

Lambeth Halloween rave: police seek help to trace 49 people

Detectives investigating the riot that broke out in the streets close to an illegal rave in Lambeth last autumn have published a gallery of 49 images of people they would like to identify.

Officers from the Met's public order investigation unit are appealing for help to identify 49 people who are wanted for questioning in connection with violent disorder at an illegal rave at the disused London Fire Brigade workshop in Whitgift Street on the evening of Halloween 31 October 2015.

54 people have already been identified and arrested in connection with the incident.

The full gallery of images is on the Met Police website.

Anyone with information that may assist in identifying or locating these people should call police on 020 8246 0076 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 quoting the image reference number.
