I really don't get how the powers that be in control of this country actually get there job I mean they couldn't run a fruit stall.... this so called isis group and British people fighting for them but are possibly returning back to the UK question me if im wrong but putting them under control orders wont cure the problem wouldn't it be easier to eliminate the problem and pop one in the head and save money on these control orders a leopard simply does not change it's spots and mindset once in a cage #askingforproblems

The nights that turnt into mornings & the friends that turnt into family ... I'm gonna miss all my babies when I leave the rave scene but it has too be done, some people may say we're being stupid but leaving these people behind is gonna be like living without a heart ... absolutely fucking impossible! These guys have been here through thick & thin for me, through the good & bad, the happy & sad ... and the smiles & tears! They've seen it all, seen me & helped me have some of the worst tear ups of my life and also helped me have some of the best nights of my life! Friends are the family we are able too choose & from the bottom of my heart I would not replace any of these for anything in the world! OTR baby OT fucking R!! I love you all millions! Gonna tear it up big time for my last rave this weekend!
