7 August at 01:23

Adam Islington Plus with the email a prisoner the mail gets given out daily...when normal mail sometime's gets held back and sometime's destroyed if the screws don't like ya. The emails are always given out as theirs proof it was sent. And obviously don't write nothing incriminating lol.
1 · 7 August at 11:56

Adam Islington The same as what you did for fb. It's easy. And try not to be about anyone that's been blazing it up, as the smell can stay on clothes for ages. I had a few visits messed about with as they said the dogs indicated on my visitors, and had to have closed visits.
7 August at 12:03

Adam Islington If they do say anything just say it was a bunch of kids in the stairway of your flats or at bus stop smoking.
7 August at 12:04

Neil Jay Spooner Defo don't have a drink either, had visitors turned away cos they had beer with lunch!
7 August at 12:10
