A young child, likely a boy, is standing in a kitchen. He is wearing a black cap, a red long-sleeved shirt, and a yellow vest with 'POLICE' written on it in bold black letters. He has his arms raised in the air, holding onto a white cabinet or door. In the background, there is a microwave and a box of 'Fruit & Nutella' on a counter. The floor is covered with a purple patterned rug.

Mateusz Krawiec Look to make as much cash as himself and a lot of other 'dumb' celebs do you need brainpower. Acting like fucktards puts them in the media's eye and makes people check out their tracks etc (even if its just to troll them) which just makes them more money.

This is bad so now they looking to close all big nightclubs it aint anyone's fault apart from the nobheads who died

World famous London nightclub, Fabric, could be forced to close after drug-related deaths

One of London best-known nightclubs, Fabric, could be stripped of its licence and forced to close after a string of drug-related deaths.

A Thank You

We'd like to say a big thank you to all our customers who took a load of shit TVs off our hands last night. We honestly thought we'd never shift them. But thanks to you, our wonderful customers, we've got more money in our tills and less shit TVs to sell.

We genuinely hope that you enjoy your new product. You may find that some of them may not be quite the bargain that you thought they were, but hey - you get what you pay for in this world and besides, that annoying woman you twatted in the face with the discounted kettle last night isn't watching Coronation Street tonight on a TV like yours is she?

Merry Christmas to one and all! And just remember:

Every little helps

I really don't get how the powers that be in control of this country actually get there job I mean they couldn't run a fruit stall.... this so called isis group and British people fighting for them but are possibly returning back to the UK question me if im wrong but putting them under control orders wont cure the problem wouldn't it be easier to eliminate the problem and pop one in the head and save money on these control orders a leopard simply does not change it's spots and mindset once in a cage #askingforproblems
