names, date of birth and bank details. The Defendant demanded that we should pay him some money and that my wife should tell me to come and talk to him. The Defendant also accused my wife of making noises inside our flat.

179. On 30th June 2017 at 11:45am, the Defendant confronted my wife as she was leaving the block to go and pick up our daughter from school and accused her of slamming the door. My wife denied slamming the door and the Defendant called her a liar and proceeded to swear and shout abuse at her.

181. The constant verbal abuse, swearing, intimidation and aggressive behaviour from the Defendant towards my family and I have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. The fear of not knowing when we will be confronted with vile and aggressive behaviour as my wife and I go out or return to our home has caused us severe stress and anxiety. My wife is afraid of leaving our flat on her own due to fear that the Defendant will confront and shout abuse at her. We are having to tip-toe inside our flat for fear of being accused of making noise even though we live two floors above the Defendant. The Defendant has caused us immense hardship by vandalising my property and although I cannot prove it, I am certain that the Defendant was responsible for slashing my car tyres, damaging my meter cupboard and removing my electricity fuse several times and restricting water flow to my flat, Also, I no longer park my car outside my block in Bumcroft Avenue because of the car being vandalized. I now park a few streets away, about ten or fifteen minutes from my home instead of outside my block which is about a minute from my flat. I do not see why we should have to live this way.

I WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS

18. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment to me and other residents.

BACKGROUND

19. The problems that I have encountered with this tenant have been a regular occurrence since the commencement of my tenancy. The Defendant would come to my flat three or four times a week, on occasion this would occur more frequently whereby he would extend this harassment to not only myself but to my visitors also often following them as they would leave the building. He would often play loud music after which he would become very argumentative and bang on my door accusing me and my visitors of maliciously making loud noises to annoy him.

20. The Defendant would often make threats to me and on one particular occasion the Defendant said to me, 'he is on a curfew for 12 days, but he would come ‘after me' once this is over’.

21. The Defendant had also made accusations claiming that the noises I was allegedly causing had resulted in the sudden death of his child.

22. On another occasion on the 9th October 2016, the Defendant came to my flat banging on the door and when I answered immediately started shouting at me. He then went downstairs and about ten minutes later he approached my moped which was parked outside the building and started smashing it with a wooden stick. The damage that caused was to my vehicle was significant and prevented me from using it for some time and caused me to lose my job through lack of transport which was a requirement of my employment. The damage to the motorcycle was damage to tyres, the side panels, the headlights both front and rear along with both the breaks and the mirrors. The matter was reported to the Police who attended and arrested the Defendant. A crime reference number was obtained relating to this incident and I will be happy to provide this at the hearing when I attend. I also have a recording of conversation - between the Defendant and I where he admitted having caused damages to my moped. The recording will be provided at the hearing.

23. A further incident occurred with the Defendant around January 2017 whereby he came to my front door and started shouting and complaining about noise and that he was being wrongfully accused by the Police and accused myself and other tenants of 'being out to get him'. I asked him to leave but he refused to do this, so I then left my flat to stay at my friends as the Defendants behaviour had scared me. When I returned to the property a couple of days later, superglue had been inserted into the front entrance door lock preventing me from gaining access, this also caused the key to break.

24. This was reported to the council and an order was required to gain entry to my property. This was recorded under works order reference number 1814013/1.

25. Due to the erratic and abusive behaviour of this tenant I have been forced to flee my property because I feel scared and uncomfortable and I have not returned since. As a result of this I have also fallen into arrears, I am now facing homelessness.

Statement of Truth

I believe the facts in this Witness Statement are true.

132. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for an injunction to stop the Defendant from causing intimidation, harassment and alarm to other residents and their visitors on Burhcroft Avenue.

133. The Defendant is a secure tenant of the Claimant at 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, Middlesex, EN3 7JQ. His tenancy commenced on 14th August 2006. I hereby attach a bundle of documents relating to this case as exhibit number LN1. A copy of the Defendant's tenancy agreement and terms and conditions are hereby attached at pages 1-24.

134. The reports concerning the Defendant's alleged anti-social behaviour towards his neighbours was first brought to my attention in October 2016 when a case involving the Defendant and one of his neighbours was referred to me for investigation. The Defendant was reported to have caused frequent acts of harassment and anti-social behaviour against an elderly neighbour. The Defendant was arrested by the Police and bailed to a different address. The matter was referred to the Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court on 05 October 2016 where a first hearing took place. The Defendant pleaded not guilty and the trial was fixed for 17 November 2016. However, the trial did not proceed due to insufficient support as the elderly tenant was unable to attend Court due to health reasons. A copy of a letter from the Magistrate Court is attached to this statement at pages 25-26.

135. The Defendant was previously known to the Claimant and an anti-social behaviour order was made on 4 August 2015 by the Magistrates Court to prevent him from knowingly using or supplying property, personal or otherwise, for the use in a rave as defined in s.63(1) of the Criminal Justice Order Act 1994. The order was made for a duration of 5 years. A copy of the Order is at page 27 of the exhibit bundle.

136. On 6th August 2016, the Defendant threatened and shouted abuse at Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan tenants of 117 Burncroft Avenue. He aggressively, demanded money from him and threatened to beat him up. The Defendant also repeatedly swore at Mr Mathiyalagan's wife, called her a 'witch1 and tried to stop the Mr Mathiyalagan from going up the stairs to his flat by standing in front of him and blocking his advance by placing his hands on the staircase railings. Mr Mathiyalagan has already provided a witness statement in support these proceedings to confirm that this incident happened. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

137. On 8th August 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his front door, shouted abuse at him and his wife and accused them of making noise. Mr Mathiyalagan reported to us that he believes that the Defendant used a screwdriver to damage the lock on his meter cupboard and removed the fuse box thereby cutting off their electricity supply. Mr Mathiyalagan reported this incident to the police and was given reference number CAD 7934/August 2016. A file note of this report is exhibited at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

138. On 27th September 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him as he returned to his flat with his wife and young daughter and threatened and swore at him and demanded money from him. A file note of the report is on pages 28-30 of the bundle.

139. On 28th September 2016, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on his door and threatened and shouted abuse and swear words at him and his wife. The Defendant also aggressively demanded money from Mr Mathiyalagan. A file of the report is at pages 28-30 of the exhibit bundle.

140. On 11th November 2016, my former colleague, Sarah Fletcher interviewed an elderly resident who wished to remain anonymous. He said that the Defendant approached him as he came out of his flat and started to shout abuse, swear at him and threatened to bum down the elderly neighbour's flat. The report

continued that sometime around mid-September 2016, one of the Defendant's neighbours reported that the Defendant confronted him outside his block as he was going to the local park and started to shout abuse and threats at him and said to him "I can get you over at the park, I know you go for a walk". This incident led to his arrest and to the matter being referred to the Magistrates Court. A file note of the report is exhibited on page 31 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

141. I had meetings with Mr George Quinton, one of the Defendant's neighbours on 16th December 2016 and 11th January 2017. He reported that he was experiencing problems with the Defendant's behaviour, and that on 4th October 2016, the Defendant aggressively banged on his ceiling and accused him of making noise. The Defendant then went to the neighbour's flat upstairs and started kicking and banging on the front door and was swearing and shouting at. him. The Defendant later went downstairs, dragged the neighbour's motorbike from where it was parked and started to hit it with a piece of wood. A file note of the report is at pages 32-34 of the exhibit bundle.

142. On 22nd November 2016, during a telephone conversation with my former colleague Ms Sarah Fletcher, the Defendant was heard saying to his mother, who was present with him, 'I'm gonna do her over, I'm gonna take her job just for fun' referring to Ms Fletcher. A file note of the incident is at page 34A of the exhibit bundle.

143. I hereby attach a case history detailing incidents of reports from Mr Mathiyalagan about the abuse, threats and persistent intimidation by the Defendant. The case history is at pages 35 to 40 of the exhibit bundle LN1. It shows that Mr Mathiyalagan reported incidents too numerous to set out in this statement about abuse, threats, attempts to extort money and intimidation by the Defendant. Examples are that the Defendant banged on his front door while his wife was alone at home with their young daughter and shouted abuse at his wife and asked her to turn off the bathroom taps. He also removed his electricity fuse thereby cutting off their power supply. Mr Mathiyalagan reported the incident to the police and was given CAD 5753/23 December 2016. A file note of this incident is at page 37 of the exhibit bundle.

144. Other examples of aggressive and anti-social behaviour reported by Mr Mathiyalagan were that on 21st January 2017, the Defendant aggressively banged on his door, swore and shouted abuse and threats at him and his family and accused them of making noise.

145. On 9th June 2017, the Defendant attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin in the communal hallway as he returned from work late at night by grabbing him on the arm and neck thereby causing bruising to his arm and neck. The Defendant also snatched his mobile phone from him as he tried to record the incident.

146. On 16th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was exiting the main entrance at 11:55am and said to her that he had her bank and personal details. He also reported that the Defendant told his wife that he wanted her and her husband to pay him some money.

147. On 23rd June 2017, the Defendant came out of his flat with his dog and attacked Mr Mathiyalagan's cousin as he returned from work at 11:35pm. He reported that the Defendant punched his cousin twice on the chest, tried to push him out of the block and snatched his mobile phone as he tried to record the incident.

148. On 28th June 2017, the Defendant confronted Mr Mathiyalagan's wife as she was leaving the block at 11:45am, swore at her, shouted abuse and accused her of making noise inside her flat. He said to her that he knows all her personal details and that of her husband including their full names, date of birth, phone numbers and bank details. The Defendant demanded that they pay him some money and asked her to tell Mr Mathiyalagan to come and see him.

149. On 2nd July 2017, Mr Mathiyalagan reported that the Defendant confronted him with his dog barking and without a lead as he was going out with his family at

5:18pm and asked him when he was going to hand over the money. He also reported that as they left the block, the Defendant ran after them swearing and shouting abuse and demanded that he must pay him money if he wants him to leave him alone. The Defendant also said to him that he has all their personal details. A report of the incident is at page 40 of the case history.

150. Case history notes exhibited at pages 41-46 show reports of similar aggressive and intimidating behaviour displayed to Mr Mathiyalagan was being experienced by another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous because of fear of reprisal from the Defendant.

151. Similarly, further case notes exhibited at pages 47-52 show that another tenant who wishes to remain anonymous was being subjected to the Defendant's antisocial behaviour. She had to be moved from the block because of the harassment from the Defendant and because she suffered from mental health problems and was particularly vulnerable and unable to deal with the threats and harassment from the Defendant.

152. On 7th February 2017, the Defendant approached the leaseholder of 117 Bumcroft Avenue and his plumber outside the block as they were attempting to resolve low water pressure issues affecting the flat. The Defendant informed the leaseholder that there were problems between him and his tenants but did not give specific details. The leaseholder explained to the Defendant that his tenants were experiencing low water pressure in their flat and that they were trying to fix the problem. The Defendant said to the leaseholder, “you will not resolve the problem as I am restricting their water supply”. The leaseholder later asked the Defendant to increase the water pressure and the Defendant stated, "I cannot do anything at the moment, I will sort it out later”. A report of this incident is at page 55 of the exhibit bundle.

153. On 24th February 2017, the Claimants officers Sarah Fletcher and Steve Kirk attended the Defendant’s property following reports of low water pressure in the flats above his. While inside his flat they noticed that the Defendant have installed a metal security gate inside his front door. It also appeared that the Defendant may have removed the wall between his kitchen and living room thereby creating an open plan living space. A copy of the file note is pages 56-57 of the exhibit bundle.

154. On 8th May 2017, the Claimant’s officers, Ms Fletcher, a Neighbourhood officer who has since left the Council and Mr Steve Stirk, a Surveyor visited the Defendant’s block of flats following reports of low water pressure to flats 109, 113 and 117 Bumcroft Avenue. While the Claimant’s officers were outside flat 113, the Defendant came up to them and started to complain about his perceived victimization by his neighbours, the police and the council. While the Defendant was talking to the officers, Mr Mathiyalagan came down the stairs and the Defendant said to him, "I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life". A file note of this report is exhibited at page 58 of the exhibit bundle and an email from Steve Stirk is at page 59.

155. On 14th May 2017, yet another neighbour who wishes to remain anonymous reported that the Defendant aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise and coming into his flat to attack him. The neighbour stated that the Defendant later followed her to her car as she was leaving the block shouting abuse and wanting to know where she was going. The neighbour also reported that the Defendant allowed his dog to roam freely in the communal area of the block without a lead. A file note of the report is at page 60 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

156. On 28th May 2017, the Defendant was issued with a first instance Harassment letter by the police following allegations of harassment and threatening behaviour made to the police by his neighbour. A copy of the letter and the PC's statement are at pages 61-62 of the exhibit bundle LN1.

157. On 12th July 2017, Mr Neville Gray, the Claimants repairs surveyor attended the Defendant's flat to investigate reports of low water pressure to the flats above the Defendant's flat but the Defendant refused him access. Mr Neville Gray attended the Defendant's flat again at about 5:39pm following reports from the leaseholder of flat 117 Burncroft House that the water supply had stopped completely, but the Defendant also refused him access. The Defendant later shouted abuse and swear words at Mr. Gray and would not allow him to approach his car. Mr. Gray has provided a witness statement in relation to this incident.

QQ. The Defendant is in breach of the following conditions of his tenancy agreement;

RR. Condition 10 - "You must not act in any way which causes, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance or is anti-social."

SS. Condition 21 - "You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter.to the Police".

WW. Condition 53 - "You must keep the inside of the property, the fixtures and fittings and glass in the property in good repair during the tenancy"

20. I have corresponded with the Defendant regarding the reports of anti-social behaviour made against him by his neighbours and invited him to meetings with his mother Lorraine Cordell, but he declined to attend. 59. The Claimant's operatives have had difficulties in accessing the Defendant's flat to inspect the state of the property and the unauthorised works and modifications which the Defendant is purported to have carried out without a written consent from the Claimant. The Claimant has also been unable to check whether the Defendant Is restricting water supply/pressure to the properties above his since December 2016. The Defendant has admitted to restricting the water supply but has refused to allow the Claimant's maintenance operatives access to his property to investigate and rectify the problem.

60. The Defendant has intimidated the residents in the entire block and because of his behaviour, we have received numerous complaints from residents, requests to be transferred from the block and we have had to move a vulnerable tenant from the block.

61. I have made attempts to engage with the Defendant, but he has not been cooperative and has continuously displayed abusive and threatening behaviour towards the Claimant's members of staff and his neighbours. A Notice of Seeking Possession has been served on him and possession action is being considered. However, in the meantime, this injunction is required to ensure that the other residents are not subjected to further intimidation and harassment by the Defendant. This application is being made without notice because if the Defendant were given notice, he would intimidate the witnesses in an attempt to prevent the order being made.

Home visit conducted on Friday 4-th Nov 16. And emotional support was provided. At the time Stain Curtis was having problems remembering the timeline of dates pertaining to incidents and said he was quite friendly with Simon Cordell - leading up to current events and was somewhat perplexed as to the sudden change in the attitude of the accused. Mr. Curtis and alleged other residents felt the problem could have something to do with Debra Andrews a resident named she has since moved Mr. Curtis made a reference to Simon Cordell boasting in having something to do with her departure. Stain Curtis was trying to re call events and said it could have been in the month of July, -when Simone Cordell shouted abuse and swore at him and threatened to burn his flat down Mr. Curtis did not call the housing or police to report the threat. His friend, another resident who did not want his name mentioned said that It was on 6th July. Mr. Curtis could not quite remember when the second incident occurred-but said that it was around mid-September. Simon Cordell approached Mr. Curtis outside of side his flat, when Mr. Curtis was on his way to the fields - and threatened. him. A lady called Karen also a resident of Burncroft witness the threat and asked Mr. Cordell to the leave the old an alone with encouragement from other residents – Mr. Curtis called the police a few days after the threat to make a report. Mr. Curtis said the police a lot of police some with riot gear entered his flat with officers posted to the front and rear of the building. They managed to coax Mr. Cordell out of his flat and arrested him. The case. has since been heard in court and Simone Cordell pleaded not guilty. He has been bailed with conditions - to stay away from Mr. Curtis and also not to enter the Burncroft area. Mr. Curtis is required to stand as a witness in court on the 17th Nov 2016. However, Mr. Curtis is feeling quite anxious and feels there may be reprisals to him giving evidence, I asked Mr. Curtis if he would like me to attend the hearing in support, he said yes, he would not mind. I also visited another resident Christine -to get her account of things. Action Contact the witness service and arrange a pre-court trial visit and other assistance. Possibly arrange transportation on the day of the hearing+ and for the pre-court trial visit. Any other assistance/support we can provide Mr. Curtis had a leak from her overflow a few months ago which has since been repaired but, the damage alleged had occurred.

I met with Mr Quinton today at the Civic Centre to discuss his complaints against Mr Simon Cordell. Mr Quinton stated that the problems started soon after he moved into the block in April 2016. He stated that soon after he moved into his flat, he went around to SC's flat to introduce himself. After he introduced himself, SC said to him that there is some kind of war going on between him and other neighbours. SC also told him that he's got a load of issues with the police and that he was trying to https://ecaseworks.net/ENFIELD/ViewSelected.asp?sViewData=79625 8,796261,803...

sue them because he felt that they were treating him unfairly. He told SC that he was a musician and that he does not want anything to do with his issues.

Straight after he moved in, SC will come up to his flat at least once a week to shout at him and complain about loud banging from his flat and knocking pipes. SC would accuse him of making noise on purpose to wind him up and he will always explain to him that it is not true, that he does not make any banging noises inside his flat and that he cannot explain why the pipes were making knocking noises.

Mr Quinton stated that on 4/10/16, he was sleeping when SC started to bang on his ceiling, but he ignored him. SC then came up and started kicking at his door and he still ignored him. SC then went downstairs, dragged Mr Quinton's motorbike from where he parked it, threw it on the ground and started to hit it with what he believed to be a mop pole, he is not sure how many times he hit it. He then called the police and they came and took him away, CAD No. 3309/4 Oct. 2016.

On 11/12/16, SC came up to his flat 3 times to shout abuse and complain about noise from his flat.
Mr Quinton explained that the first time, he was running a bath when SC came and knocked on the door to complain about knocking pipes. He did not open the door and he shouted abuse at him and his friends and called them homophobic names. He later came back again to bang on his door and shout further abuse. He also made threatened him and his exact words are 'I'm off curfew in 12 days, when I'm, I am coming for you', he shouted further abuse and walked off. Mr Quinton stated that he is not sure why he came back the second time, but he assumed that it was because of the pipes again. He later came back again the third time and this time he opened the door because he has had enough. SC complained about noise from his flat and he told him that he was not making any noise. SC then went on to tell him that he has been away for a long time and that his family was coming to look after his dog. He asked SC if he knew anything about his bike and SC replied 'You know what, I'm a grown man I'm not gonna lie, it was me that smashed your bike and I was gutted that the stick broke and I couldn't smash it up more'. He then asked SC about his tyres which was punctured with a knife and he denied cutting them. He then explained to SC that the knocking pipes has nothing to do with him and that he does not bang or make deliberate noise and he advised SC to play his music over the noise if it happens again as there is nothing he can do about the pipes and the noise as it is the nature of the building. SC said cool, fair enough and walked off and as he walked off, he turned around and gave him a dirty look.
About a week later, 2 of his friends left his flat and a short while later he heard SC running out of the front door. Soon after one of his friends called and told him that they have just had a confrontation with SC in the street. His friend informed him that SC ran up to them in the street and confronted his friend Jazz about the knocking pipe noises from his flat. Jazz told SC that it has nothing to do with him. SC then head-butted Jazz and as Jazz fell on the floor, SC jumped on top of him and started to punch him. His other friend Jevon who was with Jazz at the time pulled SC off Jazz and held him until 2 Turkish men came and separated them.

Mr Quinton stated that the police did not contact him to update him on what action was taken against SC regarding his smashed bike. He stated that he has recording of SC admitting to smashing up his bike and played the recording to me. Although it was very faint, but you could make out what sounded like SC talking about smashing the bike. He stated that he wants to sue SC for criminal damage, he also wants to take out a restraining order against him and possibly an injunction.
He stated that his friends Simon Cocks (07393285528), Julian Jackson (07387277163) and Jazz Bramble (07375651241) are willing to provide witness statements and will attend court to give evidence on his behalf. He also wants us to find out why what action the police took regarding his smashed bike.
08/02/2017:
I did an announced visit to Mr Quinton at 113 Burncroft Avenue following recent email from Mrs Cordell concerning noise disturbances from the flat as a result of wooden flooring but there was no response. I then telephoned Mr Quinton and left a voice message for him.
07/03/2017: 27/07/2017:
I telephoned Mr Quinton for updates on any recent incidents and he stated that there has been none as he has been staying at his flat. He stated that he has been staying with friends and family and only goes back to his fiat to check his letters.
He stated that he will give a witness statement and will attend court if required to do so.

Telephone call received from Mr Cordell
22/11/2016
I received a call from Simon Cordell of 109 Burncroft Avenue at approx. 1.20pm. The call was transferred by the customer services team informing me that Mr Cordell wished to discuss his housing options/how to move. I took the call - he sounded agitated and said that he had a few things that he wished to discuss with me. He said he was calling in response to a letter that I had sent him requesting the removal of a CCTV camera that he had installed on the inner communal/fire door on the ground floor of the block. He informed me that he would not be removing the camera as he believed he was legally allowed to have the camera as the communal area was his. I explained that he was in breach of his tenancy conditions as permission had not been sought or granted for the installation and he could not install anything in the communal area as this belonged to the Council. He maintained that his neighbour in another block had a camera and had taken the Council to court about it and won the case. I responded that I could not comment about other cases but my position remains as per the letter I sent: That the camera was in breach of tenancy conditions, was invasive to the privacy of other residents in the block as it points at the outer communal door and should be removed by Friday 25th November or the Council will remove it and charge him for the cost of doing so. He then said that the camera was fake so it didn't need to be removed. I responded that it did still need to be removed. His voice was raised throughout the exchange and I had to ask him to calm down and lower his voice more than once. He then said that he wanted to move on to finding out about moving to another address. He proceeded to give me a full history of his experiences with the police and previous housing management and alleged that 'Jackie', who had previously lived above him and 'Stan', his immediate neighbour on the ground floor, had victimised him over a long period of time and that he had done nothing wrong. This history was very full and it was difficult to get a word in because he was so worked up so I let him relay the information to me as it seemed like he wanted to get it off of his chest. He was very derogatory about the police and previous housing staff who had signed a request for an Asbo application against him. I told him that I could not comment about previous action taken. He then came on to more recent events and stated that there had been an incident between him and another resident where she had shouted at him out of her window because of him starting up a scrambler bike in his garden. He maintained that he was courteous during the exchange but the police came and arrested him because she told them that he had threatened to kill her and that he had been put in the mental hospital, had won his case in court and was able to go home as of today. He said that he wanted me to give him 'points' so that he could move. I explained that his best means of moving would be through a mutual exchange, but he was adamant that he did not want to do this and wanted to be moved in the same way that he moved into this property 11yrs ago by being given points. I explained that a transfer was unlikely based on what he had told me so far but that I could look into the position for him. He said a lot about his perceived victimisation by his neighbours and expressed that he felt that I should I have a duty to protect him. I explained that I had a responsibility to all residents living at Burncroft Avenue and took the opportunity to mention that I had received some reports about antisocial behaviour by him that I would need to discuss with him but suggested that we leave that for today. He then put his mother on the line (she had been trying to interject throughout the conversation) who said she wanted to know why I had not responded to her messages to call her. I apologised for this and explained that I have been very busy but that I needed to know whether we had written permission from Mr Cordell for us to speak to her - she said that there was a written note recorded on our files in 2015. Mr Cordell asked her what I was asking her and when she replied that I was querying permission I clearly heard Mr Cordell say angrily and aggressively "I'm gonna do her over" and then "I'm gonna take her job just for fun". I informed Mrs Cordell that I had overheard these remarks and that I was ending the call. She said that her son had now left the room and she was talking to me. I repeated that I would be ending the call and that she should put what she wanted to say in writing to me.

I noticed that there is laminate flooring in the whole flat and ceramic tiles in the kitchen. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the flooring was already in the flat when they moved in. He stated that they do not make noise deliberately and that any noise from his flat is household noise. He also stated that as far as he is aware that the person living below them-), we not complained of noise and that he will be the one that will be affected if there are excessive issues from his flat. He also stated that he has asked the mau-'f they are causing noise disturbances arid he said they are not. He also requested that Mr Cordell should contact the council if he is being disturbed by noise from his flat instead of harassing him and his family by banging on his front door, shouting abuse at him and his wife, threatening them and confronting them when they come into the block.

By the time I returned to the office, Mr Cordell had telephoned me several times. He stated that he will not attend the meeting at the Civic Centre or any of the council and that I should come to his flat. I offered to have the meeting at a neutral venue like the local library or even at his mother's house, but he refused and shouted to shout abuse and accuse me of taking sides with his neighbours. He denied doing the things that he is accused of doing and stated that he is the victim and that the council have refused to deal with his complaints against his neighbours. He stated that he has been suffering noise disturbances from his neighbours since he moved into his flat and that the council have refused to deal with it. He alleged that the council is conniving with the police to victimise him and threatened to put in a complaint - against me, He continued shouting abuse and will not let me say a word, I then advised him that I will have to terminate the conversation as we were getting nowhere.

History 03/11/2016:

■ request I contacted the victim explained the reason for my call – Mr Stain Curtis did have some reservations about going to court. Therefore, I have arranged to conduct a visit scheduled for Friday 04/11/2016 at 2:30 pm then we discuss the matter further.

03/11/2016:

Research conducted on Northgate - shows that Sarah Fletcher is the housing officer. I spoke to Sarah who is aware of issues with Simon Cordell and the action against him - however, she said she needs to gather more information as she has had a member's enquiry from Waltham Forest. As to our view about Mr Curtis she has not had any complaints or court action. Therefore, it is possible that the legal process has been taken by the police.

Phone call made to the Witness Service from the victim's home - to possible arrange a pre-court trial visit to no avail.

I spoke to Sabran Witness Service Highbury & Islington court she advised pre-court trial visit are. no longer arranged directly by them. I will have to go through Citizens Advice national contact centre I she gave me a number however; I was getting no response on the number given 0208 733 6422.1 also called 101 and was given another number 0206 733 5480 - again a voice recording with no one to take the call. I contacted the call centre again and was given another number with on digit difference to the previous 0208 733 6423 Clair Lockwood. A voice recording again I therefore left a message requesting a call back.

I tried calling the Witness Care Unit again at Holbom station to no avail -1 then got a call back from police Holbom asking if I had tried to contact them -1 was then put through to Thomas Jones Witness Care Officer — from this point the communicative lines was open for progress. Tom also said the oic is DC Campbell attached to Edmonton Police station. And that he will email him to contact the victim to reassure him.

16/11/2016:
I received a call from Thomas Jones - Witness Care he advised that the CPS have dropped the case of Curtis v Cordell. Reason - Not enough evidence to provide a realistic prospect of any conviction. In further discussion Thomas said DC Campbell was of ill - has now returned; however, he said he will contact Mr Curtis in relation to the current position of the matter. I asked Tom if the CPS will be writing to Mr Curtis directly - he said they should to advise accordingly. Tips given to report further incidents and keep records.
Visited Christine (flat 97 Burncroft Avenue) and Karen (flat 105). Christine stated that she witnessed the September when Mr Cordell threatened Mr Curtis. She stated that she was with her neighbour Karen when they heard Mr Cordell shouting and as they came out to see what was happening, she saw Mr Cordell shouting at Mr Curtis. She alleged that he was shouting abuse and threats and that Karen told him to leave Mr Curtis alone, that he is an old man. Mr Cordell then started shouting abuse and threats at Karen. Christine stated that she is not prepared to give a statement and that she will not keep incident logs.
We then met with Karen outside the block. She stated that she and Christine witnessed the incident that happened in September. She stated that Mr Cordell was shouting abuse and threats at Mr Curtis and that she told him to leave Mr Curtis alone as he is an old man and that Mr Cordell then turned against her and started threatening her. She stated that she is not afraid of him when she is on her own, that her only concern is that she is looking after 2 very vulnerable children and she will not be able to defend herself and them if Mr Cordell was to attack her when she is with them. She is happy to make a statement and will log any further incidents.

Hi Dolly,
Nick and I attended 113a while ago and spoke to the lady a while ago when she originally called Police. At the time she didn't want us to speak to her neighbour as things had got better. The lady handed us a letter about what had happened but none of it made any sense.
We believe she was suffering from mental health issues. On another occasion we popped round to see her and she wouldn't come and speak to us so instead she spoke through her letterbox to us. The male at 109 - Simon Cordell who is causing the problems is very well known to Police and is also very anti Police. I know some Officers went around and spoke to him and things seemed to get better. After that we have had no further calls from the lady at 118.
We will try and get around to see her when were back on duty on Monday.
Kind Regards

Good afternoon Mark,
Could you kindly assist with this query please.
Following reports of ASB by the above tenant, my colleague and I visited her this morning and were alarmed by the nature of her complaints. She has in the past few months being constantly harassed, intimidated, bullied, stalked and threatened to kill by her neighbour at 109.
As a result of his behaviour, she has become too scared to leave her flat for fear of what may happen to her. She is a vulnerable tenant who requires support from services. However, the unsettling behaviour exhibited by number 109, has hindered her from attending her appointments and exacerbated her condition. At the moment, she feels very disorientated / agitated and will like the harassment to stop.
She advised that she had reported this to the police a few times but, wasn't taken seriously.
I will appreciate if you could stop over at 113 to reassure her that the matter is being dealt with and also to stop by 109 and advise him that you are aware of what is going on and the repercussions should it continue.
Thank you for your support and assistance

Ref. 117 Bumcroft Ave, Enfield, EN3 7JQ low water pressure - harassment by tenant at 109

Thurs 26/01/17 - While in attendance at 117 Bumcroft, where we were attempting to resolve a low water pressure issue, we were approached by the tenant of 109 Bumcroft the ground floor flat. He stated that there were problems between him and the tenants of 117 without going into specific details. I was with a private plumber who was looking at the low water pressure problem at 117. We explained the problem to the tenant from 109 who stated, 'you will not solve the problem as I am restricting their water supply!' obviously both myself and the plumber were shocked at this statement. Despite thorough investigation to the low water pressure problem we were unable to increase the pressure. However, before leaving the site I knocked at 109 asking whether he would increase their pressure, he stated 'I cannot do anything at the moment I will sort it out later!'. Despite the attendance of Thames Water (twice), the agent's plumber, my plumber and various sub-contractors from Enfield Homes this matter remains unresolved.

Simon Cordell - 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ

Following reports of continued low water pressure/supply to 117 Burncroft Avenue (second floor) despite information from Thames Water indicating that they had attended and that supply to the block 109-119 Burncroft Avenue was of a sufficient bar pressure, I tried to coordinate access to all flats on the right-hand side of the block, potentially affected by the issue: 109, 113 and 117.

I wrote and hand delivered letters to all 3 of the properties requesting access for the Council Surveyor to visit and assess the water pressure in each on Friday 24th February 2017 between 10am and 12pm.

I spoke by telephone with Mr Irving, the leaseholder of 117; who had instigated the water pressure complaint who agreed that he would attend and give access.

I spoke by telephone with Mr George Quinton, the tenant of 113, who agreed that he would give access.

I spoke by telephone with Lorraine Cordell, mother of Simon Cordell, the tenant of 109 who said that no one was available to give access.

I attended with Steve Stirk, surveyor, on Friday 24th February 2017 at 10am. We were given access to 117 and Steve Stirk investigated the water pressure to the taps in the kitchen and bathroom.

We were unable to gain access to 113 as the tenant was not home -1 called and left voicemail messages for the tenant but did not get any further response.

Steve Stirk suggested that we knock at 109 just on the off chance that someone was home. Mr Simon Cordell answered the door and, once Steve Stirk had explained that we were investigating the low water pressure/supply issue to the block, he allowed us into the property.
While Steve Stirk checked the water pressure in the kitchen, I introduced myself to Mr Cordell. He then became quite agitated and proceeded to regulate me with the same issues that he had relayed to me during our previous telephone conversation including issues about his neighbours, the police and the Council conspiring to ruin his life as well as his work arranging community music events. He did not give me much of an opportunity to respond and kept talking over me when I tried to do so. Steve Stirk then went and checked the bathroom taps which he discovered were all already open (water running in wash basin; water running in bath which was full and going down overflow). We then thanked Mr Cordell for his time and left the property.
Outcome: It is unclear whether Mr Cordell running all of the taps constantly is linked to the issue of low water pressure as he is on the ground floor and 117 is 2 floors up (we had been unable to check the pressure in 113). Steve Stirk to liaise again with Thames Water about the issue and to consider separation of the water supply to the ground floor flat.

Simon Cordell — 109 Burncroft Avenue, EN3 7JQ
Further to ongoing issues related to water pressure/supply to the block at 109 - 119 Burncroft Avenue particularly to the right-hand supply affecting 109,113 and 117, I visited the block on Monday 8th May 2017 at 11am with Steve Stirk, surveyor, and .an MCP locksmith.

The purpose of this visit was to gain access to 113 Bumcroft Avene so to assess the water pressure/supply to this property. Several attempts had been made previously to do this but the tenant was not there to give access so a 'forced' entry was made and the locks subsequently changed (the tenant had been notified previously that we would be taking this action if he did not provide access).
We entered the property so that Steve Stirk could test the water taps in the kitchen and bathroom. There was no flooring laid except for a rug in the living room (the kitchen was accessed through here) and the floorboards made a significant amount of noise as we stepped on them.
The resident from the property underneath, Mr Simon Cordell, heard us in the property and came upstairs. Steve Stirk and I were outside the property at this point as the locksmith started to undertake the work to install new locks on to the door (he was inside the hallway).
Mr Cordell proceeded to 'rant' at Steve Stirk and me about his perceived victimisation by his neighbours. He was very agitated and loud - recounting his experience with the police, previous housing management, a previous partner, a previous neighbour and allegations of anti-social behaviour made against him-
Steve Stirk tried to explain that we were there to deal with a specific issue and that this was not the time or place to address these concerns. Mr Cordell did not want to listen and became fixated on Steve Stirk being 'dismissive' towards him (Mr Cordell's words). He went on at length about his upstairs neighbours, both past and present on first and second floors, 'banging' hammers deliberately above his head.
He continued to go on, in his agitated state, about how he had been treated by the police and previous housing managers who had promised him that they would re-lay the floor of flat 113 but had not done so. At this point the resident from 117, Mr Mathiyalakan Markandu, came down the stairs on his way out of the building. As he came down past us Mr Cordell focussed his attention on him and said to him: 'I'm going to the police station now with my evidence about you and I'm going to ruin your life'. Mr Mathiyalakan Markandu did not respond and proceeded to walk past and go down the stairs and out of the building.

Both Steve Stirk and I commented to Mr Cordell that the way he had behaved was threatening in nature and Was not acceptable. Mr Cordell responded, ‘it’s not a threat it’s a fact’. He then continued to repeat his history with the police and previous housing management.

I asked Mr Cordell to calm down and tried to explain that some of these issues could have been addressed by attending the meeting that Lemmy Nwabusi in the CSU team had tried to convene with him. He. said that he was not prepared to attend such a meeting but wanted to speak to me, his housing officer, now. I explained that as Steve Stirk had already said that we could not address his issues there and then I suggested that a meeting could be convened with both the CSU and neighbourly teams to look at some of the issues with Mr Cordell. He indicated that he would be willing to do this if we came to his home to do so.

Subject: 109, BURNCROFT AVENUE, ENFIELD, EN3 7JQ
Further to my conversation today please note the following I carried out a joint with Sarah back in January regarding low water pressure to 117
While on location the following was noted Kitchen internal wall has been partly removed 3 large industrial type printers found with assorted inks and cleaning liquids Internal gate installed to front door
While all these items could be used in normal day to day interests the tenant made claims he was actively involved in planning and conduction events and the equipment was used to produce marketing leaflets and posters
This Monday we has reason to attend 113 to carry out a full lock change given accusation from the tenant that his lock had been glued so was unable to gain access the tenant claim the damaged was caused by 109, (this cannot be confirmed) as the tenant did not attend both Sarah and myself did go in and while there was confronted by the tenant from 109, the tenant for about twenty minutes would not leave us alone and became increasingly aggressive despite attempt to explain to him that we had not come to see him or indeed were able to comment of any of his accusations on how Enfield had ruined his lie were putting him in danger by leaving him in his flat, during this confrontation the tenant from 117 passed through the passage and the tenant from 109 stated he was going to 'ruin his life and generally became more irate towards the tenant.

It is clear that we are unable to allow this to continue as the body posture from 117 was defensive and did not wish to reply or get into any form of conversation with this tenant
Given that two members of staff were present and the confrontational attitude towards not only us but the other resident I believe we need to action this event to try and stop any further escalation from this tenant
Lastly I would recommend that we need full access to 109 to assess what is the true cause of the low water pressure to the flats above given the items found in the flat as well these need to be removed as does the internal gate please advise so I can carry out a full inspection as this is a complaint from the lease holder as they have very little water flow in the fiat above and given the nature of the conditions and life style of 109 we are unable to show if he has caused the issue, on a housing point the internal wall that has been partly removed needs to be put back as it is a breach of fire regs

FILE NOTE

I telephoned Miss[redacted] to discuss her complaints against Mr Cordell and agree an action plan. Miss[redacted] stated that she has lived in the block since April 2015 and that the problems with Mr Cordell started about a year ago. She stated that he bangs on her door when she is sleeping at night and also follows her to her car asking her where is going or where she is coming from. She alleged that on 14th May 2017 Mr Cordell came and aggressively banged on her door, shouted abuse and threats at her and falsely accused her of making noise inside her flat. She stated that she does not make noise and that her flat is on the opposite side of Mr Cordell flat and therefore he should not hear any noise from her flat. She stated that Mr Cordell came up to her face in a very aggressive and intimidating manner to accuse her of coming into his flat to attack him and asking her why she comes into his flat. She denied going into flat and stated that he does everything to try and intimidate her.
She also complained that she feels scared every time she is going out or returning to her flat as Mr Cordell allows his dog to run freely inside the block.
She stated that Mr Cordell has banged on her door about 4 times in the past 2 months. She also alleged that he has followed her to her car twice in the past 1 month accusing her of coming into his flat to attack him and also kept asking her where she was going or coming from. She alleged that on one occasion, Mr Cordell stood in front of her car and will not let her drive away. She stated that he has been verbally aggressive and intimidating but has not been physically aggressive towards her.
She stated that she suffers from mental illness and that this has exacerbated her problems and that she no longer feels safe living in her property. She stated that she has asked her neighbourhood officer to rehouse her as a result of the harassment from Mr Cordell. She stated that she is unable to complete incident diaries as a result of her illness but will telephone to report any further incidences. She stated that she has reported the matter to the police several times and believes that they are dealing with it. She stated that she has been staying with friends and family as she no longer feels safe to stay in her property on her own.

Re: Reports of Anti-Social Behaviour, Harassment, Intimidation and Threatening Behaviour

I write with regards to reports of anti-social behaviour, intimidation, harassment and threatening behaviour made against you by your neighbours.

The reports include using threatening, abusive and insulting words and language, aggressively demanding money, intimidation and making threats towards your neighbours. It is also alleged that on 4th October 2016, you banged on your ceiling and you later started to bang and kick at your neighbour's door. It is alleged that you were very aggressive and was shouting through your neighbour's door and that you then proceeded to drag his motorbike from where it was parked and started to smash it up.
It is also alleged that your dog got left by themselves all day and night barking and causing noise disturbances to your neighbours. Your neighbours have also alleged that you have installed an CCTV in the communal area with the camera pointing towards the main entrance to the block thereby making them to feel very uncomfortable when entering and leaving the block. Your neighbours have alleged that this is an invasion of their privacy.

Hello Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Alas I've heard nothing from PC G, now I am entertaining the possibility that he may have moved. As such, I will briefly examine ways in which to confirm any potential new address before going on to write the report, in my view you've waited long enough. What are your thoughts?

Hello Lorraine,
Many apologies again for my delayed reply, it's been a busy week or so. I've had no response from PC G, the letter was sent recorded delivery. So far, there's nothing to say he no longer resides at the address etc. I'll keep you updated on that front. As it stands, should PC G choose to not assist then presently there is little we could do to compel him to provide an account in the furtherance of the investigation. I note all of your comments in your email, I can assure you they will be taken into account when I come to write my report. Re PC G's current occupation, I note your views. All I can say is that my review of the evidence will be objective and governed by the information available to me. If you've any questions for me at this stage, as ever, please do put them to me.

Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply.
Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person was wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said and did not brother to check what my son was saying. Something always come to mind here and that is what was written in the subject access request I got back from my son's insurance company, this was after the time we spent trying to stop the insurance company cancelling my son's insurance and going to courts. When I saw this, it hurt as we knew the police had not told the truth and in the subject access request there was nothing to say my son was not in the wrong. There was no sorry there was nothing and this is just wrong. My son was the one that had the bad mark against his name for a long time until it was proven in the appeal court, not the police officer and this is still the case to this day the police officer has done nothing wrong in everyone's eyes when he did do wrong. He has been allowed to move on in his life, my son was the one spending all the time to clear his name not the police officer when my son had done nothing wrong. "[...] Which is obviously ... we're in an awkward situation as well because [Data Subject] and [Data Subject] mum is constantly ringing us up. They don't understand that obviously we are going to take a police officer's views over obviously one of our policyholders because obviously a police officer's job is obviously to tell the truth and not to lie." This is the action of most people's view but in this case the police officer was not telling the truth my son was. And my son was the one being made to suffer when he had not done anything wrong. But yet people believe the police in everything they say. I know you have said PC G's current occupation; I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever. Maybe I see it another way his occupation is Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice, can't you see the irony in this he is trying to find justice for people, but what he did in this case was never justice at his own hands, the DPS never served justice for my son, yet they knew PC G had lied in this whole case, and that PC G took it to the courts and again never told the truth and perjury himself two times in a court of law. PC G seems to think this is acceptable he still applied for his job roll where he is working to make sure justice is fair for all. I am sure if he had admitted to breaking the law in what he did he would not be in the position he is in now I do find this very relevant that is how I feel and my son does.

Best Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Morning Lorraine,

Firstly, apologies for my delayed reply! I had intended to reply much sooner. I think I'm correct in saying that the necessity for your son's arrest was associated with PC G's uncertainty as to the address provided. This is something I'll discuss in the report. Can I ask, from where did you get the impression that your son's name was not in PC G's pocketbook? To reiterate, I'd be more than happy share documents with you at the end of the investigation. As per the Police Reform Act, subject to the harm test. Was there any particular reason you'd want them sooner?
I expect the investigation to conclude in October incidentally. I was intending on giving PC G three weeks, what are your thoughts on that?
Re PC G's current occupation, I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son. I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed?
What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation?
I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation, I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate.
As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines.
If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight. Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.
Kind regards

Hello Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Alas I've heard nothing from PC G, now I am entertaining the possibility that he may have moved. As such, I will briefly examine ways in which to confirm any potential new address before going on to write the report, in my view you've waited long enough. What are your thoughts?

Hello Lorraine,
Many apologies again for my delayed reply, it's been a busy week or so. I've had no response from PC G, the letter was sent recorded delivery. So far, there's nothing to say he no longer resides at the address etc. I'll keep you updated on that front. As it stands, should PC G choose to not assist then presently there is little we could do to compel him to provide an account in the furtherance of the investigation. I note all of your comments in your email, I can assure you they will be taken into account when I come to write my report. Re PC G's current occupation, I note your views. All I can say is that my review of the evidence will be objective and governed by the information available to me. If you've any questions for me at this stage, as ever, please do put them to me.

Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply.
Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person was wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said

Hello Jamie
Maybe you can send to his work email I believe this is his work email address
rory.geoghegan@centreforsocialjustice.org.uk
well that's what it says when I do a Google search on his name. Maybe you could also get a phone number for him there not sure; but if you sent to his work email you would know he got it or if you called and was able to talk to him you would know if he even wanted to help in this, Maybe he has had the letters but know he does not need to help if he does not want to, maybe send someone round to the address you have. This is just some ideas not sure if you can use them.

Backgrounds facts

63. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

64. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

65. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

66. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

67. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

68. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

69. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

70. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

71. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

MR SIMON CORDELL

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

74. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

75. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Morning Lorraine,
Thanks for your reply, appreciated. You're right, we don't know for sure that he has not received the letter, even if he had moved, he may have had his post re-directed etc. I had considered contacting him at his workplace and is stands it does seem like the most efficient way to proceed. I shall discuss the matter with my inspector and revert to you with a decision.

Hello Jamie
Maybe you can send to his work email I believe this is his work email address rory.geoghegan@centreforsocialjustice.org.uk well that's what it says when I do a Google search on his name. Maybe you could also get a phone number for him there not sure; but if you sent to his work email you would know he got it or if you called and was able to talk to him you would know if he even wanted to help in this, Maybe he has had the letters but know he does not need to help if he does not want to, maybe send someone round to the address you have. This is just some ideas not sure if you can use them.

Hi Madeleine
Lorraine the mother of our tenant MR SIMON CORDELL phoned on 0208 245 7454/07807 333545 regarding an ongoing issue that both Sara Fletcher and Obie Ebanks were both dealing with and have left. The noise coming from the floor of 113 Burncroft is so excessive because of the floorboards that it is affecting her son's health who already has mental health issues. 117 Burncroft a leaseholder has wooden floor and she has raised the issue again and again and that also has not been addressed.

Hello,

Unfortunately, I am unable to provide further disclosure as I am not the officer in the case, DC Yianni MICHAEL who is currently on annual leave will be able to advise on this further once he returns.

I can say that the police do not provide witness statements to anyone outside of the criminal justice process and not to third parties. The only person who is entitled a copy of the "crime report" would be the victim.

Dear All,
My name is Aurelie Burmann, I am case manager at L&Q North Neighbourhood. I am writing in regards to an incident which occurred at 7 Tennyson Close EN3, crime reference 5216092/17. We have been informed on 30th August that the report/investigation was now closed and advised the tenant was a risk to return to the property. The case was taken to the panel for a priority transfer management. However, it was declined due to lack of information. They requested for a full Police disclosure with copies of witness statements from other residents. I did send a request by email two weeks ago, to the Right Unit and attempted to contact them by phone, but I have no response. Therefore, the application to allow the tenant to move to a new property, is on hold until we receive the Police report. I hope you will be able to help and send me the information requested. Do not hesitate to contact me on my number below if you request further information. My extension number is 7487.
Kind regards

Hi Simon,
The council complaints team have advised us that you recently contacted them to request for a meeting with a manager to discuss your concerns about Enfield Council involvement in you having an ASBO and curfew which in your view is based on 'hearsay evidence'. Could you please clarify what ASBO you refer to because as far as we are concerned, it is the police that took out the ASBO against you, not Enfield Council and therefore you should direct any queries/concerns about it to them. Also, we are not aware of any curfew as Enfield Council did not apply for one. However, if you wish to discuss the ongoing injunction proceedings, please let me know so that we can arrange a suitable date for us to meet. Please note that we cannot discuss the details of the evidence so as not to prejudice the case, more so as this will be disclosed in due course.

I am sending another email to you in relation to the crime report you require. I note that my colleague DC HARE has emailed Elaine on - lesposito@lqgroup.org.uk about this matter. I also note the letter you have sent to me stating that the housing company now want more than just the crime number to facilitate the move for your daughter.
Unfortunately, I cannot just release the Crime report via email or letter. This needs to go through the correct channels. I will ask my supervisor if there is a way that this can be sent to you quickly. Please can you confirm when you receive this email?
Many thanks

Hello,
Unfortunately, I am unable to provide further disclosure as I am not the officer in the case, DC Yianni MICHAEL, who is currently on annual leave will be able to advise on this further once he returns?
I can say that the police do not provide witness statements to anyone outside of the criminal justice process and not to third parties. The only person who is entitled a copy of the "crime report" would be the victim.
Kind regards
DC Colin HARE

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the mathilgen Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

The reckless behaviour of the Enfield Council employees leaves me feeling upset because I get no correct deployment of actions getting taken to protect my wellbeing due to the disregard of my health, relating to the issues of disrepair I rise with them and receive no correct follow ups that fix the problems!

Time Spent Building.
In the back ground of everything going on I could no longer work on my first company Too Smooth due to the amount of time I had to put toward s defending myself.

Thanks for the email, the order is the same as I have in my note and as you could see there is no order for disclosure in the meantime. I have not been able get the court on the phone to find out why the order was sent direct to Simon but will instead send a letter.

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the mathilgen Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!
I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!
The problems such as the damp and the heating have got left far too long of a time now without getting fixed this leaves me suffering with upset. I continue to report the issues to the Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes without any change in the disrepair problems getting addressed!

Time Spent Building.
In the back ground of everything going on I could no longer work on my first company Too Smooth due to the amount of time I had to put toward s defending myself.

Backgrounds facts

78. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

79. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

80. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

81. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

82. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

83. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

84. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

85. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

86. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

87. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

MR SIMON CORDELL

88. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

89. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

90. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

well that's what it says when I do a Google search on his name. Maybe you could also get a phone number for him there not sure; but if you sent to his work email you would know he got it or if you called and was able to talk to him you would know if he even wanted to help in this, Maybe he has had the letters but know he does not need to help if he does not want to, maybe send someone round to the address you have. This is just some ideas not sure if you can use them.

Hello Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Alas I've heard nothing from PC G, now I am entertaining the possibility that he may have moved. As such, I will briefly examine ways in which to confirm any potential new address before going on to write the report, in my view you've waited long enough. What are your thoughts?

Hello Lorraine,
Many apologies again for my delayed reply, it's been a busy week or so. I've had no response from PC G, the letter was sent recorded delivery. So far, there's nothing to say he no longer resides at the address etc. I'll keep you updated on that front. As it stands, should PC G choose to not assist then presently there is little we could do to compel him to provide an account in the furtherance of the investigation. I note all of your comments in your email, I can assure you they will be taken into account when I come to write my report. Re PC G's current occupation, I note your views. All I can say is that my review of the evidence will be objective and governed by the information available to me. If you've any questions for me at this stage, as ever, please do put them to me.

Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply. Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in itself shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS not being able to do anything as court action was ongoing, but this court action should have never started in the 1st place. In fact, this whole thing should never have happened if PC G had done his job correctly. Could I please get an update as to where we are and how long this is going to take as you did state I should have the report by October 2017 but I can't see this happening now due to the time you have waited for PC G, which I do not think is fair.

Hello Lorraine,
I apologise for my delayed reply. I appreciate your concerns re timeliness. As you know I discussed this matter with my supervisor last week. Being the matter of greatest importance to you I first discussed the possibility of a CPS referral prior to the matter being sent to our appropriate authority for a final determination. Here, my supervisor was not of the mind to refer the matter to the CPS, citing that PC G's actions likely did not constitute a criminal offence. I understand this will come as a disappointment to you, however our appropriate authority may still decide the matter should be referred to the CPS upon the conclusion of the re-investigation. Of course, should this not be the case you will still have a right of appeal to the IPCC on this issue. Going forward, I do not propose to continue to seek a further account from PC G, instead I shall set to work on completing the report with the information I have in my possession. Here I note your wish for the matter to be concluded quickly and the potential benefit that such a further account would add to the investigation. Although it is difficult to give definitive timescales, I hope to have the report completed by the end of November. As previously promised, as per your requests under the Police Reform Act, upon the completion of the report I shall send out a copy of PC G's notebook, together with any other documents that may be of interest to you. If you've any further questions please do get in touch.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in itself shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS not being able to do anything as court action was ongoing, but this court action should have never started in the 1st place. In fact, this whole thing should never have happened if PC G had done his job correctly. Could I please get an update as to where we are and how long this is going to take as you did state I should have the report by October 2017 but I can't see this happening now due to the time you have waited for PC G, which I do not think is fair.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update. What I cannot understand is how your supervisor could say PC G's actions likely did not constitute a criminal offence. PC G wrote his statement around 2 hours after this took place, knowing he left facts out so he had a case against my son to take him to court, thinking we could not get the audio recording which you have copies off, now from what I know he wrote down the person name he spoke to in his notebook, and I believe that would be in his notebook, and I believe when a police officer is writing his statement, he would also use his notebook to make sure he did not forget anything in his statement, so how could he have written the statement the way he did forgetting so much out? Maybe it was because he knew we had already put a complaint in?
I am sorry but a police officer would not forget what he said to the insurance company when he lied to them to void Mr Cordell's insurance which he nearly did. He then carried on with the lies to take my son to court, and due to us not having the recordings at that 1st hearing my son was found guilty due to these lies, and PC G lying in court. We then took it to appeal, but this time I did have the audio tapes, he stood in that court and admitted he had not even searched the van, but yet he told the insurance company there was loads of tools and Mr Cordell was going round doing odd jobs, so know he lied to my son's insurance company, in the lower court to get my son found guilty, then lied in the Crown Court at the appeal hearing, how much more lies is needed so it would be classed as a criminal offence? At the appeal hearing if we did not have them audio tapes, I am 100% my son would have been found guilty again. If this was my son that done this and not a police officer my son would have been charged and would have had to face the courts and would likely have gone to prison, because Judges do not like any person lying in their courts. I am upset as I do know if this was my son who did this he would have been charged by the CPS and had to face a court, why is it when the police do something wrong nothing ever happens. I do know I will have the right to Appeal to the IPCC once I get your report, but if this investigation was done correct the 1st time and the DPS did not breach their own codes of conduct to allow this police officer off with a slap on the hands and by not giving us the right of appeal before this was done and I had been allowed to take this to the IPCC before this process happened, this police officer would have not been allowed to leave the police force as he would have been under investigation still. As it stands this police officer who lied in 2 courts, wrote a statement that was not the truth and full facts, has now been able to get a job as head of criminal justice. Please explain how what this police officer done would not constitute a criminal offence?

Regards
Lorraine

Hello Lorraine,
I apologies for my delayed reply.
I appreciate your concerns re timeliness. As you know I discussed this matter with my supervisor last week. Being the matter of greatest importance to you I first discussed the possibility of a CPS referral prior to the matter being sent to our appropriate authority for a final determination. Here, my supervisor was not of the mind to refer the matter to the CPS, citing that PC G's actions likely did not constitute a criminal offence. I understand this will come as a disappointment to you, however our appropriate authority may still decide the matter should be referred to the CPS upon the conclusion of the re-investigation. Of course, should this not be the case you will still have a right of appeal to the IPCC on this issue.
Going forward, I do not propose to continue to seek a further account from PC G, instead I shall set to work on completing the report with the information I have in my possession. Here I note your wish for the matter to be concluded quickly and the potential benefit that such a further account would add to the investigation. Although it is difficult to give definitive timescales, I hope to have the report completed by the end of November. As previously promised, as per your requests under the Police Reform Act, upon the completion of the report I shall send out a copy of PC G's notebook, together with any other documents that may be of interest to you. If you've any further questions please do get in touch.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in itself shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS not being able to do anything as court action was ongoing, but this court action should have never started in the 1st place. In fact, this whole thing should never have happened if PC G had done his job correctly. Could I please get an update as to where we are and how long this is going to take as you did state I should have the report by October 2017 but I can't see this happening now due to the time you have waited for PC G, which I

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

93. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

95. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017;

however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

96. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

97. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

98. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

99. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

100. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

101. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

102. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

103. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

104. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

105. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Issues with My Housing Disrepair!
Working on My Website!
In 2006 when I first moved into my flat it never seemed to be in a bad state of living condition, due to it being decorated by the Enfield Council ready for me to move into.
After the first few months, I started to notice the walls and ceilings had started to get covered in mould and then on started to take picture evidence of my sufferings.
I declared to the relevant body's that my flat had really bad damp and it took mutable calls and emails to the Enfield Complaints departments reasonable persons whom over that period of time sent many different visiting surveyors to get the emergency graded problems fixed and without any fault of my own this somehow took a couple of years to get rectified with a disappointing completion date of the year of 2008.

This damp caused me the loss of enjoyment of my flat and damage to most of my personal property at no fault of my own again I must stress and I had to have a machine in my bedroom to remove the water before and after the contractors started the important works.
The well needed Industrial water removal machine to dry out flat got installed right away, the only time I got allowed into the bedroom was to empty the bucket of water the machine collected that did, in the beginning, fill up many times a day, as the months continued to pass by the amount of unneeded stored water became less and less, right up until the council and the Enfield homes reasonable persons where able to start the needed work.
By this time the initial problem of cause for the damp had gotten documented to be because of bad ventilation within the estates premises around the year of 2007 and as a resolution to the problem an air ventilation system got agreed to get adapted to the premises, the works involved in the installation of this air system meant that I had to have large circular holes cut into my kitchen window that leads to my back garden and that of my bathroom window that leads to the main street, the hardware to the ventilation system got delayed to get installed for a much longer time frame than anticipated in fact it took another two or three years later in the year of 2010, leaving my home insured and this happened at no fault of my own yet again, I got left with holes in my windows.
Even low the flat stayed in an unliveable state of condition through the years of 2006 till 2008 I got made to live in my flat, and after some of the disrepair issues got fixed with the walls and ceilings inside of my flat continued to suffer from the damp issues due to the floorboards going rotten after the first repairs, causing sinking floors and this once again made the flat unliveable due to the dangerous risks involved from the year 2008 till 2010.
I had no flooring laid down in my bedroom as you walked into the room for a long time in between these years because my feet had fallen through the wooden floorboard.
In this time frame, my heating boiler started to also give me lots of issues and the council replaced the main board more than once.

At the end of 2008 when the damp floorboards got lifted up in my bedroom I suffered the floorboards in the bathroom getting lifted up and afterwards not laid back down correctly in a timely and safe manner, I got told I could not get allowed back into to my bedroom but the bathroom was ok to enter.
The reason that the floorboards could not get re-laid in my bedroom and bathroom was because the bedroom radiator pipe leads to the other radiator in the bathroom, this is because they both share a u bend under the floorboards into each other and the radiators are on opposite sides of the wall from one and other!
The metal pipe had fractured under the floorboards causing each room to flood not noticeably since I moved into my home, until detected.
This error caused me to lose water pressure in my boiler system, so this leaking water added to the damp issues when after noticed another survivor came out to my address to oversee the problem and agreed for a new heating system to get installed through the flat and order for the system to get decommissioned, so for the flat to be ready for the new installation, with an addition of a temporary peace of wooding for the floor to get laid, as by this stage I got left with no floor boards in the bathroom and bedroom inclusive of no working heating apparatus as intended to get fixed and fitted and holes in my kitchen window a bathroom window and a water collection machine.
No reasonable persons attended again for months until many more complaints went in again.
And a person attended and laid temporary flooring!
This lack of organisation on the Councils behalf and their subcontractors caused me to suffer.

After many complaints, the floors did get replaced.
In the months of June and / or July 2015, the initial main emergency problems got finally addressed and the heating system got reinstated so to be rectified to a degree but the damp still prosiest to occur even years after!
Mutable emergency repairs that must get met to the correct ISO standard of fair living standards got neglected for years, at my loss of living.
The damage that my live got left in due to lack of negligence caused me sufferings because off housing disrepair and surely is not acceptable.
Undone housing repairs getting left to incline rather than getting made to be that of a none persistent issue, once reported to the councils reasonable persons caused these problems to escalate and this neglect made it so that in the winter months my bedroom smelt of damp and mouldy toxins, as an example of the extent of damage I suffered the complete loss of my clothing, bed and bedding, causing additional bills, electrical items and life's stability also that of the extra house upkeep costs, and I lost mutable amounts of personal memorabilia!
This damp over the years and trying for the first years to get the problems addressed caused me, a great deal of stress and bad health.
In the time of me making my official complaints the Enfield Council came to their rented address and the council explained to me, when they also see the extent of the living conditions that they will upkeep the repairs in the flat to the correct living standards, without any work commencing, as agreed by them, after the councils survivors made their departure from my rented flat.
At no fault of my own and for an unfair amount of time my flat stayed so cold if it were not for me needing my home to live in, it would have equalled to the same conditions as being outside in the open cold air!

In the winter things go a lot worse, I needed more than just your normal extra protection off winter covers so to try my best to keep warm.
I realised that due to my housing disrepair issues I became unwell all the time due to being so cold all the time and this did have a large impact on my health, making me have a personal injury!
This unforgettably caused me sleep disturbance, headache, prevention of enjoyment, and a breach of trust for Enfield Councils legal working policy's frameworks and employees.
Enfield Council not doing work that should have been done induced more infusing into the existing problems.
I did buy myself an electric heater but the cost of running this was very high also and at my expense.
As prior mentioned I had surveyor after surveyor out to my flat but each time every different person in attendance, would say the work would get done and yet it never got completed.
In 20015 after another complaint was put into the Enfield councils complaints department, but on this occasion my mother called in upset and this was in the year of 2015; regarding the heating, holes in the window, missing floorboards and re occurrence of damp, when on the phone she got shocked by the Enfield councils reasonable person whom explained to her that I had removed all my flats heating pipe work and this is why the heating never got replaced in them past years and that the Enfield Council were attempting to charge me nearly £4000 to replace my heating.
My mother got upset at hearing what the lady said to her on the phone, and as a consequence she explained to the lady that she wanted for her to arrange a manger and surveyor to come to the flat and that this must happen within the next few days from then on, so to re analyse the situation then in hand by the complaint departments reasonable persons, and my mother continued her conversation by expressing; if she had to she would lift the rest of the flooring up in my flat to prove the pipe work was all in place and show that the rest including the bedroom and bathroom were still there.

At this the lady explained while still on the phone that there is no need for what my mother told her to happen and that the council will replace the heating system, but the problems did not stop for me there again and as a continuation the Enfield Council employees then sent the surveyors out to my flat to oversee and then order to replace the heating system but survivors or council employees had told the sub-contractors that I had removed all the pipe work, to the point no one wanted to come out and do the work.
The sub-contractor was very shocked to see all the pipework still in place and also said that he is glad that he meets me and saw the truth himself.
I also worked on the

The reason that the floorboards could not get re-laid in my bedroom and bathroom was because the bedroom radiator pipe leads to the other radiator in the bathroom, this is because they both share a u bend under the floorboards into each other and the radiators are on opposite sides of the wall from one and other!
The metal pipe had fractured under the floorboards causing each room to flood not noticeably since I moved into my home, until detected.
This error caused me to lose water pressure in my boiler system, so this leaking water added to the damp issues
when after noticed another survivor came out to my address to oversee the problem and agreed for a new heating system to get installed thought the flat and order ordered for the system to get decommissioned, so for the flat to be ready for the new installation, installation, with an addition of a temporary temporary peace of wooding for the floor to get laid, as by this stage I got left with no floor boards in the bathroom and bedroom inclusive of no working heating apparatus as intended to get fixed and fitted and holes in my kitchen window a bathroom window and a water collection machine.
No reasonable persons attended again for months until many more complaints went in again.
And a person attended and laid temporary, temporary flooring!
This lack of organisation on the Councils behalf and their subcontractors caused me to suffer.
After many complaints, the floors did get replaced.
In the months' timeframe of 19 June 2015 and 31 July 2015, the initial main emergency problems got finally addressed and the heating system got reinstated so to be rectified to a degree but the damp still prosiest to occur even years after!
Mutable emergency repairs that must get met to the correct ISO standard of fair living standards got neglected for years, at my loss of living.
The damage that my live got left in due to lack of negligence caused me sufferings because off housing disrepair and surely is not acceptable.
Undone housing repairs getting left to incline rather than getting made to be that of a none persistent issue, once reported to the councils reasonable persons caused these problems to escalate and this neglect made it so that in the winter months my bedroom smelt of damp and mouldy toxins, as an example of the extent of damage I suffered the
flat-damage-2006-onwards.doc
complete loss of my clothing, bed, and bedding, causing additional bills, electrical items, and life's stability also that of the extra house upkeep costs, and I lost mutable amounts of personal memorabilia!
This damp over the years and trying for the first years to get the problems addressed caused me, a great deal of stress and bad health.
In the time of me making my official complaints the Enfield Council came to their rented address and the council explained to me, when they also see the extent of the living conditions that they will upkeep the repairs in the flat to the correct living standards, without any work commencing, as agreed by them, after the councils survivors made their departure from my rented flat.

At no fault of my own and for an unfair amount of time my flat stayed so cold if it were not for me needing my home to live in, it would have equalled to the same conditions as being outside in the open cold air!
In the winter things go a lot worse, I needed more than just your normal extra protection off winter covers so to try my best to keep warm.
I realised that due to my housing disrepair issues I became unwell all the time due to being so cold all the time and this did have a large impact on my health, making me have a personal injury!
This unforgettably caused me sleep disturbance, headache, prevention of enjoyment, and a breach of trust for Enfield Councils legal working policy's frameworks and employees.
Enfield Council not doing work that should have been done induced more infusing into the existing problems.
I did buy myself an electric heater but the cost of running this was very high also and at my expense.
As prior mentioned I had surveyor after surveyor out to my flat but each time every different person in attendance, would say the work would get done and yet it never got completed.
In 20015 after another complaint was put into the Enfield councils complaints department, but on this occasion my mother called in upset and this was in the year of 2015; regarding the heating, holes in the window, missing floorboards and re occurrence of damp, when on the phone she got shocked by the Enfield councils reasonable person whom explained to her that I had removed all my flats heating pipe work and this is why the heating never got replaced in them past years and that the Enfield Council were attempting to charge me nearly £4000 to replace my heating.
this section is wrong on the 02/03/2015 I was sick of making calls to the council regarding your heating and nothing getting done I emailed a complaint to them, regarding multiple issues and repairs not getting done including your heating, the council once they had this email started to get jobs done on the list but still nothing regarding your heating. in May 2015 I got a call from a lady from the council regarding your heating, saying you had removed all your pipework, in 2015 and you know the rest from here.
My mother got upset at hearing what the lady said to her on the phone, and as a consequence she explained to the lady that she wanted for her to arrange a manger and surveyor to come to the flat and that this must happen within the next few days from then on, so to re analyse the situation then in hand by the complaint departments reasonable persons, and my mother continued her conversation by expressing; if she had to she would lift the rest of the flooring up in my flat to prove the pipe work was all in place and show that the rest including the bedroom and bathroom were still there.
At this the lady explained while still on the phone that there is no need for what my mother told her to happen and that the council will replace the heating system, but the problems did not stop for me there again and as a continuation the Enfield Council employees then sent the surveyors out to my flat to oversee and then order to replace the heating system but survivors or council employees had told the sub-contractors that I had removed all the pipe work, to the point no one wanted to come out and do the work.
The sub-contractor was very shocked to see all the pipework, pipework still in place and also said that he is glad that he meets me and saw the truth himself.

I also worked on the Confidentiality Agreement Between; - Company Director Simon Cordell of Too Smooth LTD and * and I continued to Study and finish at the Time Start: 08:00Am and Time End: 10:00Pm!

What happened? This has been going on for years with the met police against my son and family, I have called many times to make complaints yet nothing is done I speak to an inspector and that's it there is no follow up and seems my complaints are lost. the police don't leave my son alone they lie in statements that can be proved, they have put false information on his PNC record which can be proved, the list goes on and this goes back to when my son was around 15 years old, he is 33 now. they use my son any way they can. as of today's, date my son is at breaking point due to the last years and what the police are doing to him. I would like someone to call me ASAP as this would be a very long section if I included everything. I have been trying to call you for hours today on 0207 161 4200 but it rings then just goes off. 101 also have tried and no one can get hold of anyone. I need to speak to someone today as my son feels he has nothing left and he is to the point of not wanting to live any longer this is all due to what the police are doing to him.

Telephone conversation with Mr Markandu Mathiyalagan 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3

Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me this morning to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Mr Cordell came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that Mr Cordell started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to Mr Cordell and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door and therefore they are unable to take any action against him.

I asked whether his wife recorded the incident and he said, that Mr Cordell left when his wife went to get her mobile phone. He also stated that there were no witnesses as his wife was alone in the flat at the time. I asked whether his wife showed a copy of the injunction and power of arrest to the police officers that attended, and he said no that she did not. I advised him that in future, they must show the court order to the police as the officers that will attend may not be aware of the injunction.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

16. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application for committal as the Defendant is in breach of the Injunction Order with Power of Arrest made against him In the County Court at Edmonton on 9th August 2017.

17. The Defendant's abusive behaviour towards my family and I stopped for some time after the Claimant obtained the injunction against him although he continued to make general comments towards us whenever he sees me or my wife entering or leaving the block.

18. On 11th November 2017 between 11:30am and 12pm, my wife was at home when the Defendant came up to our front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside our flat. He started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on the door as soon as he saw my wife. He then ran downstairs when my wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. My wife telephoned the police and reported the incident, CAD No. 3230 of 11/11/17. The police attended about two hours later, went and spoke to the Defendant and came informed my wife that he denied coming to our front door,

19. On 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, my wife was inside our flat trying to assemble a cupboard that we bought from Ikea. Our three-year-old daughter and my cousin who was asleep at the time were also in the flat. Suddenly my wife heard someone banging on our front door and she went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from our flat. My wife told him that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside our front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at my wife.

20. The Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted our letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record my family while swearing and shouting abuse. This went on for about ten to fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2/1/18.

21. On 3rd January at 9:30am, I was inside our flat with my wife and daughter when the Defendant came and started banging on our front door. I went and asked him what the problem was, and he stated that my wife was banging on the floor yesterday for about an hour. I told him that my wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called me a liar and continued to shout and swear at us. He threatened to kill us and burn down our property and stated that we will not be safe no matter where we are. The Defendant then forced his way into our fiat, but my wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. I called the police and they came and advised us to report the matter to the council, CAD No. 2098 of 3/1/18. The officers refused to listen to the audio recording of the incident and advised that we should ask the council to rehouse us.

22. The recent abuse and threats to kill from the Defendant have made it difficult for us to live in our own home. My wife is afraid to stay in our flat alone with our daughter or leave the flat alone without me or my cousin accompanying her. The Defendant's behaviour is also causing a Jot of distress and anxiety not only to me and my wife but also to our three-year- old daughter.

28. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

29. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

30. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

31. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

Defendant, ft is also to be noted that Mr Mathiyaiagan provided evidence in support of the initial injunction order

Incidents of anti-social behaviour

33. On 14th November 2017 Mr Mathiyaiagan telephoned me to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Defendant came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

34. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January 2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

35. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor

the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

36. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

37. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

38. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

39. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

40. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

41. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

42. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

43. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

44. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Therefore, we would like permission from the Court to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81 for breaches of the terms of the injunction for the incidents dated 11th November 2017, 02nd and 3rd January 2018.

3. I witnessed the terrible assault committed by the Defendant on my husband on 05 March 2018 and confirm the facts stated in my husband s affidavit dated
4. Mr Cordell harassed, abused and repeatedly punched my husband on his face, causing him to bleed and to break two of his teeth, I tried to stop him, but he would not listen to me.
5. We contacted the police who arrested both Mr Cordell and my husband. My husband was kept by the police overnight while he was a victim of the assault. The police could see the facial injuries, bleedings and damages sustained to his face and teeth but decided to keep him at the police station while he was a victim of the assault. Surprisingly I heard that Mr Cordell was arrested, interviewed and released on the same day. The police decided not to charge him for some unknown reasons.
6. I believe that the Police decision was wrong, as there is Clear evidence of assault, I was not interviewed while being a key witness to the incident. The Defendant should have been arrested and brought back to the Court following the breach of the injunction order so it could decide on his arrest.
7. I fear for my family safety and feels that the interim injunction with the London Borough of Enfield obtained on is not providing me and my family protection as the police refuses to enforce the terms of the order despite clear evidence that Mr Cordell has breached the terms.

where Mr Cordell harassed me, but the police did nothing despite evidence of him breaching the injunction order. All they would do will be to attend the Property, speak to him and leave without investigating the incidents.
9. I feel let down by the system and constantly fear for my safety. I contacted my local authority (the London Borough of Waltham Forest) to be moved out of the estate as myself, husband and 3-year-old are afraid to stay there. However, Waltham Forest is not taking any actions at the moment.
10. I feel that the existence of the injunction has not provided the adequate protection to me and my family. As things stand the Defendant feels that the injunction is ineffective as the lack of actions from the police currently encourages him to act badly towards me and my family. We therefore hope that the Court will support us and take appropriate actions following the breaches.
11. I would therefore ask the Court to consider the application in light of the recent incidents, to commit the Defendant to an arrest and impose a sentence following his breaches of the injunction.

Telephone conversation with Mr Markandu Mathiyalagan 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3
Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me this morning to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Mr Cordell came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that Mr Cordell started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to Mr Cordell and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door and therefore they are unable to take any action against him.
I asked whether his wife recorded the incident and he said, that Mr Cordell left when his wife went to get her mobile phone. He also stated that there were no witnesses as his wife was alone in the flat at the time. I asked whether his wife showed a copy of the injunction and power of arrest to the police officers that attended, and he said no that she did not. I advised him that in future, they must show the court order to the police as the officers that will attend may not be aware of the injunction.

Backgrounds facts

108. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

109. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

110. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

111. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

112. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

113. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

114. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

115. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

116. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

117. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

118. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions

questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

119. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

120. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Defendant was due to allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against him by some of his neighbours.

50. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

51. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

52. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

53. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

54. Mr Mathiyalagan who is one of the Defendant's neighbours and resident at Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield contacted me and complained about further incidents of anti-social behaviour he was subjected to by the

Defendant, ft is also to be noted that Mr Mathiyaiagan provided evidence in support of the initial injunction order

Incidents of anti-social behaviour

55. On 14th November 2017 Mr Mathiyaiagan telephoned me to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Defendant came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

56. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January 2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

57. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr

Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

58. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

59. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He stated that the recent threats from the Defendant has made it difficult for them to live in their own home and that they are constantly having to double lock their front door for fear that the Defendant may break into their flat again.

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

60. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

61. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

62. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

13th December 2017
09th August 2017.
02nd and 3rd January 2018

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

63. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

64. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

65. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

66. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Telephone conversation with Mr Markandu Mathiyalagan 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield, EN3
Mr Mathiyalagan telephoned me this morning to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Mr Cordell came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that Mr Cordell started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to Mr Cordell end came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door and therefore they are unable to take any action against him.
I asked whether his wife recorded the incident and he said, that Mr Cordell left when his wife went to get her mobile phone. He also stated that there were no witnesses as his wife was alone in the flat at the time. I asked whether his wife showed a copy of the injunction and power of arrest to the police officers that attended, and he said no that she did not. I advised him that in future, they must show the court order to the police as the officers that will attend may not be aware of the injunction.

Backgrounds facts

123. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

124. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

125. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

126. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

127. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

128. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

129. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

130. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

131. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

132. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

MR SIMON CORDELL

DIRECTIONS ORDER

133. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

134. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

135. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Dear Emmanuel,
There's a mistake from the Court as the order should not be discharged and will without a doubt be reinstated in due course. If your client is found to be in breach of the terms of the injunction, we reserve the right to take further actions against your client. Your client should continue to respect the terms of the order as we have advised the court that the order has been discharged due to an internal admin. Error. I hope he will be advised of our position.

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

138. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

139. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

140. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

141. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

142. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

143. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

144. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

145. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

146. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

147. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

148. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

149. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

150. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Defendant was due to allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against him by some of his neighbours.

72. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

73. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

74. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

75. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

76. Mr Mathiyalagan who is one of the Defendant's neighbours and resident at Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield contacted me and complained about further incidents of anti-social behaviour he was subjected to by the

Defendant, ft is also to be noted that Mr Mathiyaiagan provided evidence in support of the initial injunction order

Incidents of anti-social behaviour

77. On 14th November 2017 Mr Mathiyaiagan telephoned me to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Defendant came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

78. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January 2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing

and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

79. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

80. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

81. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

82. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

83. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

84. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

85. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

86. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

87. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

88. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Therefore, we would like permission from the Court to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81 for breaches of the terms of the injunction for the incidents dated 11th November 2017, 02nd and 3rd January 2018.

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

154. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

156. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

157. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

158. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

159. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

160. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

161. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

162. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

164. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

165. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Defendant was due to allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against him by some of his neighbours.

94. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

95. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

96. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

97. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

98. Mr Mathiyalagan who is one of the Defendant's neighbours and resident at Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield contacted me and complained about further incidents of anti-social behaviour he was subjected to by the

Defendant, ft is also to be noted that Mr Mathiyaiagan provided evidence in support of the initial injunction order

Incidents of anti-social behaviour

99. On 14th November 2017 Mr Mathiyaiagan telephoned me to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Defendant came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

100. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January

2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

101. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

102. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

103. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He stated that the recent threats from the Defendant has made it difficult for them to live in their own home and that they are constantly having to double lock their front door for fear that the Defendant may break into their flat again.

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

104. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

105. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

106. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

107. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

108. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

109. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

110. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in itself shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS not being able to do anything as court action was ongoing, but this court action should have never started in the 1st place. In fact, this whole thing should never have happened if PC G had done his job correctly. Could I please get an update as to where we are and how long this is going to take as you did state I should have the report by October 2017 but I can't see this happening now due to the time you have waited for PC G, which I do not think is fair.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in itself shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS 3536,3537,3538,3539,3540,3541,3542,3543,3544,

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the mathilgen Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what the old tent of 113 and now the new tent of 113 and also that of the tents in the addresses of 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!
I am not pleased that I get dissatisfied by the Enfield Councils staff's reckless attitudes towards their Statutory Duty's and my life as each other day goes by with no change in my living circumstances getting uplifted to the right standards!

Time Spent Building.
In the back ground of everything going on I could no longer work on my first company Too Smooth due to the amount of time I had to put toward s defending myself.

Hi Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. The report will almost certainly be complete by the end of this month, very likely it will be complete by the end of this week. However, there is a supervision process to follow which can take a little bit of time. Of course, I will keep you updated throughout that process, it should take no longer than a week or so. If you've any questions in the interim please do get in touch.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update I hope you are well. I was wondering if there is any update, I think you have given PC G enough time in order to address this and work with you in this matter which it seems so far, he has failed to do so. It has been 3 months since you sent the recorded letter and you have not heard anything and I believe that in its self-shows he is not willing to address this. I know by past the DPS would not have given us so long to reply they would have just gone ahead without us to complete their report. I know a lot of years was spent on the 1st investigation and overall this has now been ongoing since 2013 when this started, it is now 5 years in Nov 2017 this case has been on going I know some of this was due to the DPS not being able to do anything as court action was ongoing, but this court action should have never started in the 1st place. In fact, this whole thing should never have happened if PC G had done his job correctly. Could I please get an update as to where we are and how long this is going to take as you did state I should have the report by October 2017 but I can't see this happening now due to the time you have waited for PC G, which I do not think is fair.
Regards
Lorraine

Maybe you can send to his work email I believe this is his work email address
rory.geoghegan@centreforsocialjustice.org.uk
well that's what it says when I do a Google search on his name. Maybe you could also get a phone number for him there not sure; but if you sent to his work email you would know he got it or if you called and was able to talk to him you would know if he even wanted to help in this, Maybe he has had the letters but know he does not need to help if he does not want to, maybe send someone round to the address you have. This is just some ideas not sure if you can use them.

Hello Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Alas I've heard nothing from PC G, now I am entertaining the possibility that he may have moved. As such, I will briefly examine ways in which to confirm any potential new address before going on to write the report, in my view you've waited long enough. What are your thoughts?

Hello Lorraine,
Many apologies again for my delayed reply, it's been a busy week or so. I've had no response from PC G, the letter was sent recorded delivery. So far, there's nothing to say he no longer resides at the address etc. I'll keep you updated on that front. As it stands, should PC G choose to not assist then presently there is little we could do to compel him to provide an account in the furtherance of the investigation.
I note all of your comments in your email, I can assure you they will be taken into account when I come to write my report. Re PC G's current occupation, I note your views. All I can say is that my review of the evidence will be objective and governed by the information available to me. If you've any questions for me at this stage, as ever, please do put them to me.

Dear Jamie
Thank you for the update reply. Due to never seeing PC G statement written after what happened on the day, and never having access to any documents since, I rely on what was said in court from PC G and also the 1st report after the 1st investigation that the DPS did, which you are now redoing due to what the IPCC said. PC G stated there was no notebook in court; he stated Mr Cordell was arrested due to him not giving his details so they could be confirmed he stated Mr Cordell had said he was homeless. But Mr Cordell knew there was a notebook he saw PC G writing in it on the day he was arrested, and knew he had given his details as if he had not how would PC G have been able to speak to the insurance companies. In the Crown Court Appeal in went a lot deeper my son had a barrister and he knew what to ask. When PC G got into trouble after the audio tapes was played and the judge got really upset due to knowing that PC G had not told the truth the Judge asked for all documents the police office had replied on in this case. PC G passed a statement to the judge he had in his hand that he had been using in court. The judge was not happy with the statement as there was no date and timed marked, PC G said to the Judge that the statement he was using was a copy, it was my son barrister said there seemed to be a time on the back. My son's barrister had also PC G about the ticket issues and PC G said he did not have it in court, the judge stated at the start of the hearing he was on the understanding the notebook had been used. The judge was really not happy and told PC G to leave the court room but not the court building, and that he wanted all the original document in court for him to see regarding this case. The judges heard the summing up and went out to decide. The CPS went outside in this time I believe to speak to PC G. As when the Judges came back in and said my son had won his appeal and that he was not happy with what had gone on in this case, the CPS stated to the judge this was a paper-based file case and things get mislaid in this sort of files. The judge asked if the audio could be kept and placed on file in case it needed to be used later. Which we agreed to, and we then left the court. It was not until we got the 1st report from the DPS and the notebook was in there that it was confirmed there was in fact a notebook all a long so why did PC G lie to us and the judges saying it was only a 3551, proforma and the statement he wrote when he got back to the police station. Until we got the DPS report the only word we had that PC G used his notebook on that day was my son. And I am sorry but it does not cut it that PC G could get away with saying his arrest was needed due to uncertainty as to the address provided. When a person is stopped or spoken to the police like my son was a radio check would be carried out to check to see if the person was wanted or anything else. The police have my son's address on their system so the address my son gave would have been checked and shown as correct on the police system. My son did not need to lie he give PC G his insurance cert with no problem he had done nothing wrong, so would have had no need to give a wrong address as he would know it would have shown on the police system, why would my son say he was homeless? It was not my son that lied it was PC G and I believe that has already been proven. I believe 3 weeks is enough time for PC G to come forward and is acceptable. If the inspector had done his job when he come to the road side when my son asked if one could have been called this could have all been avoided, but instead he just went with what the police officer said and did not brother to check what my son was saying. Something always come to mind here and that is what was written in the subject access request I got back from my son's insurance company, this was after the time we spent trying to stop the insurance company cancelling my son's insurance and going to courts. When I saw this, it hurt as we knew the police had not told the truth and in the subject access request there was nothing to say my son was not in the wrong. There was no sorry there was nothing and this is just wrong. My son was the one that had the bad mark against his name for a long time until it was proven in the appeal court, not the police officer and this is still the case to this day the police officer has done nothing wrong in everyone's eyes when he did do wrong. He has been allowed to move on in his life, my son was the one spending all the time to clear his name not the police officer when my son had done nothing wrong. "[...] Which is obviously ... we're in an awkward situation as well because [Data Subject] and [Data Subject] mum is constantly ringing us up. They don't understand that obviously we are going to take a police officer's views over obviously one of our policyholders because obviously, a police officer's job is obviously to tell the truth and not to lie." This is the action of most people’s view but in this case the police officer was not telling the truth my son was. And my son was the one being made to suffer when he had not done anything wrong. But yet people believe the police in everything they say. I know you have said PC G's current occupation; I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever. Maybe I see it another way his occupation is Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice, can’t you see the irony in this he is trying to find justice for people, but what he did in this case was never justice at his own hands, the DPS never served justice for my son, yet they knew PC G had lied in this whole case, and that PC G took it to the courts and again never told the truth and perjury himself two times in a court of law. PC G seems to think this is acceptable he still applied for his job roll where he is working to make sure justice is fair for all. I am sure if he had admitted to breaking the law in what he did he would not be in the position he is in now I do find this very relevant that is how I feel and my son does.

Best Regards

Morning Lorraine,
Firstly, apologies for my delayed reply! I had intended to reply much sooner. I think I'm correct in saying that the necessity for your son's arrest was associated with PC G's uncertainty as to the address provided. This is something I'll discuss in the report. Can I ask, from where did you get the impression that your son's name was not in PC G's pocketbook?
To reiterate, I'd be more than happy share documents with you at the end of the investigation. As per the Police Reform Act, subject to the harm test. Was there any particular reason you'd want them sooner?
I expect the investigation to conclude in October incidentally. I was intending on giving PC G three weeks, what are your thoughts on that?
Re PC G's current occupation, I can assure you it would have no bearing on this matter whatsoever.

Dear Jamie Newman
Thank you for the update email and I also hope you are well; can I ask a few things please now that you have had time to go over the documents and information. Regarding PC G notebook is my son's name at the top and has it been checked if a radio check was done on my son on that day, I find it hard to believe that my son's name is not in PC G notebook as and my son refused to give his name and that is why he was arrested, how would he have had my son's details to talk to the insurance companies which there is no dispute that he did and he would have needed my son's details to be able to give them to the insurance companies, which would mean he unlawfully arrested my son. I know you said you would have no problem giving us the notebook and his statement and other information, does this mean we cannot get this information until after the investigation is completed?
What will happen if PC G does not want to assist in this investigation, how long will you give him to reply to your letter before you decide he is not willing to assist in the investigation? I know this time we will have the right to appeal to the IPCC, if we are not happy, but I do believe there is enough information and I cannot see why the CPS would not want to take this further, the only reason I can see them not wanting to take this on is due to PC G is now Head of Criminal Justice, Centre for Social Justice. How long do you think it will take you to complete the investigation?

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
I hope this email finds you well. Further to our meeting last month I have written to PC G to give him the opportunity to participate in the reinvestigation, I await his reply. When and if he replies I shall of course let you know. Regarding a CPS referral, having reviewed the evidence I am currently of the view that such a referral should be left to the determination of our Appropriate Authority (A.A. - senior officer who reviews my report) upon the conclusion of the investigation. As it stands, I see nothing to prohibit such a referral, should the A.A. think it appropriate. As you know, should the A.A. elect not to refer the matter to the CPS, you would of course have a right of appeal to the IPCC along those lines. If you have any questions for me please do let me know.

Good Afternoon Lorraine,
Thank you for taking the team to meet with this afternoon, I found our meeting very useful in enabling me to better understand your complaint. To confirm, the first thing I shall consider is a referral to the CPS. I shall begin by examining what consideration was given to such a referral by the previous investigator, Jeannette Riley. Under the legislation that governs police complaints it is possible to seek guidance from the CPS where there is an indication that a criminal offence may have been committed, it is this test that I shall apply. Leaving the CPS issue aside for a moment and the possibility of criminal charges, I acknowledge your request to have sight of the PC Geoghegan's MG11 and notebook. Such a disclosure can be made under Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act 2002. I shall revisit this request once the possibility of a CPS referral has been addressed. However, I fully intend to comply with such a request, subject to necessary redactions. Going forward, in addition your original points of complaint I shall also attempt to provide a clear explanation for the issues surrounding the misconduct meeting occurring before you had the opportunity to appeal to the IPCC. As I stated to you earlier today, the MPS can only apologise for this oversight.

Additionally, as agreed, if you could send me Dean's details, or forward mine to him, that would be very much appreciated. Of course, I'll keep you updated every step of the away. If you've any questions in the meantime please do get in touch.

Dear Emmanuel
I have not heard from you I sent you a text asking for some information on the 28/11/2017 could we still get copies of anything you have got from Enfield Council or the courts. I was wondering if you have heard anything from the court regarding what is going on with the case, my son is living in hell with what is going on and Enfield Council have said they will do nothing about it and will not respond to us and that everything has to go through you as you are his solicitor. The neighbours have not stopped and he is finding it really hard they are not letting him sleep which is having a huge effect on his health, the other day he could not take no more and had to call the police again, the police did turn up at his flat which is a shock as so many times when calls are made from my son the police do not turn up, they did take a report once again and did speak to the neighbours at 117, the police said they were also going to send a special neighbourhood police officer out, so we are waiting for a date for them to come if they do. When the police were there, I told them about the new neighbour at 113 having the same issues with the banging from 117 which he has reported, the neighbour also allowed me to go into his flat to show me how bad the flooring is, which has also been reported by him.
I know time and time again we have put complaints in about the flooring and how bad it is as my son can hear everything as there is no sound proofing to the flats, you would have through before moving someone new into the flat the council would have done something about it, but they have not the whole flooring is so bad even the new neighbour cannot stand it and has reported it many time, the council told him not to put carpet until they look into it like they have not been told before about the flooring, the neighbour was shocked when I said I had reported this many time before he moved in, the new neighbour even said he does not know how my son has taken this for so long as it is very bad even if carpet was put down this would not have an effect to cover as the flooring is too bad, and as soon as he moved in started to report it. and the banging from the floor above him which is 117, I asked him if the banging would he say it was normal living that was causing this he said no way they are banging their floor with something and he did not understand why they were doing it. What the council are doing is wrong; they are making my son's life hell living there, they have not come out once and took a report from my son, I am not sure if you have had time to look over all my emails, but if you did I think you would get an idea of how bad things have been for so long with what is going on as I have made reports and complaints so many times, but it seems that Enfield Council does not have all my emails and have even said to me I never sent any maybe they were thinking I do not keep my emails but I do, and as you will see from my emails I was putting them in way before any neighbours put any complaints in about my son, so why was nothing ever done for my son as each emails says about his health and the impact of what was going on was having on my son's health. My son is not imaging what is going on as to many people have heard and seen it for themselves what the neighbours have been doing he also has videos and audio of it, none of which Enfield Council wants to address and just carry on like he has nothing and that's why they have never taken a report from him. It only seems like Enfield Council are only interested in the other neighbours' complaints and not ours and want my son to suffer any way they can make him suffer to get him out. Would it please be possible to get all information we have not seen from Enfield Council and the courts, could it please be sent over via this email address as my son would like to see it.

Regards
Lorraine Cordell

Dear Ms Cordell,
Further to your email, I spoke to you on the 28 November and updated you on the case. Since then I have not heard or received anything from the court or Enfield Council. I am waiting for the court to give Directions and until this is done nothing can be done. As to the noise or problems from the neighbours I will advise that you follow the council's policy and continue to report to the council and possibly Police. Given that the matter before the court is on the same issue, it will be an abuse of process to commence other proceedings on the same matter and I will not do that. Please be reminded that you have still not provided me with Simon's signed authority that he has mental health problems. Unless I receive this, I will seek to amend his defence that he has no mental health problems in accordance with his instructions.

Regards,

Dear Emmanuel
I have not heard from you I sent you a text asking for some information on the 28/11/2017
could we still get copies of anything you have got from Enfield Council or the courts?
I was wondering if you have heard anything from the court regarding what is going on with the case, my son is living in hell with what is going on and Enfield Council have said they will do nothing about it and will not respond to us and that everything has to go through you as you are his solicitor. The neighbours have not stopped and he is finding it really hard they are not letting him sleep which is having a huge effect on his health, the other day he could not take no more and had to call the police again, the police did turn up at his flat which is a shock as so many times when calls are made from my son the police do not turn up, they did take a report once again and did speak to the neighbours at 117, the police said they were also going to send a special neighbourhood police officer out, so we are waiting for a date for them to come if they do. When the police were there, I told them about the new neighbour at 113 having the same issues with the banging from 117 which he has reported, the neighbour also allowed me to go into his flat to show me how bad the flooring is, which has also been reported by him. I know time and time again we have put complaints in about the flooring and how bad it is as my son can hear everything as there is no sound proofing to the flats, you would have through before moving someone new into the flat the council would have done something about it, but they have not the whole flooring is so bad even the new neighbour cannot stand it and has reported it many time, the council told him not to put carpet until they look into it like they have not been told before about the flooring, the neighbour was shocked when I said I had reported this many time before he moved in, the new neighbour even said he does not know how my son has taken this for so long as it is very bad even if carpet was put down this would not have an effect to cover as the flooring is too bad, and as soon as he moved in started to report it. and the banging from the floor above him which is 117, I asked him if the banging would he say it was normal living that was causing this he said no way they are banging their floor with something and he did not understand why they were doing it.

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

168. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

169. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

170. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

171. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

172. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

173. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

174. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

175. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

176. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

177. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

178. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

179. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

180. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Defendant was due to allegations of verbal abuse, threats, harassment and intimidation made against him by some of his neighbours.

116. I make this Witness Statement in support of the Claimant's application dated 08th January 2018. This is my second witness statement in the above proceedings.

Backgrounds to the case

117. The Claimant obtained an interim injunction against the Defendant on 09th August 2017 under claim number D02ED073. On 13th December 2017, the Court made an order striking out the Claimant's claim on the basis that it failed to file its direction questionnaire on 17th November 2017 as directed. The Court stated that it received the Claimant's questionnaire on 20th November 2017 and therefore ordered that the Claim be struck out and that the interim injunction order be discharged.

118. The Claimant's solicitor emailed the Edmonton County Court on 14th November 2017 asking that the Claim be reinstated as it had filed its direction questionnaire on 17th November at 11.59 and was therefore within time. The email has not been responded to until today.

119. On 03rd January 2018, the Claimant filed an application notice at the Court by email asking for the Claim to be reinstated. The application was filed after the Court served an order dated 02nd January 2018 ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's legal costs. A copy of the application notice can be found under exhibit LN01.

120. Mr Mathiyalagan who is one of the Defendant's neighbours and resident at Flat 117 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield contacted me and complained about further incidents of anti-social behaviour he was subjected to by the

Defendant, ft is also to be noted that Mr Mathiyaiagan provided evidence in support of the initial injunction order

Incidents of anti-social behaviour

121. On 14th November 2017 Mr Mathiyaiagan telephoned me to report an incident that occurred at 11:30am on 11th November 2017. He reported that his wife was alone inside their flat when the Defendant came to their front door, opened the letterbox and peeped through it to see who was inside the flat. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant started swearing and shouting abuse and banging on his front door as soon as he saw his wife. He then ran downstairs when his wife went to get her mobile phone to record the incident. He stated that his wife called the police, CAD No. 3230 of 11th November 2017 and the police attended and went and spoke to the Defendant and came and informed his wife that he denied coming to their front door. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN02.

122. On 5th January 2018 Mr and Mrs Mathiyaiagan met with me to report recent incidents that occurred on 2nd and 3rd January 2018. Mr Mathiyaiagan reported that on 2nd January 2018 at 6:30pm, his wife was inside their flat trying to assemble a cupboard, she was with their 3-year- old daughter and a cousin who was asleep at the time. He stated that suddenly his wife heard someone banging on their front door. She went to the door with her phone and overheard the Defendant shouting that there was noise coming from their flat. His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing

and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

123. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

124. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

125. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

126. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

127. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

128. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

129. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

130. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

131. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

132. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

His wife told the Defendant that she was trying to assemble a cupboard, but he called her a liar and accused her of deliberately banging on the floor. The Defendant then stood outside his front door for more than twenty minutes swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. Mr Mathiyaiagan stated that the Defendant went away and returned half an hour later, he lifted his letterbox flap, stuck his mobile phone through the letterbox and started to record his family while swearing and shouting abuse at his wife. This went on for about fifteen minutes. The matter was reported to the police, CAD No. 5121 of 2nd January 2018.

145. Mr Mathiyalagan also stated that on 3rd January 2018 at 9:30am, the Defendant came to his front door and started banging on the door. He went and asked him what the problem was and he complained that his wife was banging on the floor the previous day for about an hour. He explained to the Defendant that his wife was not banging on the floor, that she was trying to assemble a cupboard but he called him a liar and continued to swear and shout abuse at him and his wife. Mr Mathiyatagan also stated that the Defendant threatened to kill him and his family and said to him that they will not be safe from him no matter where they are. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that the Defendant then forced his way into their flat but his wife managed to push him out and double-locked the door. He called the police, CAD No. 2098 of 3rd January 2018 and police officers attended and advised them to report the matter to the council. A file note of this report is under exhibit LN3.

146. Mr Mathiyalagan stated that him and his wife recorded the incidents on their mobile phones and played the recordings to me. One of the recordings dearly showed a person whom l believes to be the Defendant looking through Mr Mathiyalagan's letterbox with a mobile phone on one hand. On the other recordings, I could clearly hear a person whom I also believe to be the Defendant shouting, swearing and making death threats to Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan.

147. Mr and Mrs Mathiyalagan have stated the Defendant's behaviour is causing him and his family a lot of distress and anxiety. They have reported that they are afraid to live in their own home because of the Defendant's recent threats to kill. Mr Mathiyalagan have also stated that his wife and three-year-old daughter are afraid to stay in the flat on their own or leave the flat alone without him or his cousin accompanying them. He stated that the recent threats from the Defendant has made it difficult for them to live in their own home and that they are constantly having to double lock their front door for fear that the Defendant may break into their flat again.

ORDER SOUGHT FROM THE COURT

• Request that the Claim and interim injunction order of 09th August 2017 be reinstated

148. The Claimant has in its application notice dated 03rd January 2018 provided evidence that it filed its questionnaire on time. As such the Claim should have never been struck out and the Court is asked respectfully, to reinstate the Claim and the injunction order.

149. The Claimant's legal department contacted the police on 05th January 2018 and enquired as to the reasons why no arrests were made to the Defendant on 11th November 2017 while a civil injunction was in place. The police officer looked at the file notes and explained that at the time the incident was reported by Mr Mathiyalagan, they were not aware of the injunction although it was served to a different department. The Defendant also denied the incident and Mr Mathiyalagan could not prove that the incident took place. The police have now referred this incident to an investigating officer and created a crime reference number 5200 37618.

150. The Claimant also advised the police of the incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 but the police confirmed that they could not take actions as at the time of the incidents the civil injunction was discharged by the Court. The police advised that had the injunction been in place, the Defendant

could have well been arrested in light of Mr Mathiyalagan being able to evidence the incident by way of the audio recordings.

151. The recent incidents and death threats are extremely serious and i have concerns that the Defendant may escalate his actions further. Mr Mathiyalagan and his family do not feel safe anymore and on that basis, it would be of great assistance if the Claim and injunction order be reinstated as soon as possible.

Declaration from the Court that the injunction order has been effective throughout the period of 13th December 2017 to present

152. The interim injunction order was discharged purely because of a technicality, however had the Court realised that the Claimant had filed the questionnaire on time, it would not have struck out the Claim.

153. The Court should note that the Defendant started to act anti-socially again, soon after he was notified by the Court that the interim order has been discharged. Unfortunately, because the Claim was struck out the Claimant and the police are currently not able to take any actions against the Defendant. It is on that basis that we would like to ask the Court for a declaration that that the interim injunction order has been effective since 13th December 2017 and that the Defendant has been in breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th August 2017.

154. However, in the event that the Court cannot make such a declaration, we would ask the Court to make a new injunction order to cover the recent incidents dated 02nd and 3rd January 2018 and enclose a new claim for an injunction for the Court's consideration.

Permission to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81.

19. In the event that the Court agrees to reinstate the injunction and to make a declaration that the Defendants has acted against the terms of the injunction dated 09th August 2017, it is the Claimant's intention to bring an application for committal against the Defendant. Therefore, we would like permission from the Court to bring and serve an application for the Defendant's committal under CPR 81 for breaches of the terms of the injunction for the incidents dated 11th November 2017, 02nd and 3rd January 2018.

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

183. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

184. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

185. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

186. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

187. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

188. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

190. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

191. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

192. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

193. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

194. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

195. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Dear Emmanuel,
There's a mistake from the Court as the order should not be discharged and will without a doubt be reinstated in due course. If your client is found to be in breach of the terms of the injunction, we reserve the right to take further actions against your client. Your client should continue to respect the terms of the order as we have advised the court that the order has been discharged due to an Internal admin. Error, I hope he will be advised of our position.

Backgrounds facts

198. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

199. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

200. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

201. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

202. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

203. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

204. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

205. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

206. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

207. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

208. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017

and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

209. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

210. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Summary!
My Heart has really started to hurt me every day, I am having an early aged mild heart attacks because of what Debra Andrews and the mathilgen Markandu family as well as stain Curtis and George Quinton get and got away with, inclusively of what the police and local council members are getting away with each day by holding me hostage with no first hand witness and then on allowing my estate members to carry out their hate crime in a cover up to send me crazy or to an early death by flushing the toilet below me and bagging at me causing me sufferings and no peace also letting the named attack me when I am in the bath tub and getting undressed and this does not stop their I continue to get assaulted with the water taps getting slammed on and off causing a loud bagging sound at a fast rate and slamming object and or jumping on the floorboards above my head damaging my work studies and private family life and making me a Vulnerable person!

I have also had a lot of problems with eating because of what they keep all doing to me!
My dog has eating its paws because of what 113 – 117 and 111 are getting away with I have taken pictures of the damage this is doing to us in this flat!

Disrepair!
My life does not seem worth living any no re everything I have saved for has got destroyed by the damp. I have taken pictures of the damage this has caused me but some things are in replicable, this is not my fault I keep asking the Enfield Council and the Enfield homes teams to help me by fixing the problems that I mention about!

Hello Lorraine,
I apologise for my delayed reply.
The report is still awaiting what we call a Reg 19 determination, once that's made, I'll send the report to you. I apologise for the delay. Re the additional material, a redacted copy of the relevant pages of PC G's pocket book are attached. If you could have a look at the original report, in particular what documents it refers to, and let me know what you're not in possession of I'd be grateful.

Hi Jamie
thank you for the document but can I please ask something has PC G notebook been edited in anyway as from the images they really look to have been edited, I have shown a few people what you sent me and each have said the same thing. Also, I knew PC G said my son was arrested because he would not give his address, which is clearly wrong because my son did give his address and it is clearly in the notebook. I just told you the wrong court as I was thinking he said this in the appeal case at the crown court when my son won his case, but it was not it was in the lower court when PC G said this as I just checked both the appeal case notes and the lower courts clerk notes, and it is clearly in the lower court clerks notes when PC G said this, so when the appeal came, he changed what he said to the reason why my son was arrested.

(See below clerk notes lower court)
I established his name – had difficulties with his address
In the end arrested him as he would not provide his address.
At Peckham custody he provided details I issued penalty notice.
I believe if you check the clerk court notes you will see this clearly. So why was my son arrested unlawfully?
Why did he even tell the appeal judge he did not have a notebook?
Seeing as we never had any of PC G's statements could I get them, the one that he made when he got back to the police station, the one that should have come when we were told about a court date. and if I am allowed the statement he wrote in regards to the complaint, I sure he must have made a statement when the 1st investigation was ongoing when he was still a police officer before he left, and any other information that can be given, maybe the police officer statement that was with PC G on that day and maybe his notebook, also the inspectors who was called to the road side and never done anything, maybe his statement and notebook, as there was more than one officer that day and they should have an account what happened. I also cannot understand why when my son was arrested why no one can found the custody record as I would like that. And any other reports or information I am allowed.

10. What information will you be relying on, in support of your application?
the attached witness statement the statement of case the evidence set out in the box below If necessary, please continue
on a separate sheet.
The Claimant was ordered by the Court on 06 November 2017 to file and serve a copy of its direction's questionnaire by no later than 17 November 2017. The Claimant did so and emailed a copy of its questionnaire to the Court's enquiry inbox on 17 November 2017 at 11:59. However the Court made an order on 13 December 2017 applying the sanction of 06 November 2017 order on the basis that it only received the hardcopy of the direction's questionnaire on 20 November 2017. The Court when making this order disregarded the fact that the questionnaire was effectively filed by the Claimant by email on 17 December and therefore within the deadline. The Claimant emailed the Court on 14 December 2017 with evidence that it had effectively filed his allocation questionnaire on 17 December and asking that the Clair and injunction order be reinstated but received no response to this correspondence as to date. Furthermore, the Defendant's solicitors filed an application notice on 21 December 2017, asking that the Claimant pays the Defendant's costs as a result of the claim being struck out. The application was made without notice. The Court considered the application on 02 January 2018 and made an order that the Claimant pays the Defendant's legal costs on a standard basis. The Claimant therefore makes this application to set aside the Court orders dated 13 December 2017 and 02 January 2018.

Backgrounds facts

213. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

214. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

215. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

216. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

217. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

218. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

219. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

220. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

221. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

222. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

223. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

224. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

225. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Backgrounds facts

228. This matter was allocated to the Claimant's Legal Services department in August 2017, following many complaints received from some of the Claimant's employees and residents living in the same block as the Defendant. The Claimant's anti-social behaviour team instructed our legal services to issue an application for an injunction under the Anti- Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.

229. An ex-parte application was made and the Court made an interim injunction order against the Defendant on 09th August 2017. The matter was re-listed for a return hearing on 21st August 2017 but adjourned to 25th September 2017 where the Defendant attended with his legal representative. The Defendant indicated that it wished to defend the claim and some directions order was made.

230. The parties were ordered to file their directions questionnaire by 23rd October 2017; however, this deadline was overlooked by me and the Court made an order on 06th November 2017 asking the Claimant to file a completed directions questionnaire by 4pm on 17th November 2017. A copy of the Order can be found under exhibit L11.

231. On 17th November 2017 at 11 ;59, I sent an email to the Court on the following address: enauiries@edmonton.countvcourt.asi.Qov.uk. with a copy of the Claimant's directions questionnaire. The Defendant's solicitors were also copied into this email. A copy of this email is attached in exhibit LI2.

232. Just before filing the directions questionnaire with the Court, I contacted the Defendant's solicitors on 16th November 2017, Mr Emmanuel Onwusiri of VLS Solicitors, with a suggested draft directions order. However, he responded by saying that it was not necessary to agree directions in the proposed form. He was therefore fully aware of the fact that I was about to file the Claimant's directions questionnaire. A copy of my email correspondence to Mr Onwusiri can be found in exhibit LI3.

233. I then received an order from the Court dated 13th December 2017, advising me that a judge has considered the file and having seen that the questionnaire was received on 20th November 2017, has decided to apply the sanction as set out in the order dated 06th November 2017. As a result, the Claim was struck out and the interim injunction made on 09th August 2017 was discharged. A copy of the order is attached under exhibit LI4.

234. Upon receiving the above order, I emailed the Defendant's solicitors Mr Onwusiri and advised him that the Court made the order in error as the Claimant had filed the directions questionnaire electronically on 17th November 2017. Mr Onwusiri was fully aware of this fact as he was copied in to the email. A copy of my email to Mr Onwusiri dated 15th December 2017 can be found under exhibit LI5.

235. On 14th December 2017, Ms Zena Ndereyimana on behalf of the Claimant's legal services emailed the Edmonton County Court advising that Claimant's directions questionnaire was emailed to the Court on 17th November 2017 and provided evidence in support. The email requested that the Court reconsider the order dated 13th December 2017 as the Claimant has complied with the earlier directions order made on 06th November 2017. A copy of the email correspondence to the Court can be found in exhibit LI6.

236. The Claimant has received no response from the Court following the email it sent out on 14th November 2017.

237. On 03rd January 2017 I received an order from the Edmonton County Court ordering the Claimant to pay the Defendant's costs of the action on a standard basis to be assessed if not agreed. Please refer to exhibit LI7. The order was made after the Defendant's representatives filed an application notice at Court on 21st December 2017. The application was only received by the Claimant on 27 December 2017 and as l was on annual leave, the application notice only came to my attention on 03rd January 2017, so I was not able to respond.

DIRECTIONS ORDER

238. It was inappropriate for the Defendant's representatives to have made this application as he was fully aware of the fact that our directions questionnaire was dully filed at Court on 17th November 2017. He was copied in to all the correspondence sent to the Court. He was also advised by me that the Court must have made an error when it stated to have received the order on 20th November 2017 while clearly it received it electronically on 17th November 2017.
I am of the view that the Defendant's representatives have taken advantage of the situation as when making this application he already knew of the fact that the Claimant's questionnaire was filed on 17th November 2017 and there could be a possibility of the Court reconsidering its decision of striking out the Claim. I find his conduct against the spirit of the Civil Procedures Rules which encourage parties to cooperate, communicate and try to resolve dispute out of Court. The Court order dated 02nd January 2018 could have been avoided had the Defendant acted with more fairness and this conduct has partly triggered the necessity to make this application notice which means that the Claimant is now incurring more costs.

239. I am also instructed that since the Court made the interim injunction order on 09th August 2017, the Defendant's anti-social behaviour has ceased towards the neighbours and no complaints have been received from them. I am therefore of the view that the residents and employees of the Claimant could be prejudice if the Claim and interim injunction order were not reinstated.

240. As a result of the above, we would like the Court to set aside the orders made on 13th December 2017 and 02nd December 2018. The Claimant would also like the Claim and interim injunction to be reinstated and an order that the Defendant pays the Claimant's costs as his conduct has led to the necessity to make the present application.

Speaker 1:	00:10	Hello Chief Executive department Heather speaking.
Speaker 2:	00:12	Hello is this Heather Littler
Speaker 1:	00:15	it is, yes.
Speaker 2:	00:16	How are you doing? My name's Mr Cordell. Simon Cordell.
Speaker 1:	00:19	Yeah.
Speaker 2:	00:20	And I was just calling. I've been through yourselves. I've got a few emails that have been, you've been put in receipt of in regards to the problems that I'm having at my caseload at my house and there's a lot of problems with, a few problems that I was having with the company head that you represent. Um, basically the company is it ok to go through a couple of things with yourself.
Speaker 1:	00:41	Um, well you might not be talking to the right person. You might, you might need to speak to someone who's in the know about it.
Speaker 2:	00:47	I've got it.

New Speaker:	00:47	What is it.
New Speaker:	00:47	You definitely here. I'm definitely, I'm definitely talking to you. The correct person. I've got your letter here,
New Speaker:	00:51	Oh, yes.
New Speaker:	00:51	chief executive chief executive at Enfield.gov.uk.
New Speaker:	00:52	Yep.
New Speaker:	00:52	24 November, 2006 and I've done a report. I have put all your emails into a full official report and I have done a questionnaire because there was lots of things that I'm very upset about joint circle within malefices of office within your office and um, for fraudulent act under the companies act and breaches of the lease, Hold and tendencies reform Act and breaches of the child protection Act subsection B 25. There's lots of things that I'm very concerned about.
New Speaker:	01:24	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	01:24	I've been recording lots of conversations with your company members since 2014 now.
New Speaker:	01:31	year.
New Speaker:	01:31	and there was, your company is, has to be in support for it started, it started with something very simple. How it initially started is I kept coming into the civic centre and I kept asking for support in throwing a community event a CIC, building a community CIC company and I kept going to Enfield enterprise and I was working with lots of other companies like um, in doing local events in the local area.
New Speaker:	01:55	[inaudible].
Speaker 2:	01:56	I started out, basically I kept getting pushed away by your civic centre. I say like pushed away. I've maybe wasn't ready to turn up the proposals and understand about the statutory Duties and things like that that have to be done. So, at the time, so I ended up meeting the people on the streets and I'd invested in a sound system. Yeah, we for a few parties in, from 2012 was my first ever privity that I through private party until 2013 now 2012 so it was one year in London streets. Before that I was selling this stuff called laughing gas balloons and that for a few years, saving my money before that. So only one year in London did I ever have a sound system and ever throw parties. In 2013 what initially happened is the metropolitan police, this had nothing to do with your company head,
New Speaker:	02:42	Alright.
New Speaker:	02:42	but the metropolitan police come to me and they arrested me for throwing a woman's birthday party called Becky.
Speaker 2:	02:49	She had six children. She was always there in the community helping us met our lovely woman she had life really hard. So, I was quite keen on helping her for anything. She wanted she, it was her birthday so, we throw a birthday party outside for her in South London. Police shut us down. And we got told no, we got told to move on to another location. So, we moved on the location to where she had been living under a subsection 144 Lazbo. Um, and so we went to the place the police we've ok with everything. Basically a few months later the police come to my house and arrested me for handling stolen goods for a Gazebo that was set up in my back garden.

New Speaker:	03:19	they said it had got stolen, I got put on stringent bail conditions. So, 2013 after a year of throwing parties and getting turned away by the council yourselves and that, which I've got emails proving all of this because I was writing from my personal license and stuff to the licencing departments.
Speaker 2:	03:39	Right.
New Speaker:	03:39	Basically what initially happened is I got put on curfew for a year. I stayed on curfew for a year.
New Speaker:	03:45	Right
New Speaker:	03:45	I managed to, I managed to prove, prove that the case wasn't my fault. I've got the case dropped after that year. I had my passport taken off me. I wasn't allowed to enter the central London and I had a.
New Speaker:	03:56	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	03:56	nightclub in Brixton. I was managing so I had a brand-new night club,
New Speaker:	03:59	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	03:59	that I was managing and I lost the contract for that because of it. Now, after I had to hand my passport in and I had to give a £1000 pounds in - surety I had the sign on at the police station at four o'clock every day and eight o'clock I had to be on curfew in my house. I won the case after a year anyway, but this destroyed my 13-year relationship. I was with my first ever love.
Speaker 2:	04:21	Yeah, me and Diana.
New Speaker:	04:22	yes.
New Speaker:	04:22	together. Yeah. Destroyed our lives yeah, So, this is the first girl I ever slept with. She was living in my house for years. I lived in this council house nine years with her at this stage.
New Speaker:	04:32	His smart.
New Speaker:	04:32	I put a Freedom of Information Act into yourselves to make sure that there was no complaints and use lot sent me a freedom of information request saying that there's never been a complaint on your behalf about me or any other member of my public or nothing. I'm, I'm a good citizen basically, still yeah,
New Speaker:	04:46	Yeah,

New Speaker:	04:46	Next thing I know I won the case the second I won this case. I had lost Diana I went out and I met another partner. Yeah.
New Speaker:	04:54	Yeah,
New Speaker:	04:54	I was let out of my house after being kept on the, on curfew. All of 13 to 14 yeah, so I won the case.
New Speaker:	05:00	yeah,
New Speaker:	05:00	and then basically I went out and I met another partner.
Speaker 2:	05:03	The second that I won I met that partner, I started looking after her child. We're painting the kid's bedroom in our house. We've been together eight months. I agree to have a baby with her. She said she's feeding me the food and Diana has gone. So, I loved her. I looked after her I took care of them, I done my best for them. Yeah.
New Speaker:	05:18	Yeah,
New Speaker:	05:18	Now I've got all the emails still today we were talking when me and her have never had an argument in our lives. Yeah. I still talk to her to date now.
New Speaker:	05:25	[inaudible].
New Speaker:	05:25	And I have got every text off of her to date now. Yeah.
New Speaker:	05:29	Yeah,
New Speaker:	05:29	`Now she's locked herself in her house with her baby. Yeah, because of what's happened and I've locked myself in my house because of what's happened. What continued after this? Yeah. Now straight after I won the case and I was looking after them painting the kid's bedroom.
Speaker 2:	05:43	She said, we agree to have a baby. She said she's going to go to the clinic and get checked. She went to the clinic. When she's in the chair, the woman said, Oh, and you aren't got a problem internal you got problem external a spot on the top of your ass, now she'd come back to me one on painting the bedroom. Heidi's bedroom. Because Heidi used to cry downstairs cause she used to get, they, she did not have a bedroom when I went there. Yeah.
New Speaker:	06:03	yeah,
New Speaker:	06:03	So I was going to be with her, so I called my mates and got the bedroom plastered. We painted it on all the Disney stuff. When I'm doing it, Shannon has walked into me and said to me, sit down, Simon and let's talk. I need to talk to you. She said our something about herpes. That I might have gave her that I might have gave her herpes or something like that.
Speaker 2:	06:17	I said are that's impossible. I've been in my first relationship anyway. Me and her never argued. So, I went to my own clinic yeah,
New Speaker:	06:24	yeah,

New Speaker:	06:24	I went to evergreen on stead of South London clinic. I went into the clinic, done my blood test. I forced a blood test because I had no symptoms. Yeah,
New Speaker:	06:33	Yeah,
New Speaker:	06:33	in forcing that blood test because I phoned up my past partner, Diana and explained to her the circumstances that I was in and I asked her to go into a test and I asked another partner to do a test. I explained to Stain the on goings. My next-door neighbour, the old man, Stan, who's like a father, I do everything for him. Push the chairs up the road that he sits in when he fell over, took him to the door. I've never been rude to him. I've loved him, I thought, I told him when the time comes, I'd wipe his bum for him to make sure that he can stay in that flat
Speaker 2:	07:00	I loved him like a father. Yeah.
New Speaker:	07:02	yeah,
New Speaker:	07:02	So I spoke to him and said look I have been accused of this and I feel a bit upset. Now what happened? While at that moment in time, while this was going on, the police threw an Asbo outside of my front door which your company was in support of and a meeting was held on the third page with a Jane Johnson, the command Borough officer.
New Speaker:	07:19	Now what initially happened is I looked at the folder and I was quite knocked off my feet sort of thing. It accused me of six parties that I hadn't, that I had never thrown. Yeah,
New Speaker:	07:29	yeah,
New Speaker:	07:29	So I found out all of the names of all these parties, two of the people I knew, the people I knew who you organize. I know them and It's not wrong to know people. So now the other four, I didn't know their young children below my generation and below the generation below them I don't even know who they are.
Speaker 2:	07:46	They could be your children. Now what this application done was try to make me grass all of these people and saying, well that isn't me. They aren't my party. they are your parties.
New Speaker:	07:56	yeah,
New Speaker:	07:56	So what I done, what me and my mum done. We went to Facebook and we looked at the offense that these people had set up and we copied the Facebook profiles.
New Speaker:	08:03	yep.
New Speaker:	08:03	So I've got all the Facebook profiles for the people that organized the events in real life. I looked at the case and I thought, you know what, I'm not going to grass my friends in or these associates and I'm not going to go and I'm not going to do the police job for them, So I wrote a massive first statement. Yeah. Which says, I looked at the laws and understood what I represented on this land and the land that I live off, being a British citizen and understood that private parties that are in our homes, are not regulated under the license.

New Speaker: 08:30 Um

Speaker 2: 08:31 So the second were allowed to have private parties in our home, we're allowed to charge money. The only thing we're not allowed to do in our home is having intention to make a profit run a commercial business.

New Speaker: 08:40 Yeah. And we cannot continuously, frequently throw parties in the same house cause that can cause disturbance under the Christine and Davy. Who were the first person that caused the talk? No, as of banging at each other. Yeah. Which were the noise prop where the problems come into to the finger. I understand it. I understand the nominee laws. I understand the Magnet Caraco given the given class numbers, management system, fiber showed you the work I've got here. I wrote a brand-new constitution model constitution for the Peotone on a lot of stuff. Hey and I isn't being shown to anybody yet and I wonder minds plagiarize like 100% in grammar, a hundred percent international words, like a hundred percent I'm off the rocker.

Speaker 2: 09:18 I'm telling you with what I do, I'll show anybody. I'll, I'll do a test with anybody, you know, knock them over. Yeah. Now what I've done. Yes. Cause I knew this, I looked at the paperwork and I noticed that there were sections on all the doors on, yeah. On the, on the, on the cases. So, I went to court with my section and said that I'm building my company. This is what I'm doing. I'm building a festival. I'm in contact, the licensing department doing this to not showed them all the good stuff in the application. And I showed them that there was a section two under the license. Now you've got no rights here. So, you call this the organization of illegal raves. Yeah, so it must be illegal and I must be proved. I must be arrested for something that's illegal. You forgot to arrest me.

Speaker 2: 09:58 Not called it the organization of raves. You said it's an illegal offense. So, my barristers had to go at them 15 and the highest coppers went to call the neck. They kept trying to get the Hasbro on me. At first, when they first serve you, it becomes an injunction order. So now in 2004 enough served this injunction order on me. I'm going to court and I'm explaining to the judge, this is wrong. Now, four five charges threw the case on the floor and walked out the courtroom in 2014 and refuse to hear the case that they refuse to hear this case all of a sudden because Sally her, she had signed up by this stage, she had done about 400 grand on the case. She's the executive director in Hogan house. It is in Scotland yard. Yeah, no, I've got Sandy on loads of recordings telling a leaning out proceeds within this case and she's, I'm not going anywhere.

Speaker 2: 10:46 Right. I'll continue slowly. Yeah. But what happened is I went to co I; they couldn't get the case on me. Yeah. All the charges were laughing all on my side, like the Robin hood. I was a good person. So, what they'd done is they, my next-door neighbour, Ozzie must. I must've come home on my own one day after talking to Shandra, but it's not dumb or not a bit in my house. Oh, bloody hell. This is a bit shit. And honestly you must've heard me. So, he's phoned up the police and told the police what was going on between in my personal life. So, the police phoned up the doctors and sent the doctors to my house for the first time. You had the doctors come to my house. Now this is all on my medical notes in Rio on the, on the, on the, on the computers.

Speaker 2: 11:24 I've got a copy of it all. Hey, yeah. So now the second that my personal date under the protection that goes EK back to the piece, the police shouldn't use it. It's protected under the DPA and it should never be an intwined back into the public's view and entanglement it. Yeah. Because it became a sex scandal with minor Shannon's name. We've never argued. We've never had a dispute. Yeah. And it's become a sex scandal. I'm very hurt. I feel in danger and my life's been put at risk in the public for something I'd never done. So anyway, I went to the clinic, I work, I'll show, I've got my blood test. When a woman phoned me back to give me my results, she said to me, Simon, sit down. You can't have sex with anyone ever again. You can't even have concession with a condom all on recording.

Speaker 2: 12:04 You can't kiss anyone ever again. So, when I put the phone down [inaudible] thinking, oh my gosh, she's like, you've got your four for herpes. Yeah. How's that fucking old house so used, my friend broke my arm, so I mean, yeah, and as I was sitting there, no, she didn't call me in for no meeting or nothing. I'm sitting in my hospital in part, I'm trying to still look off of Shannon as it's priced as what's happened here. Shanna's mom went and hung herself over all of this and she's tired. And basically what continued to happen was without messing it up, I got served the ass bro when I got served the ass, but I went to Oxford, they kept trying to get on me, couldn't get on me when to call or show to Sally and all that, that they were wrong. And I had the Facebook profiles in the beginning and that they were wrong in what they were accusing me, but I'm not going to give them to them and be across.

Speaker 2:	12:49	Yeah. Study. Still refuse to listen. And she refused to do what she was doing. So now finally, they may still turn in one name in the public with the sex scandal. So, I went to call. Yeah. And now all of a sudden, they got some woman judge who she does his stills with children. Yeah. Who have hope, who have been an assault eight and in sex offenders? So, they've changed this. They caught some time, each charge against me. I looked at her statistics online. All she does is kill people for food. The right reasons. Now somehow, they've got me in front of estrogen. She sent me paying up. Yeah. She goes, I'm giving you the injunction. We'll try and conditions you. I said, this is I. So now in 2014 after that six, eight months of them chase me, then you've got the injunction conditions.
Speaker 2:	13:27	Yeah. So, I've got put in my house a bit longer now. By 15 our year are chasing me around a million pound into the application. Sally's finally got me into court with this, this horrible judge and if dummy over in the call that my parent's 15 police officers, the highest-ranking police officers where they, yeah, so it's like a Miraj. I'm thinking, Oh, I'm not realizing about FIC Tims that there's, I'm writing to them saying where's the victims? I want the victims to come to court without a victim turning up to court. There is no case to answer by a law yeah, Now the 15 officers who went up and my parents, they're written pieces. Each one you aren't first hand evidence. Then the Paris laid, the police officers are getting off this off the Stein guy. No, we're sorry to the judge and I going out.
Speaker 2:	14:11	We could cause them [inaudible] awkward. The transcripts. I mean we copied the hat of a PC King statement, but I must do this. It's going on. This is out of order. You're not allowed to copy it the same way where you even at the event order them guy. None. None of us were at this location. So, we'll have 15 copies in air and none of you were even at the event and there's no witnesses in there. This is illegal. What you're doing to him. You've not arrested him and it's all in the transcripts and I've got them here now. Yeah, no, I kept saying to them, this is our border. So, I went under the trespass and never pointed. No one hurt. So, when I come home and they sent me up, right. They advertise me in the paper, the organization of illegal raves. So, I got upset.
Speaker 2:	14:48	So I started writing back in the response bundle to them. I don't know if you use, I have a copy of the response bundle now. I looked and I noticed all the timestamps to the call centres were out at date. So everyday their call centre starts at under suit regulations. They are, yes. C

Speaker 2:	15:38	D communication. They are, they're recorded under EHCR regulations and legalization. Yeah. Under the regulations and the investigatory power to fast and light. Yeah. So, this is how we're recording this conversation under NSI R and understood under our tree is rules. Yeah, no, I the these, that call centre starts at 12 o'clock every day. Most members of the public don't know, and it goes cat one, cat two, cat three, cat four, that's it. Numeric number. So, cut 500 happens every day. They get 15,000 calls at borough Lambeth and a M and at the Apple one, yeah, you've got arms met, CC and storm. Now they're caught. Start 500 say, oh look at cat 500 which is the 500 call. It says timestamp nine o'clock. Now look at cat 525 it would say one o'clock an hour before. And now this happens throughout all the cans. Yeah. Now when I'm looking in the cans, it says in the nine, nine, nine calls, when the PLO called up, he says it's all white males and females. And one of the incidents, for instance, so white males and females and the police go there, arrest, inspect, inspect the skin. It goes there. He Nicks a boy called Anthony Harris. I don't know inside that building with an incident. I'm not at this point. It's nothing to do with me. Yeah, this is at 10 o'clock. You can see in the cats, you and after the are in the cans. Then I turn, he blocks the whole Gates has been in the building until three o'clock in the morning.
Speaker 2:	16:24	Won't release them. I go outside the Gates where he's got surrounded. He arrested Anthony Harrison the building and he nixed me and I get the blame for the whole lot. And, and this is wrong here. I hadn't done anything wrong here. And now Moses, heroine, all that wrote me letters, a director of the companies I've got, if you ever get a copy of the response, Bondo and look for it now I started saying, well look, the timestamps are wrong. Then I started noticing that there are no victim signatures at the bottom. So, if you need members of the public into on top of your company. So, I looked and I know it's the audit all the mg six, four mg, 11 forms, meaning that there is no, um, our personal witness statements and they have to be signed under oath. Now, even if they were signatures on them and the people refused to go to call.
Speaker 2:	17:05	Yeah. That means that there is no case to answer. Yeah. Now, if you looked at, if you went, for instance a, you weren't about dot code or as Bose a S B O S. dot. Co. Dot. UK. Then you click on a bow. Yeah. And then you scroll to the bottom of it and the bottom chapter explains the bruise on hearsay that if no one attends call and no one and then there is no case to answer. Yeah. There needs to be a fix him. So, this, this is all illegal.

		One being held hostage in my house. Now I keep writing this to Sally [inaudible] wrote loads of it and my mom's row, it's lizard as a row. I've wrote every law of Moses and all the companies. I've then what was even worse. They say that I, I've ordered the incidents that I'm accused of.
Speaker 2:	17:50	There's only one that there's picked hymns in saying that they got kept up overnight. That's why I've got seven years. Yeah. I'd done a year for the gazebo and I've got seven years for this. The maximum sentence, even if you are arrested, is six months to three months inside. You wouldn't even do that for you. Do two months inside, one-month tag and get released with a maximum sense 20 ago. I've got seven years after a year for the [inaudible] case. That's eight years of my life gone now. I've proved that there's no statements in that folder and it's illegal for them to hold me. Yeah, it's all in the response bundles then order. The only place that that was picked him supposedly was progress way, which was on Lincoln road opposite the BMW factory on the same day. There was a party on South. We wrote any old man building while I was on curfew in here.
Speaker 2:	18:34	I didn't know the adults were in the old man building. Nice. The only one with the train station, you know in that area. Now when I'm not [inaudible] what happened on the day of progress way? Was this a boy? A T cool Chris. Now I know him. He was thrown apart in Essex. Yeah. Now when he was frying the party in Essex. Yeah. A police officer called Adrian Combs whose ESIC superintendent kept going to his house. He kept telling him, Chris, talk to me with respect and we'll do something. Chris kept putting the phone down on him. Yeah, and you don't know how to speak to him about the lingos or sanitary policies. You don't know. It was just a good event and of course I'm not got his head on right. Yeah. So, he's speaking agent Combs, his own big boss. Limited as well. Big boss. It is in charge of every festival in London.
Speaker 2:	19:27	Gregor Glastonbury. He wants all the policies. He understands all the statuary, like how I understand it all will hate Jim books. He knows the clue. Yeah. Now Chris didn't know how to speak to him. So Indian, Chris is putting the phone down on him. Sergeant agent comes, got fed up when he freed your friend in Essex, flew over there in a helicopter, landed in the field. We're below the press, took pictures of them all and served them all in abatement. Lo is told Chris is not allowed in the area for 48 hours. Chris moved out of the area and he's come down to this area while I'm on curfew. They're throwing the party down at progress way. They've jumped into the building or whatever. Whatever's happened. The police haven't had an argument or dispute that there's a section on the door now I've, I've been called on live, not come to, I don't go to the first location on [inaudible] wasn't involved, but then my friends are coming to my area.

Speaker 2:	20:11	I'm not seeing them for a year. So, I went to visit the guy and they said, Oh, they've got a few little problems here and there, so I'll just say, I said, arc might be out to help you a bit. My services here and there and they're just trying to get better trainers on my pair of trainers on my feet. I've been locked up for a year before that. Yeah, sure thing. Next thing I know. Yeah. Police have used all of the nine, nine, nine calls that got made, aren't they? Cause and everyone got out of the train station, they've gone straight into the old man built with an inlay. No one's going to walk up all the way to the top and go to progress way. So, order nine, nine, nine calls on that. They got me to progress way until the old man building. Now I've got all the cans in the order that they left on the peoples.
Speaker 2:	20:47	The quarter's numbers in. Now what you look at is the police officer. Late day they blocked that crown road on the top of all the cards, but they forgot to block out the X to Y locations. So now when you put the X to wire locations and it opens it to crown road, now under oath on the day in call, we are Steve. I was more, I've got the transcript. D are you sure that all of these locations are progress way in the, all these [inaudible] swears under oath, you know, I'm sure that all these are progress way and there was not another party on this day. Now I wrote to you that you gave me a freedom of information. It's proven that you sent cancel officers to that building on the same day to the old man building and you and I've got the press reports for that as well.
Speaker 2:	21:29	I've got all the letters of Sergeant Asian Combs proving that he sent the folder over Chris lurchers name and your pain and at the metropolitan police have took my his picture out and put my picture in there. Yeah, I've got all these cases are, I couldn't be [inaudible] like they're saying. That's what I've been accused of an almost and for your company to do now without you and with the victims. There is no case I was working for; you all had the keys to the community hall and I was managing that for Diane or Tom or best for that. Yeah, I was. I had; I was doing lock to lock festival before this. I was doing ponders and festival kids. We sell a palsy winch more Hill. I gave them my CV and the police went to every single one of these places, the Scouts to beavers in this application, but they never went to one building on that and they say it in their photos.

Speaker 2: 22:15 We're not being mean to everyone to shred my whole life yet they've locked me in this house, use our locking me in this ass. Now knowing there's no pictures on loss and you to do is call and EGM me in. Yeah, and under the grants of trespass. Yeah. If you say that there's an error in the use, I've been noticed that there's an error in law under the grounds of trespass. Yeah. Then the case would just get dropped under that and arch get bit pap date, your payment. I'm going to buy a tent, get a diary and come up to use. I've got Myeah,s on a big top tent and knock all the policies here. Now I've set the dates where you would get 20 copies and I'll get loaded and slowly let back into the community. We do something good. Yeah, I've got everything.

Speaker 2: 22:50 Use lot can dream of here. I've looked at your policies. You lot do 51st state? Yeah, so I go to all the meetings. When you lot, go online. Yeah. I look at all your policies that you gave 51 state and all of the secure policies and that. You've got that is child paperwork compared to what I've got here. Yeah. I've got the real deal. I've got ever folder I have got everything, for everything. Litter control policies. I've got the practices, codes. I know everything. Yeah. I want to do business. I don't want problems. I don't want to make you lose your jobs. I just want a bit of back pay for, for the error in law. I do not want to go and put all of the corruption through the door. But if use lot don't accept responsibility for this error. Sally Gilchrist is not going to because she has put too much money in it to it all. It costs too much money and they ruined.
