

When making a claim for past damages, it's important to provide realistic and justifiable calculations. Calculating potential lost wages based on 24 hours a day wouldn't be considered realistic or fair, as it doesn't reflect a typical schedule and may not be accepted by authorities or courts reviewing your case. Here's a more reasonable approach to calculate potential lost wages:

1. Average Work Hours: Use a standard workweek of 40 hours (or another reasonable amount based on your estimate of your potential earnings).
2. Overtime: If you typically worked overtime, could you add a reasonable amount of extra hours per week. For additional 10-15 hours of overtime per week at an overtime pay rate (often 1.5 times the regular rate).
3. Multiple Jobs: If you would have taken on extra jobs, estimate the additional income based on industry standard hours for those roles.

Example Calculation

Let's assume:

- Average Work Hours: 40 hours per week
- Overtime: 10 hours per week (at 1.5 times the regular rate)
- Regular Pay: £15/hour

Weekly Earnings:

- Regular Hours: 40 hours * £15/hour = £600
- Overtime Hours: 10 hours * (£15 * 1.5) = £225

Total Weekly Earnings: £600 (regular) + £225 (overtime) = £825

Annual Earnings:

- £825 * 52 weeks = £42,900

This approach provides a realistic estimate of potential lost wages, considering regular hours, overtime, and additional jobs.

This document outlines calculations and claims for compensation due to Mr. Simon Paul Cordell's Forged Criminal Record.

Summary of Key Points

1.

Realistic Wage Calculations:

- It suggests using standard workweeks and reasonable overtime to calculate potential lost wages, instead of unemployment hour calculations.
- Example calculations are provided based on different job types like Retail Assistant, Construction Worker, Office Assistant, and others, with historical minimum wage rates.

2. Business Losses:

- The document details business losses for "Too Smooth Entertainment Company," including potential revenue, variable costs, and lost opportunities.
- The impact of COVID-19 on revenue for 2020 and 2021 is also considered.

3. Personal and Professional Impact:

- Reputation Damage: The forged criminal record caused significant damage to personal and professional reputation, opportunities and trust.
- Health and Emotional Impact: Medical expenses for injuries, stress, and anxiety, as well as long-term care costs.
- Support Services: Seeking private services for trustable support due to negative past experiences with previous providers.
- Impact on Relationships: The emotional toll led to isolation and reduced social support.

4. Damaged Goods and Property:

- Home and Personal Belongings: Damage due to police raids, including broken doors, windows, electronics, and furniture.
- Company Property: Damage to office equipment, inventory, and the loss of the company's online presence.

5. Legal Expenses:

- Detailed legal expenses, including litigation costs, additional legal fees, and monthly fixed costs for maintaining legal representation and living expenses.

6. Travel Defense Work:

- Travel-related costs for attending court sessions and addressing wrongful detainments.

7. Torture Element:

- Harassment by police, council, and mental health services, causing severe impairment to work and normal life.

8.

Publishing Rights:

- Selling publishing rights of related intellectual property to mitigate financial losses and raise awareness of the forged criminal records.

9. Calculation of Compensation and Business Losses:

- Overview of salary expectations for high-ranking positions and the long-term losses due to fraudulent activity
- Potential salaries and business losses are calculated to provide a basis for compensation claims.

Conclusion

The document provides a comprehensive framework for assessing compensation claims due to the significant impact of the forged criminal record on personal, professional, and financial aspects.

Subject: Claim for Compensation Due to Forged Criminal Record and Business Losses

Dear Valued Teams

Subject: Receipt for Compensation Due to Forged Criminal Record and Business Losses

I am writing to formally submit a claim for compensation due to the severe and prolonged impact of a forged criminal record, which has resulted in significant financial and emotional suffering over the past 27 years. The forged record has prevented me from securing employment, building my own company, and has subjected me to continuous police harassment. We have included the business losses suffered to Mr. Simon Paul Cordell's estate. Below, I have outlined the detailed calculations of the potential lost wages, business losses, and other damages incurred from 1997 to the present.

Reason for Claim

The forged criminal record has caused:

FEES ABOUT PERSON

1. Reputation Damage:

- The fabricated record has caused irreparable damage to my personal and professional reputation, leading to a significant decline in opportunities and trust from potential employers and clients. **£.

1. My Personal Health and Future Impact

- Medical Fees: [Specify the amount] incurred due to injuries sustained, including ongoing treatment and rehabilitation related to stress and anxiety caused by this situation. **£.
- Future Impact Fees and Expenses: This includes potential medical expenses and any long-term care or support services, as well as emotional distress experienced. **£.

1. Support Services:

- Due to past negative experiences with previous support services, I have not engaged with them to an extent where it would be logical to trust them. The damage caused has made it difficult to consider them as a viable option. However, a private option may be considered in the future if it is affordable, and trust can be established. As a result, I am now seeking private services that I can trust, which will incur expenses totalling £.

1. Emotional and Psychological Impact:

- The distress and anxiety caused by this situation have significantly affected my quality of life, mental health, and ability to pursue my professional goals, resulting in ongoing psychological suffering. £.

1. Impact on Relationships:

- The emotional toll and stigma associated with the forged record have adversely affected my personal relationships, leading to isolation and reduced social support. £.

1. Variable Costs:

- £15,000 in variable costs comprising supplies and resources essential for securing employment opportunities that are currently unattainable due to the circumstances.

FEES FOR DAMAGED GOODS AND LOSSES PERSONAL PROPERTY

1. Home Damage:

- The police raids and harassment have caused extensive damage to my home, including broken doors, windows, cameras, and other structural damage. The estimated cost of repairs is £.

1. Personal Belongings:

- During the raids, several personal belongings were damaged or destroyed, including electronics, furniture, and other personal items such as clothing. The estimated cost to replace these items is £.

FEES COMPANY PROPERTY

1. Office Equipment:

- The police actions have resulted in damage to office equipment, including computers, printers, and other essential devices. The estimated cost to replace or repair these items is £.

1. Inventory:

- The raids have also led to the destruction of inventory, including party supplies, equipment, and other products. The estimated cost to replace the inventory is £.

1. Website and Online Presence:

- The disruption caused by the police has led to the loss of my company's online presence, including the website and digital marketing efforts. The estimated cost to rebuild and restore the website and online presence is £.

POTENTIAL ANNUAL REVENUE LOSS

1. Estimated Revenue:

- £50,000 based on a combination of pro-bono work and potential client charges that I have missed due to the criminal record stemming from my forged record.

1. Client Database Value, Damaged:

- Valuation of my client database at £5,000, reflecting the potential revenue that could have been generated if I did not have the hindrance of a criminal record.

Professional Licensing Complications:

- If applicable, the forged record may impact my ability to renew or obtain necessary professional licenses or certifications, resulting in additional fees and time lost. Estimated costs: £.

1. Market Position Loss:

- The forged record has hindered my ability to compete effectively in my professional field, driving clients to competitors and diminishing market position, potentially leading to a long-term revenue impact of £.

1. Lost Opportunities:

- Estimated loss of £20,000 due to missed job contracts, professional development opportunities, and other avenues my record not been forged.

1. Potential Annual Revenue:

- £50,000 (based on pro bono work and potential charges)

LEGAL EXPENSES

1. Litigation Costs:

- Legal fees incurred while attempting to rectify the forged record amounting to £3,000.

1. Additional Legal Fees and Taxes:

- Anticipated costs associated with ongoing legal representation and other related expenses.

1. Fixed Costs:

- Monthly fixed costs amounting to £10,000 for maintaining basic living expenses and operations, which include

- Total Amount Requested: **£

TORTURE ELEMENT

1. Police Council and Mental Health Services Harassment, Including Unauthorized Involvement of Neigh

- I have experienced relentless harassment from the police, which has severely impaired my ability to work and maintain a normal life.

THE SELLING OF COPYRIGHTS

1. Addendum: Selling of Publishing Rights

- As part of my ongoing efforts to mitigate the financial losses and emotional distress caused by the forged criminal record, I am also seeking to sell the publishing rights of any related intellectual property I have developed over these years. This intellectual property includes, but is not limited to, written documents, research, and potential creative content that outline my experience with the injustices stemming from the fabricated record.
- The decision to sell these publishing rights arises from the need to secure additional financial resources to cover overwhelming costs associated with the claim detailed above. It will also serve to raise awareness of the impacts of forged criminal records on individuals and their families, potentially aiding others who may find themselves in similar unfortunate situations.

1. Justification for Sale:

a) Financial Recovery:

- The sale of these publishing rights is aimed at recouping a portion of my lost income, allowing me to cover ongoing legal fees, medical expenses, and other related costs.

a) Awareness Raising:

By publishing my story, I intend to shed light on the serious ramifications of such injustices, contributing to public discourse and possibly offering support to others impacted by similar circumstances.

a) Reputation Rehabilitation:

- This move is also part of my broader objective to rehabilitate my personal narrative and restore my reputation both the personal and professional spheres.

1. Estimated Value:

- The value of the publishing rights will be determined by market research and based on the anticipated interest of potential publishers or platforms that resonate with the themes of my experiences. I am currently exploring opportunities for collaboration with interested parties to ensure that my story can be told with the respect and visibility it deserves.
- I kindly urge the “Accused As Liable” to consider the financial implications associated with the sale of these rights and appropriate compensation. The ongoing damages I have suffered due to the forged criminal record, as outlined, have resulted in not only immediate financial hardship but also significant long-term impacts that require appropriate restitution.

CALCULATION OF COMPENSATION AND BUSINESS LOSSES (INCLUDING OVERTIME)

1. Overview Of Salary Expectations and Those Business Losses:

- In the context of potential employment and compensation in the United Kingdom, particularly for high-ranking positions, here are key salary benchmarks: -- a)

Being the next President or Mayor and on such a salary in the United Kingdom:

1) Potential Salary: The Mayor of London earns around £150,000 per year.

a) Being One of The Top Eight Paid Police Officers In The United Kingdom:

1) Potential Salary: Senior police officers generally earn between £100,000 and £150,000 per year.

a) Being One of The Top Eight Paid Enfield Council Officers in The United Kingdom:

1) Potential Salary: Senior council officers can earn similar to senior police officers, often ranging from £100,000 to £150,000 per year.

a) Being On a Top Doctor's Salary in The United Kingdom:

1) Potential Salary: Top doctors, such as consultants in specialized fields, can earn over £150,000 per year.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT OF WAGE CALCULATIONS (1996-2025)

1. Wage Calculations:

● To provide further context, I have analysed real time wage scenarios from 1997 to 2003, particularly focusing on 1996, before the implementation of the National Minimum Wage, and the subsequent increases in minimum wage rates up to 2025.

1. Summary of Potential Losses

- As per the historical wage scenarios and the calculated wages of various positions, the long-term losses due to employment disruption caused by fraudulent activity are significant. Given the potential salaries of leadership roles I would have achieved, I argue for substantial compensation reflecting the income I would have earned based on market conditions and my professional capabilities.
- This analysis provides a solid framework for assessing my compensation and losses due to interruptions in my career trajectory, emphasizing the disparities between potential identity and actual experiences.
- In summary, the potential salaries of prominent roles in the UK, alongside the fluctuations and advancements in wage regulations over time, provides a strong foundation for justifying claims for compensation. The historical data not only supports the expected income levels but also underscores the financial impact of any disruptions faced in my professional path.

1996-

1996-1999: No National Minimum Wage

1996: 15 years old

- Minimum Wage Hypothetical: £3.00/hour
- Daily Wage: £3.00/hour * 8 hours = £24.00/day
- Overtime: 10 hours/week at 1.5x = £45/week
- Annual Overtime: £45 * 52 weeks = £2,340/year
- Annual Wage (with overtime): £8,760 + £2,340 = £11,100/year

Job Types:

- Retail Assistant: £10,000 + £2,340 = £12,340/year
- Construction Worker: £12,000 + £2,340 = £14,340/year
- Office Assistant: £14,000 + £2,340 = £16,340/year
- Self-employed Catering Trailer Owner: £20,000 + £5,000 (additional work/overtime) = £25,000/year
- Self-employed Web Developer and SEO: £25,000 + £10,000 (additional work/overtime) = £35,000/year

1996 is not calculated in the total at the bottom at the present time! + £16,340/year

● Mr. Simon Paul Cordell, mother ran a successful company called "Computer Contracts," where she special services and more. Her business thrived, but unfortunately, she had to invest an overwhelming amount of time dealing with police harassment directed at me. This ultimately took a toll on the company. If it hadn't been for the relentless harassment cause by the police, as indicated by the PNC printout and ACRO reports faced by Mr. S. P. for everyone around him and with his salary which was earned.

- The total compensation for the loss of income and suffering from 1997 to 2024 is £1,631,091.20.

Additional Notes of importance are:

1+. The claimant's mother, who has also been adversely affected by the negligence of the 13 government companies, has been asked to state her opinion on the claimant's decision to forgo her own claim for compensation. She has magnanimously stated that if her son receives the full requested sum of money, she will graciously refrain from pursuing her own claim for compensation. This selfless act demonstrates her unwavering belief in the fairness and just resolution of the matter. By putting aside her personal grievances for the greater good, she exemplifies an admirable character that not only seeks rightful restitution but also seeks to contribute to the overall well-being of all parties involved. Her decision showcases a remarkable sense of empathy and understanding, elevating this case to one of exceptional and commendable circumstances.

2+. I owned an entertainment company and invested significantly in building an expensive website and purchasing equipment. Unfortunately, the police illegally stopped me from trading just as the business was starting to take off. Several years have passed, and I am now claiming damages. The website sold products for parties and supplied equipment ranging from amps to speakers. It also offered supplies and services. I built a substantial client database and provided entertainment for birthday parties while fostering a sense of community. We also held community events, with the ultimate goal of organizing a major international festival. The website, Too Smooth, is no longer fully operational as it became too costly to maintain while my human rights were being infringed. Some features included a community forum based on a model constitution of rights, which served as a replacement for our local community halls that were closing down. Another department, the shopping center, aimed to provide opportunities and aspects that would help the festival flourish.

. Due to the company's early stages, much of the work was pro bono until licensing was fully secured for major events and private birthday parties. The company, "Too Smooth," held events in collaboration with my local council but was not allowed to charge for these events as they were held under a temporary event notice that permitted up to 500 people, including staff, with no fees allowed. The private birthday parties we organized fell on friends and family helping me out. The first category of house parties was held in private homes and rented halls arranged by the clients themselves. I provided entertainment for free but recovered some of my costs. The second category of house parties was less complex, as they were offered for free to build a long-term client base. As the website was being developed, the police placed an illegal ASBO on me, preventing me from trading in the entertainment company. They claimed that I could only hire to the wealthy and not to the poor who were allowed to squat.

- We trust that you will give due consideration to our requests and take appropriate action in these matters.

Conclusion

In total, I am seeking compensation for the outlined damages and losses, which amount to a comprehensive recalibration of my situation, both financially and emotionally, after enduring this injustice for 27 years so, I kindly request that you review my claim and provide the appropriate compensation for the financial and emotional suffering I have endured due to the forged criminal record. I have attached all relevant documents and evidence to support my claim.
