Dear Ms Cordell

Unfortunately, your request for your personal data has been referred to the Directorate of Legal Services in error. This Directorate does not process requests of this type. We have notified the team responsible for dealing with these requests, and they will continue to manage the response to your request on behalf of the Metropolitan Police Service.

For the avoidance of doubt, s35 of the Data Protection Act 1998 does not provide a right of access to your personal data distinct from the subject access rights under s7. S35 is an exemption which relates solely to the non-disclosure provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998. It does not relate to the subject information provisions.

We are sorry if the erroneous referral of your request to this Directorate has caused any confusion. Any queries or concerns which you may have about the progress of your request should be raised with the Information Rights Unit at DPAMailbox-.SAR@met.pnn.police.uk. Any further correspondence received by this Directorate in relation to this matter will be forwarded to that mailbox."

Dear Anna Sokol and Gary Quan

I have just spoken to the ICO and they have told me to put a case into them, as i have asked for an update and not been given one.

I have been told by the ICO there is strict guidelines on the 40 day limits given to comply with the request staffing issues does not bare any weight to be outside the 40 day guidelines.

Due to me needing this information due to a court case the ICO will be able to process my dispute much earlier then they would do due to this reason.

I read the email you sent me and the ICO believe it is very un-professional for an email to be sent like this when the guidelines for SAR are very clear.
