Dear Jamie Newman,

Thank you for the below email.

I believe you have spoken to Martin Jenkins and he has confirmed with you that when Mr Cordell was spoken to by the police officer, Mr Cordell used his phone to call Martin Jenkins and Martin Jenkins confirmed he told the police officer Mr Cordell was insured to drive, and also the police officer never said anything about any tools to him on that phone call.

I also made calls that day as my son also called me what was going on.

I have asked many times to see a copy of the police officer note book, as until I saw the report from Jeanette Reilly, and it was confirmed the police officer did in fact have a note book, Mr Cordell always said he took notes but the police officer even said in court he never and it was only the ticket he had used that day.

The reason for asking for a copy is due to the fact of the name my son give and it is stated in his note book a name was given, then it seemed to change to Mr Cordell saying he was homeless, but the police officer would have done checks of the name given, which I believe the note book proves my son give his correct name as there was no reason for him not to have done as he never done any thing wrong. and this would have been confirmed when the police officer done his police checks.

There is also one other issue and that is when Mr Cordell asked for an inspector to be called due to what the police officer had said to the insurance company. Mr Cordell was telling the inspector that the police officer had lied to his insurance company about tools being in the vane, all it would have took was for the inspector to check the van at that time, he would have then seen something was really wrong as there was no tools and would have seen this, and this could have been addressed there and then without the need for my son to have been arrested.

If there is anything you need for me please let me know.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Hello Ms Cordell,

I hope this email finds you well.

Have you had a chance to look at the document attached to my last email?

Kind regards

Dear Jamie Newman

Yes I am dealing with on behalf of my son have been from the start. So if everything can be done via this email I would be grateful.

I will look at the attached document today, but do believe you have had contact with Martin Jerkins and he confirms that the Police officer did not say about any tools or Mr Cordell going round doing odd jobs on that call. As the police officer did when he made the call to KGM.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Good Morning,

You are correct, I am to re-investigate the matter. I look forward to working with you to bring this matter to a satisfactory conclusion.

Early in December I wrote to Mr Cordell though received no reply. I wrote to him again in early January though again received no reply. If you're dealing with this matter on his behalf then that explains it. Am I to assume I'm to communicate with you going forward?

I've attached the letter I sent to Mr Cordell. I'd appreciate it if you could respond to my request at your earliest convenience.

Any questions please do ask.

Kind regards

Dear Jamie Newman

I believe you are the person taking over the reinvestigation of the case PC/6804/13.

Could you please tell me how far you got with the reinvestigation.

Also could all contact be made via this email as I am the one dealing with this for my son Mr. Simon Cordell.

Regards
