| (5) 05/11/2018, Monday Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the. Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing! Monday Morning, I awoke to the now normal daily routine and soon after spoke to a kind gentleman who is a part of the estate management team, he oversees my problem of cause and retried it with ease E.G “broken bathroom window due to not being able to shut correctly” What doctor green explained to me; next I think I took very well. He explained to me that he wanted to put me onto a section three of the Mental Health Act 1983. How it happened! Just before lunch time Doctor Greenside came to my room and asked me for a meeting with me. I agreed to what he had asked and walked with him into another room, when sitting down together we were both left quietly alone and then Doctor Greenside started to explain to me that he wanted to place me of the section 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983 and on to A section 3 of that act. I took my time and asked him why he believed this was warranted as to the initial reasons to why I had been placed on a section two had been proven to be inaccurate to the assessment documentation of its statement of facts. We went through what I had gotten accused of when first getting detained to hospital, which is: -- 1. Mr. Cordell is known to psychiatric services but has not engaged with them in recent years. Reply: -- This information is undermining towards the defamation of the definition of my character and influences a person beliefs into believing that I have gotten treated under the Mental Health Act 1983 as a person who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, to which I have not and to further my issues of raised concern it continues to state that I have not then on after accepted treatment as it states that I have not engaged with the Mental health Service in the following years to pass. This information is also | 5) On the //20 it is said that |

This man is hyper mental with flights of speech and ideation.

He has delusions that the police are targeting him are other residents in his block of flats.

He says people in the street are spitting at him because they believe he gave a woman herpes.

He is quite grandiose in his ideas about helping the world.

While with Doctor Greenside he persisted to prosiest thought or conversation that he believed that I was suffering with a Mental Health Disorder such as psychosis.

I continued to stay adamant that I am of good health and that I do not suffer from any of the symptoms that a person would suffer from if they did have Psychosis and my family and loved ones also agree with myself.

He told me that he wanted to put me onto medication again I told him that this was unfair and

I gave him the reply of no I have not been smoking weed in my room and that I was happy to do a urine sample. I explained to him that I had just left the wing on unescorted leave and could also smell somebody outside smoking it. While talking I explained that I had applied for my tribunal and wished for an absolute discharge of any Mental Health illness and understood that this would be the correct professional opinion. At the end of our conversation, I reminded him of a part of or past short conversation, when doing so I explained that he had said to me himself that he did not believe that I was a danger to myself or towards any other person and that is why he had granted me unescorted leave of the Hospital wing that is named as Dorset Doctor Greenside finished or meeting by explain that he believed in the proof of what I had shown him to be correct as to the assessment 2 sheets wrote context being incorrect and told myself that he believed that since 2014 these problems that I had been questioned about by he had now caused me to suffer with Psychosis. I knew this not to be true. |  |

Two-time's male nurses brought or meeting to a halt and we all took a short walk together of the Dorset hospital wing into another department on the hospital, I soon after found out that the department is called the; --

Mental health Act Department.

As we entered the department, we walked into the middle of a corridor and I got told by the nurses that the tribunal room is based along the corridor.

We got taken to one end of the corridor and asked to take a seat on some chairs I noticed that there was a reception room at one end of the corridor and at the other end is where the tribunal room is at the other.

|  | 2. The solicitor for the patient sought permission to submit a 6-page document from Mrs Cordell, the nearest relative. The solicitor indicated that the document expressed the nearest relative's views-and those of a cousin the panel considered the request and noted that Mrs Cordell's views as regards her son's detention and the housing problems he has experienced were fully reflected in the social circumstances report provided. The panel would also allow her to speak at the tribunal hearing if she wished to do so. In those circumstances, we did not accept the submission of the document. |  |

|  | 12) The current admission follows an incident in October 2018 which led to safeguarding concerns and the Enfield Adult North Locality Team's decision to arrange an MHA assessment. Mr. Cordell was detained subject to Section 2 on the 02 .11.2018. |  |
|  | THE RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY'S CASE:                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|  | 1) The clinical case argued that the patient has a chronic and enduring mental illness.                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
|  | 2) It is unclear whether the mental disorder responds to treatment as the patient has not engaged consistently with treatment.                                                                                                                                      |  |
|  | 3) Currently, the patient has been assessed without medication as Mr. Cordell does not accept that he requires psychotropic medication.                                                                                                                             |  |
|  | 4) Mr. Cordell presents with a number of persecutory, paranoid thoughts in relation to his beliefs that the police and his neighbours are in some way targeting him.                                                                                                |  |
|  | 5) Mr. Cordell also exhibits thought disorder and some tangentiality in his response to questions posed.                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|  | 6) The professional evidence argued that the nature and degree of the mental disorder warranted the patient's continued detention of assessment which is justified in the interests of the patient's health, safety and the protection of others.                   |  |
|  | THE PATIENT'S VIEW:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
|  | 1) Mr. Cordell was polite and courteous towards the panel.                                                                                                                                                                                                          |  |
|  | 2) He told the panel that he did not accept that he has a mental illness or any need for medication.                                                                                                                                                                |  |

|  | 3) He said he experienced anxiety and distress at his accommodation.                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
|  | 4) He indicated that the 48 allegations between the: 06/07/2016 and 02/10/2018 set out in the medical report from an Enfield Council Report regarding concerns and breaches of his tenancy agreement were all fabricated. |  |
|  | 5) He did not accept that he was in any way at fault.                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |
|  | 6) He repeated on several occasions that his neighbours had submitted a litany of complaints to council officials about him in order to undermine his occupation of the premises.                                                       |  |
|  | 7) He said that he has been stopped from organising festivals and had set up a website to air his frustrations about his perception of the injustice of his treatment.                                                                  |  |
|  | 8) He told the panel that he would remain as a voluntary patient.                                                                                                                                                                       |  |
|  | THE NATURE AND DEGREE OF THE MENTAL DISORDER:                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |
|  | 1) As to the nature of the mental disorder, the patient's illness appears to be a chronic illness which has persisted for some time.                                                                                                    |  |
|  | 2) It is unclear as to the patient's response to treatment as yet.                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
|  | 3) Mr. Cordell told the panel that he did not take the psychotropic medication prescribed following his last discharge in 2016.                                                                                                  |  |

|  | 5) Mr. Cordell displayed no insight into his mental health difficulties and sought to minimise his actions prior to the current admission.                                                                                                 |  |
|  | 6) As to the degree of the mental disorder, the patient's evidence 6.1) was tangential;6.2) Guarded;6.3) clear thought disorder.                                                                      |  |
|  | 7) Dr Greensides told the panel that he had looked at Mr. Cordell's website which indicated the presence of thought disorder.                                                                                                       |  |
|  | 8) The panel asked Mr. Cordell about a telephone conversation with Mr. Appadoo which is detailed in the social circumstances report; the patient is alleged to have used foul and threatening language throughout the conversation. |  |
|  | 9) Mr. Cordell did not dispute the telephone conversation and sought to minimise his actions stating that the content was out of context.                                                                                                  |  |
|  | 10) He was unable to contain his thoughts on the question posed as to whether, reflecting on the matter now, he thought his response was inappropriate.                                                                                    |  |
|  | 11) The nursing evidence in contrast to the panel's observation, indicated that the patient has not exhibited any psychotic symptoms.                                                                                                      |  |
|  | 12) On a positive note, there has been some improvement in the patient's presentation overall as he is no longer challenging, irritable or confrontational.                                                                                |  |

Getting wrongly detained while Working on my report in the;

Chase Farm Mental Hospital on an Assessment Wing!

I got awake by the maintenance team coming into my room to fix the blocked sink

After they left I got up to see whether they had fixed the block sink

The answer to my question was no they had not
I decided I could not wait for another person to come along and try to fix it because I needed to shave and to do this, I needed to use the sink in my Hospital room on Dorset Ward.

I got an empty bottle that I had saved and put it around the circular sink Basin hole and squeezed it as hard as I could and then Wala, I had fixed it.

I woke up and cleaned my room.

I went and got my lunch at the time of 12:30 and eat in the main communal room.

16:35 My mother came to the wing and told me that I can go home for a few hours because she had spoken to Doctor Greenside who had agreed that this would be ok

After staying at the hospital on the Dorset wing for two weeks four days I finally run low on fresh cloths, so I decided to use the laundry room, when inside I

|  | When I arrived at the office there was 3 staff available and no other persons in the communal area I explained that because of the extra time that I have been putting into my work I burn away more energy, and this sometimes leaves me starving hungry. I got laughed at and told no, I asked why and got told that this is because it was late at night This led me to explaining in a very polite voice again about how hungry I was and further explain that I am a fully-grown man who is only under an assessment 2 of the Mental Health Act. 10:30: -- Doctor Greenside came into my room and asked me to have a meeting 21:49: I was inside of the communal hall eating some toast at toast time and drinking some hot chocolate While sitting down I could see into the staff office as it has a clear glass window, and I could see Bibi my care coordinator she left the office and went up to the medication room. "While this was going on I watch Nurse Daisy come into the same room, I had noticed that she had been funny with me since I got here in so many words that she never took a liking to me, what she said was how are you feeling today to me in front of every one in a sarcastic voice I replied to her comment by saying the following How do you think I am feeling today?" She looked at me funny and gave no reply as she done, she started to walk out of the room. She walked up the corridor and went into the medication room were Bibi was. I soon afterwards noticed her presence in the room once again but this time she had medication with her. I studied her as she walked up to the patient beside me with caution., due to my earlier conversation with Doctor Greenside and with rightfully cause as she had what seemed like more medication in her hands ready to administer to other people. The next thing I knew she was saying to me with a smile on her face Simon take your medication, I looked at her in disbelief and replied to her that I had explained to Doctor Greenside that I did not wish to |  |

With the whole understanding, my mother sub jested that I rearrange a meeting at the clinic and attended with my issues of concerns being raised, so I arranged the appointment for the following morning. When I attended the clinic for the second time I once again had to wait for what was a long time to get seen, when a acclimatizing asked me to follow her into a room, by me doing what she requested we took a seat in the room and spoke, while discussing the issues that I was trying to solve, so to be sure of the full understanding of a true and whole picture of what was going on in my life, I took a look into the folder the culmination had in her position on her desk top table, this folder related to my medical notes, on doing this and taking the best glance possible of the paperwork, I noticed the test result said it subjected that I may be a carrier of the blood, so showed my upset and requested an official company headed letter to get made to my person so for it to state this new information of relevance and also request that of a formal apologise, the clinicians agreed for this to get completed and I left their premises to go back home.

The Medical home treatment team came to set me up and get me because of Ozzie: -

Update: 19/11/2014

Not being able to bear the sound problems with my flat anymore; I thought what gets done to me, is; “wrong.” This was when I was to realise how inadequate the sound proofing in my flat really, was. Because Ozzie had wanted his friend to live with him, he kept pretence that he could not hear me and my first partner over the first five years. I was to find out how much this was a lie. I was angry with Ozzie because he caused a lot of unneeded stress on my relationship, for so many years prior and he kept breaking promises to fix the problem. So, when the police arrested me in the burglary case and I got put on the bail conditions I had gone to Ozzie house and spoke to him, I took a seat in his flat with him, so to sort out the problems in mine and my partner’s life’s, I did this so to address Ozzie with the issue. I explained myself in full and how this was having an effect on us. After coming home, I had been upset due to what had got explained to me, by my new partner at that point in time. What I was to find out later was that Ozzie had been listening through the walls of my upset. I still to date cannot believe what he has done to me, and my loved ones, he had made an emergency 999 phone call to the police about overhearing me in my own home and then the police called the doctors to arrive for the first time in my life and this was not be the only time the doctors would visit me. Allegations state that I became paranoid about my mother to whom I and my mother disputed, the home treatment team attended my home address on this date and made a call to my mother. When the home treatment team turned up to my flat the police was already there, the Home treatment team phoned and spoke to my mother asking her, if she understood why the police was there, which she replied to them no, she also explained to the Home treatment team that the police kept coming into my flat for no reason. The Home treatment team then talked to the police and left my mother on hold. My mother heard what got said by the police to the Home treatment team as too why they were at my address again. The police said they got a phone call: stating that I was shouting, they gave the Home treatment team 3 different door numbers to my entrance door, which were all wrong. Not one person admitted that they understood who made the 999 calls to the police. The Home treatment team told the police to leave. On this day I was fine until the police turned up at my flat once again. I was not shouting or upset, so do not really, believe someone called the police, worried about me or if they did, they were setting me up. Due to how the police are with me, I got upset and would not open the door, so I sometimes shout to the police in these situations, through the door, as I feel safer, the police do not leave me alone, so why would I open my door when I am on my own, I always feel safer waiting until someone I have contacted gets to my flat, so they can see what is going on. Home treatment team told my mother I seemed to upset for them to talk to and she told them it was no

| 1. REFERRAL DETAILS AND ANY OTHER PREDICATING FACTORS. a) On 27.11.15 Mr Cordell's mother contacted the Enfield HUB, mental health referral centre. She reported that Mr Cordell was not eating, not sleeping and that he was experiencing persecutory ideas, thinking that people are laughing at him and talking about him. His mother said that Mr Cordell believed that the government were advertising information about him, and that the television was talking about him or to him. She stated that Mr Cordell was smoking significant amounts of cannabis, and he was not taking the anti-depressant medication that as prescribed in March 2014. |           |                |                         |

uu) It is my view that Mr Cordell's detention was not in the interests of his health as I did not identify evidence of mental disorder during the visit. I did not believe that Mr Cordell's detention was necessary for his safety, Mr Cordell denied experiencing any suicidal ideation and could I not identify other risks to safety apart from possible substance misuse which could not be used as the basis of detention without clear evidence of a mental disorder associated with the substance misuse issues. I also did not think that the threshold for detention on the basis of safety was met, he was having conflict with neighbour this conflict did not appear to be driven by any mental disorder.

- Patient's name: Simon Cordell
- Date of assessment: 03.02.16
- Consultation With Nearest Relative And Process Of Identifying The Nearest Relative

vv) I identified Mr Cordell's Nearest Relative as his mother Lorraine Cordell. Mr Cordell lives alone and is single. As far as I could ascertain he did not have any children and was not in relationship. His father was the older of his parents but when I phoned his mother ww) on 03.02.16 she informed me that he was in regular contact with Mr Cordell and did his shopping for him. I therefore formed the view that she provided care and was the Nearest Relative.

xx) I phoned Lorraine at around 09:30hrs on 09.02.16 and she advised that in her view use of a warrant and the Mental Health Act assessment were unnecessary as he would give professionals access if he had received an appointment letter. She said that he had a court case in February but would not elaborate on this. Lorraine said that she thought that the involvement of mental health services was unnecessary as Mr Cordell was not in her view experiencing any mental health difficulties and had not experienced any mental health difficulties for a number of months.

yy) I was surprised that Lorraine stated that she did not think that Mr Cordell as the recent referral to mental health services had been triggered by a referral that she had made.

- Consultation with Assessing Doctors

zz) Both assessing Doctors declined to make medical recommendations and were in agreement that there was no clear evidence of any mental disorder during the assessing.

- Views of others consulted aaa) Prior to the assessment the police present advised me that were aware of conflict between Mr Cordell and his neighbour. They advised that the soundproofing between the two properties was poor. The police officers advised me that they were aware that on one occasion Mr Cordell had threatened to strangle his neighbour.

- Mental Capacity Act 2005

ccc) Reason for decision to make the application (including choice of Section) ddd) Given that Mr Cordell's diagnosis and treatment plan were not clear at the time of the assessment the assessment was for possible detention on section 2. It was my view that Mr Cordell did not meet the statutory criteria for detention. It was not clear that he was suffering from a mental disorder of a nature because at the time of the assessment it was unclear if whether or not he had a mental disorder. He did not meet the criteria for degree as there was no clear evidence that he was experiencing symptoms of mental disorder.

- Patient's name Simon Cordell
- Date of assessment: 03.02.16

eee) If not admitted to hospital, outline immediate plans for alternative to admission and how those plans will be co-ordinated fff) Early Intervention Team to offer Mr Cordell an appointment with a psychiatrist in their team for a psychiatric assessment.

- If admitted arrangements for:
- Dependants {including children): None
- Securing property: Not applicable.
- Pets: Mr Cordell has a dog, but no arrangements needed to be made as for looking after the dog as Mr Cordell was not detained.
- Any other practical matter (including informal ion/advice about children visiting the ward): None

- Comment on any avoidable delays in the assessment and admission process: None.

Louise Brown / Jackie Gubby,
I have still not had a reply to my complaint to ASB unit dated the 16/10/2015. Louise Brown your last email was dated the 03/11/2015 where you said you would send a response outlining action to date, this has not happened and I fill that my complaint is not being dealt with correctly. Therefore, I would like this to go to stage 2 complaints, as nothing is being done. Could you please make sure this is handed to the right department that deals with stage 2 complaints? And email me so I know this has been done.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

I have not had I reply not even a reply to say you got my email. I have also left voice messages on Louise Brown phone yet had no calls back. I did speak to Jackie Gubby and was told I should hear within 10 days about my complaint but have heard nothing. Also, I would like to take the time to say to Jackie Gubby that jobs are still outstanding on my son's flat.

Regards

Dear all,

He told me to take notes, told me to take down the time and date of our call.

I have had a very irate call from Simon Cordell. He says that he has been informed by his mother that a warrant has been granted to access his flat. He says the mother received a call from someone earlier today to inform her and she has told Simon.

Extremely unhappy, says he is going to come here with his solicitor - took down our address. Says he has always said he would see me (this is true).

Although refused me, the doc and AMHP access the other week.

Demanding I find out the nature of the warrant and what do I know about it. Asking to see me this afternoon. He wants a call back in half an hour.

He is due for a MHA assessment tomorrow at 10am.

Police are coming.

Retrospective Entry

Entry Sam Curtis, Forensic Social Worker

Outline report. Initial entry on 03.02.16. Updated on 09.02.16.

I carried out a Mental Health Act for Simon at around 10:40hrs on 03.02.16. Dr Al-Allaq (independent s 12 Doctor),

Dr Albazaz (independent s12 Doctor)

CJ and Nellie (HTT workers)

Amal (Community Mental Health Nurse based at Enfield Early Intervention Team) all attended. A s135(1) warrant was obtained but not executed as Simon gave access. A lock smith was present but their services were not required as Simon opened the door. The police were present but remained outside the property.

Mr Cordella's home was somewhat cluttered with a large printer by the door. However, it was clean and organised. He had food in the kitchen.

His mother and a female friend were present. Simon was expecting the assessment. He was appropriately groomed and dressed. He had put his dog in the garden. Simon expressed his unhappiness about the warrant being obtained. He said that if he had been sent an appointment letter, he would give professionals access.

He mentioned on going issues with the police and that he had a court case in February. His speech was somewhat rapid at the start of the interview but this appeared to be due to anxiety rather than thought disorder. His speech slowed as the interview went on. Simon did change the topic of conversation a number of times as there was particular information that he wanted to share with the team. He spoke a project to start a community internet site and showed those present a business plan that was on his computer. He showed us documents which he said were related to his court case. He pointed out a line in the document that said that all the suspects were white and said that this was part of his legal challenge to his Asbo.

|  | that at all times I acted in an uncivilized manner. The truth is in the whole time I was in police custody I did not get to see any police FME doctor, I also did not see my solicitors, who both, I continuously, asked to see. In the police station I got left in my cell sleeping on camera with no problems of concern thought the whole of my detention, and this was while being recorded in police cell number three. This meant that I also requested food to eat at three different times and the food got served with additional drinks, I asked for a blanket as I was cold and I got left with my shoelaces and belt on. I even remember I ask for toilet roll, to which this got given to me, in my whole stay I caused no concerns regarding my mental stability While at the police station all I wanted was Answers. Like, how did the police get involved in the start of everything? No official person would speak and say, what was going on throughout my whole illegal detention and for what reasons they continued to hold me, straight after being granted bail, even though my continual request of asking the police officers. Throughout my whole stay in detention all I wanted was to see my solicitor and get interviewed and released as I done nothing wrong. Just, after this as said above the police handed me a bail form at around 16:46 through my cell flap, when I got bailed with no interview, when given the ball form there was two doctors and a Mental health worker also standing outside the closed cell door, who said to myself that I was being held under section 2 of the Mental health act. Without no assessment, a key worker named Maggie Fuller was present and still no criminal interview had taken place also I did not get a Mental Health assessed, legally, I reminded the doctors while in my cell about my prior complaint against them Pacific members, who I got talking to and their darkness swallowed me up: In that moment of time I said aloud to the Doctor I know who you are I have you on CD from February coming into my home and I also have a complaint in against you and continued to state that I done nothing wrong in my whole detention and it was bios for them doctors to handle my case with an ongoing complaint in against them I |  |

|  | clearly remember their names to be Doctor: Albazaz AND Doctor: Amin alongside Sam and others such as Alan, on the 14th August 2016 outside the police cell I was being detained in Alan and Sam were not present but a woman who I understand to be Amp worker who has gotten named as Miss Maggie Fuller took their place. I got placed on a Section 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983 no matter of the stability of my Mental Health, any way and this got managed by the doctors who came into my house prior illegally, that I have on audio tape, shortly, after I got given my bail sheet through the cell flap and got completed without me being taken out of the cell. This got done to me, while being detained at the wood green police station Next, another independent police officer not involved in the past ongoing, came up to me, and told me that I would soon get transferred to St Ann's hospital with no other option in the choice, I got picked up early hours of the 16th August 2016 and taken against me even low I done nothing wrong. Done |  |

- 2014- had MHAA - found not to have major mental illness.
- 2015- 05-year ASBO for organising illegal raves- not allowed to enter industrial or disused premises between 10pm and 7 am.
- 2015- November - mother made referral via HUB- she reports gradual deterioration in mental health over the last year. Simon was angry when his father made contact with the HUB in 2014 and does not want it known she instigated the referral.

TODAY

- Simon consented to be seen and let us in.
- He was clean, well nourished, well kempt and dressed casually.
- He put the dog in the back garden.
- One bed council flat
- There was a massive heavy-duty metal door like that of a prison cell (over 7 feet tall) behind his own front door, which Simon said he's made and installed recently.
- There were tools lying about on the floor and he has worked in construction in the past.
- He didn't give us a reason for making the door.
- He hasn't gone out for months- mother does all shopping
- History from Mr Cordell
- Chaotic historian, jumping about topic to topic, but happy to talk especially about his grievances chiefly with the police and the woman upstairs.

PROGRESS NOTES

- Page 94 of 106

FROM PREVIOUS NOTES

- Tried to hang himself at the age of 16 when in a young offender's institution and needed to be resuscitated.
- He was moved to a high security hospital and kept in seclusion on a number of occasions. He says he was seen regularly by a psychiatrist called Dr Caplin from "the safe project" (probably CAMHS).
- He says there was a second occasion where he tried to hang himself when in a cell after he was sentenced Said attended NMUH A and E 2014 after drinking liquid nitrous oxide with intent to die Forensic history
- Long history police contact from juvenile, mostly connected with driving, theft-? in prison on remand in past Smokes 1-2 spliffs most days, no other drugs, alcohol or tobacco SH
- 1 bed council flat, no debts, ESA, food in fridge, flat cluttered but clean MSE

- Clean, open manner, engaged well, incongruently cheerful, very polite
- Appeared euthymic- did not appear particularly elated: idea of harming self "when name is eventually cleared" but currently has no thoughts of self-harm or harming anyone else
- Pressure of speech but able to repeatedly interrupt without irritability

THOUGHT DISORDERED

- Tangential, circumstantial, preoccupied
- Paranoid delusions relating mainly to police and woman upstairs: delusions of reference
- His comments about hearing having police talking about him on tapes may be elaboration of auditory hallucinations No evidence commands or passivity

INSIGHT: ARTICULATE

- does not think he has a mental health problem: Said he'd had all these problems for the last year, especially in the last few months but felt they were getting worse. He has withdrawn from all social contact except with his mother.
- Impression
- FEP, possibly with mood element history at least several months

STRENGTHS

- Significant part of personality intact at present, was willing to engage with us today Maternal support

RISKS

- isolation, self-neglect if mother withdraws support, potential risk harm to self but trigger factors not clear (past self-harm attempts as teenager appear to have related to court appearances)

He starts quite calm however soon descends into a conversation in that he feels persecuted and paranoid against the police, the govt, and his upstairs neighbour. He was tangential, thought disordered, grandiose and difficult to follow at times. Quoting parts of various acts and reading out letters. Asked me what are my objectives? Who visited, the names? Concerned that the police may be coming. Who referred me to you?I haven't seen my GP for ages. Says he has showed Goodie the true facts and he has official documents to say he has been set up by the police. Says he has been arrested 60 times; he has all the papers. His appeal is in 2/52. He went on talk about a relationship he had and 8/12 into that relationship the woman said she had an internal problem, the clinic said she had an external problem. Said the clinic was watching him. He went on to say that he attended a sexual health clinic on the 8.5.2015 and received a letter to say he had anti-bodies and he shouldn't have sex with anyone.Says that the neighbour eavesdrops saying he has HIV and Hep B. I'm really unclear about this, whether he has HIV or Hep B or this is part of his mental health problem. Says that he is building a website and charity and educating others. |  |

|  | Police setting him up. He spoke about his upstairs neighbour at length, says she is an alcoholic and has LD. Under a MH team. Says she stalks him and has written him letters. She bangs on the taps, he has digi recorded her. Neighbour can hear his friends in the flat and follows them upstairs and bangs on the taps. He has been recording her. 3 days ago, says that she flooded his flat, he undone the knot on the radiator. She is trying to destroy his life. Ita€™s been going on in total for 400 days. Neighbour is deliberately ruining his property. Says neighbour needs to be analysed as does her network. He could do a citizen arrest. Thanks,Amal Pomphrey (6) 22/01/2016 The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 22 Jan 2016 Last Amended by Details: 22 Jan 2016 Sandra Muschett Social Worker Page Numbers:82 + 83 Originator Details: 22 Jan 2016 13:33 Sandra Muschett Social Worker Originally Entered by Details: 22 Jan 2016 13:37 Sandra Muschett Last Amended by Details: 22 Jan 2016 13:37 Sandra Muschett Validated by Details: 22 Jan 2016 13:37 Sandra Muschett Significant: No Added to Risk History: No Contains Third Party Info: No Conceal From Client: Not Concealed 83 ENFIELD AMHP MENTAL HEALTH ACT SERVICE Dr Al-Allaq, Amal (EIS) and I visited Simona€™s home for the purpose of undertaking a Mental Health Act assessment. He presented as manic with pressure of speech but when Dr Al- Allaq questioned him about this, he started talking slower stating that we were busy people so he was talking fast to get all the information out. He said that the police have arrested him over 1,000 times and that he is on a 10-year curfew to not leave the house after 8.00pm. He has insulted CCTV cameras outside the house and stated that he is recording our visit and will make a formal complaint and take it higher. He said that he has lost thousands of pounds in earnings due to police harassment. He said that the police have contacted the DVLA who are monitoring him. He said he has files and files of information which proves that he is being harassed and monitored by the police. He gave an account of going to court about this and has documents that prove he is being harassed and targeted by the police. He said that he has been to see a psychologist in the East Community Support and Recovery Team and that the psychiatrist said he is not mentally well. Simon refused to allow the assessing team into his property stating that we have to send him an appointment letter. He said he is recording us on CCTV and will have evidence of our conversation. Simon presented as paranoid, suspicious, and grandiose with flights of ideas, clear evidence that he is suffering from a mental disorder. Plan Obtain a Section 135 (1) warrant to enable us to gain police assistance to enter his property for the purpose of carrying out a Mental Health Act assessment (1983). (7) 02/02/2016 Debra had Come Back and started again Since 00//002016! (8) 02/02/2016 Stain Came Back! (9) 02/02/2016 | 7) On the //20 it is said that 8) On the //20 it is said that |

Phone conversation with Simon. I explained I had been asked to call him. Simon expressed unhappiness about the MHA last week and said talked about the s135warrant being obtained under false pretences and that mental health staff had confessed' that he had agreed to allow access to his property, therefore a warrant was not required. I asked Simon about the word confess, as this suggested to me a response to a criminal charge or accusation. Simon gave examples of confessions but it was not possible to explore this further as I could not re-engage Simon on this subject. Simon spoke at length about plans for the future, that he is working hard to help other people. I talked about sometimes

|  | we all need help, but Simon said he has a hundred thousand friends and hundreds of family members. I said these sounded like very large numbers and asked how he made so many friends, Simon said through being nice and helpful. I asked Simon about the records he keeps including recordings of conversations, he said it is like keeping minutes for a meeting. I asked several times if he understood how this could seem to others like the behaviours of someone with paranoid beliefs to but he did not address this. Simon said that he had been told he is not mentally ill and that staff had cheered this at the MHA review. I tried to explain that mental ill health and health are a continuum and there is not a binary system of sickness vs. health. I tried to explain what I have been told and read that Simon did not meet thresholds for detention un MHA in terms of severity of mental illness or risk of harm to others or himself, but he did not acknowledge this. I told Simon that I thought he hadn't grasped what I was saying but regarding the MHA but he did not continue the conversation with this topic. I also said that our conversation has seemed tangential at times, Simon changing from one subject to another. He said that was to make the conversation varied. I asked if he needed any help, he said he needed space to work, but did not want weekly assessments from mental health services, and that he'd previously agreed to the appointment today but after thinking about it, decided he didn't want to attend. Simon agreed that I can call him from time to time, but did not want to meet with me when I offered. He said he would call me if he feels he needs help in future. I asked Simon to consider having a low threshold for asking for help and not to let things get very bad if he feels he would like to contact me. Although the content of Simon's speech was not bizarre, it did appear that he expressed paranoid thoughts at times, in addition to his behaviour of recording and monitoring of others. Simon made a clear view that he did not wish to have continued engagement with mental health services and it is my view that he has the capacity to make this decision. I |  |

Thanks for taking the time to do this and for sharing your thoughts and views with me. From our conversations and one that you had previously with my Manager Simon Clark, I understand that you do not wish to remain in contact with us. It is our view, however, that you may be experiencing symptoms of some form of mental illness. We call it psychosis, but this does not appear to be affecting your capacity to make certain decisions, including whether you wish to have contact with the Enfield Early Intervention Team or not. We are however, happy to continue to offer you support but understand that at present this is not something you would like to do. You know what my Team stands for and you know me, so if in the future you think either the Team or I will be of any help to you, please do not hesitate to call. If they had the same choices again, would they do the same again?

I got wrongfully, detained by metropolitan police and sectioned under the mental health act 1963, section 2 of that act, the following day, and this got achieved due to Carron Dunno's lies. Below is a copy of some events that took place due to Carron. The date turned into the

15th of August 2016

and the question to me, was; why did I get further detained?

No one would tell me why. I got bailed at around 16:30 hours and this was on the

15th August 2016

but I found myself not being released even low I done nothing wrong. All I did was sleep in the police cell, that I got placed and detained in, I can remember that at all times I acted in an uncivilized manner. The truth is in the whole time I was in police custody I did not get to see any police FME doctor, I also did not see my solicitors, who both, I continuously, asked to see.
In the police station I got left in my cell sleeping on camera with no problems of concern thought the whole of my detention, and this was while being recorded in police cell number three. This meant that I also requested food to eat at three different times and the food got served with additional drinks, I asked for a blanket as I was cold and I got left with my shoelaces and belt on. I even remember I ask for toilet roll, to which this got given to me, in my whole stay I caused no concerns regarding my mental stability While at the police station all I wanted was Answers. Like, how did the police get involved in the start of everything?

No official person would speak and say, what was going on throughout my whole illegal detention and for what reasons they continued to hold me, straight after being granted bail, even though my continual request of asking the police officers. Throughout my whole stay in detention all I wanted was to see my solicitor and get interviewed and released as I done nothing wrong. Just, after this as said above the police handed me a bail form at around 16:46 through my cell flap, when I got bailed with no interview, when given the bail form there was two doctors and a Mental health worker also standing outside the closed cell door, who said to myself that I was being held under section 2 of the Mental health act. Without no assessment, a key worker named Maggie Fuller was present and still no criminal interview had taken place also I did not get a Mental Health assessed, legally, I reminded the doctors while in my cell about my prior complaint against them Pacific members, who I got talking to and their darkness swallowed me up: In that moment of time I said aloud to the Doctor I know who you are I have you on CD from February coming into my home and I also have a complaint in against you and continued to state that I done nothing wrong in my whole detention and it was bios for them doctors to handle my case with an ongoing complaint in against them I clearly remember their names to be Doctor: Albazaz AND Doctor: Amin alongside Sam and others such as Alan, on the outside the police cell I was being detained in Alan and Sam were not present but a woman who I understand to be Amp worker who has gotten named as Miss Maggie Fuller took their place. I got placed on a Section 2 of the Mental Health Act 1983 no matter of the stability of my Mental Health, any way and this got managed by the doctors who came into my house prior illegally, that I have on audio tape, shortly, after I got given my bail sheet through the cell flap and got completed without me being taken out of the cell. This got done to me, while being detained at the wood

He called to say that his solicitor has talked to him about a psychiatric assessment re: fitness to appear in court. Simon said he has had numerous assessments, but I pointed out this one would be specific and current regarding fitness to appear rather than some of the other assessments such as for section or general mental health. He explained that he is currently preparing for a court hearing but when this is completed, he would like some help to look at training/courses to support his career ambitions. Simon said he will call in the next few weeks once the court hearing is over and we can arrange to meet to talk about what support he would like. Although Simon spoke quite quickly on a number of subjects, with a slight preoccupation of past assessments and contact with the police, the content did not appear odd or delusional (22) 21/09/2016, Wednesday George Quinton Moved in! George Quinton got involved in assaulting me with his friends! (23) 21/09/2016, Wednesday The banging Started! Flat – 113 – George Quinton moved in! Stain Curtis (responsible) Mathiyalagan (Responsible) All Morning: -- Mid-Day: -- In the Evening and of the Night! The Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes employees aloud the original occupants of 117 and 111 Burncroft Avenue inclusive of the new tent in 113 | 22) On the //20 it is said that 23) On the //20 it is said that |

I called Simon as I received an email message from an administrator that he called and asked me to call him back. I called the number given: 02082457454 but was told he was not there and was given the following number to call: 07729 243 063. There was no reply and no personal voicemail message so I did not leave a message

Same discussed and remembers that they had already spoken with Iain Williams. Difficult to follow his conversation and to interrupt. Says he has been on a 10pm curfew for the past 9 years afraid to leave his house as he feels the police have set this up. Mistaken identity, reports he has read all give descriptions of different people, 4 in total, not him. All happened because of a party on Lincoln Road, he was not involved but happened because people were disturbed by the noise. Because of the curfew says he lost his relationship with his first love has or had a second girlfriend. Said he has been dialling 999 they get 15,000 calls per day; their time is going backwards on their records and do not have a RUN number. Says he does not have a mental illness no previous contact with services has been good. Sectioned in the past human rights broken, people coming into his house, says he was giving them access. Has tape recordings and LinkedIn, Facebook pages of all involved, has set up a web page. Discussed that they reason I had contacted him was to offer an appointment next Tuesday 11am, asking why we are coming, offered to see at Lucas House instead he declined this says prefers to be seen at home. Dear Dr Scurlock,

Thank you for your email. I am in the process of instructing a Consultant psychiatrist but the consultant I have contacted requires details of his medical history. Can you please arrange for someone in your team to provide this information to me urgently or direct me to the correct department?

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Kind regards,

[SEC=OFFICIAL]

We offered him an assessment to establish if he had a current mental health problem that we could offer treatment for

Our offer to assess him was not connected to any legal matters. It might assist the Court to have an assessment from a specialist Forensic Psychiatrist who are experts in mentally disordered offenders and risk assessment and management

Best wishes HS

Dear Dr Scurlock,

I am the solicitor in conduct of a claim for an injunction against Mr Cordell and write in response to your email to Kaunchita Maudhub on 15th June 2018. I would need further clarification on the content of your email and hope you will be able to respond as soon as possible as a hearing has been listed on Tuesday 26th June 2018.

1. You explained that you have been trying to see Mr Cordell but he has not attended the assessments offered to him although he has phoned the assessment team.

Can you please confirm the dates of the assessments offered to Mr Cordell and details of the conversations that were held?

2. You mentioned that he had contact with various mental health teams and had one brief admission on the Haringey assessment ward in August 2016.

Will it be possible to have details of the contacts held and the assessment that was carried out? If possible, we would like a detailed history of the contacts/ admissions so we could provide the information to the Court.

3. You suggested that a report is to be commissioned from a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist from North London Forensic Service as this is not something you would provide.

Can you please confirm what would the report achieve? If this is not a service you could provide, why did your department contact Mr Cordell and offered him an assessment in the first place?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Ludmilla Iyavoo

Dear Dr Scurlock,

Thank you. Please note that Mr Cordell is now represented by a solicitor, Trishna Kerai of Stuart Miller Solicitors. Her email address is: Trishna@stuartmillersolicitors.co.uk. She can be contacted in relation to Mr Cordell's consent to the requested disclosure. Please note that the consultant psychiatrists that we have approached have all requested for his medical history including his mental health. I therefore hope that the information could be provided urgently following consent. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries.

Dear Dr Scurlock,
I am the solicitor in conduct of a claim for an injunction against Mr Cordell and write in response to your email to Kaunchita Maudhub on 15th June 2018. I would need further clarification on the content of your email and hope you will be able to respond as soon as possible as a hearing has been listed on Tuesday 26th June 2018.

1. You explained that you have been trying to see Mr Cordell but he has not attended the assessments offered to him although he has phoned the assessment team.

Can you please confirm the dates of the assessments offered to Mr Cordell and details of the conversations that were held?

2. You mentioned that he had contact with various mental health teams and had one brief admission on the Haringey assessment ward in August 2016.

Will it be possible to have details of the contacts held and the assessment that was carried out. If possible we would like a detailed history of the contacts/ admissions so we could provide the information to the Court.

3. You suggested that a report is to be commissioned from a Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist from North London Forensic Service as this is not something you would provide.

Can you please confirm what would the report achieve? If this is not a service you could provide, why did you department contact Mr Cordell and offered him an assessment in the first place?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Ludmilla Iyavoo

Ms lyavoo had approached Dr Scurlock about this and corresponded with me. I informed Ms lyavoo that BEH mental health services were unable to offer this type of assessment and report as we are commissioned are not commissioned for this. I advised her that an independent medical assessment would be needed. At her request I sent a summary of the recent progress note entries relating to contact between mental health services and MR Cordell an in relation to his case. |  | how much this was a lie. I was angry with Ozzie because he caused a lot of unneeded stress on my relationship, for so many years prior and he kept breaking promises to fix the problem. So, when the police arrested me in the burglary case and I got put on the bail conditions I had gone to Ozzie house and spoke to him, I took a seat in his flat with him, so to sort out the problems in mine and my partner's life's, I did this so to address Ozzie with the issue. I explained myself in full and how this was having an effect on us. After coming home, I had been upset due to what had got explained to me, by my new partner at that point in time. What I was to find out later was that Ozzie had been listening through the walls of my upset. I still to date cannot believe what he has done to me, and my loved ones, he had made an emergency 999 phone call to the police about overhearing me in my own home and then the police called the doctors to arrive for the first time in my life and this was not be the only time the doctors would visit me. Allegations state that I became paranoid about my mother to whom I and my mother disputed, the home treatment team attended my home address on this date and made a call to my mother. When the home treatment team turned up to my flat the police was already there, the Home treatment team phoned and spoke to my mother asking her, if she understood why the police was there, which she replied to them no, she also explained to the Home treatment team that the police kept coming into my flat for no reason. The Home treatment team then talked to the police and left my mother on hold. My mother heard what got said by the police to the Home treatment team as too why they were at my address again. The police said they got a phone call: stating that I was shouting, they gave the Home treatment team 3 different door numbers to my entrance door, which were all wrong. Not one person admitted that they understood who made the 999 calls to the police. The Home treatment team told the police to leave. On this day I was fine until the police turned up at my flat once again. I was not shouting or upset, so do not really, believe someone called the police, |  |

|  | worried about me or if they did, they were setting me up. Due to how the police are with me, I got upset and would not open the door, so I sometimes shout to the police in these situations, through the door, as I feel safer, the police do not leave me alone, so why would I open my door when I am on my own, I always feel safer waiting until someone I have contacted gets to my flat, so they can see what is going on. Home treatment team told my mother I seemed to upset for them to talk to and she told them it was no wonder the police are going to his flat all the time when he has done nothing wrong. (5) 19/11/2014, The banging Started! Debbie Andrews (responsible) Stain Curtis (responsible) Mathiyalagan (Responsible) Time: All-Day and All-Night whenever they knew that I was indoors! I get ashamed to be human because of the way the Enfield Homes and the Enfield council and Metropolitans police are treating me and let some members of my neighbours treat me! The Enfield Council and the Enfield Homes employees aloud the occupiers of 117 and 113 and 111 Continued to victimizing me by Stain knocked on my letter box and woke me up again this morning, when he is leaving his premises playing with my letter box! 117 Burncroft Avenue and 113 keep on continually, reiterating to flushing the toilet when I am in the bathtub! 113 and 117 woke me up by assailing me intentionally by stamping and dropping articles above my head in my front room and all other living rooms! Slamming the main, communal ingress door closed! Victimizing me with intent of using the same repeated items of the building fixtures such as slamming on and off the water taps to have tortures effects on me within my rented home is unfair living circumstances! | 5) On the //20 it is said that |

- He has agreed that he would write to his insurance company to correct the wrong information they have on him.
- He has also agreed to deal with his parking penalties. He is also trying to fix his website.
- Today he was very calm and appropriate in his manner allowing the assessing team to descend on him without warning and ask him a lot of personal questions.
- Mr Cordell seemed to have a better understanding of his current situation and attributed it to his involvement with the police and grandmother's loss.
- He may not benefit from a hospital admission or input from the ECRHT at this stage, his mother had spent most of Sunday with him and he had seemed much calmer now.

referral centre. She reported that Mr Cordell was not eating, not sleeping and that he was experiencing persecutory ideas, thinking that people are laughing at him and talking about him. His mother said that Mr Cordell believed that the government were advertising information about him, and that the television was talking about him or to him. She stated that Mr Cordell was smoking significant amounts of cannabis, and he was not taking the anti-depressant medication that as prescribed in March 2014.

hhh) On 01.12.15 Mr Cordell's mother again contacted the Enfield assessment mental health team and reported that Mr Cordell had locked himself in his room and believed that his television was talking to him. She reported that Mr Cordell was eating but not as regularly as previously. She said that Mr Cordell sometimes believes that his mother's body language is sending him messages. She reported that he had not had any recent contact with his friends but does go out on a scramble bike and had injured his hands.

iii) On 01.12.15 a worker from the Enfield assessment team phoned Dawn Allan, estate officer, who reported that he had threatened to strangle his neighbour who had been moved as a result. Mr Cordell had accused his neighbour of deliberately causing noise disturbance.

jjj) On 01.12.15 an assessment team worker phoned Mr Cordell and reported that she had received text messages from Mr Cordell saying that he will commit suicide once a court case is finished.

kkk) Mr Cordell was assessed by Dr Cushion, psychiatrist based at the Home Treatment Team, on 08.12.15. There were no concerns identified concerning his personal care. He said that he hasn't gone out for months and his mother does all the shopping. He spoke about a conspiracy to destroy his good name and send subliminal messages to him via the television.

lll) Mr Cordell said that the woman in the flat upstairs had been "stalking him" he elaborated and said that she stamps on the floor when she hears him moving around his flat or taking off his clothes. He spoke about his plans to start a global business for children. He said that he had about having thoughts of killing himself when he eventually clears his name. He did not accept that he had a mental disorder during the assessment.

mmm) On 10.12.15 Mr Cordell was contacted by Goodie Adama, early intervention team worker. He said that he was not interested in meeting with mental health services. He spoke about being victimised by the police.

nnn) and there was no evidence thought disorder or psychotic symptoms on the telephone. He said that he didn't feel safe leaving the flat which appeared to be due concerns about police harassment. He said that complaint that he had made about a police officer had led to that police officer being arrested.

ooo) On 08.01.16 Goodie received a telephone call from Mr Cordell's mother. She said that she was concerned about Mr Cordell and said that she had been concerned about him for over a year but would not specify what her concerns were. Goodie phoned Mr Cordell the same day he spoke about conspiracies involving the police and appeared thought disordered and thought about conspiracies.

ppp) On 13.01.16 Goodie spoke to Mr Cordell to see if he would agree to a home visit that day but said that it was not a convenient time but he was prepared to have a visit at another time.

qqq) On 15.01.16 he agreed to have home visit during a further telephone conversation with Goodie.

rrr) On 19.01.16 he was visited at home by Goodie and Sandra Muschett, senior practitioner. He was noted to be paranoid, grandiose and not eating well. He denied any suicidal thoughts.

sss) On 21.01.16 Sandra Muschet had a telephone conversation with Mr Cordell's mother. She said that Mr Cordell had been harassed by the police for a number of years and that his preoccupation with the police was based on reality. She reported that Mr Cordell is not eating, not going out and has poor self-care.

ttt) On 22.01.16 an attempt was made to assess Mr Cordell under the Mental Health Act. Mr Cordell was angry that he had an unannounced assessment. He spoke about feeling targeted by the police. He spoke about being arrested numerous times and had a curfew from the police. He refused to give the assessing team access. He initially spoke rapidly but more slowly as the meeting went on.

uuu) On 22.01.16 Mr Cordell phoned Amal Pomphrey, early intervention worker covering for Goodie, and said that he had felt threatened by the Mental Health Act assessment that had taken place. He spoke required as Mr Cordell opened the door. The police were present but remained outside the property.

pppp) Mr Cordell's home was somewhat cluttered with a large printer by the door. However, it was clean and organised. He had food in the kitchen.

qqqq) His mother and a female friend were present. Mr Cordell was expecting the assessment to take place. He was appropriately groomed and dressed. He had put his dog in the garden. Mr Cordell expressed his unhappiness about the warrant being obtained.

rrrr) He said that if he had been sent an appointment letter, he would give professionals access.

ssss) He mentioned on going issues with the police and that he had a court case in February.

tttt) His speech was somewhat rapid at the start of the interview, but this appeared to be due to anxiety rather than thought disorder. His speech slowed as the interview went on.

uuuu) Mr Cordell did change topic of conversation a number of times as there was particular information that he wanted to share with the team.

vvvv) He spoke a project to start a community internet site and showed those present a business plan that was on his computer.

wwwv) He showed us documents which he said were related to his court case.

xxxx) He pointed out a line in the document that said that all the suspects were white and said that this was part of his legal challenge to his Anti-Social Behaviour Order.

yyyy) He denied any symptoms of mental illness when asked about a variety of psychotic symptoms. He denied suicidal ideation. He spoke about difficulties he had with his upstairs neighbour relating to noise disturbance. He showed us some letters which said that his neighbour had written to him. He said that his neighbour has an alcohol problem and a learning disability.

zzzz) There was no evidence of distraction, confusion or that he was responding to internal stimuli.

aaaaa) It is my view that Mr Cordell's detention was not in the interests of his health as I did not identify evidence of mental disorder during the visit. I did not believe that Mr Cordell's detention was necessary for his safety, Mr Cordell denied experiencing any suicidal ideation and could I not identify other risks to safety apart from possible substance misuse which could not be used as the basis of detention without clear evidence of a mental disorder associated with the substance misuse issues. I also did not think that the threshold for detention on the basis of safety was met, he was having conflict with neighbour this conflict did not appear to be driven by any mental disorder.

- Patient's name: Simon Cordell
- Date of assessment: 03.02.16

- Consultation With Nearest Relative And Process Of Identifying The Nearest Relative

bbbbbb) I identified Mr Cordell's Nearest Relative as his mother Lorraine Cordell. Mr Cordell lives alone and is single. As far as I could ascertain he did not have any children and was not in relationship. His father was the older of his parents but when I phoned his mother cccccc) on 03.02.16 she informed me that he was in regular contact with Mr Cordell and did his shopping for him. I therefore formed the view that she provided care and was the Nearest Relative.

dddddd) I phoned Lorraine at around 09:30hrs on 09.02.16 and she advised that in her view use of a warrant and the Mental Health Act assessment were unnecessary as he would give professionals access if he had received an appointment letter. She said that he had a court case in February but would not elaborate on this. Lorraine said that she thought that the involvement of mental health services was unnecessary as Mr Cordell was not in her view experiencing any mental health difficulties and had not experienced any mental health difficulties for a number of months.

eeeeee) I was surprised that Lorraine stated that she did not think that Mr Cordell as the recent referral to mental health services had been triggered by a referral that she had made.

- Consultation with Assessing Doctors

ffffff) Both assessing Doctors declined to make medical recommendations and were in agreement that there was no clear evidence of any mental disorder during the assessing.

- Views of others consulted ggggg) Prior to the assessment the police present advised me that were aware of conflict between Mr Cordell and his neighbour. They advised that the soundproofing between the two properties was poor. The police officers advised me that they were aware that on one occasion Mr Cordell had threatened to strangle his neighbour.

- Mental Capacity Act 2005

hhhhh) No Capacity Act issues identified during the assessment.

iiiiii) Reason for decision to make the application (including choice of Section) jjjjj) Given that Mr Cordell's diagnosis and treatment plan were not clear at the time of the assessment the assessment was for possible detention on section 2. It was my view that Mr Cordell did not meet the statutory criteria for detention. It was not clear that he was suffering from a mental disorder of a nature because at the time of the assessment it was unclear if whether or not he had a mental disorder. He did not meet the criteria for degree as there was no clear evidence that he was experiencing symptoms of mental disorder.

- Patient's name Simon Cordell

- Date of assessment: 03.02.16

kkkkk) If not admitted to hospital, outline immediate plans for alternative to admission and how those plans will be co-ordinated lllll) Early Intervention Team to offer Mr Cordell an appointment with a psychiatrist in their team for a psychiatric assessment.

- If admitted arrangements for:
- Dependants {including children): None
- Securing property: Not applicable.
- Pets: Mr Cordell has a dog, but no arrangements needed to be made as for looking after the dog as Mr Cordell was not detained.
- Any other practical matter (including informal ion/advice about children visiting the ward): None
- Comment on any avoidable delays in the assessment and admission process: None.

Mr Cordell's mother again contacted the Enfield assessment mental health team and reported that Mr Cordell had locked himself in his room and believed that his television was talking to him. She reported that Mr Cordell was eating but not as regularly as previously. She said that Mr Cordell sometimes believes that his mother's body language is sending him messages. She reported that he had not had any recent contact with his friends but does go out on a scramble bike and had injured his hands.

showed us documents which he said were related to his court case. He pointed out a line in the document that said that all the suspects were white and said that this was part of his legal challenge to his Anti-Social Behaviour Order.

- He denied any symptoms of mental illness when asked about a variety of psychotic symptoms. He denied suicidal ideation. He spoke about difficulties he had with his upstairs neighbour relating to noise disturbance. He showed us some letters which said that his neighbour had written to him. He said that his neighbour has an alcohol problem and a learning disability.
- There was no evidence of distraction, confusion or that he was responding to internal stimuli.

- Consultation with Nearest Relative and process of identifying the Nearest Relative
- I identified Mr Cordell's Nearest Relative as his mother Lorraine Cordell. Mr Cordell lives alone and is single. As far as I could ascertain he did not have any children and was not in relationship. His father was the older of his parents but when I phoned his mother
- on 03.02.16 she informed me that he was in regular contact with Mr Cordell and did his shopping for him. I therefore formed the view that she provided care and was the Nearest Relative.
- I phoned Lorraine at around 09:30hrs
- on 09.02.16 and she advised that in her view use of a warrant and the Mental Health Act assessment were unnecessary as he would give professionals access if he had received an appointment letter. She said that he had a court case in February but would not elaborate on this. Lorraine said that she thought that the involvement of mental health services was unnecessary as Mr Cordell was not in her view experiencing any mental health difficulties and had not experienced any mental health difficulties for a number of months.

- I was surprised that Lorraine stated that she did not think that Mr Cordell as the recent referral to mental health services had been triggered by a referral that she had made.
- Consultation with Assessing Doctors
- Both assessing Doctors declined to make medical recommendations and were in agreement that there was no clear evidence of any mental disorder during the assessing.
- 7 Views of others consulted
- Prior to the assessment the police present advised me that were aware of conflict between Mr Cordell and his neighbour. They advised that the soundproofing between the two properties was poor. The police officers advised me that they were aware that on one occasion Mr Cordell had threatened to strangle his neighbour.

Mental Capacity Act 2005

a) No Capacity Act issues identified during the assessment.

- Reason for decision to make the application (including choice of Section)
- 9. Given that Mr Cordell's diagnosis and treatment plan were not clear at the time of the assessment the assessment was for possible detention on section 2. It was my view that Mr Cordell did not meet the statutory criteria for detention. It was not clear that he was suffering from a mental disorder of a nature because at the time of the assessment it was unclear if whether or not he had a mental disorder. He did not meet the criteria for degree as there was no clear evidence that he was experiencing symptoms of mental disorder.

Patient's name Simon Cordell

Date of assessment: 03.02.16

- If not admitted to hospital, outline immediate plans for alternative to admission and how those plans will be co-ordinated
- Early Intervention Team to offer Mr Cordell an appointment with a psychiatrist in their team for a psychiatric assessment.

Dear all,

He told me to take notes, told me to take down the time and date of our call.

I have had a very irate call from Simon Cordell. He says that he has been informed by his mother that a warrant has been granted to access his flat. He says the mother received a call from someone earlier today to inform her and she has told Simon.

Extremely unhappy, says he is going to come here with his solicitor - took down our address. Says he has always said he would see me (this is true).

Although refused me, the doc and AMHP access the other week.

26) On the

|  | Demanding I find out the nature of the warrant and what do I know about it. Asking to see me this afternoon. He wants a call back in half an hour. He is due for a MHA assessment tomorrow at 10am. Police are coming. The mother has clearly disclosed details of the assessment tomorrow to Simon. We are going to walk into a very hostile situation. I believe he may have CCTV cameras outside his flat facing the street as he mentioned to me previously that he saw someone sitting in their car (although this could be part of his paranoia). He does have CCTV in the entrance hallway. Could the police/assessing team please be warned. Maybe we need to meet around the corner rather than park outside his flat. Thanks,Amal Pomphrey (27) 03/02/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 1! Notes From the: 09/02.2016. Date of initial referral: 21/01.2016. Date of assessment: 03/02/2016: -- Place of assessment: Patient's Home (28) 08/02/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 08 Feb 2016 Last Amended by Details: 08 Feb 2016 Amal Pomphrey Nursing Page Numbers: 71 Originator Details: 08 Feb 2016 12:49 Amal Pomphrey Nursing Originally Entered by Details: 08 Feb 2016 12:49 Amal Pomphrey Last Amended by Details: 08 Feb 2016 12:49 Amal Pomphrey Validated by Details: 08 Feb 2016 12:49 Amal Pomphrey Significant: No Added to Risk History: No Contains Third Party Info: No Conceal | 27) On the //20 it is said that 28) On the //20 it is said that |

Phone conversation with Simon. I explained I had been asked to call him. Simon expressed unhappiness about the MHA last week and said talked about the s135warrant being obtained under false pretences and that mental health staff had confessed' that he had agreed to allow access to his property, therefore a warrant was not required. I asked Simon about the word confess, as this suggested to me a response to a criminal charge or accusation. Simon gave examples of confessions but it was not possible to explore this further as I could not re-engage Simon on this subject. Simon spoke at length about plans for the future, that he is working hard to help other people. I talked about sometimes we all need help, but Simon said he has a hundred thousand friends and hundreds of family members. I said these sounded like very large numbers and asked how he made so many friends, Simon said through being nice and helpful.

I asked Simon about the records he keeps including recordings of conversations, he said it is like keeping minutes for a meeting. I asked several times if he understood how this could seem to others like the behaviours of someone with paranoid beliefs to but he did not address this.

Simon said that he had been told he is not mentally ill and that staff had cheered this at the MHA review. I tried to explain that mental ill health and health are a continuum and there is not a binary system of sickness vs. health. I tried to explain what I have been told and read that Simon did not meet thresholds for detention un MHA in terms of severity of mental illness or risk of harm to others or himself, but he did not acknowledge this. I told Simon that I thought he hadn't grasped what I was saying but regarding the MHA but he did not continue the conversation with this topic. I also said that our conversation has seemed tangential at times, Simon changing from one subject to another. He said that was to make the conversation varied.

I asked if he needed any help, he said he needed space to work, but did not want weekly assessments

|  | from mental health services, and that he'd previously agreed to the appointment today but after thinking about it, decided he didn't want to attend. Simon agreed that I can call him from time to time, but did not want to meet with me when I offered. He said he would call me if he feels he needs help in future. I asked Simon to consider having a low threshold for asking for help and not to let things get very bad if he feels he would like to contact me. Although the content of Simon's speech was not bizarre, it did appear that he expressed paranoid thoughts at times, in addition to his behaviour of recording and monitoring of others. Simon made a clear view that he did not wish to have continued engagement with mental health services and it is my view that he has the capacity to make this decision. I will discuss the case with the clinical team and other staff/managers as appropriate regarding future action from mental health services and the EIP team in particular (32) 10/02/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 10 Feb 2016 Last Amended by Details: 11 Feb 2016 Mukesh Kripalani Medical Page Numbers: 71 Originator Details: 10 Feb 2016 14:31 Mukesh Kripalani Medical Originally Entered by Details: 10 Feb 2016 14:35 Mukesh Kripalani Last Amended by Details: 11 Feb 2016 16:07 Mukesh Kripalani Validated by Details: 11 Feb 2016 16:07 Mukesh Kripalani Significant: Yes, Added to Risk History: No Contains Third Party Info: No Conceal From Client: Yes Patient cancelled the appointment today. The latest AMHP report states in point 4 that there was no evidence of mental disorder during the assessment. | 32) On the //20 it is said that |

Simon Clark (team manager) will make contact and if the client is unwilling to see services and given the AMHP report and his mother able to request support for the client when needed, a decision for discharge could be considered following the phone call, if client has capacity to refuse intervention from services.

Client seems unlikely to engage unless under the auspices of the Mental Health act or under the criminal justice

I had been at my home on this day alone and did not intend for visiting guest to arrive, but this happened, my friends turned up to say hello to me. When at home in my flat, two friends came around to visit me they also brought two other friends with them that I did not know and their newborn baby. More than happy to see them, we relaxed and catch up on what had been going on and laughing at old good past times that we had together. When after some time I turned on some music to show my male friend, my sound system, as it is something that we have both enjoyed many times before together and to top things off he is a fantastic music producer /DJ and therefore creates | 2) On the//20 it issaid that | his own music. Soon after we had turned the sound system on, my friend's partner asked us to turn the music down because of the baby being present. I would say that this was no longer than five minutes after us both turning it on and this is what we did, the music never got left on long or loud during their visit. To be honest, I felt silly for having to get reminded that there was a newborn child in my home. After my friends had stayed at mine for a couple of hours, they decided that it would be best to make their travels back to their own home as it quickly turned into night. As my visitors were leaving, I asked my friend the new baby's father / music producer to leave a music audio CD, to which he did after a lot of my persuasion towards him, he got reluctant to share with me, as his CDS are one of his pride and joys out of life, after my friends left I put the CD on and played the whole thing what was about 20 songs at 4 minutes each tune played. I then waited for the amps to cool down, which took around 10 minutes. This is when on the

At around 800 hours the police arrived at my house. The police knocked on the door and requested to 'speak' too me; I noticed that there were around 15 different police officers outside of my front door banging at me to get in. When I noticed the knock on my front door by police claiming to want to speak to me, I got worried and called my mother to attend my flat as towards of the on goings I done this for the concerns I have about police harassment and abuse of power while abuse of position, as at present; I have ongoing complaints of corruption in the process with the relevant governing bodies. I refused to speak with them that is to say with my front door opened, as by that time I lost a lot of trust for them, I done nothing wrong in any sense, nor should there being any reason for them to want to arrest me, so I had no obligation to speak with them police officers, without a solicitor being present. The officers were outside of my door banging for some time trying to force entry and I continued to tell them I did not want to speak with them and for the officer's present at my home address to contact my solicitor. For my

|  | safety, I prior installed CCTV outside of my property which captured the police behaviour while they were present in my communal corridor space. I explained to the officers that I was not happy with the way I was being treated by them; after doing this I got left still intimidated by them. In noticing what the police officers were treating me like I continued to explain that their actions were being recorded by my CCTV. At that moment in time the police officer knew that how they continually, knocking on my door while laughing was wrong and too me, it mimicked what I complained about to the official governing members about prior. The acting police officer damaged my camera while I continued to watch. I understand that she has done this to protect herself against their prior wrongful actions, they intentionally damaged the CCTV system, so that my cameras turned off and can never get repaired again. Get this done by the police officers so for them to take away the security I protected myself with as I do not have an intercom communication system in place and the code to the main entrance door has not gotten changed in 11 years of me being present at Burncroft Avenue. My CCTV equipment being damaged got caused wrongfully, and without my consent and left the equipment so that it could no longer record anymore and must get protected under the DPA 1998 Act, and Criminal Damage Act 1998. I have the CCTV footage that will evidence this day and I have confirmed I will forward this on to my solicitors. Eventually, I came out of my property and got wrongfully arrested. In summary for the truth of the reason I got arrested, I found out much, much later in the following months to come and I now understand that this is because Carron Dunno decided to lie to the police for her own self gain so that she could infringe my human rights and have an effect on my way of life. Carron made a false statement with criminal allegations, so I would illegally receive a term of time in custody or forced into mental care to which both occurrences did in fact happen. Here the police have now also agreed with an NFA and therefore found no truth in |  |

|  | in interview room. I have read the s.2 med recs by Dr. Albazaz and Dr. Amin, and recent history on Rio. I spoke with amhp Maggie Garrod, and I have also spoken with nearest relative mother Lorraine Cordell. she stated that she is Simons only real social support and remains very protective of their relationship. In all circumstances of the case I think that detention in under s.2 is the only viable way to ensure that Simon receives appropriate assessment for his mental health, and that an appropriate approach might be developed to assisting him. Simon was adamant that he is not mentally unwell, and not in need of any mental health assistance, he stated that he feels that detention and admission to hospital is truly detrimental to his future, and would not entertain the notion that he might require mental health assistance. I informed mother of outcome of mha asmt and her rights as nearest relative. s.2 detention documents and amhp report handed to pss ambulance staff at 04.00 this morning, and they agreed to transport Simon to Haringey ward. Simon has been bailed by police and is in possession of the bail sheet. |  | Doctor prior to this incident and it makes the Doctor Bios and Prejudice towards any case relating to myself and that this should not get allowed to happen, he knew, that I was well of mind, but this got noted by him, with no change in his decision. To get assessed under the mental health act I would have needed to get spoken to by two different doctors present at the same time this must also be in the substance of an interview with an AMP worker present “as to mean out of my cell”, this never got done, I never got taken out of the police cell and spoken to by two doctors or even asked if I would speak to the doctors and an AMP worker. The police and doctors at this stage illegally kept me in detention for over 20 hours in a police cell waiting for my solicitor, so I could have my interview. I never saw my solicitor in all the time I got illegally held captive, I only spoke to a solicitor once on the phone at my request and this got achieved after 20 hours of being a police station detainee, wrongfully, might I add. I got taken from the police cell at around 3 to 4 am on the 16th of August 2016 and taken to St Ann’s hospital, after being held in the police station from the 14th August 2014 and still I had not got assessed or seen by Two doctors outside of the cell and an Amp worker together, as required by law. After arriving at St Ann’s Hospital at around 5:30 am the SHO duty doctors see me alone. In me trying to explain to her that I was not a danger to myself or any other person and that the allegations were wrong for threats to kill against myself and that I was being detained for no apparent reason. While waiting for a room in the hospital after being spoken to by the SHO, a gentleman awoke from his room and walked into the communal area to where I was, he plonked himself on the pool table I said hello to him, he seemed overdosed on medication to my concern, he became over abusive in my presents towards the staff and soon after other patients appeared in the communal room awaiting to go in the garden, I soon after getting introduced to my room and dropped off to sleep, I awoke for lunch and dinner and latter toast. present. When I got transferred, illegally, too St Ann's Hospital I spoke to no one other than a single duty SHO with a nurse present. In reference towards my mental stability, I have never had to take any medication that got prescribed to myself by my local GP /doctor regarding Mental Health issues as there has been no need, however since I got completely, setup on the

at St Ann's Hospital I had still not legally, gotten assessed. I woke up at 06:00 pm as I feel to asleep at about 9:00 am and ate my lunch and so forth. Soon after I used the toilet and then damaged my fingers at around 6:30 pm when I asked for medical help, I needed I did not get treated correctly?

When I showed the staff on duty that I needed emergency medical help, I got told to wait for an Hour and soon learnt that 7:30 would be the time of staff change over. I explained what had happened to the next shift around 8:00 pm who then explained to me, I need to wait for from the doctor the next day. When I got released from hospital, the Laceration had 95% healed and I still have no movement, off my finger to date, so I started to studding about the damage to my left finger I learnt I had cut the function of the extensor digiti minimi, which controls the movement off the little finger. This lack of movement in my finger is because when the muscle moves, it forces the little finger to bend and stretch. Sudden or unexpected movement of the finger or trauma to the finger can easily damage the muscle as any doctor should understand. I tried my best to keep traction in my finger so to keep the little finger from not moving again but this never helped me. Till date, I have still got no movement, and the Lacerations was 2 cm in width and slowly, healed well, the Laceration had got contained along the proximal phalanges which is the bones that can get found at the bottom of the right-hand finger, this problem causes me great concern as I am now disabled by it not being treated, and in disappair that I will never regain the use of my little index finger. On the

I also got asked to provide blood for my sugar levels and to take part in my temperature test. I explained I got happy, for this to get done and it got completed by the doctor. I got weighed in, so I do not understand why later the doctors, stated in their reports that I never allowed the tests to get carried out. The doctor asked me to take an ECG test on this date and allowed permission for it to get granted and it went ahead, the latter in the evening I waited outside the locked staff room to speak with staff again about my finger, when I noticed a gentleman who I saw for the first time earlier in the day, he placed himself on top of the pool table. I said hello to him, and he verbally, bit my head off by shouting at me; do I know him and continued to say the following: do not talk to him, he wanted to challenge me in an intimidating manner, so I never reduced myself to his level, I clearly remember that he threatens me. Another inpatient walked over to me and showed me his own ear while this had gone on, in looking at his ear I noticed a vast amount of physical damage that required previous medical treatment, it contained a lot of stitches and was wiping from being so badly, damaged and the weather being hot. The pain, with his ear, hurt, this is what he explained to me, he continued to explain that the gentlemen now arguing with me had been the person who attacked him and further warned me to be very careful of him. I felt, so sorry for him and could clearly see his pain, he continued to explain to me that I must take caution, due to the other men's rings on his hand, as this caused the damage to him, by this time the hospital's staff took a control over the well medicated

Below is a copy of some events that took place due to Carron. The date turned into the 15th of August 2016         and the question too me, was why did I get further detained?         No one would tell me why. I got bailed at around 16:30 hours and this was on the 15th August 2016         but I found myself not being released even low I done nothing wrong. All I did was sleep in the police cell, that I got placed and detained in, I can remember that at all times I acted in an uncivilized manner. The truth is in the whole time I was in police custody I did not get to see any police FME doctor, I also did not see my solicitors, who both, I continuously, asked to see. In the police station I got left in my cell sleeping on camera with no problems of concern thought the whole of my detention, and this was while being recorded in police cell number three. This meant that I also requested food to eat at three different | RIO notes no email! 1) On the //20 it is said that |

I even remember I ask for toilet roll, to which this got given to me, in my whole stay I caused no concerns regarding my mental stability While at the police station all I wanted was Answers. Like, how did the police get involved in the start of everything? No official person would speak and say, what was going on throughout my whole illegal detention and for what reasons they continued to hold me, straight after being granted bail, even though my continual request of asking the police officers. Throughout my whole stay in detention all I wanted was to see my solicitor and get interviewed and released as I done nothing wrong. Just, after this as said above the police handed me a bail form at around 16:46 through my cell flap, when I got bailed with no interview, when given the bail form there was two doctors and a Mental health worker also standing outside the closed cell door, who said to myself that I was being held under section 2 of the Mental health act. Without no assessment, a key worker named Maggie Fuller was present and still no criminal interview had taken place also I did not get a Mental Health assessed, legally, I reminded the doctors while in my cell about my prior complaint against them Pacific members, who I got talking to and their darkness swallowed me up: In that moment of time I said aloud to the Doctor I know who you are I have you on CD from February coming into my home and I also have a complaint in against you and continued to state that I done nothing wrong in my whole detention and it was bios for them doctors to handle my case with an ongoing complaint in against them I clearly remember their names to be Doctor: Albazaz AND Doctor: Amin alongside Sam and others such as Alan, on the 14th August 2016 outside the police cell I was being detained in Alan and Sam were not present but a woman who I understand to be Amp worker who has gotten named as Miss Maggie Fuller took their place. she was attempting to handle my case file and with this being even low, she herself, understood that I had an official complaint in progress against her person, and other members of her fellow work colleagues, also I would like to further the facts that as I done this, she accepted that I was right and agreed with me that it would be best for her to leave the meeting, to which she did towards some form of satisfaction of the first right doings for me while being detained. The official complaint I have in place is in fact for another occasion at my home when the same named professional's acting government representatives / people dealt with me in an undignified and unfair manner. I explained my rights and feelings to them, and I explained to them all that they should not do this to me, and every person outside the cell door, walked away for a while, for them to come back to the cell flap, I was still being detained in five minutes later, and say to myself, once again, that I am still being sectioned. In me knowing that I got treated wrong, I also contacted the MPs with my mother.

A copy of the recorded audio CD minutes when the same named doctor's illegal entering my home premises, under force grounds, this was in

|  | I have no Mental Health issues. In St Ann's Hospital I was in full good Health right up and till the 17/08/2016 When I used the hospital toilet as I walked in to use the toilet I slipped on the wet floor and fell forward causing both of my small index fingers to snap forward, this caused me a large amount of pain. The toilet got left to be in a foul, sort of manner since I arrived at the hospital and had not been well maintained thought all the days, that I got held against my free will as a patient, as to them was large amounts of human waste otherwise known as urine around the floor and on the toilet seat most days. On the 17th/08/2016 I clearly remember there being no warning safety signs up in place outside of the toilet on any of the days of my stay, this also include no form of maintenance. I got upset because of the lack of warning was careless on the hospital's behalf, as I or any other person walked into the toilet room, as the hospital did not prior warn any person of such fault or lack of schedules or upkeep of them schedules such as a sanitary policy being managed to an optimum level of services. When noticing the damage that got caused to both of my fingers on both separate hands, I worried with concern as for the needs that I have for them, I care for my hands as they provide my abilities to earn a living. Once I realized what happened to me, and the cause of me to sleep I got up and headed straight to the staff room and reported the incident, I asked for it to get drafted into the Hospitals accident and report book and to have the Emergency medical provisions that I required, it got explained to me that I will have to get the staff doctors to deal with the issue the next day to my pain and upset. I was in a huge amount of pain with the injuries to my fingers that I received while being detained at St Ann's hospital and could not receive the standard of medical care I would have normally, received if I could have attended on my accord to an emergency hospital that would have also have available surgeons with an x-ray machine, that I would have visited if not being held against my |  | will. Now, because of this accident, I cannot use my right finger anymore, because of this neglect by professionals inclusive of deceitful lies made by Carron Dunno, I will agree as I believe anyone else's will who pays an interest into the true facts that I get upset within the real events of occurrences of what I got accused of and have suffered through I therefore believe strongly, I want legal action and support of my local council Enfield and any other official governing body in resolving the problems at least in my favour. In further regards to my welfare and eradication, while in detention at the hospital all I wanted was the medical help I urgently, needed and wanted and also to know why I got sectioned with a full understanding to why and under what grounds I suffered the torture of events, a clear breach of my human rights article three, as no person should get placed under the circumstance I got presented with especially, under the same conditions, to strengthen the reason this should not of happened at any point of time a risk to myself or any other person and I believe under section 2 you need to be a risk to yourself or others. I kept asking questions such as in this document, with no fair response. On the

I had still been getting Illegal detained, up and till the first official 72-hour meeting that got held, what was the first true assessment with any two-doctor face to face and this took place at St Ann's Hospital not the police station. I broke my fingers inside of the hospital's site, and no nurse or doctor would take me to the outside hospital for an x-ray. This happened in St Ann's toilets while under their duty of care from the 16th of August 2016 at around 6:30pm, when after the incident staff would not update the incident report book when I asked. My mother attended the first true meeting; 72 hours after I got detained, with my uncle also being present; When a woman who is a care worker; had to leave the meeting taking place at the hospital, this got done due to their already being an official complaint put into place regarding her and others attending my home address in February. The meeting went ahead without the Mental Health worker being present and no matter what, me, my mother and my uncle explained the doctors planned to keep me. Later when I got back to the hospital wing all alone, I got forced to take Lorazepam and got given a pilaff leaflet because I complained about being prescribed medication blind, asking for one. I explained that I did not need to take the medication and that I already have a good sleep routine in place, I do not need an alarm clock, as I get up perfectly, fine by myself at 5:30 am each morning. In overlaying my opinion, I also explained that I am a tidy person and like to keep, washed and clean by 6:00 am and this means that normally, by 6:30am, I am ready and delegated to finishing of my agendas towards my companies' best interests, and back to sleep again by 10:00 pm.

being detained. The official complaint I have in place is in fact for another occasion at my home when the same named professional's acting government representatives / people dealt with me in an undignified and unfair manner. I explained my rights and feelings to them, and I explained to them all that they should not do this to me, and every person outside the cell door, walked away for a while, for them to come back to the cell flap, I was still being detained in five minutes later, and say to myself, once again, that I am still being sectioned. In me knowing that I got treated wrong, I also contacted the MPs with my mother.

A copy of the recorded audio CD minutes when the same named doctor's illegal entering my home premises, under force grounds, this was in that got contained at the bottom of this document and contained in its context is a full admission regarding my statements of a gained warrant to enter my home and detainee me under the Mental Health Act.

I personally, and rightfully, understand I had my first true assessment 72 hours later on the

When I saw two true doctors face to face for the first time to even have true assessment, my mother and uncle was also present at this meeting. While at the police station and being held as a detainee on the

I have no Mental Health issues. In St Ann's Hospital I was in full good Health right up and till the

When I used the hospital toilet as I walked in to use the toilet I slipped on the wet floor and fell forward causing both of my small index fingers to snap forward, this caused me a large amount of pain. The toilet got left to be in a foul, sort of manner since I arrived at the hospital and had not been well maintained thought all the days, that I got held against my free will as a patient, as to them was large amounts of human waste otherwise known as urine around the floor and on the toilet seat most days.

On the

I clearly remember there being no warning safety signs up in place outside of the toilet on any of the days of my stay, this also include no form of maintenance. I got upset because of the lack of warning was careless on the hospital's behalf, as I or any other person walked into the toilet room, as the hospital did not prior warn any person of such fault or lack of schedules or upkeep of them schedules such as a sanitary policy being managed to an optimum level of services. When noticing the damage that got caused to both of my fingers on both separate hands, I worried with concern as for the needs that I have for them, I care for my hands as they provide my abilities to earn a living. Once I realized what happened to me, and the cause of me to sleep I got up and headed straight to the staff room and reported the incident, I asked for it to get drafted into the Hospitals accident and report book and to have the Emergency medical provisions that I required, it got explained to me that I will have to get the staff doctors to deal with the issue the next day to my pain and upset. I was in a huge amount of pain with the injuries to my fingers that I received while being detained at St Ann's hospital and could not receive the standard of medical care I would have normally, received if I could have attended on my accord to an emergency hospital that would have also have available surgeons with an x-ray machine, that I would have visited if not being held against my will. Now, because of this accident, I cannot use my right finger anymore, because of this neglect by professionals inclusive of deceitful lies made by Carron Dunno, I will agree as I believe anyone else's will who pays an interest into the true facts that I get upset within the real events of occurrences of what I got accused of and have suffered through I therefore believe strongly, I want legal action and support of my local council Enfield and any other official governing body in resolving the problems at least in my favour. In further regards to my welfare and eradication, while in detention at the hospital all I wanted was the medical help I urgently, needed and wanted and also to know why I got sectioned with a full understanding to why and under what grounds I suffered the torture of events, a clear breach of my human rights article three, as no person should get placed under the circumstance I got presented with especially, under the same conditions, to strengthen the reason this should not of happened at any point of time a risk to myself or any other person and I believe under section 2 you need to be a risk to yourself or others. I kept asking questions such as in this document, with no fair response. On the

I had still been getting Illegal detained, up and till the first official 72-hour meeting that got held, what was the first true assessment with any two-doctor face to face and this took place at St Ann's Hospital not the police station. I broke my fingers inside of the hospital's site, and no nurse or doctor would take me to the outside hospital for an x-ray. This happened in St Ann's toilets while under their duty of care from the 16th of August 2016 at around 6:30pm, when after the incident staff would not update the incident report book when I asked. My mother attended the first true meeting; 72 hours after I got detained, with my uncle also being present; When a woman who is a care worker; had to leave the meeting taking place at the hospital, this got done due to their already being an official complaint put into place regarding her and others attending my home address in February. The meeting went ahead without the Mental Health worker being present and no matter what, me, my mother and my uncle explained the doctors planned to keep me. Later when I got back to the hospital wing all alone, I got forced to take Lorazepam and got given a pilaff leaflet because I complained about being prescribed medication blind, asking for one. I explained that I did not need to take the medication and that I already have a good sleep routine in place, I do not need an alarm clock, as I get up perfectly, fine by myself at 5:30 am each morning. In overlaying my opinion, I also explained that I am a tidy person and like to keep, washed and clean by 6:00 am and this means that normally, by 6:30am, I am ready and delegated to finishing of my agendas towards my companies' best interests, and back to sleep again by 10:00 pm.

|  | Simon is not engaging with questions, talking rapidly about his business ventures, lots of derailing talking about unrelated themes. Saying he was held hostage in a call and was held illegally. Repeatedly talking of a CD, he has which holds a recording proving that the warrant was illegally served. Claims he has bought a lot of expensive equipment to start his new festival, and his new business ventures. Says he got the money from selling some of his own possessions such as scramblers and inheritance from his Nan. Simon denies any wrongdoing categorically. Saying that he is being persecuted, says the section 2 is wrong and was conducted illegally. Denies he was assessed under MHA. Denies that anyone spoke to him with regards to a mental health assessment. Simon began accusing his mother of trying to get him put away because she has not written a full appeal letter. Became extremely irate, shouting at his mother saying 'is this what I mean to you, I will never speak to you again' Admits being on bail for threats to neighbours. 8/10/16 is his court date. Claims he is being set up. Says to us he was accused of saying 'fuck you I will kill you' to neighbour but denies this ever happened. Claims the police continually changed their story regarding where he was when this incident occurred. Asked about energy levels - reports being up every morning at 6am, says he works all the time. Reports physical health is good. Simon has Crohn's disease. Claims he is not a danger to himself or others. Says the police are claiming he is other people. When explained that he is held under section 2 and won't be released as there is an ongoing period of assessment Simon became extremely angry, stood up, pacing up and down the room, shouting loudly, does not think he is unwell. Simon then left the room for a period of time, heard shouting in the corridor, then asked to return to room, said he would calm, he quickly started shouting at mother and uncle who also shouted back. we wanted to give anti-anxiety medication called lorazepam, Simon became very irate saying we were trying to 'stich him up' we were trying to 'end his life'. Extra nurses had to be called and Simon had to be escorted from the room.

Collateral from Mother

Mother also claims that the police unplugged the CCTV outside his house. Claims that son is not paranoid about the police, claims they have persecuted him for over 20 years, always send 15+ police to his house when they want to speak to or arrest him. Claims there have been numerous arrests of Simon where he has been innocent but they have charged him. Claims that he should not have been found guilty of throwing an illegal party for his friend. Reports got carbon monoxide poisoning in 2014, feels that's when his health deteriorated.

Mother does not want Simon to receive injections. We have explained we cannot guarantee this, and there may be some emergency situations we need to give injections where we will not be able to guarantee that we can inform them before, but could inform them after. We have explained that if he repeatedly refuses tablet medications, we may need to consider long term injections as treatment, however we would discuss this with them first if possible, and this would depend on his mental state. Also explained that if lorazepam is not sufficient by itself, we may need to consider further treatments i.e. antipsychotics.

Mother reports Simon often thinks things said on the TV are about him, and if you tell him otherwise, he gets very angry.

When discussed with family on their own, mother and uncle did express the view that Simon is unwell.

Saying he seems 'manic'.

Brief mental state examination:

A - Appearance, slightly unkempt. Erratic behaviour
S - Pressured speech, rapid rate, loud volume. De-railing and tangentiality.

M - Simon is angry and frustrated at being detained. Seems hyper-aroused, shouting.

Not fully compliant with meds. Drs feedback: Plan: 1. 72hr meeting today 2. Review meds Offer physical, bloods, ECG (7) 18 Aug 2016, Thursday I got asked to take an: -- An ECG test on this day and I got more concerned with my fingers on showing them to the Junior Doctor; he was very pleasant but did not send me for x rays as I needed and clearly requested. On the 18/08/2016 I again asked for the incident report book to get updated, so as for any person to explain the damage caused to my fingers. When on the 18/08/2016 at around 11:00 am I showed a doctor the damage to my hands, fingers, the reason I gotten given the opportunity to show a doctor was because, he asked me to take part in some routine checks, such as checking my heart rate, I showed the doctor the damage to both my fingers, I also expanded to the doctor the pain I was in and therefore suffering and that I required emergency help such as an x-ray? It got explained to me that even low my left finger looked snapped they believed it to have swollen, I knew this not to be fluid in my left finger and for it to be part of my bones snapped, it also got explained to me, by the doctor, that my right finger will heal and | 7) On the //20 it is said that |

When Comparing the snap to both of my small index fingers, I class my right finger to be a lot worse, being that I have lost full control of it and can no longer use it, not having any use of my right small finger has a large effect on my daily life for incidence I can no longer write with a pen as I once could and I also find that I have issues with picking anything up as I once could before. In me continuing to report my concerns about my well-being, too my fingers with no true aid in emergency medical help apart from being prescribed ibuprofen an anti flamer tries and having my fingers taped together. Any person can clearly see the break in my left finger to date. I, am still in continuing pain due to the way it has repaired incorrectly, and this is due to the lack of duty to or of care, I know this has caused lifetime injuries to my abilities of my hand causing the absence of any use from my left small finger, this upset me as I now am disabled due to this accident and I know if I had my liberty at the time I would have received the medical help I needed, relating towards my Health. Also in me explaining to the doctor that I was not happy with taking Lorazepam in the morning and day times, as I needed to work on my statements for the up-and-coming appeal, he agreed, so that I would only have to take the tablets at night, to which made me happier, that night when going to take the medication I noticed a white tablet rather than a blue one like what got given to me, the night before and asked the name off the medication prescribed from the prescriber and I got told clozapine tablets, which is an antiseptic medication. I asked if the dosage was stronger than the blue tablet and if they had the same effect and I got told no, to which I still had never taken the blue tablet before. Nobody gave me a mandatory pilaffs leaflet nor a consultation regarding the medication change, so I made a phone call to my mother and explained all to her, she, after phoned the hospital with her upset in a consultation about the issues raised concern. Another inpatient was waiting to speak on this day and I waited outside of the staff room, the office |  | door got closed to ajar, in him waiting the troublemaker from the 16th of August, caused conflict. He deliberately, caused a negative interaction when he came along and started another altercation with the standing inpatient, this made me worried about the standing inpatient, and other patients inclusive of mine and the safety of all the medical staff's team, then straight after that instance the trouble making, inpatient, got restrained by staff and I headed back quietly into my room.

|  | On 5th finger of right-hand patient has a small laceration, appears clean, no erythema or pus, probably a couple of days old, unsure how he did it. Patient concerned that he has cut through his tendons, i have reassured the patient that the cut does not appear deep enough for this to of happened and that his range of movement if limited only by pain. On the 5th finger of his right hand, Simon has swelling over his DIP a black appearance around the cutical which looks like dry blood. The joint is not hot to touch and there is no obvious erythema. Range of movement is slightly limited by pain during active movement however it is only mildly tender to palpate and range of movement if full during passive movement. Reviewed by Dr Rudra - agrees with assessment. Simon reports falling on finger yesterday and has been swollen and painful since. Poor ROM (active and passive). Currently on section and new to ward, agreed to remain on ward so that mental state can be monitored. Currently not for A &amp; E as not emergency. However, have neighbour strapped finger and consider sending for XR with section 17 leave if no improvement next week. Simon was happy with this and agreed to plan. Imp: Likely bruised DIP Plan: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Chase bloods</li> <li>2. Paracetamol PRN</li> <li>3. Luckily for me I checked on the internet about them beforehand. It got agreed prior that I did not have to take any during the morning and at midday right up and till the nighttime, I accepted to take any medication as I prepared myself for my tribunal. My Solicitor arrived at St Ann's Hospital, and we took part in a meeting regarding my tribunal. On a next ongoing is when I had to collect my tablets, which should have been Lorazepam, but once getting prescribed; I received a new tablet with no assessment or spliffs leaflet once again. It looked different to all past up-to-date ones that got given to me. I once again asked who prescribed them in my absinth and got told my clinician, whom I never saw yet or/ seen, I asked the name of this tablet and got told Olanzapine I once again phoned my mother for help, after refusing to | 10) On the //20 it is said that |

Spoke to Simons mother over the phone. Explained the changes to meds as outlined in the below entry. Simons mum is unhappy, she said we are starting too many drugs at once. She said 'what you are trying to do is put everything in his way - so it goes against him when he's refusing medication. Now he's going to have this on his record, I feel your putting things in his path.' I explained that the consultant feels that this medicine will be beneficial to his mental state which is why we have prescribed it. Simons mum has also asked that we record all collateral history or mention of her in the notes as third party information as she does not want Simon to read it when he requests a copy of his notes. Please disregard all statements from his mother when providing simon with his

Agreed Simon is taking the lorazepam however it has not made any notable change to his mental state. Explained that the next stage is antipsychotic medications as was stated at our first meeting. Mum says that Simon will refuses to take these and she denies that he is delusional or paranoid. Simon continues to decline his antipsychotics as he does not think he needs them. We have explained the signs and symptoms that Simon is exhibited warrants the use of antipsychotics to prevent further deterioration in his physical and mental health. We have explained that if simon continues to refuse tablets the next stage would be an injection. Simons mum asked about when or if he will be moved to another ward, we explained that this depends on Simons progress and how long it takes to make a more - full assessment of his needs. Simons mum was concerned with the lack of activities on the ward and she feels this is contributing to his bad health, she says the only time there was an activity on the ward was when the solicitor on the ward and she felt these two things were linked. (16) 22 Aug 2016, Monday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 22 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 25 Aug 2016 Sonya Rudra | 16) On the //20 it is said that |

He is a 35-year-old gentleman transferred from Woodgreen Police Station to HAW at approximately 04:30 hrs escorted by 2 ambulance crew in a secure van. It was reported that he made threats to kill his neighbour and 2 children. His mother alerted the police, who picked him up and arrested him. He is known to MH Services, known to Enfield EIS. He was referred to private service, but they declined him due to lack of information. He has paranoid, bizarre speech. Was assessed by the Forensic Medical Examiner and felt he needs to be sectioned and admitted. He was reported to be on clozapine in the past, but stopped it and relapsed, reported to be an absconding risk and during his transfer in the van he has been chatty.

On arrival he appeared paranoid saying, " This is where I heard about, it's like a prison where you lock people up" He was reassured and was informed that this is a ward and he has his own room. He was welcome and orientated to the ward setting. Was offered night snack and drink, but he only requested for a cup of water. Bleep holder was contacted to come and accept his section 2 papers. Night duty doctor was also contacted to see the patient and she also came.

His vital sign was done at 05:00 hrs and reading were

He was given a welcome and recovery pack; his section 2 right was read to him which he understood. Section 132 form completed; ethnicity completed. He has been placed on 15 minutes observation. Since his arrival on the ward he hardly slept on his bed, rather interacting with staff and another patient, awake

| (4) 17/08/2016, Wednesday At my first true assessment: -- At my first true assessment what was on the 17th August 2016 held at St Ann's Hospital, my mother and uncle was present, Alan was once again also present, the woman who came to my flat, so to gain entry with a wrongfully, filled out section 135, under the mental health act, I explained to all present when I first noticed this at the start of the meeting, what I explained was that it was unprofessional for her also to be present, the reason I gave, was: she will be bias towards my case, as at that point in time I realized, she was attempting to handle my case file and with this being even low, she herself, understood that I had an official complaint in progress against her person, and other members of her fellow work colleagues, also I would like to further the facts that as I done this, she accepted that I was right and agreed with me that it would be best for her to leave the meeting, to which she did towards some form of satisfaction of the first right doings for me while being detained. The official complaint I have in place is in fact for another occasion at my home when the same named professional's acting government representatives / people dealt with me in an undignified and unfair manner. I explained my rights and feelings to them, and I explained to them all that they should not do this to me, and every person outside the cell door, walked away for a while, for them to come back to the cell flap, I was still being detained in five minutes later, and say to myself, once again, that I am still being sectioned. In me knowing that I got treated wrong, I also contacted the MPs with my mother. A copy of the recorded audio CD minutes when the same named doctor's illegal entering my home premises, under force grounds, this was in February 2016 that got contained at the bottom of this document and contained in its context is a full admission regarding my statements of a gained warrant to enter my home and detainee me under the Mental Health Act. | 4) On the //20 it is said that |

When I saw two true doctors face to face for the first time to even have true assessment, my mother and uncle was also present at this meeting. While at the police station and being held as a detainee on the right up to the

I have no Mental Health issues. In St Ann's Hospital I was in full good Health right up and till the

17/08/2016

When I used the hospital toilet as I walked in to use the toilet I slipped on the wet floor and fell forward causing both of my small index fingers to snap forward, this caused me a large amount of pain. The toilet got left to be in a foul, sort of manner since I arrived at the hospital and had not been well maintained thought all the days, that I got held against my free will as a patient, as to them was large amounts of human waste otherwise known as urine around the floor and on the toilet seat most days.

I clearly remember there being no warning safety signs up in place outside of the toilet on any of the days of my stay, this also include no form of maintenance. I got upset because of the lack of warning was careless on the hospital's behalf, as I or any other person walked into the toilet room, as the hospital did not prior warn any person of such fault or lack of schedules or upkeep of them schedules such as a sanitary policy being managed to an optimum level of services. When noticing the damage that got caused to both of my fingers on both separate hands, I worried with concern as for the needs that I have for them, I care for my hands as they provide my abilities to earn a living. Once I realized what happened to me, and the cause of me to sleep I got up and headed straight to the staff room and reported the incident, I asked for it to get drafted into the Hospitals accident and report book and to have the Emergency medical provisions that I required, it got explained to me that I will have to get the staff doctors to deal with the issue the next day to my pain and upset. I was in a huge amount of pain with the injuries to my fingers that I received while being detained at St Ann's hospital and could not receive the standard of medical care I would have normally, received if I could have attended on my accord to an emergency hospital that would have also have available surgeons with an x-ray machine, that I would have visited if not being held against my will. Now, because of this accident, I cannot use my right finger anymore, because of this neglect by professionals inclusive of deceitful lies made by Carron Dunno, I will agree as I believe anyone else's will who pays an interest into the true facts that I get upset within the real events of occurrences of what I got accused of and have suffered through I therefore believe strongly, I want legal action and support of my local council Enfield and any other official governing body in resolving the problems at least in my favour. In further regards to my welfare and eradication, while in detention at the hospital all I wanted was the medical help I urgently, needed and wanted and also to know why I got sectioned with a full understanding to why and under what grounds I suffered the torture of events, a clear breach of my human rights article three, as no person should get placed under the circumstance I got presented with especially, under the same conditions, to strengthen the reason this should not of happened at any point of time a risk to myself or any other person and I believe under section 2 you need to be a risk to yourself or others. I kept asking questions such as in this document, with no fair response. On the

I had still been getting Illegal detained, up and till the first official 72-hour meeting that got held, what was the first true assessment with any two-doctor face to face and this took place at St Ann's Hospital not the police station. I broke my fingers inside of the hospital's site, and no nurse or doctor would take me to the outside hospital for an x-ray. This happened in St Ann's toilets while under their duty of care from the 16th of August 2016 at around 6:30pm, when after the incident staff would not update the incident report book when I asked. My mother attended the first true meeting; 72 hours after I got detained, with my uncle also being present; When a woman who is a care worker; had to leave the meeting taking place at the hospital, this got done due to their already being an official complaint put into place regarding her and others attending my home address in February. The meeting went ahead without the Mental Health worker being present and no matter what, me, my mother and my uncle explained the doctors planned to keep me. Later when I got back to the hospital wing all alone, I got forced to take Lorazepam and got given a pilaff leaflet because I complained about being prescribed medication blind, asking for one. I explained that I did not need to take the medication and that I already have a good sleep routine in place, I do not need an alarm clock, as I get up perfectly, fine by myself at 5:30 am each morning. In overlaying my opinion, I also explained that I am a tidy person and like to keep, washed and clean by 6:00 am and this means that normally, by 6:30am, I am ready and delegated to finishing of my agendas towards my companies' best interests, and back to sleep again by 10:00 pm.

Medication:

Nil

Allergies:

Unknown - Simon is unsure if he has any allergies

Background/PPHx:

-Has previously been open to Enfield EIS, discharged in March 2016 due to non-engagement

-Has been assessed under the MHA in 2014 and early 2016 but was not detained as there was not sufficient evidence of a mental disorder

-no previous admissions to hospital

-Notes state that he was known to CAMHS and has previously attempted to end his life when he was 16 y/o (by jumping from a window)

Circumstances leading to admission:

Arrested at his home address after his mother raised concerns about his mental state - he was allegedly verbally threatening towards his neighbour and (?) neighbour's children. Simon's mother called police who arrested him. He was seen by the FME at Wood Green police station, then referred for MHA.

Interview:

I reviewed Simon on HAW with RMN Titi.

Simon stated that he has been very busy setting up his company recently. Spoke about working very hard and spending years 'studying'. He spoke in grandiose terms, describing his company as managing mental health services and working in the entertainment industry. He spoke about buying speakers for £50,000 each and hiring out equipment to Glastonbury and Isle of Wight festivals. Simon stated that he owns a 'city' and it is his job to understand the various roles that people have in society so that he can 'look after people'. When asked how he was able to fund these projects he described a system of fundraising using 'charity bars' and websites.

Simon denied making any threats to harm others and denied such thoughts at present. He denied any thoughts to harm himself. He categorically stated that he does not believe he has a mental illness, and that he has consistently refused to take medication in the past for this reason. He also does not take medication for physical health problems as he does not believe he needs it. Simon stated that his sleep is 'good' - sleeps for exactly 8 hours per night. Energy levels are increased.

Simon said that he has been depressed in the past but became quite irritable when asked about details of this. He denied ever taking antidepressants; he was previously given Sertraline but it is unclear if he took it.

MSE:

-A+B: medium height, slim mixed-race gentleman.

Slightly dishevelled, dressed in black tracksuit, noted to be missing several teeth. Initially good rapport but became quite irritable at times -Speech: Fast rate, pressured speech. Tangential.

-Mood: subjectively 'I'm really good', objectively appears elevated -Thoughts: no FTD. Denied thoughts to harm himself or others.

-Perceptions: denied hallucinations

-Insight: limited. Aware of reasons for admission but does not agree that he may have a mental illness

Social and Personal Hx:

-Lives alone in 1-bedroom flat which he says he owns outright

-Mother lives nearby and provides support

-Simon says he has siblings and other extended family in the local area as well

-In a relationship, on and off with partner for 20 years (Katie). Simon told us that Katie lives with him and is expecting his child. Declined to say when the baby is due to be born as he felt this was too personal to share.

-Says he runs his own company at the moment (see details above)

-Past history of sexual abuse (from notes)

Family Hx:

-grandmother (? maternal) had BPAD and/or schizophrenia

66

Forensic Hx:

-frequent contact with police from a young age, says he has been to prison in the past but was unable to say exactly when this was

-Says he is currently subject to an ASBO due to playing loud music the true on goings at to him and continued to explain to him that I already have a complaint against the same Doctor prior to this incident and it makes the Doctor Bios and Prejudice towards any case relating to myself and that this should not get allowed to happen, he knew, that I was well of mind, but this got noted by him, with no change in his decision. To get assessed under the mental health act I would have needed to get spoken to by two different doctors present at the same time this must also be in the substance of an interview with an AMP worker present "as to mean out of my cell", this never got done, I never got taken out of the police cell and spoken to by two doctors or even asked if I would speak to the doctors and an AMP worker. The police and doctors at this stage illegally, kept me in detention for over 20 hours in a police cell waiting for my solicitor, so I could have my interview. I never saw my solicitor in all the time I got illegally, held captive, I only spoke to a solicitor once on the phone at my request and this got achieved after 20 hours of being a police station detainee, wrongfully, might I add. I got taken from the police cell at around 3 to 4 am on the 16th of August 2016 and taken to St Ann's hospital, after being held in the police station from the

and still I had not got assessed or seen by Two doctors outside of the cell and an Amp worker together, as required by law. After arriving at St Ann's Hospital at around 5:30 am the SHO duty doctors see me alone. In me trying to explain to her that I was not a danger to myself or any other person and that the allegations were wrong for threats to kill against myself and that I was being detained for no apparent reason. While waiting for a room in the hospital after being spoken to by the SHO, a gentleman awoke from his room and walked into the communal area to where I was, he plonked himself on the pool table I said hello to him, he seemed overdosed on medication to my concern, he became over abusive in my presents towards the staff and soon after other patients appeared in the communal room awaiting to go in the garden, I soon after getting introduced to my room and dropped off to sleep, I awoke for lunch and dinner and latter toast. Not one, neither two doctors were present. When I got transferred, illegally, too St Ann's Hospital I spoke to no one other than a single duty SHO with a nurse present. In reference towards my mental stability, I have never had to take any medication that got prescribed to myself by my local GP /doctor regarding Mental Health issues as there has been none need, however since I got completely, setup on the

by Carron Dunno I then got forced to take medication. From the first day of my arrival at the hospital while being in the mental health team's care, medication was on a daily, basis, to get forced upon myself to get taken in tablet form by the home Teams Medical Professional. I had to deceive the doctors that I took them for them not to fry my brain with unneeded medication, or they said that I would never go back home again, they tried to force psychotic drugs and Antidepressants into me. After me, waking up from going to sleep in the early hours of the

at St Ann's Hospital I had still not legally, gotten assessed. I woke up at 06:00 pm as I feel to sleep at about 9:00 am and ate my lunch and so forth. Soon after I used the toilet and then damaged my fingers at around 6:30 pm when I asked for medical help, I needed I did not get treated correctly?

When I showed the staff on duty that I needed emergency medical help, I got told to wait for an Hour and soon learnt that 7:30 would be the time of staff change over. I explained what had happened to the next shift around 8:00 pm who then explained to me, I need to wait for from the doctor the next day. When I got released from hospital, the Laceration had 95% healed and I still have no movement, off my finger to date, so I started to studding about the damage to my left finger I learnt I had cut the function of the extensor digiti minimi, which controls the movement off the little finger. This lack of movement in my finger is because when the muscle moves, it forces the little finger to bend and stretch. Sudden or unexpected movement of the finger or trauma to the finger can easily damage the muscle as any doctor should understand. I tried my best to keep traction in my finger so to keep the little finger from not moving again but this never helped me. Till date, I have still got no movement, and the Lacerations was 2 cm in width and slowly, healed well, the Laceration had got contained along the proximal phalanges which is the bones that can get found at the bottom of the right-hand finger, this problem causes me great concern as I am now disabled by it not being treated, and in disappear that I will never regain the use of my little index finger. On the

I also got asked to provide blood for my sugar levels and to take part in my temperature test. I explained I got happy, for this to get done and it got completed by the doctor. I got weighed in, so I do not understand why later the doctors, stated in their reports that I never allowed the tests to get carried out. The doctor asked me to take an ECG test on this date and allowed permission for it to get granted and it went ahead, the latter in the evening I waited outside the locked staff room to speak with staff again about my finger, when I noticed a gentleman who I saw for the first time earlier in the day, he placed himself on top of the pool table. I said hello to him, and he verbally, bit my head off by shouting at me; do I know him and continued to say the following: do not talk to him, he wanted to challenge me in an intimidating manner, so I never reduced myself to his level, I clearly remember that he threatens me. Another inpatient walked over to me and showed me his own ear while this had gone on, in looking at his ear I noticed a vast amount of physical damage that required previous medical treatment, it contained a lot of stitches and was wiping from being so badly, damaged and the weather being hot. The pain, with his ear, hurt, this is what he explained to me, he continued to explain that the gentlemen now arguing with me had been the person who attacked him and further warned me

On the 18/08/2016 I again asked for the incident report book to get updated, so as for any person to explain the damage caused to my fingers. When on the 18/08/2016 at around 11:00 am I showed a doctor the damage to my hands, fingers, the reason I gotten given the opportunity to show a doctor was because, he asked me to take part in some routine checks, such as checking my heart rate, I showed the doctor the damage to both my fingers, I also expanded to the doctor the pain I was in and therefore suffering and that I required emergency help such as an x-ray? It got explained to me that even low my left finger looked snapped they believed it to have swollen, I knew this not to be fluid in my left finger and for it to be part of my bones snapped, it also got explained to me, by the doctor, that my right finger will heal and gain movement over time to which it still has not and never will again, at the time I challenged this to the maximum extent. |  | of my small index fingers, I class my right finger to be a lot worse, being that I have lost full control of it and can no longer use it, not having any use of my right small finger has a large effect on my daily life for incidence I can no longer write with a pen as I once could and I also find that I have issues with picking anything up as I once could before. In me continuing to report my concerns about my well-being, too my fingers with no true aid in emergency medical help apart from being prescribed ibuprofen an anti flamer tries and having my fingers taped together. Any person can clearly see the break in my left finger to date. I, am still in continuing pain due to the way it has repaired incorrectly, and this is due to the lack of duty to or of care, I know this has caused lifetime injuries to my abilities of my hand causing the absence of any use from my left small finger, this upset me as I now am disabled due to this accident and I know if I had my liberty at the time I would have received the medical help I needed, relating towards my Health. Also in me explaining to the doctor that I was not happy with taking Lorazepam in the morning and day times, as I needed to work on my statements for the up-and-coming appeal, he agreed, so that I would only have to take the tablets at night, to which made me happier, that night when going to take the medication I noticed a white tablet rather than a blue one like what got given to me, the night before and asked the name off the medication prescribed from the prescriber and I got told clozapine tablets, which is an antiseptic medication. I asked if the dosage was stronger than the blue tablet and if they had the same effect and I got told no, to which I still had never taken the blue tablet before. Nobody gave me a mandatory pilaffs leaflet nor a consultation regarding the medication change, so I made a phone call to my mother and explained all to her, she, after phoned the hospital with her upset in a consultation about the issues raised concern. Another inpatient was waiting to speak to staff on this day and I waited outside of the staff room, the office door got closed to ajar, in him waiting the troublemaker from the 16th of August, caused conflict. |  | doctor the pain I was in and therefore suffering and that I required emergency help such as an x-ray? It got explained to me that even low my left finger looked snapped they believed it to have swollen, I knew this not to be fluid in my left finger and for it to be part of my bones snapped, it also got explained to me, by the doctor, that my right finger will heal and gain movement over time to which it still has not and never will again, at the time I challenged this to the maximum extent. When Comparing the snap to both of my small index fingers, I class my right finger to be a lot worse, being that I have lost full control of it and can no longer use it, not having any use of my right small finger has a large effect on my daily life for incidence I can no longer write with a pen as I once could and I also find that I have issues with picking anything up as I once could before. In me continuing to report my concerns about my well-being, too my fingers with no true aid in emergency medical help apart from being prescribed ibuprofen an anti flamer tries and having my fingers taped together. Any person can clearly see the break in my left finger to date. I, am still in continuing pain due to the way it has repaired incorrectly, and this is due to the lack of duty to or of care, I know this has caused lifetime injuries to my abilities of my hand causing the absence of any use from my left small finger, this upset me as I now am disabled due to this accident and I know if I had my liberty at the time I would have received the medical help I needed, relating towards my Health. Also in me explaining to the doctor that I was not happy with taking Lorazepam in the morning and day times, as I needed to work on my statements for the up-and-coming appeal, he agreed, so that I would only have to take the tablets at night, to which made me happier, that night when going to take the medication I noticed a white tablet rather than a blue one like what got given to me, the night before and asked the name off the medication prescribed from the prescriber and I got told clozapine tablets, which is an antiseptic medication. I asked if the dosage was stronger than the blue tablet and if they had the same effect and I got told no, to which I still had never taken the blue tablet before. |  |

|  | Nobody gave me a mandatory pilaffs leaflet nor a consultation regarding the medication change, so I made a phone call to my mother and explained all to her, she, after phoned the hospital with her upset in a consultation about the issues raised concern. Another inpatient was waiting to speak to staff on this day and I waited outside of the staff room, the office door got closed to ajar, in him waiting the troublemaker from the 16th of August, caused conflict. He deliberately, caused a negative interaction when he came along and started another altercation with the standing inpatient, this made me worried about the standing inpatient, and other patients inclusive of mine and the safety of all the medical staff's team, then straight after that instance the trouble making, inpatient, got restrained by staff and I headed back quietly into my room. (2) 18/08/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 18 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 18 Aug 2016 Jack Mumford Page Numbers:56 Originator Details: 18 Aug 2016 11:34 Jack Mumford Medical Originally Entered by Details: 18 Aug 2016 11:54 Jack Mumford Last Amended by Details: 18 Aug 2016 11:54 Jack Mumford Validated by Details: 18 Aug 2016 11:54 Jack Mumford Significant: No Added to Risk History: No Contains Third Party Info: No Conceal From Client: Not Concealed Offered a Simon bloods, physical and ECG, Simon consented. The joint is not hot to touch and there is no obvious erythema. Range of movement is slightly limited by pain during active movement however it is only mildly tender to palpate and range of movement is full during passive movement.Reviewed by Dr Rudra - agrees with assessment.Simon reports falling on finger yesterday and has been swollen and painful since. Poor ROM (active and passive). Currently on section and new to ward, agreed to remain on ward so that mental state can be monitored. Currently not for A &amp; E as not emergency. received a new tablet with no assessment or spliffs leaflet once again. It looked different to all past up-to-date ones that got given to me. I once again asked who prescribed them in my absinth and got told my clinician, whom I never saw yet or/ seen, I asked the name of this tablet and got told Olanzapine I once again phoned my mother for help, after refusing to take it and looked on the internet about the effects, regulations and laws on prescribing medication, to notice many incorrect procedures and a vast majority of people explaining on YouTube that Olanzapine should get taken of the market to my worry, especially, since I do not suffer with bipolar of psychosis or any other related prescribed diagnoses the medicine gets used for.

|  | I did explain to Dr Humphries this and what went on in the police station thereafter when I was arrested. When at the police station I was not a risk to myself and never said anything that would have made the police think I was a risk to myself. I was left in my cell with all my clothing and shoes which included laces, if the police had any concerns of my welfare these would have been removed. As anyone would be, I was upset at being arrested for something I did not do when the mental health team came to my cell, I had been in the police station around 20+ hours. And all I wanted was to have my interview and be released so when I saw the mental health team and they asked me if I would talk to them I did not understand why they were there and said no due to just wanting my interview, my solicitor was there at this time. When talking to Dr J Cranitch she wanted me to agree to take my tablets which I agreed to do and work with them. When Dr J Cranitch asked me if I won my court tribunal would I be willing to stay in hospital voluntary. I was happy to say I was willing to work with the doctors. 86 Since 2014 when I had contact with the mental health team, I have never said I would hurt anyone or myself, I was only discharged from the early intervention team 3 months ago and if they had any concerns I would not have been discharged. RegardsSimon Cordell (10) 23/08/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 23 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 25 Aug 2016 Sonya Rudra Page Numbers: 47 Originator Details: 23 Aug 2016 15:08 Sonya Rudra Medical Originally Entered by Details: 23 Aug 2016 15:09 | 10) On the //20 it is said that |

I again asked for the incident report book to get updated, so as for any person to explain the damage caused to my fingers. When on the

at around 11:00 am I showed a doctor the damage to my hands, fingers, the reason I gotten given the opportunity to show a doctor was because, he asked me to take part in some routine checks, such as checking my heart rate, I showed the doctor the damage to both my fingers, I also expanded to the doctor the pain I was in and therefore suffering and that I required emergency help such as an x-ray? It got explained to me that even low my left finger looked snapped they believed it to have swollen, I knew this not to be fluid in my left finger and for it to be part of my bones snapped, it also got explained to me, by the doctor, that my right finger will heal and gain movement over time to which it still has not and never will again, at the time I challenged this to the maximum extent. When Comparing the snap to both of my small index fingers, I class my right finger to be a lot worse, being that I have lost full control of it and can no longer use it, not having any use of my right small finger has a large effect on my daily life for incidence I can no longer write with a pen as I once could and I also find that I have issues with picking anything up as I once could before. In me continuing to report my concerns about my well-being, too my fingers with no true aid in emergency medical help apart from being prescribed ibuprofen an anti flamer tries and having my fingers taped together. Any person can clearly see the break in my left finger to date. I, am still in continuing pain due to the way it has repaired incorrectly, and this is due to the lack of duty to or of care, I know this has caused lifetime injuries to my abilities of my hand causing the absence of any use from my left small finger, this upset me as I now am disabled due to this accident and I know if I had my liberty at the time I would have received the medical help I needed, relating towards my Health. Also in me explaining to the doctor that I was not happy with taking Lorazepam in the morning and day times, as I needed to work on my

|  | statements for the up-and-coming appeal, he agreed, so that I would only have to take the tablets at night, to which made me happier, that night when going to take the medication I noticed a white tablet rather than a blue one like what got given to me, the night before and asked the name off the medication prescribed from the prescriber and I got told clozapine tablets, which is an antiseptic medication. I asked if the dosage was stronger than the blue tablet and if they had the same effect and I got told no, to which I still had never taken the blue tablet before. Nobody gave me a mandatory pilaffs leaflet nor a consultation regarding the medication change, so I made a phone call to my mother and explained all to her, she, after phoned the hospital with her upset in a consultation about the issues raised concern. Another inpatient was waiting to speak to staff on this day and I waited outside of the staff room, the office door got closed to ajar, in him waiting the troublemaker from the 16th of August, caused conflict. He deliberately, caused a negative interaction when he came along and started another altercation with the standing inpatient, this made me worried about the standing inpatient, and other patients inclusive of mine and the safety of all the medical staff's team, then straight after that instance the trouble making, inpatient, got restrained by staff and I headed back quietly into my room. (2) 18/08/2016, Thursday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 18 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 18 Aug 2016 Titilayo Alimi Nursing Page Numbers:57 Originator Details: 18 Aug 2016 06:00 Titilayo Alimi Nursing Originally Entered by Details: 18 Aug 2016 06:05 Titilayo Alimi Last Amended by Details: 18 Aug 2016 06:05 Titilayo Alimi Validated by Details: 18 Aug 2016 06:05 | 2) On the //20 it is said that |

It got agreed prior that I did not have to take any during the morning and at midday right up and till the night time, I accepted to take any medication as I prepared myself for my tribunal. My Solicitor arrived at St Ann's Hospital and we took part in a meeting regarding my tribunal. On a next ongoing is when I had to collect my tablets, which should have been Lorazepam, but once getting prescribed; I received a new tablet with no assessment or spliffs leaflet once again. It looked different to all past up-to-date ones that got given to me. I once again asked who prescribed them in my absinth and got told my clinician, whom I never saw yet or/ seen, I asked the name of this tablet and got told Olanzapine I once again phoned my mother for help, after refusing to | RIO notes no email! 1) On the //20 it is said that |

A version of an event that took place; Then more pain arrived; Medication. Months later once I got released back to my home Carron Dunno continued to watch me suffer for her lies made to the police, as the mental health, home team as they monitored me at home address after the hospital tribunal, in knowing that on the 14th August 2016. I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. With the concern of my well-being due to the doctors enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me | 3) On the //20 it is said that |

|  | back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me. (4) 27/08/2016,The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5!Stage 5Folder 5Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016Angelliner Nassuna NursingPage Numbers: 39Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 14:33Angelliner Nassuna NursingOriginally Entered by Details: 27 Aug 2016 14:34Angelliner Nassuna Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 16:50Tracey Jordan Validated by Details: (UNVALIDATED)Significant: No Added to RiskHistory: NoContains Third Party Info: No ConcealFrom Client: Not ConcealedContacted HTT to refer Simon, they informed me to call back in 30mins as they were out carrying out an assessment. Done | 4) On the //20 it is said that |

He was given his 1mg Lorazepam and 5mg Olanzapine tablet as prescribed for the night. He refused the 5mg Olanzapine, with claim that ward doctor that prescribed the medication did not discussed Olanzapine with him. He also went further to contradict himself that same prescribing doctor has instructed him that he doesn't have to take any anti-psychotic medication. |  | staff then tried to explore the reason why he doesn't want to take his medication; Perhaps due to taste or difficulty in swallowing, so that alternative route could be explored when feeding back to the MDT during white board meetings. Instead of listening to the staff talking to him, he claimed to have taken picture and recording the staff present during the interaction. At this point, the staff asked him to delete the content if he had actually done that because it's not with his consent and it's not an acceptable practice. Instead of deleting the content of what he might have taken, he ran to his room to phone his mother, that he was being advised to take his prescribed medication against his will and that he could be given injection if he continues to refuse medication orally. The mother then phones the ward to inform the ward staff GD that her son, if going by the previous judgment they have got from the Supreme Court. Simon has the right to record any interaction at any public place, in which hospital is one of them. The mother went further to inform staff that she has spoken with the team doctor (no name given) about her son medication and that it was an agreement that Simon should only be taken 1mg Lorazepam now while subsequent medication review has to be weekly. Hence, they have not done further review, no staff should encourage son to take any anti-psychotic medication prescribed on the ward. The mother claimed that the said doctor and her were of the opinion to wait and see how Simon reacts to Lorazepam before he can think of taking any other medication. In addition to the above, Simon himself played the audio recording of interactions with doctor and social workers from the previous encounter, when trying to delete the one he did tonight. He then claimed that he has not present this recording in the court because he doesn't want that social worker in the recorded content sacked. However, the shift coordinator advised the mother to work with care team in a way that could enhance the best interest of Simon. Also, to encourage son to be compliant with his treatment plan as an inpatient on the ward. Furthermore, Simon to stop recording and taking |  |

I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. With the concern of my well-being due to the doctors enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me.

It got agreed prior that I did not have to take any during the morning and at midday right up and till the night time, I accepted to take any medication as I prepared myself for my tribunal. My Solicitor arrived at St Ann's Hospital and we took part in a meeting regarding my tribunal. On a next ongoing is when I had to collect my tablets, which should have been Lorazepam, but once getting prescribed; I received a new tablet with no assessment or spliffs leaflet once again. It looked different to all past up-to-date ones that got given to me. I once again asked who prescribed them in my absinth and got told my clinician, whom I never saw | RIO notes no email! 1) On the //20 it is said that |

Also, when my mother and uncle came, they also recorded everything the police were doing. I did explain to Dr Humphries this and what went on in the police station thereafter when I was arrested. When at the police station I was not a risk to myself and never said anything that would have made the police think I was a risk to myself. I was left in my cell | 5) On the//20 it issaid thatThis is what wasgoing on! |

|  | enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me. (8) 27/08/2016, Saturday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 Tracey Jordan Nursing Page Numbers: 38 + 39 38 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 16:50 Tracey Jordan Nursing Originally Entered by Details: 27 Aug 2016 16:58 Tracey Jordan Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 17:08 Tracey Jordan Validated by Details: (UNVALIDATED) Significant: No Added to Risk | 8) On the //20 it is said that |

Agreed Simon is taking the lorazepam however it has not made any notable change to his mental state. Explained that the next stage is antipsychotic medications as was stated at our first meeting. Mum says that Simon will refuses to take these and she denies that he is delusional or paranoid. Simon continues to decline his antipsychotics as he does not think he needs them. We have explained the signs and symptoms that Simon is exhibited warrants the use of antipsychotics to prevent further deterioration in his physical and mental health. We have explained that if simon continues to refuse tablets the next stage would be an injection. Simons mum asked about when or if he will be moved to another ward, we explained that this depends on Simons progress and how long it takes to make a more - full assessment of his needs. Simons mum was concerned with the lack of activities on the ward and she feels this is contributing to his bad health, she says the only time there was an activity on the ward was when the solicitor on the ward and she felt these two things were linked. (2) 23/08/2016 The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 1! Official Letter Me &amp; Mother to St Ann's Hospital. Page Numbers: 85,86 85 | 2) On the //20 it is said that |

To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter after speaking to Dr J Cranitch today 23/08/2016, I believe that she is still under the impression that I have been charged at the police station on the 15/08/2016 for threats to kill and I have a court date of the 04/10/2016, My mother has contacted my solicitor to ask for them to write a letter to confirm that I have not been charged, which they will do and this will be ready by Friday.

This is not the case as I told Dr Humphries on the 17/08/2016 I have not been interviewed by the police for this as of yet and have not been charged for anything by the police, the police was told when I was being held at the police station that I have CCTV which will prove this, as I did not leave my home on this day.

In fact, when the police attended my home before I walked out of my flat the police realised that they were being recorded and ripped the wires out from my CCTV which there was no need to do if they did not have anything to hide. Also, when my mother and uncle came, they also recorded everything the police were doing.

I did explain to Dr Humphries this and what went on in the police station thereafter when I was arrested.

When at the police station I was not a risk to myself and never said anything that would have made the police think I was a risk to myself. I was left in my cell with all my clothing and shoes which included laces, if the police had any concerns of my welfare these would have been removed.

As anyone would be, I was upset at being arrested for something I did not do when the mental health team came to my cell, I had been in the police station around 20+ hours. And all I wanted was to have my interview and be released so when I saw the mental health team and they asked me if I would talk to them I did not understand why they were there and said no due to just wanting my interview, my solicitor was there at this time.

mentions of him using nitrous oxide. Simon stated that cannabis was very infrequent 'just to try it' 'recreationally', minimised this significantly in his recollection. Also told me that he had only been drunk once in his life when he was 16 and hadn't been drunk since. This differs to another report in RiO where he was admitted to A+E after consuming a bottle of rum and LSD in 2012.

Unfortunately, we haven't managed to complete a UDS during this admission.

Simon was well kempt, he was initially polite in that he called me 'miss', he remained seated for the interview.

Quite intense eye contact. Speech rapid, difficult to interrupt, very keen to discuss his business plans and court cases, told me about showing all his business plans to the patients on the ward, unable to see that this might not be relevant to them. Spoke of several different folders that he has created in order to plan his festivals and events, told me that he has set up a charity which he intends to use to help people by benefiting beneficiaries of the UK. He has applied for lottery funding and intends to appoint 6 directors. I found it very hard to understand the activities of his charity but it seemed to involve an online noticeboard where advertising space could be sold. Simon spoke about arranging for the red arrows to attend a future festival, has downloaded their website and made a folder for this. Simon struggled to stay on topic and had to be prompted several times back to the initial question.

I explained the tribunal process to Simon and told him that I would be presenting the view of the team which is that we felt he is currently mentally unwell, and would benefit from further time in hospital and treatment with antipsychotic medication. I told him that I thought he was overly preoccupied with his court cases and police conspiracies, and that his business plans were difficult to understand and seemed a little far reaching and unrealistic. I told him that we felt that the extent to which he is preoccupied with this was a symptom of mental illness.

|  | I asked Simon to have a think about what he would want to do should the section be ended on Friday, as he has at times said he might stay informally. Simon reported feeling quite happy, sleeping well, eating well, happy to be sharing his plans with us and working on his businesses. Denied any abnormal perceptions or unusual experiences. Does not feel that he has a mental illness. After the meeting, I returned to Simon to let him know about the procedure regarding him reading the reports prior to the tribunal (which he has a right to do). Mental health act office confirmed that they will provide him with the reports likely on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. Simon was holding the phone near his ear at this point, asked me to tell him my name (which he already knows) apparently for the benefit of the phone. I asked Simon if he was recording, it turned out someone was on the phone. Simon told me that he would like me to tell his representative (turned out to be partner, Katie) why i was detaining him in hospital. The encounter felt very confrontational, I told Simon that it wasnt appropriate for me to discuss his case with unknown others on the telephone and she is welcome to attend any future meetings if he would like. I ended the conversation at that point. Simon continued stand very close to me whilst I was unlocking the office door, and continued to hold the phone towards me, demanding that I say my name and explain why I thought he was ill (I showed him my badge and confirmed who I was) and he was quite intimidating in this respect. (4) 24/08/2016, Wednesday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 24 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 25 Aug 2016 Sonya Rudra Medical Page Numbers: 46 Originator Details: 24 Aug 2016 09:08 Sonya Rudra Medical Originally Entered by Details: 24 Aug 2016 09:08 | 4) On the //20 it is said that |

| 24.11.2013                                       | Mr Cordell is 35 years old. He lives alone in a one-bedroom flat. His mother is supportive and attended the hearing. Mr Cordell had a troubled adolescence with periods spent in care and was homeless for a while. Mr Cordell is not currently in paid employment, but he has ambitious plans to set up a company and a charitable organisation. He has a conviction for setting up illegal raves and is currently subject to an ASBO.                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

|  | 24.11.2013 | The factual details of the circumstances of the admission were not clear from the reports and the clinical team were not able to tell us whether or not he is on bail. It was Mr Cordell who furnished us with a notice from the police that he is on bail for an offence of threats to kill. He is not due to be interviewed until October. It is unclear who the alleged victim of the complaint is. He is adamant that he is not guilty of this charge. Further, the report from the care co-ordinator stated it was his mother who called the police but this was adamantly denied by Mrs Cordell. The care co-ordinator corrected his report to clarify that Mr Cordell is not awaiting trial for burglary. |  |

He would stay voluntarily, and he is happy to continue with treatment and to see the team in the community. He does not accept a diagnosis of mental disorder but has stated that he will take treatment on the advice of the team. His mother thought that he has reacted to stress in the past and that he has been working very hard on his project. b) The clinical team were not unanimous in their view. Dr Mills suggested that there had been a possibility that Dr Cranitch, RC, had considered discharging him prior to the tribunal but on balance had decided not to. Dr Mills, having spoken to the RC, was of the view that detention was warranted given the degree of the disorder which is in their view a first episode psychosis. Mr Ahmed, a staff nurse on the ward, was of the view that it was the nature of the disorder that warranted detention. The care co-ordinator, Mr Adama, was of the view that the section should |  |

|  | Tribunal's conclusions with reasons | a) The tribunal is satisfied that Mr Cordell is suffering from a mental disorder. This is consistent with the signs and symptoms he has displayed which include a preoccupation with a business plan which is so ambitious and far reaching that it can be described as grandiose thinking. He has been working unceasingly on these plans and is in all likelihood suffering from a stress reaction. He has very limited insight. Over a period of two years Mr Cordell has expressed beliefs about police and neighbours which may have some factual basis but in all likelihood are overvalued. b) The tribunal is not satisfied that the nature of the disorder warrants detention. Mr Cordell has never accepted treatment. We were unable to find that the signs or symptoms have responded to treatment or that they had deteriorated in the absence of treatment. Any problems that he has had with neighbours and his beliefs about persecution at the hands of the police appear to be longstanding. Despite these beliefs he has lived in the same place for 11 years. He has convictions but these do not relate to violence and are in connection with driving offences |  |

He has been assessed before and not been found to be detainable. c) The tribunal is not satisfied that the degree of the disorder warrants detention. He was thought disordered on admission, but these symptoms have settled. He poses no management problems. He is compliant with treatment, and he gets on well with staff and patients. He was angry with his mother, but she is visiting and supports his discharge. He may not accept that he has a mental disorder but states that he is willing to engage with the assessment. He has stated that if the procedures are carried out properly, he will abide by them. We accepted his evidence. d) The tribunal's decision on the first limb of the act meant that we were not bound to consider the risks other than as to how they related to the current degree of the disorder. We are satisfied that it is at least likely that he will continue to comply with treatment either as a voluntary patient or in the community. In any event he has never accepted treatment in the past and until recently has found not to be detainable. It was not clear that there had been a deterioration. He is on bail but the police are not due to interview him until October 2016. We had his forensic history. We were not informed that he has any history of physical violence. |  |

Simon has agreed to remain in hospital informally so that we can continue to assess him and monitor his progress with medication, his time off the ward can be negotiated with nursing staff, we would recommend that this is escorted on the first instance then if goes well can be unescorted. Simon has also agreed to take his medication as prescribed (5mg olanzapine nocte, 1mg lorazepam nocte), he presents as calm and amenable, willing to work with health professionals, denying thoughts to harm self and others. If Simon were to change his mind and decide to leave over the weekend, it would not be appropriate to detain him under 5(2) unless his presentation and risks changed. If Simon wishes to leave hospital and his presentation is unchanged, we would recommend that Simon be discharged with the HTT for follow up/monitoring/supervision with medication. (8) 26/08/2016, Friday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 26 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 09 Sep 2016 Sonya Rudra Page Numbers: 41 + 42 41 Originator Details: 26 Aug 2016 09:18 Sonya Rudra Medical Originally Entered by Details: 26 Aug 2016 09:19 Sonya Rudra Last Amended by Details: 09 Sep 2016 14:00 Sonya Rudra Validated by Details: 09 Sep 2016 14:00 Sonya Rudra Significant: No Added to Risk History: No Contains Third Party Info: No Conceal From Client: Not Concealed 42 Dr Mills discussion with Simon: He is keen to go home with HTT. Not Concealed Went to see Simon to explain changes to medication.

Explained that we will prescribe lorazepam only at night for now as he does not want to take it during the day.

I have explained that the consultant Dr Cranitch would like him to be started on 5mg olanzapine. The patient was unhappy about this and said he will not take the medication as he does not think he needs it. I have explained that despite this we will still prescribe it and offer it to him if he would like to take it. I have explained that it will be beneficial to improving his mental health.

|  | I felt well messed up my sleep pattern too tired to do anything, Dizzy, feeling sick, tangential irritable. (10) 23/08/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 1! Official Letter Me &amp; Mother to St Ann's Hospital. Page Numbers: 85,86 85 Mr Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Ave Enfield Middlesex EN3 7JQ 23/08/2016 To whom it may concern: I am writing this letter after speaking to Dr J Cranitch today 23/08/2016, I Believe that she is still under the impression that I have been charged at the police station on the 15/08/2016 for threats to kill and I have a court date of the 04/10/2016, My mother has contacted my solicitor to ask for them to write a letter to confirm that I have not been charged, which they will do and this will be ready by Friday. This is not the case as I told Dr Humphries on the 17/08/2016 I have not been interviewed by the police for this as of yet and have not been charged for anything by the police, the police was told when I was being held at the police station that I have CCTV which will prove this, as I did not leave my home on this day. In fact, when the police attended my home before I walked out of my flat the police realised that they were being recorded and ripped the wires out from my CCTV which there was no need to do if they did not have anything to hide. Also, when my mother and uncle came, they also recorded everything the police were doing. I did explain to Dr Humphries this and what went on in the police station thereafter when I was arrested. When at the police station I was not a risk to myself and never said anything that would have made the police think I was a risk to myself. I was left in my cell with all my clothing and shoes which included laces, if the police had any concerns of my welfare these would have been removed. | 10) On the //20 it is said that |

|  | As anyone would be, I was upset at being arrested for something I did not do when the mental health team came to my cell, I had been in the police station around 20+ hours. And all I wanted was to have my interview and be released so when I saw the mental health team and they asked me if I would talk to them I did not understand why they were there and said no due to just wanting my interview, my solicitor was there at this time. When talking to Dr J Cranitch she wanted me to agree to take my tablets which I agreed to do and work with them. When Dr J Cranitch asked me if I won my court tribunal would I be willing to stay in hospital voluntary. I was happy to say I was willing to work with the doctors. 86 Since 2014 when I had contact with the mental health team, I have never said I would hurt anyone or myself, I was only discharged from the early intervention team 3 months ago and if they had any concerns I would not have been discharged. RegardsSimon Cordell (11) 23/08/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 1!         Official Letter         Me &amp; Mother to St Ann's Hospital         Same as Page: 85,86         Page Numbers: 94,95 94         Mr Simon Cordell 109 Burncroft Ave Enfield         Middlesex EN3 7JQ 23/08/2016         To whom it may concern:         I am writing this letter after speaking to Dr J Cranitch today 23/08/2016, I Believe that she is still under the impression that I have been charged at the police station on the 15/08/2016 for threats to kill and I have a court date of the 04/10/2016, My mother has contacted my solicitor to ask for them to write a letter to confirm that I have not been charged, which they will do and this will be ready by Friday. | 11) On the //20 it is         said that |

This is not the case as I told Dr Humphries on the 17/08/2016 I have not been interviewed by the police for this as of yet and have not been charged for anything by the police, the police was told when I was being held at the police station that I have CCTV which will prove this, as I did not leave my home on this day.

In fact, when the police attended my home before I walked out of my flat the police realised that they were being recorded and ripped the wires out from my CCTV which there was no need to do if they did not have anything to hide. Also, when my mother and uncle came, they also recorded everything the police were doing.

I did explain to Dr Humphries this and what went on in the police station thereafter when I was arrested.

When at the police station I was not a risk to myself and never said anything that would have made the police think I was a risk to myself. I was left in my cell with all my clothing and shoes which included laces, if the police had any concerns of my welfare these would have been removed.

As anyone would be, I was upset at being arrested for something I did not do when the mental health team came to my cell, I had been in the police station around 20+ hours. And all I wanted was to have my interview and be released so when I saw the mental health team and they asked me if I would talk to them I did not understand why they were there and said no due to just wanting my interview, my solicitor was there at this time.

When talking to Dr J Cranitch she wanted me to agree to take my tablets which I agreed to do and work with them.

When Dr J Cranitch asked me if I won my court tribunal would I be willing to stay in hospital voluntary. I was happy to say I was willing to work with the doctors.

Since 2014 when I had contact with the mental health team, I have never said I would hurt anyone or myself, I was only discharged from the early intervention team 3 months ago and if they had any concerns I would not have been discharged.

|  | prompting and direction in order to discuss the matter at hand. 3. Simon told us that he has an Asbo for which he is due in court on 1st September. Spoke about some events that he had run several years ago, in 2013, organised a birthday party for someone he knew, which involved obtaining a gazebo which later turned out to be stolen property, and he was charged with this. 4. Described being under bail conditions for about a year which involved a curfew and a tag and having to attend a London office on a daily basis. Started working on festivals, describes various roles working in entertainment and events. Simon spoke at length about a business he wanted to reopen, and spent a lot of time researching into the legal situation. 5. Described going to GP. with anxiety in the past but didn't require any follow up, then described receiving phone calls from mental health services asking how he was, then 2 professionals (one called Sandra) came to his house for an assessment, Simon felt that this went ok and that someone was going to come and see him again in a months' time. 6. Simon has CCTV cameras up in his corridor and one inside his front door. Disagrees that this infringes anyone else's privacy despite the camera filming the communal corridor and outside the property. Told us that he likes to record himself in the flat as well in order to document 'like a journal what he is up to, and also appeared to refer to this several times as evidence of his innocence. Events around coming into hospital/progress. 7. Asked about threats to harm neighbour and her children, Simon denied this "I've been in children's homes my whole life, I would never harm a child" "I 100% did not make a threat". 8. Simon described a difficult situation with a previous neighbour "I had an altercation with another neighbour called Deborah Andrews who had a problem with alcohol". "Council moved her out of the property". She was trying to cause me problems, banging around the house and knocking on the door asking for money". |  |

|  | 9. On day of recent MHA, Simon was at home, a friend had visited him with new baby, friend left. Police arrived at the property, which Simon saw with his cameras. Police were responding to a call they had received about him making a threat against his neighbours, Simon disputes this allegation. 10. Q: Why would the neighbours say that? Simon feels this is because he had been playing music. 11. Simon spoke at length about the treatment he subsequently received in the police station. Simon feels strongly that the assessment was not adequate and not legal. 12. Dr Cranitch explained our assessment of his progress, that he had taken antianxiety drugs for the past few days. Dr Cranitch explained that she felt that Simon was not mentally well currently and that the treatment she advises is an antipsychotic medication called olanzapine. 13. Simon feels that he is able to think clearly, denied any his thoughts were being interfered with in any way. Listens to radio and tv, denied that he feels radio and tv are talking about him. Pressure of speech evident, overinclusive and rambling manner of speech, at times standing up to better express himself, difficult to interrupt, frequently referring to injustices and things done illegally against him, some of his thought content was grandiose in nature, spoke of having tens of thousands of Facebook friends and that his mum had gifted him 20million emails (contacts) for his business, that his mum also owns several business, mentioned a computer game company. It was unclear as to the veracity of these statements. Tribunal: Dr Cranitch explained the tribunal process and that the tribunal may decide to end the detention under Section 2. If section 2 stopped, Simon told us that he would consider staying in hospital for a bit longer. "Whatever it takes to get out of hospital so I can go out and look after other people". If Section 2 upheld we explained that we would want Simon to remain in hospital for a while longer and take medication to treat his mental illness. Reassured Simon that we want to help him get better. |  |

Medication:

Discussed medication, Simon referred to lots of different information from the internet about antipsychotics, a lot of which was factually incorrect. Simon agreed to trial a small dose of olanzapine 5mg - starting today.

Plan

1. Simon has agreed to take olanzapine 5mg nocte.
2. Give Simon some printed patient information about olanzapine from our intranet.
3. Continue to assess Simons mental state
4. Dr Cranitch intends to contact Simons mother later today.
5. Tribunal on Friday at 10:30am.

| I am a Locum Community Mental Health Nurse and allocated care co-ordinator to Mr Simon Cordell. I work for the Enfield Mental Health NHS Trust in partnership with the London Borough of Enfield, the local Social Services Authority that has statutory responsibility for providing after care to Mr Cordell under Section 117 when he leaves hospital. In preparing this report I had access to previous reports, nursing and medical notes on electronic data base - RiO. I had the opportunity to speak with Mr Cordell as his care co-ordinator. And with his consent, I spoke with his mother Mrs Loraine Cordell by telephone. Mr Simon Cordell prefers to be called by his first name, Simon. |                                                                                                                                          |

PERSONAL & FAMILY HISTORY

Mr Cordell was born at North Middlesex University Hospital. He has a younger brother and sister. Mr Cordell says he knows his maternal grandmother attempted suicide on a number of occasions and had had admissions to mental hospital. Mr Cordell's father worked as a union representative, and his mother ran her own computer company.

Mr Cordell says he did not get on well with his father who was a violent man. He was violent towards Mr Cordell, Mr Cordell's mother and siblings. Mr Cordell left home at the age of fifteen and was homeless for a while. He was placed in to care after stealing a pint of milk. He was placed in a series of children's care homes around the UK but says that each time he would steal a car and drive back to London. Mr Cordell said he was pushed hard to achieve at school by his father and that he was "an A-star student" for most of the time. He says he was intelligent and would do the work at other times and as a result would often just "mess about" in class. He went on to college and studied engine mechanics, completing a city &

|    | Simon was able to access community resources independently and had the ability and capacity to make some choices. He is competent in his activities of daily living skills. He plans to register a charity to raise funds to support causes dear to his heart. One of such causes is towards premature babies. He said his sister was born premature. The other is to help homeless people. AFTERCARE Simon lives on his own in a one-bedroom ground floor flat in Enfield. His mother is supportive and in constant contact with him. Enfield Council will have section 117 responsibilities and will provide the appropriate housing and care in the community. Simon will also have the support of an allocated care co-ordinator who will regularly monitor his mental state and concordance with medication. The team will offer Simon psychology assessment and or input; he will be seen and reviewed by psychiatrist regularly i.e. every 2-3 months or sooner if required. He will be offered interventions around concordance to medication, identifying triggers and relapse preventions. A referral to dual diagnosis worker will be offered. Simon will have access to groups such as social recovery and mental well-being and specialist services for vocational/occupation recovery. SIMON CORDELL 4 |  |

warm, welcoming, polite and co-operative throughout the meeting. He stated about half a dozen times that he is willing to work with the services and also willing to accept medication. It would be helpful if Simon will agree to stay in hospital to continue treatment as he appeared to have made good progress since admission. As part of the medical and nursing team I believe that Simon will benefit from staying in hospital for further assessment and continue treatment.

|  | 24.11.2013 | Mr Cordell is 35 years old. He lives alone in a one-bedroom flat. His mother is supportive and attended the hearing. Mr Cordell had a troubled adolescence with periods spent in care and was homeless for a while. Mr Cordell is not currently in paid employment, but he has ambitious plans to set up a company and a charitable organisation. He has a conviction for setting up illegal raves and is currently subject to an ASBO.                                                                                                                                         |
|  | 24.11.2013 | He has been known to psychiatric services since 2014 and has undergone a number of assessments of his mental health but these have found that he was not detainable. He was discharged by services after non engagement in February 2016. He has expressed persecutory beliefs about a neighbour, the police and, at times, his mother. In the context of these beliefs, he has put CCTV cameras outside his flat and it appears that a neighbour was rehoused after a disagreement with him but the exact circumstances were not clear. He has misused substances in the past. |
|  | 24.11.2013 | The factual details of the circumstances of the admission were not clear from the reports and the clinical team were not able to tell us whether or not he is on bail. It was Mr Cordell who furnished us with a notice from the police that he is on bail for an offence of threats to kill. He is not due to be interviewed until October. It is unclear who the alleged victim of the complaint is. He is adamant that he is not guilty of this                                                                                                                              |

Dr Mills suggested that there had been a possibility that Dr Cranitch, RC, had considered discharging him prior to the tribunal but on balance had decided not to. Dr Mills, having spoken to the RC, was of the view that detention was warranted given the degree of the disorder which is in their view a first episode psychosis. Mr Ahmed, a staff nurse on the ward, was of the view that it was the nature of the disorder that warranted detention. The care co-ordinator, Mr Adama, was of the view that the section should be discharged as Mr Cordell had been adamant that he would engage with services. Dr Mills and Mr Ahmed were concerned about his insight and the risk of non-compliance and deterioration. |  |
|  | Tribunal's conclusions with reasons | f) The tribunal is satisfied that Mr Cordell is suffering from a mental disorder. This is consistent with the signs and symptoms he has displayed which include a preoccupation with a business plan which is so ambitious and far reaching that it can be described as grandiose thinking. He has been working unceasingly on these plans and is in all likelihood suffering from a stress reaction. He has very limited insight. Mr Cordell has never accepted treatment. We were unable to find that the signs or symptoms have responded to treatment or that they had deteriorated in the absence of treatment. Any problems that he has had with neighbours and his beliefs about persecution at the hands of the police appear to be longstanding. Despite these beliefs he has lived in the same place for 11 years. He has convictions but these do not relate to violence and are in connection with driving offences as a youth and with organising an illegal rave. He has been assessed before and not been found to be detainable. h) The tribunal is not satisfied that the degree of the disorder warrants detention. He was thought disordered on admission, but these symptoms have settled. He poses no management problems. He is compliant with treatment, and he gets on well with staff and patients. He was angry with his mother, but she is visiting and supports his discharge. He may not accept that he has a mental disorder but states that he is willing to engage with the assessment. He has stated that if the procedures are carried out properly, he will abide by them. We accepted his evidence. |  |

We are satisfied that it is at least likely that he will continue to comply with treatment either as a voluntary patient or in the community. In any event he has never accepted treatment in the past and until recently has found not to be detainable. It was not clear that there had been a deterioration. He is on bail but the police are not due to interview him until October 2016. We had his forensic history. We were not informed that he has any history of physical violence. j) We did not use our discretionary grounds for discharge. |  |

|  | mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. With the concern of my well-being due to the doctors enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me. (22) 27/08/2016, The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 Tracey Jordan Nursing Page Numbers: 38 + 39 38 | 22) On the //20 it is said that |

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi

I have enclosed 2 letters that could help to show my son won't leave his flat he had a DWP assessment and a letter had to be written to his GP to ask if the GP could write a letter to get a home assessment please see both letters. It will also be noted on his file under the mental health team he won't leave his flat. And I cannot understand how you said on the phone today that you knew nothing on my son's health, as clearly it is in the limited subject access request, I got from Enfield Council under the ASB teams' information as you requested if he was known to the mental health team. Information you have asked for please see below:

Barnet, Enfield and Haringey Mental Health NHS Trust The doctors name he was under when he was sectioned in August 2016, Dr Julia Cranitch, Haringey Assessment Ward, St Ann's Hospital. When he left hospital, he was under the Home treatment team support and referral to community team.

As stated on the phone I have many emails to backup that complaints were put in on behalf of my son regarding what the neighbours was doing, well before any complaints was put in by the neighbours, yet nothing was done by Enfield Council, each email even states the neighbours was not letting him sleep and this was having a large impact on his health, this is what has upset me so much, as phone calls was being made emails sent, even my son was making calls, but you seem to have nothing of anything that was submitted so where has it all gone, please can you look into this and get back to me as I really do not understand how so much can be missing from Enfield Councils systems?

I am grateful that you called me back today and we were able to speak, sorry if I sounded loader on the phone but since the operation as I said my voice and throat are very sore, I believe due to the tube they put down them when they were doing the 2nd operation. I am grateful that you will deal with this and you cancelled tomorrow's meeting when we spoke, and you seemed to have some idea of what was going on which you seem to have not known before, I will await a reply from you as to how we can deal with this.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Dear Ms Cordell,

Thanks for your email. I sorry to hear learn that you have been unwell, I wish you speedy recovery. The first letter I wrote to Mr Cordell was dated 29 November 2016 and not 29 December so apologies for the mistake and the first meeting were 6 December 2016 and not 6 January 2017 as you stated in your email below. I am not aware that Mr Cordell is unable to leave his flat due to health reasons as he has not provided us with a letter from his Doctor to support this claim. Also, when Mr Cordell telephoned me on 17 February 2017 following my letter to him dated 16 February 2017, he informed me that he will not come to the Civic Centre or the council offices in Edmonton Green because there are gang members looking for him in these areas. I cannot recall him saying anything about him not being able to leave his flat due to health reasons. Also, Mr Cordell chased my car down the road when I went to deliver my last letter to his flat on 17 March 2017, this is not the attitude of someone who cannot leave his flat for health reasons. I am inviting Mr Cordell to a formal meeting to discuss the allegations made against him and due to the serious nature of the allegations, the meeting will have been held in the council offices with a minute taker present. However, if Mr Cordell presents a letter from his doctor stating that he is unable to leave his flat for health reason, then we can discuss an alternative venue. I am happy for Mr Cordell to bring someone with him to the meeting.

Kind Regards

Dear Lemmy Nwabuisi

I'd like to apologise for the late reply to this email, I've just come out of hospital after undergoing two operations and only got released from hospital late on the 17 March 2017. You stated in your letter to Mr Cordell, that the first letter you wrote was dated 29 December 2016, and that you set a meeting for 6 December 2016 this is incorrect, as the date for the meeting was set for 6 January 2017, yes this meeting was cancelled, you've then stated you wrote a letter on 31 January 2017 to arrange a meeting for 9 February 2017, this meeting was also cancelled, the reason these two meetings were cancelled was due to the ongoing complaint that was being addressed by Enfield council that still needs addressing but due to the data that came back from the subject access request and it not being completed properly this letter still needs to be reply to, there was also a

| 24.11.2013            | Mr Cordell is 35 years old. He lives alone in a one-bedroom flat. His mother is supportive and attended the hearing. Mr Cordell had a troubled adolescence with periods spent in care and was homeless for a while. Mr Cordell is not currently in paid employment, but he has ambitious plans to set up a company and a charitable organisation. He has a conviction for setting up illegal raves and is currently subject to an ASBO.                                                                                                                                         |  |
| 24.11.2013            | He has been known to psychiatric services since 2014 and has undergone a number of assessments of his mental health but these have found that he was not detainable. He was discharged by services after non engagement in February 2016. He has expressed persecutory beliefs about a neighbour, the police and, at times, his mother. In the context of these beliefs, he has put CCTV cameras outside his flat and it appears that a neighbour was rehoused after a disagreement with him but the exact circumstances were not clear. He has misused substances in the past. |  |

It was Mr Cordell who furnished us with a notice from the police that he is on bail for an offence of threats to kill. He is not due to be interviewed until October. It is unclear who the alleged victim of the complaint is. He is adamant that he is not guilty of this charge. Further, the report from the care co-ordinator stated it was his mother who called the police but this was adamantly denied by Mrs Cordell. The care co-ordinator corrected his report to clarify that Mr Cordell is not awaiting trial for burglary. |  |

He would stay voluntarily, and he is happy to continue with treatment and to see the team in the community. He does not accept a diagnosis of mental disorder but has stated that he will take treatment on the advice of the team. His mother thought that he has reacted to stress in the past and that he has been working very hard on his project. f) The clinical team were not unanimous in their view. Dr Mills suggested that there had been a possibility that Dr Cranitch, RC, had considered discharging him prior to the tribunal but on balance had decided not to. Dr Mills, having spoken to the RC, was of the view that detention was warranted given the degree of the disorder which is in their view a first episode psychosis. Mr Ahmed, a staff nurse on the ward, was of the view that it was the nature of the disorder that warranted detention. The care co-ordinator, Mr Adama, was of the view that the section should be discharged as Mr Cordell had been adamant that he would engage with services. Dr Mills and Mr Ahmed were concerned about his insight and the risk of non-compliance and deterioration. |  |

We accepted his evidence. n) The tribunal's decision on the first limb of the act meant that we were not bound to consider the risks other than as to how they related to the current degree of the disorder. We are satisfied that it is at least likely that he will continue to comply with treatment either as a voluntary patient or in the community. In any event he has never accepted treatment in the past and until recently has found not to be detainable. It was not clear that there had been a deterioration. He is on bail but the police are not due to interview him until October 2016. We had his forensic history. We were not informed that he has any history of physical violence. o) We did not use our discretionary grounds for discharge. |  |

A version of an event that took place; Then more pain arrived; Medication. Months later once I got released back to my home Carron Dunno continued to watch me suffer for her lies made to the police, as the mental health, home team as they monitored me at home address after the hospital tribunal, in knowing that on the 14th August 2016. I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. With the concern of my well-being due to the doctors enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was | RIO notes no email! 1) On the //20 it is said that | got asked to reply to an email sent to myself by my solicitor firm via:

michael@michaelcarrollandco.com;

which I did and as of this date

20/09/2016

I still have not had a response from Michael Carroll in relation towards this, neither has my mum had a reply to a vast majority of the email's that she has also sent, my mother got an email from Ms Word with an attached that got sent to the court, with an application to get taken off the record regarding the Appeal listed for this would still mean once again my appeal date would get vacated until this issue got resolved to no fault of my own. On the my solicitor also tried to get taken off the record for this case, which got denied by the court I have since gotten told that the only reason my solicitor is still acting for me is due to the regard and respect for my mother in received correspondence and the only issue I take with this is I believe she should be there to have my best interest at heart.

26th September 2016

Dear Josey / Michael

I am writing this email due to an email that got received today in receipt from Josey. Today when I spoke on the phone to Josie as she called my phone I explained to her that I have no internet at home, so I could not login to my emails and therefore could not read what she had sent, Josey then asked me to contact my mother to tell me what was in the email. Since this has happened, I have asked my mother to write this email to you confirming the below. Josey has asked me to agree to an assessment, by a Psychiatrist; I do not see the need as I am not mentally ill. I know this as I was just recently assessed on the under section 2 of the mental health act 1983 and then released due to a decision being made at a Tribunal that I had on the

the Tribunal did not find me mentally, ill to carry on holding me under a section. When I got assessed under section two, I prior got arrested for wrongful claims. Michael Carroll should already be aware as his company is my acting solicitor firm for the ongoing. I still have not gotten interviewed by the police and will I will prove that I did nothing wrong, due to CCTV being requested, also in interview I will prove the same, on the date of when I return to the police station: the

In the time I spent inside of the Hospital I took part in an assessment and the conclusion was I am of good mind body and soul, OK. I agreed after the assessment to get mentored on release, which is at its end of period, this got managed wrongfully, under a section 117 of the Mental Health Act 1983, the reason being that it was wrong is: Under a section two as I understand I did not have to approve to carry on with the Home Treatment care facilities, as only section 3 requires this to happen but even low I got forced into agreeing to this. No one has had any concerns with me since, as I am not of a concern, reassuring to all the state of my mental stability. In me taking other assessments prior to this and the same conclusion got found I have never been unwell with mental health issues of concern, I feel at this late stage of my Appeal due to lack of disclosure that there is not any time left to prepare my defence, I have had no meeting with my barrister for the appeal and there is less than a week till the appeal to start, I feel it is common sense that asking for an assessment will only put my Appeal off and this is unfair, as the start of the ongoing was 2014, I have only ever asked for things to get done for my Appeal and case with no disrespect for any other person, which I know should have got completed in good time. I never got rude or disrespectful towards my solicitor I have only ever asked for things to get completed fair and right, so to get achieved in good time for the Appeal; I can send you the copy of the tribunal release from the section 2 if needed.

14th August 2016.

I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. With the concern of my well-being due to the doctors enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and

A version of an event that took place; Then more pain arrived; Medication. Months later once I got released back to my home Carron Dunno continued to watch me suffer for her lies made to the police, as the mental health, home team as they monitored me at home address after the hospital tribunal, in knowing that on the 14th August 2016. I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the Home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. |  | enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me. (2) 27/08/2016, Saturday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 Neli Avramova Medical Page Numbers: 39 39 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 13:27 Neli Avramova Medical Originally Entered by Details: 27 Aug 2016 13:46 Neli Avramova Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 13:46 Neli Avramova Validated by Details: 27 Aug 2016 13:46 | 2) On the //20 it is said that |

ATSP, asking to self-discharge Hx and BG noted. Handover from ward doctor received and advised that pt is not detainable unless presentation massively changed.

Simon is keen to be discharged today, he wants to visit his civil partner, take his dog out for a walk and "get back to normal". He also intends to go to AED for? CXR of his distal phalange of L small finger which he believes to be broken following an accident on the ward - slipped in the bathroom. Advised by staff that this was examined by duty doctor and it was felt it is unlikely to be a fracture. He admits that he has benefited from his stay on the ward but feels that no further IP stay is necessary as he would feel much more comfortable at home. He initially suggested to go home today, stay overnight and return to the ward. The plan from the day team was for pt to go out on escorted leave with staff and then gradually increase his leave and let him go out alone. He refused going out with staff due to "embarrassment" of walking with staff if he is seen by his neighbours/friends.

I asked if he would be happy to be visited by HTT at home on discharge and he agreed. He confirmed he is happy to take his meds and to engage with HTT. He denied any suicidal thoughts or thoughts of self-harm, denied thoughts of harming others. Denied any hallucinatory experiences.

A version of an event that took place; Then more pain arrived; Medication. Months later once I got released back to my home Carron Dunno continued to watch me suffer for her lies made to the police, as the mental health, home team as they monitored me at home address after the hospital tribunal, in knowing that on the14th August 2016. I never went into my back garden as she stated on that day and at the begging of being released from the hospital, I had to continue to keep my word in a letter that I wrote stating that I would work alongside the mental health team's workers. Without choose, I had to allow them access to my home address every day at first and let their doctors believe that I had taken the medication that I then got prescribed, even low I understand the home treatment team and doctors was wrong in forcing them upon myself. |  | enforcing their trades upon me I decided that it be best for me to attempt too overwhelmingly explain my feelings and legal position about being forced medication blind or without a pilaff and so forth to the Mental Health Teams employees in charge of my case and they still continued to impose the medication wrongly, against me. I, known for fact the doctors continued to mislead me into that if I never took their treatment they would again take me back into their care, I knew this to be illegal as I had only gotten placed under a section 2 assessment which does not give the grounds for a doctor to impose a section 117 on any person for home treatment, a section 3 must get implied under the mental health act 1963 and it had not for this to happen against my will, after some explaining it was agreed that I was right and the visits and medication finally, got stopped, as right in my favour. The tablets were making me ill, and I complained about them doing this every day, still however throughout the whole period while in their care I claimed to take the medication and funny on the otherwise; the doctors claimed that the medication had made me better, but thought I strongly, agreed with my assessment of myself and the medication should not have got given to me, nor could of it of had a positive impact on me. (2) 27/08/2016, Saturday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 Mary Doherty Page Numbers: 40 Originator Details: 27 Aug 2016 05:55 Mary Doherty Nursing Originally Entered by Details: 27 Aug 2016 06:07 Mary Doherty Last Amended by Details: 27 Aug 2016 06:07 Mary Doherty Validated by Details: 27 Aug 2016 06:07 Mary Doherty Significant: No Added to Risk | 2) On the //20 it is said that |

Preoccupied with that his psychiatric report from 25/8/16 is not very correct. Said that there are few paragraphs, which wrongly explained how he was detained. Said that he had been detained illegally and was placed in hospital for no reasons. He also denied making any threats to neighbours, denied any mental health problems. Said he has a CD as a prove, that the police was acting incorrectly. However, he said he is willing to work with HTT and will take medication. Simon expressed delusional thoughts about running a company at home. Second home visit this evening to supply medication - I left medication for this evening Said he is going to take it later, as he was busy at the moment. Plan: discuss if HTT to supply all TTA's or to supervise medication every evening. (3) 01/09/2016, Thursday "A Letter that I received" I am writing this letter because you are no longer subject to compulsory under the Mental Health Act 1983 And Enfield Mental Health Team! The method of discharge by: MHT the discharge date was the: 26/08/206. This was after I got illegally detained because Carron Dunno and Stain Curtis set me up with a load of lies to cover up all the banging and victimising me that stain Curtis had already done. (4) 01/09/2016, Thursday The Doctor's Folder / pub Book Issue: 5! Stage 5 Folder 5 | 3) On the //20 it is said that 4) On the //20 it is said that |
